To all the ignorant, carnal, and ungodly, who are Lovers of Pleasure more than God, and seek this World more than the Life everlasting, and live after the Flesh, and not after the Spirit, these Calls and Counsels are directed, in Hope of their Conversion to God, and of their Salvation.

He that hath an Ear to hear, let him hear.

Miserable Soul!

There is that Life, and Light, and Love, in every true Believer, but especially in every faithful Minister of Christ, which engageth them to long and labour for your Salvation. Life is communicative and active; it maketh us sensible that Faith is not a Fantasy, nor true Religion a Stage-play, nor our Hopes of eternal Happiness a Dream. And, as we desire Nothing more for ourselves than to have more of the holy Life, (which we have, alas! in so small a Measure,) so what is it we should more desire for others? With the Eye of an infallible (though too weak) Faith, we see the Heaven which you neglect, and the blessed Souls in Glory with Christ, whose Companions you might be for ever. We see the Multitudes of Souls in Hell, who came thither in the same Way that you are going in, who are shut out of the glorious Presence of God, and are now among those Devils that deceived them, remembering that they had their good Things here, Luke xvi. 25. and how they spent the Day of their Visitation, and how light they once set by God, by Christ, by Heaven, by Mercy, whilst Mercy was an earnest Solicitor for their Hearts: And, with our bodily Eyes, we see at the same Time Abundance of poor Sinners living.
about us as if there were no God, no Christ, no Heaven, no Hell, no Judgement, no, nor any Death, to be expected; as if a Man were but a Master beast, to rule the Reit, and feed upon and perish with them. And, if it were your own Case, to see what Souls do in Heaven and Hell, and at once to see how unbelievingly, carelessly, and senselessly, most Men live on Earth, as if there were no such difference in another World, would it not seem a pitiful Sight to you? If you had once seen the five Brethren of Dives on Earth, eating, drinking, laughing, and merry, clothed, and faring daily with the best, and at the same Time seen their Brother's Soul in Hell, begging in vain for a little Ease, and wishing that one from the dead might go warn them, that they come not to that Place of Torment, would it not seem to you a pitiful Sight? Would not Pity have made you think, Is there no Way to open these Gentlemen's Eyes? No Way to acquaint them what is become of their Brother, and where Lazarus is, and whether they themselves are going? No one driveth or forceth them to Hell, and will they go thiser of themselves? And is there no Way to stop them or keep them back? Did you but see yourselves what we see by Faith, (believing God,) and at once behold the Saints in Heaven, the lost despairing Souls in Hell, and the senseless sensual Sinners on Earth, that yet will lay none of this to Heart, surely it would make you wonder at the Stupidity of Mankind. Would you not say, O what a Deceiver is the Devil, that can thus lead on Souls to their own Damnation! O what a Cheat is this transitory World, that can make Men so forget the World where they must live for ever! O what an Enemy is this Flesh, that thus draweth down Mens Souls from God! O what a besotting Thing is Sin, that turneth a reasonable Soul into worse than a Beast! What a Bedlam is this wicked World, when Thousands are so busy, labouring to undo themselves and others, and gratifying the Devil against their God and Saviour, who would give them everlasting blessed Life.
And, as we have such a Sight as this by Faith, to make us pity you; so we have so much Taste of the Goodness of God, the Sweetness of his Ways, and the Happiness of Believers, as must needs make us wish that you had but once tried the same Delights; it would turn the Pleasure of Sin into Detestation. God knows, we desire Nothing more for ourselves than the Perfection and Eternity of this Holiness and Happiness, which we believe and taste: And should we not desire the same for you?

And, being thus moved with necessary Pity, we ask of God what he would have us do for your Salvation. And he hath told us in Scripture, That the Preaching of his Gospel to acquaint you plainly with the Truth, and earnestly and frequently entreat you to turn from the Flesh and World to God by Jesus Christ, is the Means with which his Grace is ready to concur for your Salvation, when obstinate Resistance causeth the Holy Spirit to forsake the Sinner, and leave him to himself to pursue his own Counsels, Luxts, and Will.

In this Hope we undertook the sacred Ministry, and gave up ourselves to this great and most important Work. In the great Sense of our own Unworthiness, but yet in a Sense of our Soul's Necessity, we were not such Fools at our first setting out, as not to know it must be a Life of Labour, Self denial, and Patience, and that the Devil would do his worst to hinder us, that all his Instruments would be ready to serve him against our Labours, and against your Souls. Christ our Captain saved by patient Conquest, and so must we save ourselves and you; and so must you save yourselves under Christ, if ever you be saved. It was no strange Thing to Paul, that Bonds and Afflictions did everywhere attend him; nor did he account his Life dear, that he might finish his Course with Joy, and the Ministry committed to him by the Lord, Acts xx. 24. It was no strange Thing to him to be forbidden preaching to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, by such as were filling up the Measure of their Sins, and were under God's God's utmost Wrath on Earth, 1 Thess. ii. 16. Devils and Pharisees, and most where they came, both high and low, were against the Apostles Preaching of the Gospel, and yet they would not sacrilegiously and cruelly break their Covenant with Christ, and perfidiously desert the Souls of Men; even as their Lord, for the Love of Souls, did call Peter Satan, that would have tempted him to save his Life and Flesh, instead of making it a Sacrifice for our Sins, Mat. xvi. 23.

What think you should make us undertake a Calling so contrary to our fleshly Ease and Interest? Do we not know the Way of Ease and Honour, Wealth and Pleasure, as well as others? And have we not Flesh as well as others? Could we not be content that the Cup of Reproach, Scorn, Slander, Poverty, and Labours, might pass from us, if it were not for the Will of God and your Salvation? Why should we love to be the lowest, and trodden down by malignant Pride, and counted as the Filth of the World, and the Off-scouring of all Things, and represented to Rulers, whom we honour, as Schismatics, disobedient, turbulent, unruly, by every Church-Usurper whom we refuse to make a God of? Why give we not over this Preaching of the Gospel at the Will of Satan, who is for the everlasting suffering of your Souls, under Pretence of making us suffer? Is not all this that you may be converted and saved? If we be herein beside ourselves, it is for you: Could the Words of the ignorant or proud have persuaded us, that either your Wants or Dangers are to inconsiderable (or your other Supplies and Helps sufficient) that our Labours had been unnecessary to you, God knoweth, we should readily have obeyed the silencing Sort of Pastors, and have taken us to some other Land, where our Service had been more necessary. Let Shame be the Hypocrite's Reward, who takes not the saving of Souls, and pleasing of God for a sufficient Reward, without ecclesiastical Dignities, Preferments, or worldly Wealth.

I have told you our Motives, I have told you our Business, and the Terms of our Undertaking. It is God and you Sinners that next must tell us what our Entertainment and Success shall be: Shall it still be Neglect and unthankful Contempt, and turning away your Ears and Hearts, and saying, We have Somewhat else to mind? Will you still be cheated by this deceitful World, and spend all your Days in pampering your Gut, and providing for the Flesh, that must be rotting shortly in a Grave? Were you made for no better Use than this? May not we bring you to some sober Thoughts of your Condition, not one Hour seriously to think whither you are going? What I not one awakened Look into the World where you must be for ever; not one Heart-piercing Thought of everlasting Glory I, not one Heart-piercing Thought of your Saviour's Love; not one Tear for all your sinful Lives! O! God forbid! Let not our Labours be so despised: Let not your God, your Saviour, and your Souls, be so light set by: O let there be no more profane Persons among you, like Esau, who for one Morsel sold his Birthright.

Poor Sinners! we talk not to you as on a Stage, in customary Words, and as if Talking were our Trade; we are in as good Earnest with you as if we saw you murdering yourselves, and are persuading you to save yourselves. Can any Man be in Jest with you, who believeth God, who by Faith foreseeth whither you are going, and what you lose, and where the Game of Sin will end? It is little better to jest with you now in a Pulpit, or in private, than to stand jesting over your departing Souls, when at Death you are breathing out your last.

Alas! with Shame and Grief we confess, we never speak to you of these Things as their Truth and Weight deserve, nor with the Skill and Wisdom, the Affection and Fervency, that besem Men engaging in the Saving of Souls; but yet you may perceive that we are in Earnest with you (for God is so). What else do we study for, labour for, suffer for, live for? Why else do we so much trouble ourselves, and trouble you, with this Ado, and anger them that would have made us silent? For my own Part, I will make my free Confession to you; to my Shame, that I never grow cold, and dull, and pitiles, to the Souls of others, till I first grow too cold and careless of my own (unless when Weakness or speculative Studies cool me, which I must confess they often do). We never cease pitying you, till we are growing too like you, and oft have Need of Pity ourselves.

When, through the Mercy of my Lord, the Prospect of the World of Souls, which I am going to, hath any powerful Operation on myself; O! then I could spend and be spent for others. No Words are too earnest, no Labour too great, no Cost too dear; the Frowns and Wrath of malignant OppoIiers of the Preaching of Christ's Gospel are Nothing to me: But, when the World of Spirits disappears, or my Soul is clouded;
and receiveth not the vital illuminating Influences of Heaven, I grow cold, first to myself, and then to others.

Come then, poor Sinners, and help us, who are willing at any Time to help you. As we first crave God's Help, so we next crave yours: Help us; for we cannot serve you against your Wills, nor save you without your Consent and Help. God himself will not save you without you, and how shall we? We know that the Devil is against us, and will do his utmost to hinder us, and so will all his Ministers, by what Names or Titles soever dignified or distinguished:
But all this is Nothing, if you will but take our Parts; I mean, if you will take Christ's Part and your own, and will not be against yourselves. Men and Devils cannot either help or hinder us in saving you, as you may do yourselves: If God and you be for us, who shall be against us?

And will you help us? Give over striving against God and Conscience; give over fighting against Christ and his Spirit; take Part no more with the World and Flesh, which in your Baptism you renounced;
tet your Hearts to the Message which we bring; allow.

low it your manlike, sober, Thought; search the Scriptures, and see whether the Things we speak of be so or not. We offer you Nothing but what we have resolvedly chosen ourselves, and that after the most serious Deliberation we can make. We have many Times look-ed round about us, to know what is the Happiness of Man; and, had we found better for ourselves, we had offered better to you. If the World would have served our Turns, it would have served yours also, and we would not have troubled you with the Talk of another World; but it will not, I am sure it will not; serve your Turns to make you happy, nor shall you long make that self-deceiving Shift with it as now ye do.

But, if ye will not think of these Things, if ye will not use the Reason of Men, alas! what can we do to save your Souls? O pity them, Lord, that they may pity themselves; have Mercy on them, that they may have some Mercy on themselves; help them, that they may help themselves and us. If you will refuse, will not your Loss be more than ours? If we lose our Labour, (which to ourselves we shall not,) if we lose our Hopes of your Salvation, what is this to your everlasting Loss of Salvation itself? And what are our Sufferings for your Sake in Comparison of your endless Sufferings?

But O! this it is that breaketh our Hearts, that we leave you under more Guilt than we found you; and, when we have laid out Life and Labour to save you, the impenitent Souls must have their Pains en-creased for refusing these Calls; and that it will be Part of your Hell to think for ever how madly you refused our Counsel, and what Pains, Cost, and Pa-tience, were used to have saved you, and all in vain. It will be so, it must needs be so. Christ faith, It shall be easier for Sodom and Gomorrah, in the Day of Judgement, than for the Rejecters of his Gospel-Calls. The Nature of the Thing, and the Nature of Justice, certainly inform you it must be so.

O turn not our Complaints to God against you! turn us not from beseeching you to be reconciled to God.
God, to tell him you will not be reconciled; force us not to say, that we earnestly invited you to the heavenly Feast: and you would not come! force us not to bear this Witness against you: Lord, we could have borne all our Labour and Sufferings for them much easier, if they would but have yielded to thy Grace. But it was they themselves that broke our Hearts, that left our Labour, that made us preach and entreat in vain: It was easier to preach without Maintenance than without Success. It was they that were worse to us than all the Persecutors in the World. How oft would we have gathered them, but they would not, but are ungathered still! How many holy, faithful, Ministers have I known, these eleven years last past, who have lived in pining Poverty and Want, and hardly by Charity got Bread and Clothing; and yet, if they could but have truly said, Lord, the Sermons which I preach privately, and in Danger, have won many Souls to thee, it would have made their Burden easy. But I tell thee, senseless and impenitent Sinner, thou denyest God in thy Heart; and thou, that deniedst them thy Conversion, which was the End of all their Labours, hast dealt much more cruelly with them than they that denied the Levites Bread.

Poor Sinners! I know that I am speaking all this to those that are dead in Sin; but it is a Death consisting with a natural Life, which hath a Capacity of spiritual Life, or else I would no more speak to you than to a Stone. And I know that you are blind to Sin; but it is a Blindness consisting with a reasonable Faculty, which is capable of spiritual Illumination, or else I would no more persuade you than I do a Beast. And I know that you are in the Fetters of your own Lusts; your Wills, your Love, your Hearts, are turned away from God, and strongly bewitched with the Dreams and Dalliances of the Flesh and World; but your Wills are not forced into this Captivity; surely those Wills may be changed, by God's Grace, when you clearly see sufficient Reason to change them; else I would as soon preach (were I capable) to Devils and damned Souls. Your Cafe is not yet desperate; Oh make it not desperate! There is just the same Hope of your Salvation as there is of your Conversion and Perseverance, and no more. Without it there is no Hope; and with it you are safe and have no Caule to doubt and fear. Heaven may yet be yours if you will. Nothing but your own Will, refusing Christ and a holy Life, can keep you out: And shalt thou do it? Shall Hell be your own Choice? and will you say you will not be saved?

O think better what you do! God's Terms are reasonable; his Words and Ways are good and equal; Christ's Yoke is easy, and his Burden light, and his Commands are not grievous to any, but so far as Blindness and a bad Heart make them so. You have no true Reason to be unwilling; God and Conscience shall one Day tell you, and all the World, that you have no Reason for it. You may as wisely pretend Reason to cut your Throats, to torment yourselves, as plead Reason against a true Conversion unto God. Were I persuading you not to kill yourselves, I would make no Question but you would be persuaded; and yet must I be hopeless when I persuade you from everlasting Misery, and not to prefer the World and Flesh before your Saviour and your God, and before a sure everlasting Joy? God forbid!

Reader, I take it for a great Mercy of God, that before my Head lies down in the Dust, and I go to give up my Account unto my Judge, I have this Opportunity once more earnestly to bespeak thee for thy own Salvation. I beg it of thee, as one that must shortly be called away and speak to thee no more till we come unto our endless State, that thou wouldst but sometimes retire into thyself, and use the Reason of a Man, and look before thee whither thou art going, and look behind thee how thou hast lived, and what thou hast been doing in the World till now; and look within thee, what a Cause thy Soul is in, and whether it be fit to enter upon Eternity; and look above thee, what a Heaven of Glory thou doft neglect, and that thou haft God to be thine everlasting Friend or Enemy, as thou choosest and as thou livest, and that thou art always in his Sight: Yea, and look below thee, and think where they are that die unconverted. And, when thou haft soberly thought of all these Things, then do as God and ture Reason shall direct thee. And is this an unreas-sovable Request? I appeal to God, and to all wise Men, and to thy own Conscience, when it shall be awakened, if I speak against thee, or it all this be not for thy Good; or, if it be not true and sure, then regard not what I say; if I speak not that Message, which God hath commanded his Ministers to speak,
then let it be refused as contemptuously as thou wilt.
But, if I do but, in Christ's Name and Stead, beseech thee to be reconciled to God, 2 Cor. v. 20. refuse it at thy Peril. And, if God's beseeching thee shall not prevail against thy Sloth, thy Lust, thy Appetite, against the Desires of the Flesh, against the Dust and Shadows of the World, remember it, when, with fruitless Cries and Horror, thou art beseeching him too late.

I know, poor Sinner, that Flesh is brutish, and Lust and Appetite have no Reason; but I know thou haft Reason thyself, which was given thee to overrule them; and that he, that will not be a Man, cannot be a Saint, nor a happy Man. I know thou livest in a tempting and wicked World, where Things and Persons will be daily hindering thee; but I know that this is no more, to a Man that by Faith sees Heaven and Hell before him, than a Grain of Sand to a Kingdom, or a Blast of Wind to one that is-fighting or flying for his Life. Luke xii. 4. O Man!
that thou didst but know the Difference between that which the Devil and Sin will give thee, if thou wilt sell thy Soul and Heaven, and that which God hath promised and sworn to give thee, if thou wilt heartily
heartily give up thyself to him! I know thou mayst possibly fall into Company (at least amongst some Sots and Drunkards) that will tell thee, All this is but troublesome Preciseness, and making more ado than needs; but I know withal what that Man deserveth who will believe a Fool before his Maker (for he can be no better than a miserable Fool that will contradict and revile the Word of GOD, even the Word of Grace that would save Mens Souls).

And, alas! it is possible thou mayst hear some of the Tribe of Levi (or rather of Cain) deriding this serious Godliness, as mere Hypocrisy, and Fanaticism, and Self-conceitedness: As if you must be no better than the Devil's Slaves, left you be proud in thinking that you are better than they; that is, you must go with them to Hell, left in Heaven ye be proud Hypocrites, for thinking yourselves happier than they.

It may be, they will tell you, that this Talk of Conversion is fitter for Pagans and Infidels to hear than for Christians and Protestants; because such Mens big Look or Coat may make the Poison be the easier taken down. I will intreat thee but (as before God) to answer these following Questions, or to get them answered, and then judge whether it be they or we that would deceive thee; and whether, as Men use to talk against Learning that have none themselves, such Men prate against Conversion and the Spirit of GOD, because they have no such Thing themselves.

Q. 1. I pray ask them whether it be a puritan or fanatic Opinion that Men must die; and what all the Pomp, Wealth, and Pleasure, of the World will signify to a departing Soul. Ask them, whether they will live on Earth for ever, and their merry Hours and lordly Looks will have no End; and whether it be but the Conceit of Hypocrites and Schismatics, that their Carcase must be rotting in a darksome Grave.

Q. 2. Ask them, whether they have not an immortal
An Epistle to the mortal Soul, and a longer Life to live when this is ended, Luke xii. 4, 5.

Q. 3. Ask them, whether Reason requires not every Man to think more seriously of the Place or State where he must be for ever, than of that where he must be for a little While, and from whence he is posted Day and Night: And whether it be not wiser, to lay up our Treasure where we must stay than where we must not stay, but daily look to be called away, and never more to be seen on Earth.

Q. 4. Ask them, whether God should not be loved with all your Heart, and Soul, and Might, Matt. xxii. 37. and whether it be not the Mark of an ungodly Miscreant to be a Lover of Pleasure more than God, 2 Tim. iii. 4. and a Lover of this World above him, 1 John ii. 15. and whether we must not seek first God's Kingdom and his Righteousness, Mat. vii. 33. and labour most for the Meat that never perisheth, John vi. 27. and strive to enter in at the strait Gate, Luke xiii. 24. and give all Diligence to make our Calling and Election sure, 2 Pet. i. 10.

Q. 5. Ask them, whether, without Holiness, any shall see God, Heb. xii. 14. Mat. v. 8. Tit. ii. 14. and whether the carnal Mind is not Enmity to God, and to be spiritually minded is Life and Peace; and whether, if you live after the Flesh, you shall not die and be condemned; and they shall not live and be saved that walk after the Spirit; and whether any Man be Christ's that hath not his Spirit, Rom. viii. 1 to 10.

Q. 6. Ask them, whether any Man hath Treasure in Heaven whose Heart is not there, Mat. vi. 21. and whether this be not the Difference between the wicked and the godly; that the first make their Bellies their God, and mind earthly Things, and are Enemies to the Cross of Christ (though perhaps not to his Name); and the latter have their Conversation in Heaven, and, being risen with Christ, do set their Affections on Things above, and not on Things that are on the Earth, to which they are as dead, and their Life is hid (or out of Sight)

with Christ in God, till Christ shall appear, and then they shall appear (even openly to all the World) with him in Glory? Phil. iii. 18-20. Col. iii. 1-5.

Q. 7. Ask them, whether it be credible or suitable to God's Word or Working, that he that will not give the Fruits of the Earth without their Labour, nor feed and clothe them without themselves, will yet bring them to Heaven without any Care, Desire, or Labour of their own, when he hath bid them not Care for the one, and called for the greatest Diligence in the other? Mat. vi. 33. Yea, ask them, whether these be not the two first Articles in all Faith and Religion, 1. That God is. 2. That he is the Rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Q. 8. Ask them, yea ask your Eyes, your Ears, your daily Experience in the World, whether all or most, that call themselves Christians, do in good Earnest thus live to God in the Spirit, and mortify the Flesh with its Affections and Lusts, and seek first God's Kingdom and Righteousness, love him above all, and lay up Treasure and Heart in Heaven; or rather, whether most be not Lovers of the World, and Lovers of Pleasure more than God, and live not after the Flesh, and mind not most the Things of the Flesh? I mention not now the Drunkards, the Flesh-pleasing Gentlemen, that live in Pride, Fulness, and idleness, and sport and play away their precious Time; nor the filthy Fornicator, nor the merciless Oppressor, nor the malignant Hater of a godly Life, nor the perjured Betrayers of Men's Souls, and the Gospel, or of their Country's Good, nor such other Men of feared Consciences, whose Misery none questions, but such as are blind and miserable; it is not those only I am speaking of, but the common, worldly, fleshly, and ungodly, ones.

Q. 9. Ask them, whether the Name of a Christian will save any of these ungodly ones? And, whether God will like Men the better for lying, and calling themselves Christians, when indeed they are none?
And, whether they dare preach to the People, that a Christian Drunkard, or Christian Fornicator, or Oppressor, or a Christian Worldling, needeth no Conversion?

Q. 10. Ask them, whether they say not themselves that Hypocrisy is a great Aggravation to all other Sin? And, whether God hath not made the Hypocrites and Unbelievers to be Standards in Hell? Matt. xxv. 51. And, whether seeking to amuse God by a mock Religion doth make such false Christians better than the poor Heathens and Infidels, or much worse? And, whether he be not an Hypocrite, that professeth to be a Christian and a Servant of God, when he is none, nor will be? And, whether he that knoweth his Master's Will, and doeth it not, shall not have the foret Stripes or Punishment? Luke xii. 47.

Q. 11. Ask them, whether in their Baptism (which is their chriffening as a Covenant) they did not renounce the Flesh, the World, and the Devil, and vow and deliver-up themselves to God their Father, their Saviour, and their Sanctifier? And, whether all or most Men perform this Vow? And, whether a perjured Covenant-breaker against God is fitter for Salvation than one that never was baptized?

Q. 12. Ask them, whether the holy Nature of God be not fo contrary to Sin, as that it is Blasphemy to say that he will bring to Heaven, and into the Bottom of his eternal Delights, an unholy and unrenewed Soul? 1 Pet. i. 15, 16.

Q. 13. Ask them, why it was that Christ came into the World, whether it was not to save his People from their Sins, Mat. i. 21. and to destroy the Works of the Devil, 1 John iii. 8. and to purify to himself a peculiar People, zealous of good Works, Tit. ii. 11. and to bring home praying Souls to God, Luke xv. and to be the Way to the Father? 1 John xiv. 6. And, whether Christ will have that Soul that is not converted by him, and cleansed from his Sins? Or whether it be the dead Image only of a crucified Jesus that is all their Saviour, while they will have no more of him?
Q. 14. Ask them why they believe, and were baptized into the Holy-Ghost? And, whether a Man can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven that is not born of the Spirit as well as of Water? John iii. 3, 5, 6. and that is not converted, and begins not the World as it were anew, in a teachable, tractable, Newness of Life, like a little Child? Mat. xviii. 3. And whether it be not a certain Truth, that if any Man have not the Spirit of Christ be is none of his? Rom. viii. 9.

Q. 15. Ask them why Christ gave the World so many Warnings of the Damnableness of the Pharisees Hypocrisy, if hypocritical Christians may be saved? And what were these Pharisees? They were the Masters of the Jewish Church, the Rabbis, that must have high Places, high Tythes, Ceremonies, and formal Garments, and must be reverenced of all; that gave God Lip-service, without the Heart, and made void his Commands, and worshipped him in vain, teaching for Doctrine the Commandments of Men, and strictly tithed Mint and Cummin, while Love, Mercy, and Justice, were passed by, who worshipped God with Abundance of Ceremonies, and built the Tombs, and garnished the Sepulchres of the Saints, while they killed and persecuted those that did imitate them, and hated the living Saints, but honoured the dead: they were the bitterest Enemies and Murderers of Christ, on Pretence that he was a Blasphemer, and a seditious Enemy to Caesar and the common Peace, and one that spoke against the Temples: They were the greatest Enemies of the Apostles, and Silencers of those that preached Christ's Gospel, and persecuted them that called upon his Name. And had these no Need of Conversion because they could say, God is our Father, (when the Devil was their Father, John viii. 44.) and that they were Abraham's Seed? And are not hypocritical Christians, drunken Christians, fornicating Christians, carnal, worldly, infidel, Christians, (the Contradiction is your own,) persecuting Christians, false-named, hypocritical, Christians,
An Epistle to the Christians as bad, yea worse, as they abuse a most excellent Profession? Mat. xv. 7, 8, 13. and xxii. 18. and vi. 2, &c. Luke xii. 1.

Q. 16. Doth not the Holy State of Heaven require Holiness in all that shall possess it? Can an unholy Soul there see, and love, and praise, and delight in, God for ever, and in the holy Society and Employment of the Saints? Is he not more like a Mahometan than a Christian, that looketh for a sensual and unholy Heaven?

Q. 17. What is the Difference between the Church and the World? Is not the Church a holy Society of regenerate Souls? Yea, the Church visible is only those that in Baptism vow Holiness, and profess it. Look these Hypocrites in the Face, and see whether they do not blush when they repeat in the Creed, I believe in the Holy Ghost, I believe in the Holy Catholic Church, and the Communion of Saints, who shall have the Forgiveness of Sins, and Life everlasting. Ask them, whether they mean holy Adulterers, holy Worldlings, holy perjured Persons? Ask them whether they mean a Communion of Saints in a Tavern, in a Play-house, in a Gaming-house, in a Whore-house, or a jesting, canting, stage-play, Communion? If the Church be holy, be holy if you will be of the Church: If it be a Communion of Saints, make it not a Communion of Swine; and make not Saints and, their Communion seem odious, either for their Infirmities, or their Crossness to your carnal Interests or Conceits.

Q. 18. Ask them, whether there be a Heaven and a Hell, or not? If not, why are they pretended Christians? If there be, will God send one Man to Heaven, and another to Hell, to so vast, so amazing, a Difference of States, if there be no great Difference between them here? If Holiness no more differentiated Christians from others, than hearing a Sermon or saying over a Prayer doth difference one from an Infidel, where were the Justice of God in in saving some and damning others? And what were Christianity better than the Religion of Antonine, Plato, Socrates, Seneca, Cicero, Plutarch, and others, if not much worse? Go into London Streets, and, when you have talked with living prudent Men,
then go to the Painter's Shop, and see a comely Picture;
and to the Looking-glass, and see the Appearance of each Passenger in a Glass; and to the Perriwig-Shops, and see a wooden Head with a Perriwig upon the Bulk; and you have Something like the Difference of a holy Soul and of a dead and drest (ormal Hypocrite.

Q. 19. Ask them whether Kings, and all Men, make not a Difference between Man and Man; the loyal and persidious, the obedient and disobedient? and whether they differ not themselves between a Friend and a Foe; one that loveth them, and one that robbeth, hateth, or would kill, them? And shall not the more holy God make more Difference between the righteous and the wicked?

Q. 20. But, if they are dead in every Point saxe carnal Interest, ask them why they are Preachers or Priests? and, if Conversion and Holiness be a needless Thing, what Ufe they are themselves of? and why must the Country be troubled with them, and pay them Tithes, and owe them Reverence? When these twenty Questions are well answered, conclude you may be faved without Conversion.

But if, poor Soul, thou art fully convinced, and askest, What shall I do to be converted? the Lord
make thee willing, and fave thee from Hypocrify,
and I will quickly tell thee in a few Words.

1. Give not over sober Thinking of these Things till thy Heart be changed.

2. Come to Christ, and take him for thy Saviour, thy Teacher, thy King; and he will pardon all that is past, and fave thee.

3. Believe God's Love, the Pardon of Sin, and the everlasting Joys of Heaven, that thou mayest feel
feel that all the Pleasures of the World are Dung in Comparison of the heavenly Delight of Faith, and Hope, and holy Love, and Peace of Conscience, and sincere Obedience.

4. Sin no more willfully, but forbear that which thou mayest forbear. I/a. iv. 7.

6. Wait on God's Spirit in the diligent and constant Use of his own Means. Read, hear, meditate, pray; pray hard for that Grace that must convert thee; wait thus, and thou shalt not wait in vain. Psal. xxv. and xxxvii. 34; and lxix. 6.

Pity, O Lord, and persuade the Souls! Let not Christ's Blood, his Doctrine, his Example, his Spirit, be lost unto them, and they lost for ever! Let not Heaven be as no Heaven to them, while they dream and vote on the Shadows in this World! And oh save this Land from the greater Destruction than all our late Plagues, and Flames, and Divisions, which our Sins and thy Threatenings make us fear! O Lord, in thee have we trusted, let us never be confounded!

Having thus contributed my Endeavours, in this Preface, to the Furtherance of the Design of this excellent Book, I must tell thee, Reader, that I take it for an Honour to commend so masculine a Birth unto the Word. The Midwife of Alexander or Aristotle need not to be ashamed of her Office. Who the Author of this Treatise was, how he preached, how he lived, how he suffered, (and for what,) and how he died, his Life and Letters, lately printed, fully tell ye; and I earnestly recommend the reading them to all, but especially to Ministers, not to tell them what Men have here been forbidden to preach Christ's Gospel, and for what, nor what Men they are that so many Years have done it, but to tell you what Men Christ's Ministers should be. But say not, he killed himself with excessive Labour, therefore I will take Warning and take my Ease. For, 1. He lived in perfect Health all his Days, notwithstanding all his Labbours, till after his long and hard Imprisonment.
2. It was not the greatest Labour of his Times of Liberty that hurt him, but his preaching six, seven, or eight, Times in a Week, after he was silenced, because he could not speak to all his People at once. O make not an ill Use of so excellent an Example, say not, like Judas, What needs this Waste? His Labour, his Life, his Sufferings, his Death, were not in vain.
The Ages to come, that read his Life, and read his little popular Treatise, and his Call to Archippus, shall say they were not in vain. And, though he was cut off in the Midst of his Age, and his longer Labours and more elaborate Writings thus prevented, take thankfully this small, but methodical, warm, and serious, Tractate: Read it seriously, and it cannot be but that it must do thee Good.

I am one that have looked into Books, Sciences, and Speculations, of many Sorts, and seriously tell thee, as a dying Man, that, after all my Searches and Experience, I have found that philosophical Enquiries, into the divine Artifices and the Nature of Things, have, among a great Number of Uncertainties, a great many pretty pleasant Probabilities, which a holy Soul can make good Use of in admiring God, and may find as a lawful Kind of Sport; but, in the Moralities, which Atheists count Uncertainties, the Knowledge of God and our Duty, and our Hopes,
the Doctrine and Practice of Holiness, Temperance, Charity, and Justice, and the diligent Seeking and joyful Hopes of Life everlasting, are all the true Wisdom, Goodness, Rest, and Comfort, of a Soul.
Whatever be the Plea, this is the satisfying Certainty,
the Business, and the beautifying Improvement of our Lives.

I have done, when I have sought to remove a little Scandal, which I foresaw I should sustain in writing the Preface to his Life, where himself and two two of his Friends make such Mention of my Name, which I cannot own; because it would seem praising him for praising me. I confess it looketh ill-favouredly in me, but I had not the Power of other Men's Writings, and dared not therefore forbear that which was his Due. Had I directed their Pens, they should have taken a middle Way, and only esteemed me, a very unworthy Servant of Christ, who yet longs to see the Peace and Prosperity of his Church; and I should have forbore their undeserved Praise, as other Men should have done their slanderous Labels! But, if the Reader get no Harm by it, I assure him the Use I made of it was, to lament that I am really so much worse than they esteemed me; and fear lest I should prove yet worse than I discern myself, who see so much Sin and Weakness in my Betters, and much more in myself, as to make it the constant Sentiment of my Soul, that PRIDE of Men's GREATNESS, WISDOM, and GOODNESS, is the first Part of the DEVIL's IMAGE on Man's Soul; and DARKNESS is the second; and MALIGNITY the third.

RICHARD BAXTER.

READER,

HOW well were it if there were no more unconverted ones among us, than those to whom this is directed! Unconverted Persons, how many are there? but how few unconverted Readers, especially of such Books as this before thee! A Play or a Romance better suits the Lufts, and therefore must have more of the Eye of such; what will cherish the evil Heart only is most grateful, not what will change it. How many are there, to whom this is directed, who will not know that they are the Men! And how little Hope is there that this excellent Treatise should reach its End with those unconverted Reader.

those that apprehend themselves not concerned in it! Art thou not one of them? Art thou a Convert, or art thou yet in thy Sins? What is Sin? What is Conversion? It may be thou canst tell me neither, and yet thou sayest a Convert thou art. But to what Purpose is it then likely to be, for the Servant of God to treat with thee about this Matter? Let him bid thee believe, Thou art a Believer already; let him bid thee repent and turn to the Lord, That Work (thou sayest) is not to do now. What can there be said to this Man that is likely to bring him to Good? Friend, know thyself better, or thou perishest without Remedy. Thou mayest pray, but what Hope is there in thy Praying? Thou mayest read, but what Hope is there in thy Reading? Yet read on; this Hope there is, in this Book there is Eye-salve that may heal thee of thy Blindness. In this Book there is a Glass that will shew thee thy Face. Doll thou know thy own Face when thou seest it? Behold thy very Image in those Marks that are given of an unconverted Person; read and consider them, and then say if thou art not the Man.

Be willing to know thyself, and to know the worst of thy Case: Wink not at the Light; hide not thyself from thine own Soul. Wilt thou never know thy Disease till it be past Remedy?

Much of our hardest Work would be over, if we could see the Sinners, to whom we are sent, to be convicted Sinners. If we could but open the blind Eyes, there were Hopes we should shortly raise the Dead.

Sinner, of a Truth thou art in evil Case, whether thou know it or not; thou art among the Dead, and there is but a Step betwixt thee and Hell. Thou wilt not believe it, though it be told thee: Yet once again, let me beseech thee, come to the Glasses that is here presented to thee, and narrowly observe whether the very Marks of the Dead be not found upon thee. "If
"If there be Miscarriages in this first Work, if "thou wilt not understand thy Misery and thy Dan"ger, there is an End of all Hopes concerning thee.
"Whilst Self-ignorance abides upon thee, and the "Counsels, that are necessary to a Man in thy Case,
"will do thee no Good; they are never likely to "prosper with thee. Who will be persuaded to do "that which he believes is already done? Who "will take the Counsel of the Physician that doth
"not think himself sick? The Man of God may
"spare his Pains of persuading thee to Conversion,
"whilst thou art confident thou art converted al"ready. Who will bear the Pains of Repentance,
"that concludes he hath repented? Who will be "at the Labour and Pangs of the New-Birth, that "is confident he is already passed from Death to "Life?

"But Friend, let me a little reason with thee.
"Thou art confident it is well with thee, yet why
"wilt thou not yield to thus much at least, to put it "to the question, Am I not mistaken? Thou art worse
"than mad if thou thinkest such a Question may not "be put. Dost thou not know that thy Heart is "false and deceitful? Yet, because it speaks good
"concerning thee, must it not be questioned whe"ther it speaks true or not? Be so wise as to con"clude, I may be mistaken; and thus come to the "Trial whether thou art mistaken or not.

"And if, upon Trial, by the Marks that are before
"thee, thou come to be undeceived, and see thyself
"wrapped up in that Misery which hitherto thou
"wouldst not suspect, the next News I expect to hear "from thee is, What shall I do to be saved? O, were
"it come to that once! then thou hast an Answer at "Hand in those Means thou wilt find prescribed thee.
"And, because they are such as thou wilt hardly be "persuaded to use, take in the Motives that follow,
"and they will help down the Means; consider both the one and the other; and, if thou dost not find the Means proper, and the Motives weighty, I think I shall do thee no Wrong if I tell thee thou art still of a blind Mind, and a harder Heart.

Friend, the Matter which this little Book comes to treat with thee about is of highest Importance;
it is a Matter of Life or Death. If thou sayest, the Terms upon which Life is offered are hard, consider, is it not harder to die? He is worthy to die who will lose his Soul to save his Labour. If thou couldst step down into the Deep, and take a Turn or two with those damned Souls, who are drenched with Fire and Brimstone, and bound in everlasting Chains of Vengeance, and shouldst ask them, Now what do you think of the Terms upon which Life was offered? Now what think you of that Repentance, of that Obedience, of that Circumspection, Self-denial, and the greatest Severity, which by the Gospel were imposed upon you? If you might once again have the same Terms granted you for your Redemption from this Place of Torment, would you yet say, Hard Terms! let me rather die this Death for ever, than live such a Life; let me broil in this Furnace, rather than escape with such Difficulty? Shouldst thou ask them thus, that have felt what it is to be damned, what Answer dost thou think they would make? O Friend! never again groan under the Difficulties of Conversion, till thou believe them to be worse than Hell. But I will no far her anticipate my worthy Author.

Nor is there much Need I should commend either himself or his Works; for the Author himself thou mayst at a small Charge get acquainted with,
in that History of his Life and Death which is extant, concerning which I shall only say,

Sic mibi contingat vivere, sicque mori;

and for this Work of his, what Commendation
I shall give of it would be needed no longer than

B
"till thou hast read it over: Thou wilt find such "Wine in it as needs no Bush. This only I shall "say, as far as my Credit will go, it is exceedingly "well worth thy most serious Perusal. O mayIt "thou hear that Voice, (such a Voice from Hea- "ven there is, whether thou hear it or not,) Tolle & "lege, Take up and read. Read, Friend, and read "over again, read and understand, understand and "pray, pray and consider, and consent unto him, "who by the Pen of his Servant calls to thee from "Heaven, Why wilt thou die? Turn and live. O "suffer this Word of Instruction and Exhortation "to open thy blind Eyes, to turn thee from Darkness "to Light, from the Power of Satan unto God, that "thou mayest receive Forgiveness of Sins, and an "Inheritance among them that are sanctified. Thy Friend, and Servant of thy Soul,

Richard Alleine.
An earnest Invitation to Sinners to turn to God, in order to their eternal Salvation.

DEARLY beloved and longed-for, I gladly acknowledge myself a Debtor to you all, and am concerned, as I would be found a good Steward to the Household of God, to give to every one his Portion. But the Physician is most solicitous for those Patients whose Case is most doubtful and hazardous, and the Father's Bowels are especially turned towards his dying Child: The Numbers of unconverted Souls among you call for my most earnest Compassions and hasty Diligence to pluck them out of burning, Jude 23; and therefore to these first I shall apply myself in these Lines.

But whence shall I fetch my Argument, or how shall I choose my Words? Lord, wherewith shall I woo them? Wherewith shall I win them? Oh! that I could but tell! I would write unto them in Tears, I would weep out every Argument, I would empty my Veins for Ink, I would petition them on my Knees, verily (were I able) I would. Oh! how thankful would I be, if they would be prevailed with to repent and turn!

How long have I travailed in Birth with you? How frequently have I made suit to you? How often would I have gathered you? How instant have I been with you? This is what I have prayed for and studied for, for many Years, that I might bring you to God. Oh! that I might but do it! Will you yet be entreated? Oh! what a happy Man might you yet

yet make me, if you would but hearken to me, and suffer me to carry you over to Jesus Christ!

But, Lord, how insufficient am I for this Work! I have been many a Year wooing for thee, but the Damsel would not go with me: Lord, what a Task hast thou set me to do! Alas! wherewith shall I pierce the Scales of Leviathan, or make the Heart to feel, that is hard as Stone, hard as a Piece of the nether Millstone? Shall I go and lay my Mouth to the Grave, and look when the dead will obey me, and come forth? Shall I make an Oration to the Rocks, or declaim to the Mountains, and think to move them with Arguments? Shall I give the blind to see? From the Beginning of the World was it not heard that a Man opened the Eyes of the blind; but thou, O Lord, canst pierce the Scales and prick the Heart of the Sinner: I can but shoot at Rovers, and draw the Bow at a Venture, but do thou direct the Arrows between the Joints of the Harness, kill the Sin, and save the Soul of a Sinner that casts his Eyes on these Labours.

But I must apply myself to you to whom I am sent: Yet I am at a great Loss. Would to God I knew how to go to work with you! would I stick at the Pains? God knoweth, you yourselves are my Witnesses, how I have followed you in private, as well as in public, and have brought the Gospel to your Doors, testifying to you the Necessity of the New Birth, and persuading you to look in Time after a sound and thorough Change. Beloved, I have not acted a Part among you to serve my own Advantage.

Our Gospel is not yea and nay. Have you not heard the same Truths from the Pulpit, by public Labours, by private Letters, and by personal Instructions? Brethren, I am of the same Mind as ever, that Holiness is the best Choice; that there is no entering into Heaven, but by the strait Passage of the second Birth; that without Holiness you shall never see God, Heb. xii. 14. Ah, my beloved, refresh my Bowels in the Lord. If there be any Consolation in Christ, any any Comfort of Love, any Fellowship of the Spirit, any Bowels of Mercy, fully ye my Joy: Now give yourselves unto the Lord, 2 Cor. viii. 5. Now set yourselves to seek him. Now set up the Lord Jesus in your Hearts, and set him up in your Houses: Now come in and kiss the Son, Psal. ii. 12. and embrace the Tenders of Mercy, touch his Scepter and live: Why will ye die? I beg not for myself, but fain I would have you happy: This is the Prize I run for, and the White I aim at. My Soul's Desire and Prayer for you is, that you may be saved, Rom. x. 1.

The famous Lycurgus, having instituted most strict and wholesome Laws for his People, told them, he was necessitated to go a Journey from them, and got them to bind themselves in an Oath, that his Laws should be observed till his Return. This done, he went into a voluntary Banishment, and never returned more, that they might, by Virtue of their Oath, be engaged to the perpetual Observing of his Laws. Methinks I should be glad of the hard Conditions which he endured, (though I love you tenderly,) so I might but hereby engage you thoroughly to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dearly beloved, would you rejoice the Heart of your Minister? why then embrace the Counsels of the Lord by me. Forego your Sins; set to Prayer; up with the Worship of God in your Families; keep at a Distance from the Corruption of the Times. What greater Joy, to a Minister, than to hear of Souls born unto Christ by him, and that his Children walk in the Truth! 2 John iv.

Brethren, I beseech you suffer friendly Plainness and Freedom with you in your deepest Concernments. I am not playing the Orator, to make a learned Speech to you, nor dressing my Dish with Eloquence wherewith to please you; these Lines are upon a weighty Errand indeed, vix. to convince and convert, and to save you. I am not baiting my Hook with

with Rhetoric, nor fishing for your Applause, but for your Souls. My Work is not to please you, but to save you: Nor is my Business with your Fancies, but your Hearts: If I have not your Hearts, I have Nothing. If I were to please your Ears, I could sing another Song: If I were to preach myself, I would steer another Course; I could then tell you a smoother Tale; I would make you Pillows, and speak you Peace; for how can Abab love his Micaiah, that always prophesies Evil concerning him? 1 Kings xxii. 8. But how much better are the Wounds of a Friend than the fair Speeches of a Harlot, who flattereth with her Lips till the Dart strike through the Liver, and hunteth for the precious Life! Prov. vii. 21, 22, 23, and vi. 26. If I were to quiet a crying Infant, I might sing to him a pleasant Mood, and rock him asleep! but, when the Child is fallen into the Fire, the Parent takes another Course; he will not go to still him with a Song or Trifle. I know, if we speed not with you, you are lost; if we cannot get your Consent to arise and come away, you perish for ever: No Conversion, and no Salvation: I must get your Good-will, or leave you miserable.

But here the Difficulty of my Work again recurs upon me; Lord, choose my Stones out of the Rock, 1 Sam. xvii. 40, 45. I come in the Name of the Lord of Hosts, the God of the Armies of Israel. I come forth, like the Stripling David, to wrestle, not with Flesh and Blood, but with Principalities and Powers, and Rulers of the Darkness of this World. Eph. vi. 12. This Day let the Lord smite the Philistine, and spoil the strong Man of his Armour; and give me to fetch off the Captives out of his Hand: Lord, choose my Words, choose my Weapons, for me; and, when I put my Hand into the Bag, and take thence a Stone and sling it, do thou carry it to the Mark, and make it sink, not into the Forehead, (1 Sam. xvii. 49.) but the Heart, of the unconverted Sinner, and smite him him to the Ground, with Saul, in his so happy Fall, Acts ix. 4. Thou hast sent me, as Abraham did Eleazer, to take a Wife unto my Master thy Son, (Gen. xxiv. 4.) but my discouraged Soul is ready to fear the Woman will not be willing to follow me: O Lord God of my Master, I pray thee send me good Speed this Day, and shew Kindness to my Master, and send thine Angel before me, and prosper my Way, that I may take a Wife unto thy Son; (Gen. xxiv. 12.) that, as thy Servant rested not till he had brought Isaac and Rebecca together, so I may be successful to bring Christ and the Souls of my People together before we part.

But I turn me unto you. Some of you do not know what I mean by Conversion, and in vain shall I persuade you to that which you do not understand; and therefore, for your Sakes, I shall shew what this Conversion is. Others do cherish secret Hopes of Mercy, though they continue as they are; and for them I must shew the Necessity of Conversion. Others are like to harden themselves with a vain Conceit that they are converted already; unto them I must shew the Marks of the unconverted. Others, because they feel no Harm, fear none, and so sleep upon the Top of the Mast; to them I shall shew the Misery of the unconverted. Others sit still, because they see not their Way out; to them I shall shew the Means of Conversion. And, finally, for the Quickening of all, I shall close with the Motives to Conversion.

Chap. I. Shewing, in the Negative, what Conversion is not, and correcting some Mistakes about it.

LET the blind Samaritans worship they know not what, John iv. 22. Let the heathen Athenians inscribe their Altar, Unto the unknown God, Acts xvii. 22. Let the guileful Papists commend the Mother of Destruction for the Mother of Devotion; they that know Man's Constitution, and the Nature Nature of the reasonable Soul's Operation, cannot but know that, the Understanding having the Empire in the Soul, he that will go rationally to work must labour to let in the Light here: Ignorantis non est consensus. And therefore, that you may not mistake me, I shall shew you what I mean by the Conversion I persuade you to endeavour after.

It is storied, that, when Jupiter let down the golden Chaplets from Heaven, all but one were stolen; upon which (left they should lose a Relic of so great Esteem) they made five others, so like it, that, if any were so wickedly minded as to steal that also, they should not be able to discern which was it. And truly, my beloved, the Devil hath made many Counterfeits of this Conversion, and cheats one with this, and another with that; and such Craft and Artifice he hath in his Mystery of Deceits, that (if it were possible) he would deceive the very Elect. Now, that I may cure the damnable Mistake of some, who think they are converted when they are not, as well as remove the Troubles and Fears of others, that think they are not converted when they are; I shall shew you the Nature of Conversion, both negatively, or what it is not, and, positively, what it is.

We will begin with the Negative.

1. It is not the taking upon us the Profession of Christianity. Doubtless Christianity is more than a Name. If we will hear Paul, it lies not in Word, but in Power, 1 Cor. iv. 20. If to cease to be Jews and Pagans, and to put on the Christian Profession, had been true Conversion, (as this is all that some would have to be understood by it,) who better Christians than they of Sardis and Laodicea? These were all Christians by Profession, and had a Name to live; but, because they had but a Name, are condemned by Christ, and threatened to be spewed out, Rev. iii. 1, 16. Are there not many that mention the Name of the Lord Mistakes about Conversion.

Lord Jesus, that yet depart not from Iniquity? 2 Tim. ii. 19. and profess they know God, but in Works they deny him? Tit. i. 16. And will God receive these for true Converts, because turned to the Christian Religion? What! Converts from Sin, when yet they do live in Sin! It is a visible Contradiction. Surely, if the Lamp of Profession would have served the Turn, the foolish Virgins had never been shut out; Matt. xxv. 12. We find not only Professors, but Preachers of Christ and Wonder-workers, turned off because Evil-workers, Matt. vii. 22, 23.

2. It is not the being washed in the Laver of Regeneration, or putting on the Badge of Christ in Baptism. Many take the Presb. Money, and wear the Livery of Christ, that yet never stand to their Colours, nor follow their Leader. Ananias and Sapphira and Magus were baptized as well as the Rest. How fondly do many mistake here, deceiving and being deceived! dreaming that effectual Grace is necessarily tied to the external Administration of Baptism, (which what is it but to revive the popish Tenet of the Sacraments working Grace ex opere operato?) and so every Infant shall be regenerated, not only sacramento tenus, sacramentally, but really and properly. Hence Men do fancy, that, being regenerated already when baptized, they need no farther Work.

But, if this were so, then all that were baptized in their Infancy must necessarily be saved, because the Promise of Pardon and Salvation is made to Conversion and Regeneration, Acts iii. 19. Matt. xix. 28.

Our Calling, Sanctification, (as to the Beginning of it,) or Conversion, (which are but the same Things under different Conceptions and Expressions,) is but a middle Link in the golden Chain, fastened to Election at one End, and Glorification at the other, Rom. viii. 30. 2 Thess. ii. 13. 1 Pet. i. 2. The Silver Cord may not be broken, nor the Connection between Sanctification and Salvation, between Grace and Glory, impiously Missakes about Conversion.

Impiously violated, Matt. v. 8. If we were indeed begotten again, it is to an Inheritance incorruptible, reserved in Heaven for us, and the divine Power is engaged to keep us for it, 1 Pet. i. 5. And, if the very regenerate may perish at last in their Sins, we will no more say, that he that is born of God, his Seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, 1 John iii. 9. (i.e. unto Death,) nor that it is impossible to deceive the very Elect, Matt. xxiv. 24.

And indeed, were this true, then we need look no farther, to see our Names written in Heaven, than only to search the Register, and see whether we were baptized: Then I would keep the Certificate of my Baptism, as my fairest Evidence for Heaven, and should come by Assurance of my gracious State with a wet Finger: Then Men should do well to carry but a Certificate of their Baptism, under the Register's Hand, when they died, (as the Philosopher would be buried with the Bishop's Bond in his Hand, which he had given him for receiving his Alms in another World,) and, upon Sight of this, there were no Doubt of their Admission into Heaven.

In short, if there be no more necessary to Conversion, or Regeneration, than to be turned to the Christian Religion, or to be baptized in Infancy, this will fly directly in the Face of that Scripture, Matt. vii. 14. as well as Multitudes of others: For, first, we will then no more say, Straight is the Gate, and narrow is the Way: For, if all that were baptized, and are of the true Religion, are saved, the Door is become heavenly wide, and we will henceforth say, Wide is the Gate, and broad is the Way, that leadeth unto Life: For, if this be true, whole Parishes, yea, whole Countries, and whole Kingdoms, may go in abreast; and we will no more teach, that the righteous is scarcely saved, or that there is Need of such a Stir in taking the Kingdom of Heaven by Violence, and
and striving to enter in. Surely, if the Way be so easy as many take it, that there is little more necessary than to be regenerated in our Baptism, and cry, "God have Mercy," and be absolved by the Minister at our End, it is more Ado than needs, to put ourselves to such Running, and Seeking, and Knocking, and Fighting, and Wrestling, as the Word requires as necessary to Salvation. Secondly, if this be true, we will no more say, "Few there be that find it; yea, we will rather say, "Few there be that miss it." We will no more say, that, of the many that are called, but few are chosen, Matt. xxii. 14. and that, even of the professing Israel, but a Remnant shall be saved, Rom. ix. 27. If this Doctrine be true, we will not say any more, with the Disciples, "Who then shall be saved?" but rather, "Who then shall not be saved?" Then, if a Man be called a Brother, (that is, a Christian,) and be baptized, though he be a Fornicator, or a Railer, or covetous, or a Drunkard, yet he shall inherit the Kingdom of God, i Cor. v. 11. and vi. 9, 10.

But the Arminian will reply, Such as these, though they did receive regenerating Grace in Baptism, are since fallen away, and must be renewed again, or else they cannot be saved.

I answer, 1. That there is an infallible Connection between Regeneration and Salvation, as we have already shewn, and long to be farther evidencing, but that it is against designed Brevity. 2. Then Men must be born again a second Time; which carries a great Deal of Absurdity in its very Face: And why may not Men be twice born in Nature, as well as in Grace? Why not as great an Absurdity to be twice regenerated as to be twice generated? But, 3. and above all, this grants, however, the Thing I contend for, that, whatever Men do or pretend to receive in Baptism, if they be found afterwards to be grossly ignorant, or profane, or formal, without the Power of Godliness, they must be born again, or else be shut out. of the Kingdom of God. So then they must have more to plead for themselves than their baptismal Regeneration.

Well, in this you see all are agreed, that, be it more or less that is received in Baptism, if (when Men come to Years) they are evidently unsanctified, they must be renewed again by a thorough and powerful Change, or else they cannot escape the Damnation of Hell. Friends and Brethren, be not deceived; God is not mocked, Gal. vi. 7. Whether it be your Baptism, or whatever else that you pretend, I tell you, from the Living God, that, if any of you be prayerless Persons, or unclean, or malicious, or covetous, or riotous, or a Scoffer, or a Lover of evil Company, (Prov. xiii. 20.) in a Word, if you are not holy, strict, and self-denying, Christians, (Heb. xii. 14. Matt. xvi. 24.) you cannot be saved, except you be transformed by a farther Work upon you, and renewed again by Repentance.

Thus I have shewn, that it is not enough, to evidence a Man to be regenerate, that he hath been baptized; effectual Grace not necessarily accompanying Baptism, as some have vainly asserted. But I must answer one Objection before I pass.

Objeft. The Sacraments do certainly attain their Ends, where Man doth not poner obicem, or lay some Obstruction; which Infants do not.

Solut. I answer, it is not the End of Baptism to regenerate. 1. Because then there would be no Reason why it should be confined only to the Seed of Believers; for both the Law of God and the Nature of Charity require us to use the Means of Conversion for all, as far as we can have Opportunity. Were this true, no such Charity as to catch the Children of Turks and Heathens, and baptize them, so dispatch them to Heaven out of Hand; like the bloody Wretches that made the poor Protestants (to save their Lives) swear they would come to Mass, and that that they would never depart from it, and then put them forthwith to Death, saying, They would hang them while in a good Mind. 2. Because it pre-supposes Regeneration, and therefore cannot be intended to confer it. In all the express Instances in Scripture we find that Baptism doth suppose their repenting, believing, receiving the Holy Ghost, Acts viii. 37. ii. 38. and x. 47. Mark xvi. 16. And to imagine that Baptism was instituted for an End, of which not one of the first Subjects was capable, (for they were all adult Persons, and supposed to have Faith and Repentance according as they professed, and their Children were not baptized till after them in their Right,) were no little Absurdity. Were this Doctrine true, Baptism would make Disciples; but we find it doth bespeak them such before-hand, Matt. xxviii. 19. 3. Because Baptism, being but a Seal of the Covenant, cannot convey the Benefits, but according to the Tenor of the Covenant to which it is set.

Now, the Covenant is conditional; therefore the Seals convey conditionally. The Covenant requires Faith and Repentance, as the Conditions of the grand Benefits, Pardon and Life, Acts xvi. 31. and iii. 19. and what the Covenant doth not convey, but upon these Conditions, the Seal cannot: So that Baptism doth pre-suppose Faith and Repentance in the Subject, without which it neither doth nor can convey the saving Benefits; otherwise the Seal should convey, contrary to the Tenor of the Covenant to which it is affixed.

3. It lies not in a moral Righteousness. This exceeds not the Righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees, and therefore cannot bring us to the Kingdom of God, Matt v. 20. Paul while unconverted, touching the Righteousness which is in the Law, was blameless, Phil. iii. 6. None could say, Black is thine Eye. The Self-judiciary could say, I am no Extortioner, Aulterer, unjust, &c. Luke xviii. 11. Thou must have have Something more than all this to shew, or else (however thou mayst justify thyself) God will condemn thee. I condemn not Morality, but warn you not to rest here: Piety includes Morality, as Christianity doth Humanity, and Grace Reason; but we must not divide the Tables.

4. It consists not in an external Conformity to the Rules of Piety. It is too manifest Men may have a Form of Godliness, without the Power, 2 Tim. iii. 5. Men may pray long, Mat. xxiii. 14. and fast often, Luke xviii. 12. and hear gladly, Mark vi. 20. and be very forward in the Service of God, though costly and expensive, Isa i. 11. and yet be Strangers to Conversion: They must have more to plead for themselves, than that they keep their Church, give Alms, and make Use of Prayer, to prove themselves found Converts: No outward Service, but a Hypocrite may do it, even to the giving all his Goods to feed the poor, and his Members to the Fire, 1 Cor. xiii. 3.

5. It lies not in the Chaining-up of Corruption by Education, human Laws, or the Force of incumbent Affliction. It is too common and easy to mistake Education for Grace; but, if this were enough, who a better Man than Jeboadr? While Jeboiadah, his Uncle, lived, he was very forward in God's Service, and calls upon him to repair the House of the Lord; 2 Kings xii. 2, 7. but here was Nothing more than good Education all this While; for, when his good Tutor was taken out of the Way, he appears to have been but a Wolf chained up, and falls on to Idolatry.

6. In short, it consists not in Illumination or Con- viction, in a superficial Change or partial Reformation. An Apostate may be a Man enlightened, Hab vi. 4. and a Felix tremble under Conviction, Acts xxiv. 25. and a Herod amend many Things, Mark vi. 20. It is one Thing to have Sin alarmed only by Convictions, and another to have it captivated and crucified by converting converting Grace. Many, because they have been troubled in Conscience for their Sins, think well of their Cure, miserably mistaking Conviction for Conversion: With these Cains might have passed for a Convert, who ran up and down the World like a Man distracted, under the Rage of a guilty Conscience, till, with Building and Business, he had worn it away, Gen. iv. 13, 14: Others think, that, because they have given over their riotous Courses, and are broken off from evil Company or some particular Lust, and reduced to Sobriety and Civility, they are now no other than real Converts, forgetting that there is a vast Difference between being sanctified and civilized; and that many seek to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, Luke xiii. 24. and are not far from it, Mark xii. 34. and arrive to the almost of Christianity, Acts xxvi. 28. and yet fall short at last. While Conscience holds the Whip over them, many will pray, hear, read, and forbear their delightful sins; but no sooner is the Lion asleep, but they are at their Vomit again. Who more religious than the Jews, when God's Hand was upon them? Ps. lxxviii. 34, 35. Yet no sooner was the Affliction over, but they forgot God, and showed their Religion to be a Fit, v. 36, 37. Thou mayst have disgorged a troublesome Sin, that will not fit in thy Stomach, and have escaped those gross Pollutions of the World, and yet not have changed thy twinish Nature all the While, 2 Pet. ii. 20, 22.

You may cast the Lead out of the rude Mass, into the more comely Proportion of a Plant, and then into the Shape of a Beast, and thence into the Form and Features of a Man, yet all the While it is but Lead still: So that a Man may pass through diverse Transmutations, from Ignorance to Knowledge, from Profaneness to Civility, thence to a Form of Religion, and all this While he is but carnal and unregenerate, whilst his Nature remains unchanged.

Application.
Mistakes about Conversion.

Application. Hear then, O Sinners, hear as you would live, so come and hear, Isa. Iv. 3. Why would you so wilfully deceive yourselves, or build your Hopes upon the Sand? I know he shall find hard Work of it that goes to pluck away your Hopes. It cannot but be ungrateful to you, and truly it is not pleasing to me. I set about it as a Surgeon, when to cut off a putrified Member from his well-beloved Friend, which of Force he must do, though with an aking Heart, a pitiful Eye, and a trembling Hand. But understand me, Brethren; I am only taking down the ruinous House, (which will otherwise speedily fall of itself, and bury you in the Rubbish,) that I may build it fair, strong, and firm, for ever. The Hope of the wicked shall perish, if God be true to his Word, Prov. xi. 7. And hadst not thou better, O Sinner, to let the Word convince thee now in Time, and let go thy false and self-deluding Hopes, than have Death too late to open thine Eyes, and find thyself in Hell before thou art aware? I should be a false and faithless Shepherd if I should not tell you, that you, who have built your Hopes upon no better Grounds than these before-mentioned, are yet in your Sins. Let your Conscience speak: What is it that you have to plead for yourselves? Is it that you wear Christ’s Livery? that you bear his Name? that you are of the visible Church? that you have Knowledge in the Points of Religion, are civilized, perform religious Duties, are just in your Dealings, have been troubled in Conscience for your Sins? I tell you, from the Lord, these Pleas will never be accepted at God’s Bar; all this, though good in itself, will not prove you converted, and so will not suffice to your Salvation. Oh! look about you, and be-think yourselves of turning speedily and soundly. Set to praying, and to reading, and stu.ying your own Hearts; rest not till God hath made thorough Work
Work with you; for you must be other Men, or else you are lost Men.

But, if these be short of Conversion, what shall I say of the profane Sinner? It may be he will scarce cast his Eye or lend his Ear to this Discourse; but if there be any such reading, or within hearing, he must know, from the Lord that made him, that he is far from the Kingdom of God. May a Man be civilized and not converted; where then shall the Drunkard and Glutton appear? May a Man keep Company with the wise Virgins, and yet be shut out; shall not a Companion of Fools much more be destroyed? Prov. xiii. 20. May a Man be true and trusty in his Dealing, and yet not be justified of God; what then will become of thee, O wretched Man, whose Science tells thee thou art false in thy Trade, and false of thy Word, and maketh thy Advantage by a lying Tongue? If Men may be enlightened and brought to the Performance of holy Duties, and yet go down to Perdition for setting in them and sitting down on this Side of Conversion, what will become of you, O miserable Families, that live without God in the World? and of you, O wretched Sinners, with whom God is scarce in all your Thoughts; that are so ignorant that you cannot, or so careless that you will not, pray? O repent and be converted; break off your Sins by Righteousness; away to Christ for pardoning and renewing Grace; give up yourselves to him to walk with him in Holiness, or else you shall never see God. Oh that you would take the Warnings of God! In his Name I once more admonish you: Turn you at my Reproof, Prov. i. 23. Forsake the foolish and live, Prov. ix. 6. Be sober, righteous, godly, Tit. ii. 12. Wash your Hands, you Sinners; purify your Hearts, ye double minded, Jam. v. 8. Cease to do Evil; learn to do well, Isa. i. 16. 7. But, if you will on, you must die, Ezek. xxxiii. 11.
Chap. II. Shewing positively what Conversion is.

May not leave you with your Eyes half open, as he that saw Men as Trees walking, Mark viii. 24.

The Word is profitable for Doctrine, as well as Re-proof, 2 Tim. iii. 16. And therefore, having thus far conducted you by the Shelves and Rocks of so many dangerous Mistakes, I will guide you at length into the Harbour of Truth.

Conversion then, in short, lies in the thorough Change both of the Heart and Life. I shall briefly describe it in its Nature and Causes.

1. The Author is the Spirit of God, and therefore it is called the Sanctification of the Spirit, 2 Thess. ii. 13. and the Renewing of the Holy Ghost, Tit. iii. 5. yet not excluding the other Persons in the Trinity; for the Apostle teacheth us to bless the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for that he hath begotten us again, 1 Pet. i. 3.

And Christ is said to give Repentance unto Israel, Acts v. 31. and is called the Everlasting Father, Isa. ix. 6: and we his Seed, and the Children which God hath given him, Heb. ii. 13. Isa. iii. 10. O blessed Birth! Seven Cities contended for the Birth of Homer, but the whole Trinity fathers the New Creature: Yet this Work is principally ascribed to the Holy Ghost; and so we are said to be born of the Spirit, John iii. 8.

So then it is a Work above Man's Power: We are born, not of the Will of the Flesh, nor of the Will of Man, but of God, John i. 13. Never think thou canst convert thyself; if ever thou wouldest be singly converted, thou must despair of doing it in thine own Strength. It is a Resurrection from the dead, Rev. xx. 5. Eph. ii. 1. a new Creation, Gal. vi. 15. Eph. ii. 10. a Work of absolute Omnipotence, Eph. i. 19. Are these out of the Reach of human Power? If thou hast no more than thou hast by thy first Birth, a good Nature, a meek and cha Temper, &c. thou art a very Stranger to true Conversion: This is a supernatural Work.

2. The moving Cause is internal or external. The internal Mover is only free Grace. Not by Works of Righteousness which we have done, but of his own Mercy he saved us, and by the Renewing of the Holy Ghost, Tit. iii. 5. Of his own Will begat be us, Jam. i. 18. 'We are chosen and called unto Sanctification, not for it,' Eph. i. 4.

God finds Nothing in a Man to turn his Heart, but to turn his Stomach; enough to provoke his Loathing, Nothing to provoke his Love. Look back upon thyself, O Christian; take thy verminous Rags; Look upon thyself in thy Blood, Ezek. xvi. 6. Oh! reflect upon thy swinish Nature, thy filthy Swill, thy once-beloved Mire, 2 Pet. ii. 22. Canst thou think, without Loathing, of thy Trough and Draught? Open thy Sepulchre, Mat. xxiii. 27. Art thou struck almost dead with the hellish Damp? Behold thy putrid Soul, thy loathsome Members: O Stench unfufferable, if thou dost but scent thy own Putrefaction! Ps. xiv. 3. Behold thy ghastly Visage, thy crawling Lusts, thy Slime and Corruption! Do not think your own Clothes abhor thee? Job ix. 31. How then should Holiness and Purity love thee? Be astonished, O Heavens, at this; be moved, O Earth, Jer. ii. 12. Who but must needs cry, Grace! Grace! Zech. iv. 7. Hear and blush, you Children of the most High; O you unthankful Generation! that free Grace is no more in your Mouths, in your Thoughts, no more adored, admired, commended, by such as you! One would think you should be doing Nothing but praising and admiring God wherever you are. How can you make shift to forget such Grace, or to pass it over with a slight and seldom Mention! What but free Grace should move God to love you, unless Enmity could do it, or Deformity could do it, unless Vomit or Rottenness could do it? How affectionately doth doth Peter lift up his Hands! Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus, who of his abundant Mercy, bath begotten us again, 1 Pet. i. 3. How feelingly doth Paul magnify the free Mercy of God in it! God, who is rich in Mercy, for his great Love where-with he loved us, hath quickened us together with Christ: By Grace ye are saved, Eph. ii. 4, 5.
The Nature of Conversion.

The external Mover is the Merit and Intercession of the blessed Jesus. He hath obtained Gifts for the rebellious, Psal. lxviii. 18. and through him it is that God worketh in us what is well-pleasing in his Sight, Heb. xiii. 21. Through him are all spiritual Blessings bestowed upon us in heavenly Things, Eph. i. 3. He interceded for the Elect that believed not, John xvii. 20. Every Convert is the Fruit of his Travail, Isa. liii. 11. Oh! never was Infant born in the World with that Difficulty that Christ endured for us! How emphatically he groaned in his Travail! All the Pains that he suffered on his Cross, they were our Birth-pains, Acts ii. 24. ἀθίνες, the Pulls and Throws that Christ endured for us. He is made Sanctification to us, 1 Cor. i. 30. He sanctified himself, (that is, set apart himself as a Sacrifice,) that we may be sanctified, John xvii. 19. We are sanctified through the Offering of his Body once for all, Heb. x. 10.

It is Nothing then, without his own Bowels, but the Merit and Intercession of Christ, that prevails with God to bestow on us converting Grace. If thou art a new Creature, thou knowest to whom thou owrest it; to Christ’s Pangs and Prayers. Hence the natural Affection of a Believer to Christ. The Foal doth no more naturally run after the Dam, nor the Suckling to the Dugs, than a Believer to Jesus Christ. And whither else shouldst thou go? If any in the World can shew that for thy Heart that Christ can, let them carry it. Doth Satan put in? Doth the World court thee? Doth Sin sue for thy Heart? Why, were these crucified for thee? 1 Cor. i. 13. O Christian,
The Nature of Conversion.

O Christian, love and serve the Lord whilst thou hast a Being. Do not even the Publicans love those that love them, and shew Kindness to them that are kind to them? Matt. v. 46, 47.

3. The Instrument is either personal or real.

The personal is the Ministry. I have begotten you in Christ, through the Gospel; 1 Cor. iv. 15. Christ’s Ministers are they that are sent to open Men’s Eyes, and to turn them to God, Acts xxvi. 18.

O unthankful World, little do ye know what you are doing while you are persecuting the Messengers of the Lord. These are they whose Business it is (under Christ) to save you. Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your Voice, and lifted your Eyes on high? Isa. xxxvii. 23. These are the Servants of the most high God, that shew unto you the Way of Salvation, Acts xvi. 17. and do you thus requite them? O foolish and unwise! Deut. xxxii. 6. O Sons of Ingratitude! against whom do you sport yourselves? against whom make you a wide Mouth, and loll out the Tongue? Isa. lvii. 4. These are the Instruments that God useth to convert and save you; and do you spit in the Face of your Physicians, and throw your Pilots overboard? Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.

The Instrument real is the Word. We were begotten by the Word of Truth: This is it that enlightens the Eye; that converteth the Soul, Psa xix. 7, 8. that maketh wise to Salvation, 2 Tim. iii. 15. This is the incorruptible Seed, by which we are born again, 1 Pet. i. 23. If we are washed, it is by the Word, Eph. v. 26. If we are sanctified, it is through the Truth, John xvii. 17. This generates Faith, and regenerates us, Rom. x. 17. James i. 18.

O ye Saints, how should ye love the Word! for by this you have been converted: O ye Sinners, how should you ply the Word? For by this you must must be converted: No other ordinary Means but this. You, that have felt its renewing Power, make much of it while you live; be for ever thankful for it; tie it about your Necks; write it upon your Hand; lay it in your Bosoms, Prov. vi. 21, 22. When you go, let it lead you; when you sleep, let it keep you; when you wake, let it talk with you. Say, with holy David, I will never forget thy Precepts, for by them thou hast quickened me, Psalm cxix. 93. You, that are unconverted, read the Word with Diligence; flock to it where powerfully preached; fill the Porches as the Multitude of the impotent, blind, halt, withered, waiting for the Moving of the Water, John v. 3. pray for the Coming of the Spirit in the Word; come off thy Knees to the Sermon, and come to thy Knees from the Sermon: The Seed doth not prosper, because not watered by Prayers and Tears, nor covered by Meditation.

4. The final Cause is Man's Salvation, and God's Glory. We are chosen through Sanctification to Salvation, 2 Thess. ii. 13. called that we might be glorified, Romans viii. 30. but especially that God might be glorified, Isaiah lx. 21. that we should shew forth his Praise, 1 Peter ii. 9. and be fruitful in good Works, Col. i. 10. O Christian! do not forget the End of thy Calling; let thy Light shine, Matthew v. 16. let thy Lamp burn; let thy Fruits be good, and many, and in Season, Psalm i. 3. let all thy Designs fall in with God's, that he may be magnified in thee, Phil. i. 20. Why should God repent that he hath made thee a Christian, as in the Time of the old World that he made them Men? Genesis vi. 6. Why shouldst thou be an Eye-sore in his Orchard, (Luke xiii. 7.) by thy Unfruitfulness? or a Son that causeth Shame, as it were a Grief to thy Father, and a Bitterness to her that bare thee? Proverbs xvii. 25. and x. 5. O let the Womb bless thee that bare thee. He that beget a Fool doth it to his Sorrow, and the Father of a Fool hath no Joy, Proverbs xvii. 21.

5. The
5. The Subject is the elect Sinner, and that in all his Parts and Powers, Members and Mind. Whom God predestinates, them only he calls, Rom. viii. 30. None are drawn to Christ by their Calling, nor come to him by believing, but his Sheep, those whom the Father hath given him; John vi. 37, 44. Effectual Calling runs equal with eternal Election, 2 Pet. i. 10.

Thou beginnest at the wrong End if thou disputest first about thine Election: Prove thy Conversion, and then never doubt of thy Election; or, canst thou not yet prove it? set upon a present and thorough Turning. Whatever God's Purposes be, (which are secret,) I am sure his Precepts are plain. How desperately do Rebels argue! If I am elected, I shall be saved, do what I will; if not, I shall be damned, do what I can. Perverse Sinner! wilt thou begin where thou shouldst end? Is not the Word before thee? What faith it? Repent and be converted, that your Sins may be blotted out, Acts iii. 19. If you mortify the Deeds of the Body, you shall live, Rom. viii. 13. Believe and be saved, Acts xvi. 31. What can be plainer? Do not stand still disputing about thine Election, but set to repenting and believing; cry to God for converting Grace. Revealed Things belong to thee; in these busy thyself. It is just (as one well said) that they who will not feed on the plain Food of the Word should be choked with the Bones. Whatever God's Purposes be, I am sure his Promises are true: Whatever the Decrees of Heaven be, I am sure that, if I repent and believe, I shall be saved; and that, if I repent not, I shall be damned. Is not here plain Ground for thee? and wilt thou yet run upon the Rocks?

More particularly this Change of Conversion passes throughout the whole Subject. A carnal Person may have some Shreds of good Morality, a little near the Lift; but he is never good throughout the whole Cloth, the whole Body of Holiness and Christianity:
The Nature of Conversion.

Conversion is not Repairing of the old Building; but it takes all down, and erects a new Structure: It is not the putting in a Patch, or sewing a Lift of Holiness: But, with the true Convert, Holiness is woven into all his Powers, Principles, and Practice. The sincere Christian is quite a new Fabric, from the Foundation to the Top-stone all Fire-new. He is a new Man, Eph. iv. 24. a new Creature. All Things are become new, 2 Cor. v. 17. Conversion is a deep Work, a Heart-Work, Acts ii. 37. and vi. 14. It turns all upside-down, and makes a Man be in a new World. It goes throughout with Men, throughout the Mind, throughout the Members, throughout the Motions of the whole Life.

1. Throughout the Mind. It makes an universal Change within. First, it turns the Balance of the Judgement; so that God and his Glory do weigh down all carnal and worldly Interests, Acts xx. 24. Phil. i. 20. Psa. lxxix. 25. It opens the Eye of the Mind, and makes the Scales of its native Ignorance to fall off, and turns Men from Darkness to Light, Acts xxvi. 18. Eph. v. 8. 1 Pet. ii. 2. The Man, that before saw no Danger in his Condition, now concludes himself lost and for ever undone, Acts ii. 37. except renewed by the Power of Grace. He, that formerly thought there was little Hurt in Sin, now comes to see it to be the chief of Evils: He sees the Unreasonableness, Unrighteousness, the Deformity, and Filthiness, that are in Sin; so that he is affrighted with it, clothes it, dreads it, fears it, and even abhors himself for it, Rom. vii. 18. Job xlili. 6: Ezek. xxxvi. 31. He that could see little Sin in himself, and could find no Matter for Confession, (as it was said of that learned Ignoramus Bellarmine, who, it seems, while he knew so much abroad, was a miserable Stranger to himself, that, when he was to be confessed by the
The Nature of Conversion.

The Priest, could not remember any Thing to confess, but was fain to run back to the Sins of his Youth;) I say, he that could not find Matter for Confession, unless it were some few gross and staring Evils, now Sin reviveth with him, Rom. vii. 9. he sees the Rottenness of his Heart, and desperate and deep Pollution of his whole Nature; he cries, Unclean, unclean, Lev. xiii. 45. Lord, purge me with Hyssop, wash me thoroughly, create in me a new Heart, Psa. li. 2, 7, 10. He sees himself altogether become filthy, Psa. xiv. 3. corrupt both Root and Tree, Mat. vii. 17, 18. he writes unclean upon all his Parts, and Powers, and Performances, Isai. xlvi. 6. Rom. vii. 18. he discovers the nafty Corners that he was never aware of, and sees the Blasphemy, and Theft, and Murder, and Adultery, that is in his Heart, which before he was ignorant of: Heretofore, he saw no Form nor Comeliness in Christ, nor Beauty, that he should desire him; but now he finds the hidden Treasure, and will sell all to buy this Field. Christ is the Pearl he seeks; Sin the Puddle he lothes.

Now, according to this new Light, the Man is of another Mind, another Judgement, than before he was: Now God is all with him, he hath none in Heaven, nor on Earth, like him, Psa. lxxiii. 25. He prefers him truly before all the World; his Favour is his Life, the Light of his Countenance is more than Corn, or Wine and Oil, the Good that formerly he enquired after, and set his Heart upon, Psal. iv. 6, 7. Now, let all the World be set on one Side, and God alone on the other; let the Harlot put on her Paint and Gallantry, and present herself to the Soul (as when Satan would have tempted our Saviour with her) in all the Glory of her Kingdoms, yet the Soul will not fall down and worship her, but will prefer a naked, yea, a crucified, persecuted, Christ before her, Phil. iii. 8. 1 Cor. ii. 2. Not but a Hypocrite may come to yield a generous Assent to this, that God is the chief Good; yea, the wiser Heathens (some few of them) have at last flumbled upon this; but there is a Difference between the absolute and comparative Judgement of the Understanding. No Hypocrite comes so far as to look upon God as the most desirable and suitable Good to him, and thereupon to acquiesce in him. This was the Convert’s Voice: \textit{The Lord is my Portion: faith my Soul: Whom have I in Heaven but thee?} and there is none upon Earth that I desire besides thee. God is the Strength of my Heart, and my Portion for ever, \textit{Psa.} lxxiii. 25, 26. Lam. iii. 24.

Secondly, \textit{It turns the Bias of the Will, both as to Means and End.} 1. The Intentions of the Will are altered, Ezek. xxxvi. 26. Jer. xxxi. 33. Isa. xxvi. 8, 9. Now the Man hath new Ends and Designs; now he intends God above all, and desires and designs Nothing in all the World so much as that Christ may be magnified in him, \textit{Phil.} i. 20. He counts himself more happy in this, than in all that the Earth could yield, that he may be serviceable to Christ, and bring him Glory in his Generation. This is the Mark he aims at, that the Name of Jesus may be great in the World, and that all the Sheaves of his Brethren may bow to his Sheaf.

Reader, dost thou view this, and never ask thyself whether it be thus with thee? Pause a while, and breathe on this great Concernment.

2. \textit{The Election is also changed; so that he chooseth another Way, Psa. cxix. 15.} He pitcheth upon God as his Blessedness, and upon Christ as the principal and Holiness as the subordinate Means to bring him to God, \textit{John} xiv. 6. \textit{Rom.} ii. 7. He chooseth Jesus for his Lord, Col. ii. 6. He is not merely forced into Christ by the Storm, nor doth he take Christ for bare Necessity, as the Man begged from the Gallows, when he takes the Wise rather than the Halter;
ter; but he comes off freely in the Choice. This Match is not made in a Fright, as with the terrified Conscience, or dying Sinner, that will seemingly do any Thing for Christ, but doth only take Christ rather than Hell; but he deliberately resolves that Christ is his best Choice, Phil. i. 23. and would rather have him to choose, than all the Good of this World, might he enjoy it while he would. Again, he takes Holiness for his Path; he doth not of mere Necessity submit to it; but he likes and loves it:
I have chosen the Way of thy Precipts, Ps. cxix.
173. He takes God's Testimonies, not as his Bondage, but as his Heritage; yea, Heritage for ever,
v. 111. He counts them not his Burden, but his Bliss; not his Cords, but his Cordials, 1 John v. 5.
P.S. cxix. 14, 16, 17. He doth not only bear, but takes up, Christ's Yoke: He takes not Holiness as the Stomach doth the loathed Potion, (which it will down with rather than die,) but as the hungry doth his beloved Food. No Time passeth so sweetly with him (when he is himself) as that he spends in the Ex-cercifes of Holiness: These are both his Aliment and Element, the Desire of his Eyes, and the Joy of his Heart, Job xxiii. 12. Ps. cxix. 82, 131, 162, 174.
and lxiii. 5. Put thy Conscience to it as thou goest, whether thou art the Man. O happy Man, if this be thy Case! But see thou be thorough and impartial in the Search.

Thirdly, It turns the Bent of the Affection, 2 Cor.
vii. 11. These run all in a new Channel: The Jordan is now driven back, and the Water runs upward, against its natural Course.

Christ is his Hope, 1 Tim. i. 1. This is his Prize, Phil. iii. 8. Here his Eye is; here his Heart is. He is contented to cast all overboard, (as the Merchant in the Storm ready to perish,) so he may but keep this Jewel.
The first of his Desires is not after Gold, but Grace, Phil. iii. 13. He hungers after it, he seeks it as Silver, he digs for it as for hid Treasure; he had rather be gracious than be great; he had rather be the holiest Man on Earth than the most learned, the most famous, most prosperous. While carnal, he said, Oh! if I were but in great Esteem, and rolled in Wealth, and swimming in Pleasure, if my Debts were paid, and I and mine provided for, then I were a happy Man. But now the Tone is changed; Oh! faith the Convert, if I had but my Corruptions subdued, if I had such Measures of Grace, such Fellowship with God, though I were poor and despised, I should not care; I should account myself a blest Man. Reader, is this the Language of thy Soul? His Joys are changed. He rejoiceth in the Ways of God's Testimonies, as much as in all Riches, Ps. cxix. 14. He delights in the Law of the Lord, wherein once he had little Savour. He hath no such Joy as in the Thoughts of Christ, the Fruition of his Company, the Prosperity of his People.

His Cares are quite altered. He was once set for the World, and any Scraps of By-time (Nothing too often) were enough for his Soul: Now he gives over caring for the Affes, and sets his Heart on the Kingdom; now all the Cry is, 'What shall I do to be saved!' As xvi. 30. His great Solicitude is now to secure his Soul. Oh! how he would blest you, if you could but put him out of Doubt of this!

His Fears are not so much of suffering, but of sinning, Heb. xi. 25, 27. Once he was afraid of Nothing so much as the Loss of his Esteem or Esteem, the Pleasure of Friends, the Frowns of the Great; Nothing founded so terrible to him as Pain, or Poverty, or Disgrace; now, these are little to him, in Comparison of God's Dishonour or Displeasure. How warily warily doth he walk, lest he should tread upon a Snare! he feareth alway; he looks before and behind; he hath his Eye upon his Heart, and is often casting over his Shoulder, lest he should be overtaken with Sin, Ps. xxxix. 1. Prov. xxviii. 14. Ec. ii. 14. It kills his Heart to think of losing God's favour, this he dreads as his only undoing, Psal. li. 11, 12, and cxix. 8. No Thought in the World doth pinch him and pain him so much, as to think of Sin.

He can find no Words sweet enough. Let me see thee, O Light of mine Eyes: Come, O thou Joy of my Spirit. Let me behold thee, O Life of my Soul. Appear unto me, O my great Delight, my sweet Comfort; O my God, my Life, and the whole Glory of my Soul. Let me find thee, O Desire of my Heart. Let me hold thee, O Love of my Soul. Let me embrace thee, O heavenly Bridegroom. Let me possess thee.

His Sorrows have now a new Vent, 2 Cor. vii. 9, 10. The View of his Sins, the Sight of a Christ crucified, that would scarce stir him before, now how much do they affect his Heart!

His Hatred boils, his Anger burns against Sin, Psal. cxix. 104. He hath no Patience with himself, he calls himself Fool and Beast, and thinks any Name too good for himself, when his Indignation is stirred up against Sin, Ps. lxxiii. 22. Prov. xxx. 2. He could once swill in it with too much Pleasure; now he lothes the Thought of returning to it as much as licking up the filthiest Vomit.

Commune then with thy own Heart, and attend the common and general Current of thine Affection, C 3 whether whether it be towards God in Christ above all other Concernments. Indeed, sudden and strong Communications of the Affections and Sensitive Parts are oftentimes found in Hypocrites; especially where the natural Inclination leads thereunto: And, contrariwise, the sanctified themselves are many Times without sensible Stirring of the Affections, where the Temples, when reflow, dry, and dull. The great Enquiry determined for God, above and Will be standingly apparent; and, if the Affections do sincerely reveal their Choice and Conduct, though it be not so strongly and sensibly as is to be desired, there is no Doubt but the Change is saving.

2. Throughout the Members. Those that were before the Instruments of Sin are now become the holy Utensils of Christ's living Temple, Rom. vi. 16. 1 Cor. iii. 16. He that before made, as it were, a Bawd or a Barrel of his Body, now possesseth his Vessel in Sanctification and Honour, in Temperance, Chastity, and Sobriety, and dedicateth it to the Lord, 1 Thess. iv. 4. Gal. v. 22, 23. 1 Cor. vi. 19, 20.

The Eye that was once a wandering Eye, a wanton Eye, a haughty, a covetous, Eye, is now employed (as Mary's) in weeping over its Sins, Luke vii. 38. in beholding God in his Works, Psal. viii. 3. in reading his Word, Acts viii. 30. in looking up and down for Objects of Mercy, and Opportunities for his Service.

The Ear that was once open to Satan's Call, and that (like a vitiated Palate) did relish Nothing so much as filthy (or at least filthy) Talk and the Fool's Laughter, is now bored to the Door of Christ's House, and open to his Discipline: It faith, Speak, Lord, for thy Servant heareth: It cries, with him, Veriat Verbum Domini, and waits for his Words as the Rain, and reliseth them more than the appointed Food,
The Head, that was the Shop of worldly Designs, is now filled with other Matters, and set on the Study of God's Will, Ps. i. 2. and cxix. 97. and the Man beats his Head, not so much about his Gain, but about his Duty. The Thoughts and Cares that fill his Head are principally how he may please God, and flee Sin.

His Heart, that was the Shop of world's Design, is now become an Altar of Incense, where the Fire of divine Love is ever kept in, and whence the daily Sacrifice of Prayer and Praise, and sweet Incense of holy Desires, Ejaculations, and Anhelations, are continually ascending, Ps. cviii. 1. and cxix. 20. and cxxxix. 17, 18.

The Mouth is become a Well of Life, his Tongue choice Silver, and his Lips feed many, now the Salt of Grace hath seasoned his Speech, and eaten out the Corruption, Col. iv. 6. and cleansed the Mouth from its filthy Communication, Flattery, Boasting, Lying, Swearing, Backbiting, that once came like the Flames that proceeded from the Hell that was in the Heart, Jam. iii 6, 7. The Thumb, that was once an open Sepulchre, Rom. iii. 13. now sends forth the sweet Breath of Prayer and holy Discourse, and the Man speaks in another Tongue, in the Language of Canaan, and is never so well as when talking of God and Christ, and the Matters of another World. His Mouth bringeth Wisdom; his Tongue is become the Silver Trumpet of his Maker's Praise, his Glory, and the best Member that he hath.

Now, here you shall have the Hypocrite halting: He speaks (it may be) like an Angel, but he hath a covetous Eye, or the Gain of Unrighteousness in his Hand; or the Hand is white, but his Heart is full of Rottenness, Mat. xxiii. 27. full of unmortified Cares, a very Oven of Lust, a Shop of Pride, the Seat of Malice.
The Nature of Conversion.

Malice. It may be with Nebuchadnezzar's Image he hath a golden Head, a great Deal of Knowledge; but he hath Feet of Clay, his Affections are worldly, he minds earthly Things, and his Way and Walk are sensual and carnal, you may trace him in his secret Haunts, and his Footsteps will be found in some Bypaths of Sin; the Work is not throughout with him.

3. Throughout the Motions, or the Life and Practice, the new Man takes a new Course, Eph. ii. 2, 3. His Conversation is in Heaven, Phil. iii. 20. No sooner doth Christ call by effectual Grace, but he straitway becomes a Follower of him, Mat. iv. 20. When God hath given the new Heart, and written his Law in his Mind, he forthwith walks in his Statutes, and keeps his Judgements, Ezek. xxxvi. 26, 27.

Though Sin may dwell (God knows, a wearisome and unwelcome Guest) in him, yet it hath no more Dominion over him, Rom. vi. 7, 14. He hath his Fruit unto Holiness, Rom. vi. 22. And, though he makes many a Blot, yet the Law of Life and Jesus is what he eyes as his Copy, Ps. cxix. 30. Heb. xii. 2. and he hath an unfeigned Respect to all God's Commandments, making Conscience even of little Sins and little Duties, Psal. cxix. 113. His very Infirmities, which he cannot help though he would, are his Soul's Burden, and are like the Duff in a Man's Eye, which, though but little, yet is not a little troublesome, (O Man! dost thou read this and never turn in upon thy Soul by Self-examination?) The sincere Convert is not one Man at Church and another at Home; he is not a Saint on his Knees, and a Cheat in his Shop; he will not tithe the Mint and Cummin, and neglect Mercy and Judgement, and the weighty Matters of the Law; he doth not pretend Piety, and neglect Morality, Mat. xxiii. 14. but he turneth from all his Sins, and keeps all God's Statutes, Ezek. xviii. 21. though not perfectly, (except in Desire and Endeavour) yet sincerely, not allowing himself himself in the Breach of any, Rom. vii. 15. Now he delights in the Word, and sets himself to Prayer, and opens his Hand, (if able,) and draws out his Soul to the hungry, Rom. vii. 22. Ps. cix. 4. Isa. lviii. 10. He breaketh off his Sins by Righteousness, and his Iniquities by shewing Mercy to the Poor, Dan. iv. 27. and hath a good Conscience, willing in all Things to live honestly, Heb. xiii. 18. and to keep without Offence towards God and Man.

Here again you find the Unsoundness of many Professors, that take themselves for good Christians; they are partial in the Law, Mal. ii. 9. and take up with the cheap and easy Duties of Religion, but go not through with the Work. They are as a Cake not turned, half toasted and half raw. It may be you shall have them exact in their Words, punctual in their Dealings, but then they do not exercise themselves unto Godliness; and, for examining themselves and governing their Hearts, to this they are strangers. You may have them duly at the Church; but, follow them to their Families, and there you shall see little but the World minded; or, if they have a Road for Family-duties, follow them to their Closets, and there you shall find their Souls are little looked after. It may be they seem otherwise religious, but bridle not their Tongues, and so all their Religion is in vain, Jam. i. 26. It may be they come up to Closet and Family Prayer; but, follow them to their Shops, and there you shall find them in a Trade of Lying, or some covert and cleanly Way of Deceit. Thus the Hypocrite goes throughout in the Course of his Obedience. And thus much for the Subject of Conversion.

6. "The Terms are either from which or to which."

1. The Terms from which we turn in this Motion of Conversion are, Sin, Satan, the World, and our own Righteousness.
First, Sin. When a Man is converted, he is forever out with Sin; yea, with all Sin, Ps. cxix. 128. but most of all with his own Sins, and especially with his Bosom Sin, Ps. xviii. 23. Sin is now the But of his Indignation, 2 Cor. vii. 11. he thirsts to bathe his Hands in the Blood of his Sins. His Sins fret abroach his Sorrows. It is Sin that pierces him and wounds him; he feels it like a Thorn in his Side, like a Prick in his Eyes; he groans and struggles under it, and not formally, but feelingly, cries out, O wretched Man! He is not impatient of any Burden so much as of his Sin, Psa. xl. 12. If God should give him his Choice, he would choose any Affliction, so he might be rid of Sin: He feels it like the cutting Gravel in his Shoes, pricking and paining him as he goes.

Before Conversion he had light Thoughts of Sin; he cherished it in his Bosom, as Uriah his Lamb; he nourished it up, and it grew up together with him; it did eat, as it were, of his own Meat, and drank of his own Cup, and lay in his Bosom, and was to him as a Daughter: But, when God opens his Eyes by Conversion, he throws it away with Abhorrence, Isa. xxx. 22. as a Man would a lothesome Toad, which in the Dark he hath hugged fast in his Bosom, and thought it had been some pretty and harmless Bird. When a Man is savagely changed, he is not only deeply convinced of the Danger, but Defilement, of Sin; and, Oh! how earnest is he with God to be purified! he lothes himself for his Sins, Ezek. xxxvi. 31.

He runs to Christ, and calls himself into the Fountain for Sin and for Uncleanness, Zech. xiii. 1. If he fall, what a Stir is there to get all clean again! He flies to the Word, and wafhes, and rubs, and rinses, labouring to cleanse himself from all Filthiness both of Flesh and Spirit: He abhors his once-beloved Sin, Psa. xviii. 23. as a cleanly Nature doth the Trough and Mire wherein he sees the Swine delight.
The found Convert is heartily engaged against Sin; he struggles with it, he wars against it; he is too often foiled, but he will never yield the Cause, nor lay down the Weapons, but he will up and to it again, while he has Breath in his Body: He will never give quiet Possession; he will make no Peace; he will give no Quarter; he falls upon it, and fires upon it, and is still disquieting it with continual Alarms. He can forgive his other Enemies; he can pity them, and pray for them, Acts vii. 60. but here he is implacable, here he is set upon Revenge; he hunteth, as it were, for the precious Life; his Eye shall not pity, his Hand shall not spare, though it be a right Hand or a right Eye: Be it a gainful Sin, most delightful to his Nature, or Support to his Esteem with carnal Friends, yet he will rather throw his Gain down the Kennel, see his Credit fall, or the Blower of Pleasure wither in his Hand, than he will allow himself in any known Way of Sin, Luke xix. 8. He will grant no Indulgence; he will give no Toleration; he draws upon Sin wherever he meets it, and frowns upon it with this unwelcome Salute, Have I found thee, O mine Enemy!

Reader, hath Conscience been at Work while thou hast been looking over these Lines? Hast thou pondered these Things in thy Heart? Hast thou searched the Book within, to see if these Things be so? If not, read it again, and make thy Conscience speak, whether or not it be thus with thee.

Hast thou crucified thy Flesh, with its Affections and Lusts; and not only confessed, but forsaken, thy Sins, all Sin in thy fervent Desires, and the ordinary Practice of every deliberate and wilful Sin in thy Life? If not, thou art yet unconverted. Doth not Conscience fly in thy Face as thou readest, and tell thee that thou livest in a Way of Lying for thy Advantage, that thou usest Deceit in thy Calling, that there is some Way of secret Wantonness that thou livest in?
The Nature of Conversion.

why then do not deceive thyself; thou art in the Gall of Bitterness, and Bond of Iniquity.

Doth not thy unbridled Tongue, thy brutish Intemperance, thy wicked Company, thy Neglect of Prayer, of reading and hearing the Word, now witness against thee, and say, We are thy Works, and we will follow thee? Or, if I have not hit thee right, doth not the Bird within tell thee, there is such or such a Way that thou knowest to be evil, that yet for some carnal Respect thou dost tolerate thyself in, and art willing to spare? If this be thy Case, thou art to this Day unregenerate, and must be changed or condemned.

Secondly, Satan. Conversion binds the strong Man, spoils his Armour, casts out his Goods, turns Men from the Power of Satan unto God, Acts xxvi. 18. Before, the Devil could no sooner hold up his Finger to the Sinner, to call him to his wicked Company, sinful Games, and filthy Delights, but presently he followed, like an Ox to the Slaughter, and a Fool to the Correction of the Stocks; as the Bird that hasteth to the Prey, and knoweth not that it is for his Life. No sooner could Satan bid him lie, but presently he had it on the Top of his Tongue, Acts v. 3. No sooner could Satan offer a wanton Object, but he was stung with Lust. The Devil could do more with him than God could: If the Devil says, Away with these Family-duties, be sure they shall be rarely enough performed in his House: If the Devil says, Away with this Strictness, this Preciseness, he will keep far enough from it: If he tells him, There is no Need of these Closet-duties, he shall go from Day to Day, and scarce perform them. But, since he is converted, he serves another Matter, and takes quite another Course, 1 Pet. iv. 4. he goes and comes at Christ's Beck, Col. iii. 24. Satan may sometimes catch his Foot in a Trap, but he will no longer be a willing Captive; he watches against the Snares and Baits.
The Nature of Conversion.

Baits of Satan, and studies to be acquainted with his Devices; he is very suspicious of his Plots, and is very jealous in what comes athwart him, lest Satan should have some Design upon him; he wrestles against Principalities and Powers, Eph. vi. 12. he entertains the Messenger of Satan as Men do the Messenger of Death; he keeps his Eye upon his Enemy, 1 Pet. v. 8. and watches in his Duties, lest Satan should put in his Foot.

Thirdly, The World. Before a found Faith a Man is overcome of the World; either he bows down to Mammon, or idolizes his Reputation, or is a Lover of Pleasure more than a Lover of God, 2 Tim. iii. 4. Here is the Root of Man’s Misery by the Fall; he is turned aside to the Creature instead of God, and gives that Esteem, Confidence, and Affection, to the Creature, that is due to him alone, Rom. i. 25.

Mat. x. 37. Prov. xviii. 11. Jer. xvii. 5.

O miserable Man! what a deformed Monster hath Sin made thee! God made thee little lower than the Angels; Sin, little better than the Devils, John vi. 70. and viii. 44. a Monster, that hath his Head and Heart where his Feet should be, and his Feet kicking against Heaven, and every Thing out of Place! The World, that was formed to serve thee, is come to rule thee, and the deceitful Harlot hath bewitched thee with her Enchantments, and made thee bown and serve her.

But converting Grace sets all in Order again, and puts God in the Throne, and the World at his Footstool, Ps. lxxxiii. 25. Christ in the Heart, and the World under the Feet, Eph. iii. 17. Rev. xii. 1. So Paul, I am crucified to the World, and the World to me, Gal. vi. 14. Before this Change all the Cry was, Who will shew us any worldly Good? but now he sings another Tune, Lord, lift thou up the Light of thy Countenance upon me, and take the Corn and Wine who so will, Ps. iv. 6, 7. Before, his Heart’s Delight and Content were in
The Nature of Conversion.

in the World; then the Song was, Soul, take thy Ease, eat, drink, and be merry; thou hast much Goods laid up for many Years: But now all this is withered, and there is no Comeliness, that we should desire it; and he tunes up with the sweet Psalmist of Israel: The Lord is the Portion of my Inheritance; the Lines are fallen to me in a fair Place, and I have a goodly Heritage. He blesteth himself, and boasteth himself in God, Psa. xxxiv. 2. Lam. iii. 24. Nothing else can give him Content. He hath written Vanity and Vexation upon all his worldly Enjoyments, Eccles. i. 2. and Loss and Dung upon all human Excellences, Phil. iii. 7, 8. He hath Life and Immortality now in Chace, Rom. ii. 7. He trades for Grace and Glory, and hath a Crown incorruptible in Pursuit, 1 Cor. ix. 25. His Heart is set in him to seek the Lord, 1 Chron. xxii. 19. and 2 Chron. xv. 15. He first seeketh the Kingdom of Heaven and the Righteousness thereof, and Religion is no longer a Matter by the bye with him, but the main of his Care, Matt. vi. 33. Psa. xxviii. 4. Now the gaudy Idol is become Nebuchadnezzar, 2 Kings xviii. 4. and he gets up and treads upon it, as Diogenes trampling upon Plato's Hangings, saying, Calco Platonis. Before, the World had the swaying Interest with him; he would do more for Gain than Godliness, 1 Tim. vi. 5. more to please his Friend, or his Flesh, than to please the God that made him; and God must stand by till the World were first served: But now all must stand by; he hates Father and Mother, and Life, and all, in Comparison of Christ, Luke xiv. 26. Well, then, pause a little, and look within: Doth not this nearly concern thee? Thou pretendest for Christ, but doth not the World sway thee? Doth not thou take more real Delight and Content in the World than in him? Doth thou not find thyself better at Ease when the World goes to thy Mind, and thou art encompassed with carnal Delights, than when retired to Prayer and Meditation in thy Closet, or or attending upon God’s Word and Worship? No furer Evidence of an unconverted State than to have the Things of the World uppermost in our Aim, Love, and Estimation, John ii. 15. Jam. iv. 4.

With the sound Convert, Christ hath the Supremacy. How dear is his Name to him! How precious is his Favour! Cant. i. 3. Psa. xlv. 8. The Name of Jesus is engraven upon his Heart, Gal. iv. 19. and lies as a Bundle of Myrrh between his Breasts, Cant. i. 13, 14. Honour is but Air, and Laughter is but Madness, and Mammon is fallen like Dagon before the Ark, with Hands and Head broken off on the Threshold, when once Christ is savingly revealed. Here is the Pearl of great Price to the true Convert; here is his Treasure; here is his Hope, Mat. xiii. 44, 45. This is his Glory; my Beloved is mine, and I am his, Gal. vi. 14. Cant. ii. 16. Oh! it is sweeter to him to be able to say, Christ is mine, than if he could say, the Kingdom is mine, the Indies are mine.

Fourthly, Your own Righteousness. Before Conversion, Man seeks to cover himself with his own Fig-leaves, Phil. iii. 6, 7. and to lick himself whole with his own Duties, Mich. vi. 6, 7. He is apt to trust in himself, Luke xvi. 15. and xviii. 9. and set up his own Righteousness, and to reckon his Counters for Gold, and not submit to the Righteousness of God, Rom. x. 3. But Conversion changes his Mind; now he casts away his filthy Rags, and counts his own Righteousness as a menstruous Cloth: He casts it off, as a Man would the verminous Tatters of a naffy Beggar, Isa. lxiv. 6. Now he is brought to Poverty of Spirit, Matt. v. 3. complains of and condemns himself, Rom. vii. and all his Inventory is, poor, and miserable, and wretched, and blind, and naked, Rev. iii. 17. He sees a World of Iniquity in his holy Things, and calls his once-idolized Righteousness but Filth, and Loss, and Dog’s meat; and would not not for a thousand Worlds be found in himself, Phil. iii. 4, 7, 8, 9. His Finger is ever upon his Sores, Psa. li, 3. his Sins, his Wants. Now he begins to set a high Price upon Christ's Righteousness; he sees the Need of a Christ in every Duty, to justify his Person, and justify his Performances; he cannot live without him; he cannot pray without him: Christ must go with him, or else he cannot come into the Presence of God; he leans upon the Hand of Christ, and so bows himself in the House of his God; he sets himself down for a lost undone Man without him; his Life is hid in Christ, as the Root of a Tree spreads in the Earth, for Stability and Nutriment. Before, the News of a Christ was a stable and fapless Thing; but now how sweet is a Christ! Augustine could not relish his before so much-admired Cicero, because he could not find the Name of Christ: how pathetically cries he, Dulcis sine, amantis benignis claris, &c. quando te videbo? quando satiabor de pulchritudine tua? Meditat. c. 37. O most sweet, most loving, most kind, most dear, most precious, most desired, most lovely, most fair, &c. all in a Breath, when he speaks of and to his Christ. In a Word, the Voice of the Convert is with the Martyr, None but Christ.

The Terms, which are either ultimate, or subordinate, or mediate

The ultimate is, God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, whom the true Convert takes as his all-sufficient and eternal Blessedness. A Man is never truly sanctified till his very Heart be in Truth set upon God above all Things, as his Portion and chief Good. These are the natural Breathings of a Believer's Heart: Thou art my Portion, Psa. cxix. 57. My Soul shall make her Boast in the Lord, Psa. xxxiv. 2. My Expectation is from him; he only is my Rock and my Salvation; he is my Defence; in God is my Salvation and Glory;
The Nature of Conversion.

Glory; the Rock of my Strength and my Refuge is in God, Psal. lxii. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7. and xviii. 1, 2.

Would you put it to an Issue whether you be converted or not? Now let thy soul and all that is within thee attend.

Haft thou taken God for thy Happiness? Where doth the Content of thy Heart lie? Whence doth thy choicest Comfort come in? Come then, and, with Abraham, lift up thine Eyes Eastward, and Westward, and Northward, and Southward, and cast about thee, what is it that thou wouldst have in Heaven, or on Earth, to make thee happy? If God should give thee thy Choice, as he did to Solomon, or should say to thee, as Abraham to Esther, What is thy Petition, and what is thy Request, and it shall be granted thee? (Esth. v. 2.) What wouldst thou ask! Go into the Gardens of Pleasure, and gather all the fragrant Flowers from thence: Would these content thee? Go to the Treasures of Mammon; suppose thou mightest lade thyself as thou wouldst from hence. Go to the Towers to the Trophies of Honour; what thinkest thou of being a Man of Renown, and having a Name like the Name of the great Men of the Earth? Would any of this, all this, suffice thee, and make thee count thyself a happy Man? If so, then certainly thou art carnal and unconverted. If not, go farther; wade into the divine Excellences, the Store of his Mercies, the Hiding of his Power, the Depths unfathomable of his All-sufficiency: Doth this suit thee best, and please thee most? Doth thou say, It is good to be here? Matt. xxvii. 4. Here will I pitch; here will I live and die? Wilt thou let all the World go rather than this? Then it is well between God and thee; happy art thou, O Man; happy art thou that ever thou wast born: If a God can make thee happy, thou must needs be happy; for thou hast vouched the Lord to be thy God, Deut. xxvi. 17. Doft
The Nature of Conversion.

Doest thou say to Christ as he to us, Thy Father shall be my Father, and thy God be my God, John xx. 17. Here is the turning Point: An unsound Professor never takes up his Rest in God, but converting Grace does the Work, and so cures the fatal Mility of the Fall, by turning the Heart from its Idol to the living God, I Thess. i. 9. Now says the Soul, Lord, whither shall I go? Thou hast the Words of eternal Life, John vi. 68. Here he centers, here he settles: Oh! it is the Entrance of Heaven to him, to see his Interest in God. When he discovers this, he faith, Return unto thy Rest, O my Soul, for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee, Psal. cxvi. 7. And it is even ready to breathe out Simeon's Song, Lord, now lettest thou thy Servant depart in Peace, Luke ii. 29. and faith, with Jacob, when his old Hose revived at the welcome Tidings, It is enough, Gen. xlv. 28. When he sees he hath a God in Covenant to go to, this is all his Salvation, and all his Desire, 2 Sam. xxiii. 5.

Man, is this thy Case? hast thou experienced this? Why then blessed art thou of the Lord; God hath been at Work with thee, he hath laid hold on thy Heart by the Power of converting Grace, or else thou couldst never have done this.

The mediate Term of Conversion is either principal or its principal.

The Principal is Christ, the only Mediator between God and Man, 1 Tim. ii. 5. His Work is to bring us to God. 1 Pet. iii. 18. He is the Way to the Father. John xiv. 6. the only Plank on which we may escape, the only Door by which we may enter. John x. 9. Conversion brings over the Soul to Christ to accept him, Col. ii. 6. as the only Means of Life, as the only Way, the only Name given under Heaven, Acts iv. 12. He looks not for Salvation in any other but him, nor in any other with him; but throws throws himself on Christ alone, as one that should cast himself with spread Arms upon the Sea.

_Here (faith the convinced Sinner) I will venture; and, if I perish, I perish; if I die, I will die here. But, Lord, suffer me not to perish under the pitiful Eye of thy Mercy._ Entreat me not to leave thee, or to turn away from following after thee, _Ruth, i. 16._ Here I will throw myself, if thou kick me, if thou kill me, _Job xiii._ 15. I will not go from thy Door.

Thus the poor Soul doth venture on Christ, and resolvedly adhere to him. Before Conversion, the World, indeed, of Christ, minded the Farm, Friends, Merchandise, more than _Phil._ v. 20. now, Christ is to him as his necessary Food, his daily Bread, the Life of his Heart, the Staff of his Life, _Gal. ii._ 20. His great Design is, that Christ may be magnified in him, _Phil._ i. 20. His Heart once said, as they to the Spouse, _What is thy beloved more than another? Cant._ v. 9. He found more sweetness in his merry Company, wicked Games, earthly Delights, than in Christ. He took Religion for a Fancy, and the Talk of great Enjoyments for an idle Dream; but now to him to live is Christ. He sets light by all that he accounted precious, for the Excellency of the Knowledge of Christ, _Phil._ iii. 8.

All of Christ is accepted by the sincere Convert: He loves not only the Wages, but the Work; of Christ, _Rom._ vii. 12. not only the Benefits, but the Burden of Christ; he is willing not only to tread out the Corn, but to draw under the Yoke; he takes up the Commands of Christ, yea, and Cross of Christ, _Mat._ xi. 9. and xvi. 24.

The Unfound closeth by the Halves with Christ; he is all for the Salvation of Christ, but he is not for Sanctification; he is for the Privileges, but appropriates not the Person, of Christ; he divides the Offices and Benefits of Christ. This is an Error in the the Foundation: Who so loveth Life, let him beware here; it is an undoing Mistake, of which you have been often warned, and yet none more common. Jesus is a sweet Name; but Men love not the Lord Jesus in Sincerity, Eph. vi. 24. They will not have him as God offers, to be a Prince and a Saviour, Acts v. 31. They divide what God hath joined, the King and the Priest: Yea, they will not accept the Salvation of Christ as he intends it; they divide it here. Every Man's Vote is for Salvation from Suffering; but they desire not to be saved from Sinning; they would have their Lives saved; they would have their Land. Yea, many divide here again; they would be content to have some of their Sins destroyed, but they cannot leave the Lap of Dalilah, or divorce the beloved Herodias: They cannot be cruel to the right Eye, or right Hand: The Lord must pardon them in this Thing, 2 Kings v. 18. Oh! be carefully tender here; your Souls lie upon it. The sound Convert takes a whole Christ, and takes him for all Intents and Purposes, without Exceptions, without Limitations, without Reserves. He is willing to have Christ upon any Terms; he is willing to have the Dominion of Christ, as well as Deliverance by Christ; he faith, with Paul, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? Acts ix. 6. Any Thing, Lord; He sends the Blank to Christ, to set down his own Conditions, Acts ii. 37. and xvi. 30.

The left principal is the Laws, Ordinances, and Ways of Christ. The Heart that was once set against these, and could not endure the Strictness of these Bonds, the Severity of these Ways, now falls in Love with them, and chooses them as its Rule and Guide for ever, Psa. cxix. 111, 112.

Four Things (I observe) God doth work in every sound Convert, with Reference to the Laws and Ways of Christ, by which you may come to know your
The Nature of Conversion.

...your State, if you will be faithful to your own Souls, and therefore keep your Eyes upon your Hearts as you go along.

1. The Judgement is brought to approve of them, and subscribe to them, as most righteous, and most reasonable, Psalms cxix. 112, 128, 137, 138. The Mind is brought to like the Ways of God; and the corrupt Prejudices that were once against them, as unreasonable and intolerable, are now removed. The Understanding assents to them all, as holy, just, and good, Rom. vii. 12. How is David taken up with the Excellencies of God's Laws! how doth he expatiate on their Praises, both from their inherent Qualities and admirable Effects! Psalms xix. 8, 9, 10, &c.

There is a twofold Judgement of the Understanding, Judicium absolutum et comparatum. The absolute Judgement is, when a Man thinks such a Course best in the general, but not for him, or not under the present Circumstances he is in, probet, & nunc. Now, a godly Man's Judgement is for the Ways of God, and that not only the absolute, but comparative, Judgement; he thinks them not only the best in general, but best for him; he looks upon the Rules of Religion not only as tolerable, but desirable; yea, more desirable than Gold, fine Gold; yea, much fine Gold, Psalms xix. 10.

His Judgements are settledly determined, that it is best to be holy, that it is best to be strict, that it is in itself the most eligible Course, and that it is for him the wisest and most rational and desirable Choice. Hear the godly Man's Judgement: I know, O Lord, that thy Judgments are right: I love thy Commandments above Gold, yea, above fine Gold: I esteem all thy Precepts concerning all Things to be right; and I hate every false Way, Psalms cxix. 12, 128. Mark, he did approve of all that God required, and disapproved of all that he forbade: Righteous, O Lord, and upright are thy Judgements.
The Nature of Conversion.

Judgements. Thy Testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful, Thy Word is true from the Beginning, and every one of thy righteous Judgements endureth for ever, Ps. cxix. 137, 138, 160. See how readily and fully he subscribes; he declares his Assent and Consent to it, and all and every Thing therein contained.

2. The Desire of the Heart is to know the whole Mind of Christ, Ps. cxix. 124, 125, 169, and xxv. 4, 5. He would not have one Sin undiscovered, nor be ignorant of one Duty required. It is the natural and earnest Breathing of a sanctified Heart, "Lord, " if there be any Way of Wickedness in me, do thou " discover it. What I know not teach thou me; " and, if I have done Iniquity, I will do it no more." The Unsound is willingly ignorant, 2 Pet. iii. 5. loves not to come to the Light, John iii. 20. He is willing to keep such or such a Sin, and therefore is lothe to know it to be a Sin, and will not let in the Light at that Window. Now the gracious Heart is willing to know the whole Latitude and Compass of his Maker's Law, Ps. cxix. 18, 19, 27, 33, 64, 66, 68, 73, 108, 124. He receives, with all Acceptation, the Word that convinceth him of any Duty that he knew not, or minded not, before, or discovereth any Sin that lay hid before, Psal. cxix. 11.

3. The free and resolved Choice of the Will is determined for the Ways of Christ before all the Pleasures of Sin and Prosperities of the World, Ps. cxix. 103, 127, 162. His Consent is not extorted by some Extremity of Anguish, nor is it only a sudden and hasty Resolve, but he is deliberately purposed, and comes off freely to the Choice, Ps. xvii. 3. and cxix. 30. True, the Flesh will rebel, yet the prevailing Part of his Will is for Christ's Laws and Government; so that he takes them not up as his Toil or Burden, but his Bliss. 1 John v. 3. Ps. cxix. 60, 72. While the Unsanctified goes in Christ's Ways as in Chains and Fetters, Fetters, he doth it naturally, Ps. xl. 8. Jer. xxxi. 33. and counts Christ's Laws his Liberty, Psal. cxix. 32, 45. Jam. i. 25. He is willing in the Beauties of Holiness, Ps. cx. 3. and hath this inseparable Mark, "That he had rather (if he might have his Choice) live a strict and holy Life, than the most prosperous and flourishing Life in the World." 1 Sam. x. 26. There went with Saul a Band of Men, whose Hearts God had touched. When God toucheth the Hearts of his Chosen, they presently follow Christ, Mat. iv. 22. and (though drawn) do freely run after him, Cant. i. 4. and willingly offer themselves to the Service of the Lord, 2 Chron. xvii. 16. seeking him with their whole Desire, 2 Chron. xv. 15. Fear hath its Use; but this is not the main Spring of Motion with a sanctified Heart. Christ keeps not his Subjects in by Force, but is King of a willing People. They are (through his Grace) freely resolved for his Service, and do it out of Choice, not as Slaves, but as the Son or Spouse, from a Spring of Love and a loyal Mind. In a Word, the Laws of Christ are the Convert's Love, Psal. cxix. 159, 163, 167, Desire, v. 5, 20, 40, Delight, v. 77, 92, 103, 111, 143, and continual Study, v. 97, 99, and Psal. i. 2.

4. The Bent of his Course is directed to keep God's Statutes, Ps. cxix. 4, 8, 167, 168. It is the daily Care of his Life to walk with God. He seeks great Things, he hath noble Designs, though he fall too short. He aims at Nothing less than Perfection; he desires it, he reaches after it, he would not rest in any Pitch of Grace till he were quite rid of Sin, and had perfect Holiness, Phil. iii. 15, 12, 13, 14.

Here the Hypocrite's Rottenness may be discovered. He desires Holiness (as one well said) only as a Bridge to Heaven, and enquires earnestly what is the least that will serve his Turn, and if he can get but but so much as may bring him to Heaven, this is all he cares for. But the sound Convert desires Holiness for Holiness' sake. Psa. cxix. 97 Matt. v. 6. and not only for Heaven's sake. He would not be satisfied with so much as might save him from Hell, but desires the highest Pitch; yet Desires are not enough. What is thy Way and thy Course? Are the Drift and Scope of thy Life altered? Is Holiness thy Trade, and Religion thy Business? Rom. viii. 1. Matt. xxv. 16. Phil. i. 20. If not, thou art short of sound Conversion.

Application. And is this, that we have described, the Conversion that is of absolute Necessity to Salvation? Then be informed, 1. That strait is the Gate, and narrow the Way, that leadeth unto Life. 2. That there are but few that find it. 3. That there is Need of a divine Power savingly to convert a Sinner to Jesus Christ.

Again, then be exhorted, O Man that readest, to turn in upon thine own self. What faith Conscience? Doth it not begin to bite? Doth it not twitch thee as thou goest? Is this thy Judgement, and this thy Choice, and this thy Way, that we have described? If so, then it is well. But doth not thy Heart condemn thee, and tell thee there is such a Sin thou livest in against thy Conscience? Doth it not tell thee there is such and such a secret Way of Wickedness that thou makest no Bones of? such or such a Duty that thou makest no Conscience of?

Doth not Conscience carry thee to thy Closet, and tell thee how seldom Prayer and Reading are performed there? Doth it not carry thee to thy Family, and shew thee the Charge of God, and the Souls of thy Children and Servants, that are neglected there? Doth not Conscience lead thee to thy Shop, thy Trade, and tell thee of some Mystery of Iniquity there? Doth it not carry thee to the Ale-shop, or or to the Sack-shop, and round thee in thy Ear for the loose Company thou keepest there, the precious Time thou mispendest there, for the Talents of God which thou throwest down this Sink, for thy Gaming and thy Swilling? &c. Doth it not carry thee into thy secret Chamber, and read thee a Curtain Lecture?

O Conscience! do thy Duty: In the Name of the living God, I command thee, discharge thine Office, lay hold upon this Sinner, fall upon him, arrest him, apprehend him, undeceive him. What! wilt thou flatter, and smoothe him while he lives in his Sins? Awake, O Conscience! what meanest thou, O Sleeper? What! hast thou never a Reproof in thy Mouth? What! shall this Soul die in his careless Neglect of God and Eternity, and thou altogether hold thy Peace? What! shall he go on still in his Trespasses, and yet have Peace? Oh! rouse up thyself, and do thy Work: Now let the Preacher in thy Bosom speak; cry aloud, and spare not; lift up thy Voice like a Trumpet; let not the Blood of his Soul be required at thy Hands.

Chap. III. Of the Necessity of Conversion.

It may be you are ready to say, What meaneth this Stir? and are apt to wonder why I follow you with such Earnestness, still ringing one Lesson in your Ears, that you should repent, and be converted, Acts iii. 19. But I must say unto you, as Ruth to Naomi, Entreat me not to leave you, nor to turn aside from following after you, Ruth i. 16. Were it a Matter of Indifference, I would never keep so much ado: Might you be saved as you are; I would gladly let you alone: But would you not have me solicitous for you, when I see you ready to perish? As the Lord liveth, before whom I am, I have not the least Hopes to see one of your Faces in Heaven, except you be converted: I utterly despair of your Salvation,
Salvation, except you will be prevailed with to turn thoroughly, and give up yourselves to God in Holiness and Newness of Life. Hath God said, Except you be born again, you cannot see the Kingdom of God, John iii. 3. and yet do you wonder why your Ministers do so plainly travail in Birth with you? Think it not strange that I am earnest with you to follow after Holiness, and long to see the Image of God upon you: Never did any, nor shall any, enter into Heaven by any other Way but this. The Conversion described is not a high Pitch of some taller Christians, but every Soul that is saved passeth this universal Change.

It was a Passage of the noble Roman, when he was hastling with Corn to the City in the Famine, and the Mariners were lothe to set Sail in foul Weather, Necessarium est navigare, non est necessarium vivere; Our Voyage is more necessary than our Lives. What is it that thou dost count necessary? Is thy Bread necessary? Is thy Breath necessary? Then thy Conversion is much more necessary. Indeed, this is the unum necessarium, the one Thing necessary. Thine Estate is not necessary; thou mayest sell all for the Pearl of great Price, and yet be a Gainer by the Purchase, Matt. xiii. 46. Thy Life is not necessary; thou mayest part with it for Christ to infinite Advantage. Thine Esteem is not necessary; thou mayest be reproached for the Name of Christ, and yet be happy; yea, much more happy in Reproach than in Repute, 1 Pet. iv. 14. Matt. v. 10, 11. But thy Conversion is necessary; thy Damnation lies upon it: And is it not needful, in so important a Case, to look about thee? On this one Point depends thy Making or Marring to all Eternity.

But I shall more particularly shew the Necessity of Conversion, in five Things; for, without this,

I. Thy Being is in vain. Is it not a Pity thou shouldst be good for Nothing, an unprofitable Burden den of the Earth, a Wart or Wen in the Body of the Universe? Thus thou art, whilst unconverted, for thou canst not answer the End of thy Being. Is it not for the divine Pleasure that thou art and wait created? Rev. iv. 11. Did he not make thee for himself? Prov. xvi. 4. Art thou a Man, and hast thou Reason? Why then bethink thyself why and whence thy Being is: Behold God's Workmanship in thy Body, and ask thyself, To what End did God rear this Fabric? Consider the noble Faculties of thy Heaven-born Soul: To what End did God bestow these Excellences? To no other than that thou shouldst please thyself and gratify thy Senses? Did God send Men, like the Swallows, into the World, only to gather a few Sticks and Dirt, and build their Nests, and breed up their Young, and then away? The very Heathens could see farther than this. Art thou so fearfully and wonderfully made, Psa. cxxxix. 14. and dost thou not yet think with thyself surely it was for some noble and raised End? O Man! set thy Reason a little in the Chair. Is it not Pity such a goodly Fabric should be raised in vain? Verily thou art in vain, except thou art for God: Better thou hadst no Being than not to be for him. Wouldst thou serve thy End? thou must repent and be converted: Without this, thou art to no Purpose; yea, to bad Purpose.
The Necessity of Conversion.

First, To no Purpose. Man, unconverted, is like a choice Instrument that hath every String broken or out of Tune: The Spirit of the living God must repair and tune it by the Grace of Regeneration, and sweetly move it by the Power of actuating Grace, or else thy Prayers will be but Howlings, and all thy Services will make no Music in the Ears of the most Holy, Eph. ii. 10. Phil. ii. 13. Hos. vii. 14. Isa. i. 15. All thy Powers and Faculties are so corrupt in thy natural State, that, except thou be purged from dead dead Works, thou canst not serve the living God, Heb. ix. 14. Titus i. 15.

An un sanctified Man cannot work the Work of God: 1. He hath no Skill in it; he is altogether as unskilful in the Work as in the Word of Righteousness, Heb. v. 13. There are great Mysteries, as well in the Practises as Principles of Godliness: Now the unregenerate know not the Mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, Matt. xiii. 11. 1 7 Tim. iii. 16. You may as well expect him that never learned the Alphabet to read, or a Book for goodly Music on the Lute from one that never let his Hand to an Instrument, as that a natural Man should do the Lord any pleasing Service: He must first be taught of God, John vi. 45. taught to pray, Luke xi. 1. taught to profit, Isa. xlviii. 17. taught to go, Hosea xi. 3. or else he will be utterly at a Loss. 2. He hath no Strength for it. How weak is his Heart! Ezek. xvi. 30. he is presently tired: The Sabbath, what a Weariness is it! Mal. i. 13. He is without Strength, Rom. v. 6. yea, stark dead in Sin, Eph. ii. 5. 3. He hath no Mind to it; he desires not the Knowledge of God's Ways, Job xxi. 14. he doth not know them, and he doth not care to know them, Psa. lxxxii. 5. he knows not, neither will he understand. 4. He hath neither due Instruments nor Materials for it. A Man may as well how the Marble without Tools, or limn without Colours or Instruments, or build without Materials, as perform any acceptable Service without the Graces of the Spirit, which are both the Materials and Instruments in the Work. Alms-giving is not a Service of God, but of Vain-glory, if not holden forth by the Hand of divine Love. What is the Prayer of the Lips, without Grace in the Heart, but the Carcass without the Life? What are all our Confessions, unless they be Exercises of godly Sorrow and unfeigned Repentance? What our Petitions, unless animated all along with holy Desires and and Faith in divine Attributes and Promises? What our Praises and Thanksgivings, unless from the Love of God, and a holy Gratitude and Sense of God's Mercies in the Heart? So that a Man may as well expect the Trees should speak, or look for Logic from the Brutes, or Motion from the dead, as for any Service holy and acceptable to God from the unconverted. When the Tree is evil, how can the Fruit be good? Matt. vii. 18.

Secondly, To bad Purpose. The unconverted Soul is a very Cage of unclean Birds, Rev. xviii. 2. a Sepulchre full of Corruption and Rottenness, Matt. xxiii. 27. a lothesome Carcase full of crawling Worms, and sending forth a hellish and most noisome Savour in the Nostrils of God, Psa. xiv. 3. O dreadful Case! Dost thou not yet see a Change to be needful? Would it not have grieved one to have seen the golden consecrated Vessels of God's Temple turned into quaffing Bowls of Drunkenness, and polluted with the Idol's Service? Dan. v. 2, 3. Was it such an Abomination to the Jews, when Antiochus set up the Picture of a Swine at the Entrance of the Temple? How much more abominable then would it have been to have had the very Temple itself turned into a Stable or a Sty, and to have had the Holy of Holies served like the House of Baal; to have had the Image of God taken down, and have been turned into a Draught-house; 2 Kings x. 27. This is the very Case of the unregenerate: All thy Members are turned into Instruments of Unrighteousness, Rom. vi. 19. Servants of Satan; and thy inmost Power into a Receptacle of Uncleanness, Eph. ii. 2. Tit. i. 15. You may see the goodly Guests within, by what comes out; for out of the Heart proceed evil Thoughts, Murders, Adulteries, Fornications, Thefts, false Witness, Blasphemies, &c. This Blackguard discovers what a Hell there is within.

O Abuse
The Necessity of Conversion.

O Abuse insufferable! to see a Heaven-born Soul abased to the filthiest Drudgery! to see the Glory of God's Creation, the Chief of the Works of God, the Lord of the Universe, lapping with the Prodigal at the Trough, or licking up with Greediness the most loathsome Vomit! Was it such a Lamentation to see those that did feed delicately fit desolate in the Streets; and the precious Sons of Stor, comparable to fine Gold, esteemed as earthen Pitchers; and those that were clothed in Scarlet embrace Dung-hills! Lam. iv. 2, 5. And is it not much more fearful to see the only Thing that hath Immortality in this lower World, and carries the Stamp of God, become as a Vessel wherein there is no Pleasure. Jer. xxii. 28. (which is but a modest Expression of the Vessel Men put to the most fordid Use). O Indignity intolerable! Better thou were dashed in a thousand Pieces, than continue to be abased to so filthy a Service.

II. Not only Man, but the whole visible Creation, is in vain with at this. Beloved, God hath made all the visible Creatures in Heaven and Earth for the Service of Man, and Man only is the Spokesman for all the Rest. Man is, in the Universe, like the Tongue to the Body, which speaks for all the Members: The other Creatures cannot praise their Maker, but by dumb Signs and Hints to Man, that he should speak for them. Man is, as it were, the High-priest of God's Creation, to offer the Sacrifice of Praise for all his Fellow-creatures, Psa. cxlvii. cxlviii. cl. The Lord God expecteth a Tribute of Praise from all his Works, Psa. ciii. 22. Now, all the Rest do bring in their Tribute to Man, and pay it by his Hand: So then, if a Man be false, and faithless, and selfish, God is wronged of all, and shall have no active Glory from his Works.

O dreadful Thought to think of! that God should build such a World as this, and lay out such infinite Power, and Wisdom, and Goodness, thereupon, upon, and all in vain; and Man should be guilty, at last, of robbing and spoiling him of the Glory of all! Oh, think of this! While thou art unconverted, all the Offices of the Creatures to thee are in vain; thy Meat nourishes thee in vain; the Sun holds forth his Light to thee in vain; the Stars, that serve thee in their Courses by their powerful, though hidden, Influence, (Josh. v. 20. Hos. ii. 21, 22.) do it in vain; thy Clothes warm thee in vain; thy Bead carries thee in vain. In a Word, the unwearied Labour and continual Travail of the whole Creation (as to thee) are in vain. The Service of all the Creatures that drudge for thee, and yield forth their Strength unto thee, (that therewith thou shouldn't serve their Maker,) is all but lost Labour. Hence the whole Creation groaneth under the Abuse of this unsanctified World, Rom. viii. 22. that pervert them to the Service of their LufTs, quite contrary to the very End of their Being.

III. Without this, thy Religion is vain, Jam. i. 26. All thy religious Performances will be but lost; for they can neither please God, Rom. viii. 8. nor save thy Soul, 1 Cor. xiii. 2, 3. which are the very Ends of Religion. Be thy Services never so specious, yet God hath no Pleasure in them, Isa. i. 14. Mal. i. 10. Is not that Man's Case dreadful, whose Sacrifices are as Murders, and whose Prayers are a Breath of Abomination? Isa. lxvi. 3. Prov. xxviii. 9. Many under Convictions think they will set upon mending, and that a few Prayers and Alms will salve all again; but alas, Sirs! while your Hearts remain unsanctified, your Duties will not pass. How punctual was Jehu! and yet all was rejected, because his Heart was not upright, 2 Kin. x. with Hos. i. 4. How blameless was Paul! and yet, being unconverted, all was but Loss, Phil. iii. 6, 7. Men think they do much in attending God's Service, and are ready to twit him with it, Isa. lviii. 3. Matt. vii. 22. and set him down.
to much their Debtor, whereas (their Persons being unsanctified) their Duties cannot be accepted.

O Soul! do not think, when thy Sins pursue thee,
a little Praying and reforming thy Course will pacify God: Thou must begin with thine Heart: If that be not renewed, thou canst no more please God than one that, having unspeakably offended thee, should bring thee his Vomit in a Dish to pacify thee, or, having fallen into the Mire, should think with his lothed Embraces to reconcile thee.

It is a great Misery to labour in the Fire. The Poets could not invent a worse Hell for Sisyphus than to be getting the Barrel still up the Hill, and then that it should presently fall down again and renew his Labour. God threatens it, as the greatest of temporal Judgements, that they should build and not inhabit, plant and not gather, and their Labours should be eaten up by Strangers, Deut. xxviii. 30, 38, 39, 41. Is it so great a Misery to lose our common Labours, to sow in vain, and build in vain? how much more to lose our Pains in Religion, to pray, and hear, and fast, in vain! This is an undoing and eternal Loss. Be not deceived; if thou goest on in thy sinful State, though thou shouldest spread forth thy Hands, God will hide his Eyes; though thou make many Prayers, he will not hear, Isa. i. 15. If a Man without Skill set about our Work, and mar it in the doing, though he take much Pains, we give him but small Thanks. God will be worshipped after the due Order, 1 Chron. xv.
13. If a Servant do our Work, but quite contrary to our Order, he shall have rather Stripes than Praise.

God's Work must be done according to God's Mind;
or he will not be pleased; and this cannot be, except it be done with a holy Heart, 2 Chron. xxv. 2.

IV. Without this, thy Hopes are in vain, Jobviii. 12,
13. The Lord hath rejected thy Confidence, Jer. ii. 37.

First, The Hope of Comforts here is in vain. It is not only necessary to the Safety, but Comfort, of your your Condition, that you be converted. Without this, you shall not know Peace, Isa. lix. 8. Without the Fear of God you cannot have the Comfort of the Holy Ghost, Acts. 31. God speaks Peace only to his People and to his Saints, Ps. lxxxv. 8. If you have a false Peace, continuing in your Sins, it is not of God's speaking; and then you may guess the Author. Sin is a real Sickness, Isa. i. 5. yea, the worst of Sickness; it is a Leprosy in the Head, Levit. xiii. 44. the Plague in the Heart, 1 Kin. viii. 38. it is Brokenness in the Bones, Ps. li. 8. it pierceth, it woundeth, it racketh, it tormenteth, 1 Tim. vi. 10. A Man may as well expect Ease when his Distempers are in their full Strength, or his Bones cut of Joint, as true Comfort while in his Sins.

O wretched Man, that canst have no Ease in this Case, but what comes from the Deadliness of the Disease! You shall have the poor sick Man saying, in his Lightness, he is well, when you see Death in his Face; he would needs up and about his Business, when the very next step is like to be in his Grave. The unsanctified often see Nothing amiss; they think themselves whole, and cry not out for the Physician; but this shews the Danger of their Case.

Sin doth naturally breed Distempers and Disturbances in the Soul: What a continual Tempest and Commotion is there in a discontented Mind! what an eating Evil is inordinate Care! what is Passion but a very Fever in the Mind? what is Lust but a Fire in the Bones? what is Pride but a deadly Tumpany? or Covetousness, but an insatiable and insufferable Thirst? or Malice and Envy, but Venom in the very Heart? Spiritual Death is but a Scurvy in the Mind, and carnal Security a mortal Lethargy; and how can that Soul have true Comfort that is under so many Diseasies? But converting Grace cures, and easeth the Mind; prepares the Soul for a settled, standing, immortal, Peace: Great Peace have they that love.
ty Commandments, and Nothing shall offend them, Psa. cxix. 165. They are the Ways of Wisdom, that afford Pleasure and Peace, Prov. iii. 17. David had infinitely more Pleasure in the Word than in all the Delights of his Court, Psa. cxix. 103, 127. The Conscience cannot be truly pacified till soundly purified, Heb. x. 22. Cursed is that Peace that is maintained in a Way of Sin, Deut. xxix. 19, 20. Two Sorts of Peace are more to be dreaded than all the Troubles in the Word; Peace with Sin, and Peace in Sin.

Secondly, Thy Hopes of Salvation hereafter are in vain; yea, worse than in vain; they are most injurious to God, most pernicious to thyself: There is Death, Desperation, Blasphemy, in the Bowels of this Hope. 1. There is Death in it: Thy Confidence shall be rooted out of thy Tabernacles (God will up with it Root and Branch); it shall bring them to the King of Terrors, Job xviii. 14. Though thou mayst lean upon this House, it will not stand, Job viii. 15. but will prove like a ruinous Building, which when a Mantrusts to, it falls down about his Ears. 2. There is Desperation in it: Where is the Hope of the Hypocrite when God takes away his Soul? Job xxvii. 8. Then there is an End for ever of his Hope. Indeed, the Hope of the righteous hath an End; but then it is not a destructive, but a perfective, End; his Hope ends in Fruition, others in Frustration, Prov. x. 28. The godly must say at Death, It is finished; but the wicked, It is perished, and in too sad Earnest bemoan himself, as Job in a Mistake, Where is now my Hope? He bath destroyed me; I am gone, and my Hope is removed like a Tree, Job xix. 10. The righteous hath Hope in his Death, Prov. xiv. 32. When Nature is dying, his Hopes are living; when his Body is languishing, his Hopes are flourishing; his Hope is a living Hope, 1 Pet. i. 3. it is αἰώνιον, but others a dying, a damming, Soul-undoing Hope. When a wicked Man dieth, his Expectation shall perish, and the Hope of unjust Men perisheth, Prov. xi. 7. It shall be cut off, and prove like a Spider's Web, Job viii. 14. which he spins out of his own Bowels; but then comes Death with the Broom, and takes down all, and so there is an eternal End of his Confidence wherein he trusted; for the Eyes of the wicked shall fail, and their Hope shall be as the Giving-up of the Ghost, Job xi. 20. Wicked Men are fixed in their carnal Hope, and will not be beaten out of it; they hold it fast; they will not let it go: Yea, but Death will knock off their Fingers: Though we cannot undeceive them, Death and Judgement will: When Death strikes his Dart through thy Liver, it will out thy Soul and thy Hopes together. The unsanctified have Hope only in this Life, 1 Cor. xv. 19. and therefore are of all Men most miserable: When Death comes, it lets them out into the amazing Gulph of endless Desperation. 3. There is Blasphemy in it. To hope we shall be saved, though continuing unconverted, is to hope we shall prove God a Liar. He hath told you, that, so merciful and pitiful as he is, he will never save you notwithstanding, if you go on in Ignorance or a Course of Unrighteousness, Isa. xxvii. 11. 1 Cor. vi. 9. In a Word, he hath told you, that, whatever you be or do, Nothing shall avail you to Salvation, without you become new Creatures, Gal. vi. 16. Now, to say God is merciful, and we hope will save us nevertheless, is in Effect to say, We hope God will not do as he says. We must not set God's Attributes at Variance; God is resolved to glorify his Mercy, but not to the Prejudice of Truth, as the presumptuous Sinner will find to his everlasting Sorrow.

Object. Why, but we hope in Jesus Christ; we put our whole Trust in God; and therefore doubt not but we shall be saved.

A. 1. This it not to hope in Christ, but against Christ. To hope to see the Kingdom of God without being born again, to hope to find eternal Life in the broad Way, Way, is to hope Christ will prove a false Prophet. It is David's Plea, I hope in thy Word, Ps. cxix. 81. But this Hope is against the Word. Shew me a Word of Christ for thy Hope, that he will save thee in thine Ignorance or profane Neglect of his Service, and I will never go to shake thy Confidence.

2. God doth with Abhorrence reject this Hope. Those condemned in the Prophet went on in their Sins, yet (faith the Text) they will lean upon the Lord, Mic. iii. 11. God will not endure to be made a Prop to Men in their Sins: The Lord rejected those presumptuous Sinners that went on still in their Trespasses, and yet would stay themselves upon Israel's God, Isa. xlviit. 1, 2. as a Man would shake off the Briars (as one said well) that cleave to his Garment.

3. If thy Hope be any Thing worth, it will purify thee from thy Sins, 1 John iii. 3. but cursed is that Hope which doth cherish Men in their Sins.

Object. Would you have us to despair?

Answ. You must despair of ever coming to Heaven as you are, Acts ii. 37. that is, while you remain unconverted. You must despair of ever seeing the Face of God without Holiness; but you must by no Means despair of finding Mercy, upon your thorough Repentance and Conversion; neither may you despair of attaining to Repentance and Conversion in the Use of God's Means.

V. Without this, all that God hath done and suffered will be (as to you) in vain, John xiii. 8. Tit. ii. 14. that is, it will no Way avail you to Salvation. Many urge this as a sufficient Ground for their Hopes, that Christ died for Sinners: But I must tell you, Christ never died to save impenitent and unconverted Sinners (so continuing), 2 Tim. ii. 19. A great Divine was wont, in his private Dealings with Souls, to ask two Questions: 1. What hath Christ done for you? 2. What hath Christ wrought in you? Without the Application of the Spirit in Regeneration, we we can have no saving Interest in the Benefits of Redemption. I tell you from the Lord, Christ himself cannot save you, if you go on in this State.

I. It were against his Trust. The Mediator is the Servant of the Father, If. xiii. 1. shews his Commission from him, and acts in his Name, and pleads his Command for his Justification, John x. 18, 26. and vi. 38, 40. and God has committed all Things to him, entrusted his own Glory and the Salvation of the Elect with him, Mat. xi. 27. John xvii. 2. Accordingly Christ gives his Father an Account of both Parts of his Trust before he leaves the World, Jo. xvii. 4, 6, 12. Now Christ would quite cross his Father's Glory, his greatest Trust, if he should save Men in their Sins, for this were to overturn all his Counsels, and to offer Violence to all his Attributes.

First, To overturn all his Counsels; of which this is the Order, that Men should be brought through Sanctification to Salvation, 2 Thes. ii. 13. He hath chosen them, that they should be holy, Eph. i. 4. They are elected to Pardon and Life through Sanctification, 1 Pet. i. 2. If thou canst repeal the Law of God's immutable Counsel, or corrupt him whom the Father hath sealed, to go directly against his Commission, then, and not otherwise, mayst thou get to Heaven in this Condition. To hope that Christ will save thee, while unconverted, is to hope that Christ will fall by his Trust. He never did nor will save one Soul, but whom the Father hath given him in Election, and drawn to him in effectual Calling, Jo. vii. 35, 37. Be assured Christ will save none in a Way contrary to his Father's Will, John vii. 38.

Secondly, To offer Violence to all his Attributes. 1 To his Justice, for the Righteousness of God's Judgement lies in rendering to all according to their Works, Ro. ii. 5, 6. Now, should Men sow to the Flesh, and yet of the Spirit reap everlasting Life, Gal. vi. 7, 8. where were the Glory of divine Justice, since it should be given given to the wicked according to the Work of the righteous.

2. To his Holiness. If God should not only save Sinners, but save them in their Sins, his most pure and strict Holiness would be exceedingly defaced: The unsanctified is, in the Eyes of God's Holiness, worse than the Swine or Viper, Matt. xii. 34. 2 Pet. ii. 22. Now, what cleanly Nature could endure to have the filthy Swine bed and board with him in his Parlour or Bed-chamber? It would be offering the extremest Violence to the infinite Purity of the divine Nature to have such to dwell with him: They cannot stand in his Judgement; they cannot abide his Presence, Ps. i. 5. and v. 4, 5. If holy David would not endure such in his House, no, nor in his Sight, Ps. cxxxi. 3, 7. can we think God will? Should he take Men as they are, from the Trough to the Table, from the Harlot's Lips, from the Sty and Draff to the Glory of Heaven, the World would think God were at no such Distance from Sin, nor had such Dislike of it as we are told he hath; they would conclude God were altogether such as themselves (as they wickedly did, but from the very Forbearance of God, Ps. i. 21). 3. To his Veracity: For God hath declared from Heaven, that, if any shall say be shall have Peace, though he shall go on in the Imagination of his Heart, his Wrath shall smoke against that Man, Deut. xxix. 19, 20. That they (only) that confess and forsake their Sins shall find Mercy, Prov. xxviii. 13. That they that shall enter into his Hid must be of clean Hands and a pure Heart, Ps. xxiv. 3, 4. Where were God's Truth, if, notwithstanding all this, he should bring Men to Salvation without Conversion? O desperate Sinner, that darest to hope that Christ will put the Lie upon his Father, and nullify his Word, to save thee! 4. To his Wisdom: For this were to throw away the choicest of Mercies on them that would not value them, nor were any Way suited to them.

First, They would not value them: The unsanctified Sinner
The Necessity of Conversion.

Sinner puts but little Price upon God's great Salvation, Matt. xxii. 5. He sets no more by Christ than the whole by the Physician, Matt. ix. 12. He prizes not his Balm, values not his Cure, tramples upon his Blood, Heb. x. 29. Now, would it stand with Wisdom to force Pardon and Life upon those that would give them no Thanks for them? Will the all-wise God (when he hath forbidden us to do it) throw his holy Things to Dogs, and his Pearl to Swine, that would, as it were, but turn again and rend him? Matt. vii. 6. This would make Mercy to be despised indeed. Wisdom requires that Life be given in a Way suitable to God's Honour, and that God provide for the securing his own Glory, as well as Man's Felicity. It would be dishonourable to God to set Jewels on the Snouts of Swine, (continuing such,) and to bestow his choicest Riches on them that have more Pleasure in their Swill than in the heavenly Delights that he doth offer. God would lose the Praise and Glory of his Grace, if he should cast it away upon them that were not only unworthy, but unwilling.

Secondly, They are no Way suited to them. The divine Wisdom is seen in suiting Things to each other, the Means to the End, the Object to the Faculty, the Quality of the Gift to the Capacity of the Receiver. Now, if Christ should bring the unregenerated Sinner to Heaven, he could take no more Felicity there than a Beast if you should bring him into a beautiful Room, to the Society of learned Men, and a well-furnished Table; whereas the poor Thing had much rather be grazing with his Fellow-brutes. Alas! what should an unsanctified Creature do in Heaven? he could take no Content there, because Nothing suits him; the Place doth not suit him; he would be but piscis in arido, quite out of his Element, as Swine in a Parlour, or Fish out of Water; the Company doth not suit him. What Communion hath Darkness with Light?
The Necessity of Conversion.

Right? Corruption with Perfection? Filth and Rottenness with Glory and Immortality? The Employment doth not suit him; the Anthems of Heaven fit not his Mouth, suit not his Ear. Canst thou charm thy Beast with Music? or wilt thou bring him to thy Organ, and expect that he should make thee Melody, or keep Time with the tuneful Choir? or, had he Skill, he would have no Will, and so could find no Pleasure, no more than the nauseous Stomach in the Meat on which he hath newly surfeited. Spread thy Table with Delicates before a languishing Patient, and it will be a very great Offence. Alas! if the poor Man think a Sermon long, and say, of a Sabbath-day, What a Weariness it is! Mal. i. 13. how miserable would he think it, to be holden to it all Eternity!

5. To his Immutability, or else to his Omnisciency or Omnipotency; for this is enacted in the Conclave of Heaven, and enrolled in the Decrees of the Court above, that none but the pure in Heart shall ever see God, Mat. v. 8. This is laid up with him, and sealed among his Treasures. Now, if Christ yet bring any to Heaven unconverted, either he must get them in without his Father's Knowledge, (and then where is his Omnisciency?) or against his Will, (and then where were his Omnipotency?) or he must change his Will, (and then where were his Immutability?)

Sinner, wilt thou not give up thy vain Hope of being saved in this Condition? Saith Eldad, shall the Earth be forsoaken for thee? or the rocks moved out of their Place? Job xviii. 4. May I not much more reason so with thee? Shall the Laws of Heaven be reversed for thee? Shall the everlasting Foundations be overturned for thee? Shall Christ put out the Eye of his Father's Omnisciency, or shorten the Arm of his eternal Power, for thee? Shall divine Justice be violated for thee? or the Brightness of the Glory of his Holiness be blemished for thee? Oh! the Impossibility, fibility, Absurdity, Blasphemy, that are in such a Confidence: To think Christ will ever save thee in this Condition is to make thy Saviour become a Sinner, and do more Wrong to the infinite Majesty than all the wicked on Earth, or Devils in Hell, ever did, or could do; and yet wilt thou not give up such a blasphemous Hope?

II. Against his Word. We need not say, who shall ascend into Heaven, to bring down Christ from above? Or who shall descend into the Deep, to bring up Christ from beneath? The Word is nigh us, Rom. x. 6, 7, 8. Are you agreed that Christ shall end the Controversy? Hear then his own Words: Except you be converted, you shall in no wise enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, Mat. xviii. 3 You must be born again, Jo. iii. 7. If I wash thee not, thou hast no Part in me, John xiii. 8. Repent or perish, Luke xiii. 3. One Word, one would think, were enough from Christ; but how often and earnestly doth he reiterate it! Verily, verily, except a Man be born again, he shall not see the Kingdom of God, John iii. 3, 5. Yea, he doth not only assert but prove the Necessity of the new Birth, John iii. 6. by Reason of which Man is no more fit for Heaven than the Beast is for the Chamber of the King's Presence. And wilt thou yet believe thy own presumptuous Confidence, directly against Christ's Words? He must go quite against the Law of his Kingdom, and Rule of his Judgement, to save thee in this State.

III. Against his Oath. He hath lifted up his Hand to Heaven, he hath sworn, that those that remain in Unbelief, and know not his Way, (that is, are ignorant of them, or disobedient to them,) shall not enter into his Rest, Ps. xcv. 11. H.b. iii. 18. And wilt thou not yet believe, O Sinner, that he is in Earnest? Canst thou hope he will be forsworn for thee? The Covenant of Grace is confirmed by an Oath,
The Necessity of Conversion.

Oath, and sealed by Blood, Heb. vi. 17. and ix. 16, 18, 19. Mat. xxvi. 28. but all must be made void, and another Way to Heaven found out, if thou be saved, living and dying unsanctified. God is come to his lowest and last Terms with Man, and has condescended, as far as in Honour he could, and hath set up his Pillars with a ne plus ultra. Men cannot be saved while unconverted, except they could get another Covenant made, and the whole Frame of the Gospel (which was established for ever with such dreadful Solemnities) quite altered: And would not they be distracted, to hope that they shall?

IV. Against his Honour. God will so shew his Love to the Sinner, as withal to shew his Hatred to Sin; therefore he that names the Name of Jesus must depart from Iniquity, 2 Tim. ii. 19. and deny all Ungodliness; and he that hath Hope of Life by Christ must purify himself, as he is pure, 1 John iii. 3. Tit. ii. 12. otherwise Christ would be thought a Favourer of Sin. The Lord Jesus would have all the World to know, that, though he pardons Sin, he will not protect it. If holy David shall say; Depart from me, all ye Workers of Iniquity, Ps. vi. 8. and shall shut the Doors against them, Ps. ci. 7. shall not such much more expect it from Christ's Holiness? Would it be for his Honour to have the Dogs to the Table, or lodge the Swine with his Children, or to have Abraham's Bosom to be a Nest of Vipers.

V. Against his Offices. God hath exalted him to be a Prince and a Saviour, Acts v. 31. He would act against both, should he save Men in their Sins: It is the Office of a King.

Parcere subjectis, et debellare superbos, to be a Terror to Evil doers, and a Praise to them that do well, Rom. xiii. 3, 4. He is a Minister of God, a Revenger to execute Wrath on him that doth Evil. Now, should Christ favour the ungodly, (to continuing,) and take those to reign with him that would not that he
he should reign over them, Luke xix. 27. this would be quite against his Office; he therefore reigns, that he may put his Enemies under his Feet, 1 Cor. xv. 25.
Now, should he lay them in his Bosom, he would cross the End of his regal Power; it belongs to Christ, as a King, to subdue the Hearts, and slay the Lusts, of his chosen, Ps. xlv. 5. and cx. 3. What King would take Rebels in open Hostility into his Court? What were this but to betray Life, Kingdom, Government, and all together? If Christ be a King, he must have Honour, Homage, Subjection, &c. Mal. i. 6. Now to save Men, while in their natural Enmity, were to obscure his Dignity, lose his Authority, bring Contempt on his Government, and sell his dear-bought Rights for Nought.

Again; as Christ would not be a Prince, so neither a Saviour, if he should do this; for his Salvation is spiritual: He is called Jesus, because he saves his People from their Sin, Mat. i. 21. so that, should he save them in their Sins, he would be neither Lord nor Jesus. To save Men from the Punishment, and not from the Power, of Sin, were to do his Work by Halves, and be an imperfect Saviour. His Office, as the Deliverer, is, to turn away Ungodliness from Jacob, Rom. xi. 26. He is sent to bless Men, in turning them from their Iniquities, Acts iii. 26. To make an End of Sin, Dan. ix. 24. so that he would destroy his own Designs, and nullify his Offices, to save Men abiding in their unconverted State.

Application. Arise then! What meanest thou, O
Sleeper? Awake, O secure Sinner! lest thou be confused in thine Iniquities; say, as the Lepers, If we sit here we shall die, 2 Kin. vii. 3, 4. Verily, it is not more certain that thou art now out of Hell, than that thou shalt speedily be in it, except thou repent and be converted; there is but this one Door for thee to escape by. Arise then, O Sluggard, and shake off thine Excuses: How long wilt thou slumber, and fold thy Hands to Sleep? Pr. vi. 10, 11. Wilt thou lie down in the Midst of the Sea, or sleep on the Top of the Malt? Prov. xxiii. 34. There is no Remedy, but thou must either turn or burn. There is an unchangeable Necessity of the Change of thy Condition, except thou hast resolved to abide the worst of it, and try it out with the Almighty. If thou lovest thy Life, O Man, arise and come away. Methinks
I see the Lord Jesus laying the merciful Hands of a holy Violence upon thee; methinks he carries it like the Angels to Lot, Gen. xix. 15, &c. Then the Angels hasted Lot, saying, Arise, lest thou be consumed.
And, while he lingered, the Men laid hold upon his Hand, the Lord being merciful unto him, and they brought him without the City, and said, Escape for thy Life, stay not in all the Plains; escape to the Mountains, left thou be consumed.

Oh! how wilful will thy Destruction be, if thou shouldst yet harden thyself in thy sinful State! But none of you can say but you have had fair Warning.
Yet methinks I cannot tell how to leave you so. It is not enough for me to have delivered my own Soul.
What! shall I go away without my Errand? Will none of you arise and follow me? Have I been all this While speaking to the Wind? Have I been charming the deaf Adder, or allaying the tumbling Ocean with Argument? Do I speak to the Trees, or Rocks, or to Men? to the Tombs or Monuments of the dead, or to a living Auditory? if you be Men, and not senseless Stocks, stand still and consider whether you are going: If you have the Reason and Understanding of Men, dare not to run into the Flames, and fall into Hell with your Eyes open, but be-think yourselves, and set to the Work of Repentance! What! Men, and yet run into the Pit, when the very Beasts will not be forced in! What! endowed with Reason, and yet dally with Death and Hell and the Vengeance of the Almighty! Are Men herein
in distinguished from the very Brutes, that these have no Forelight of, and care to provide for the Things to come; and will you not hasten your Escape from eternal Torments? Oh! shew yourselves Men, and let Reason prevail with you: Is it a reasonable Thing for you to contend against the Lord your Maker?
Is. xlv. 9. or to burden yourselves against his Word, Job
ix. 4. as though the strength of Israel would lie? 1
Sam. xv. 29. Is it reasonable that an understanding Creature should lose, yea, live quite against, the very End of his Being, and be as a broken Pitcher, only fit for the Dunghill? Is it reasonable that the only Thing in this World that God hath made capable of knowing his Will, and bringing him Glory, should yet live in Ignorance of his Maker, and be useless to his Use, yea, should be engaged against him, and spit his Venom in the Face of his Creator? Hear, 0 Heaven's, and give Ear, 0 Earth, and let the Creatures without Sense judge if this be Reason, that Man, whom God hath nourished and brought up, should rebel against him, Isa. i. 2. Judge in your own selves: Is it a reasonable Undertaking for Briars and Thorns to set themselves in Battle against the devouring Fire? Isa. xxvii. 4. or for the Potsherds of the Earth to strive with its Maker?
You will say, This is not Reason, or surely the Eye of Reason is quite put out: And, if this be not Reason, then there is no Reason, that you should continue as you are, but it is all the Reason in the World you should forthwith turn and repent.

What shall I say? I could spend myself in this Ar-getment. Oh! that you would but hearken to me!
that you would presently set upon a new Course!
Will you not be made clean? When shall it once be?

What! will Nobody be perswaded? Reader, shall I prevail with thee for one? Wilt thou sit down and consider the fore-mentioned Argument, and debate it, whether it be not best to turn: Come, and let us reason
reason together: Is it good for thee to be here? Wilt thou fit till the Tide come in upon thee? Is it good for thee to try whether God will be so good as his Word, and to harden thyself in a Conceit that all is well with thee, while thou remainest unsanctified? But I know you will not be persuaded, but the greatest Part will be as they have been, and do as they have done. I know the Drunkard will to his Vomit again, and the Deceiver will to his Deceit again, and the lustful Wanton to his Dalliance again. Alas! that I must leave you where you were in your Ignorance or Looseness, or in your lifeless Formality and customary Devotions! However, I will sit down and bemoan my fruitless Labours, and spend some Sighs over my perishing Hearers.

O distracted Sinners! what will their End be? what will they do in the Day of Visitation? Whither will they flee for Help? where will they leave their Glory? Isa. x. 3. How powerfully hath Sin bewitched them! how effectually hath the God of this World blinded them! how strong is the Delusion! how uncircumcised their Ears! how obdurate their Hearts! Satan hath them at his Beck! But how long may I call, and can get no Answer! I may dispute with them Year after Year, and they will give me the Hearing, and that is all; they must and will have their Sins, say what I will; though I tell them there is Death in the Cup, yet they will take it up; though I tell them it is the broad Way, and endeth in Destruction, yet they will go on in it; I warn them, yet cannot win them. Sometimes I think the Mercies of God will melt them, and his winning Invitations will overcome them; but I find them as they were: Sometimes that the Terror of the Lord will persuade them; yet neither will this do it. They will approve the Word, like the Sermon, commend the Preacher, but they will yet live as they did. They will
will not deny me, and yet they will not obey me. They will flock to the Word of God, and sit before me as his People, and hear my Words, but they will not do them. They value and will plead for Ministers, and I am to them as the lovely Song of one that hath a pleasant Voice, yet I cannot get them to come under Christ's Yoke. They love me, and will be ready to say, they will do any Thing for me; but, for my Life, I cannot persuade them to leave their Sins, to forgo their evil Company, their Intemperance, their unjust Gains, &c. I cannot prevail with them to set up Prayer in their Families and Closets, yet they will promise me, like the sroward Son that said, I go, Sir, but went not, Mat. xxi. 30. I cannot persuade them to learn the Principles of Religion, though, else, they would die without Knowledge, Job xxxvi. 12. I tell them their Misery, but they will not believe but it is well enough: If I tell them particularly, I fear, for such Reasons, their State is bad, they will judge me censorious; or, if they be at present a little awakened, they are quickly lulled asleep by Satan again, and have lost the Sense of all.

Alas! for my poor Hearers, must they perish at last by Hundreds, when Ministers would so fain save them? What Course shall I use with them that I have not tried? What shall I do for the Daughter of my People? Jer. ix. 7. O Lord God, belp. Alas! shall I leave them thus? If they will not bear me, yet do thou bear me: Oh! that they may yet live in thy Sight! Lord, save them, or else they perish. My Heart would melt to see their Houses on Fire about their Ears, when they were fast asleep in their Beds; and shall not my Soul be moved within me, to see them falling into endless Perdition? Lord, have Compassion, and save them out of the Burning: put forth thy divine Power, and the Word will be done; but, as for me, I cannot prevail.
Chap. IV. Shewing the Marks of the Unconverted.

While we keep aloof in Generals, there is little Fruit to be expected; it is the Hand-fight that does Execution. David is not awakened by the Prophet’s hovering at a Distance in parabolical Insinuations; he is forced to close with him, and tell him plainly, Thou art the Man. Few will in Words deny the Necessity of the new Birth, but they have a self-deluding Confidence that the Work is not now to do. And because they know themselves free from that gross Hypocrisy which takes up Religion merely for a Colour, to deceive others, and for covering wicked Designs, they are confident of their Sincerity, and suspect not that more close Hypocrisy, (wherein the greatest Danger lies,) by which a Man deceiveth his own Soul, Jam. i. 26. But Man’s deceitful Heart is such a matchless Cheat and Self-delusion, so reigning and so fatal a Disease, that I know not whether be the greater, the Difficulty or Dishonesty, or the Necessity of the undeceiving Work that I am now upon. Alas! for my unconverted Hearers! they must be undeceived or undone. But how shall this be effected? His labor, hoc opus, est.

Help, O all-searching Light, and let thy discerning Eye discover the rotten Foundation of the Self-deceiver; and lead me, O Lord God, as thou didst the Prophets, into the Chambers of Imagery, and dig through the Wall of Sinners Hearts, and discover the hidden Abominations that are lurking out of Sight in the Dark. Oh! send thy Angel before me, to open the sundry Wards of their Hearts, as thou didst before Peter, and make even the Iron Gates to fly open of their own Accord. And, as Jonathan no sooner tasted the Honey but his Eyes were enlightened, so grant, O Lord, that, when the poor received Souls, with whom I have to do, shall cast their Eyes Eyes upon these Lines, their Minds may be illuminated, and their Consciences convinced and awakened, that they may see with their Eyes, and hear with their Ears, and be converted, and thou mayst heal them.

This must be premised before we proceed to the Discovery, that it is most certain Men may have a confident Persuasion that their Hearts and States be good and yet be unsound. Hear the Truth himself, who shews, in Laodicea's Case, that Men may be wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked, and yet not know it; yea, they may be confident they are rich, and increased in Grace, Rev. iii. 17. There is a Generation that are pure in their own Eyes, and yet are not washed from their Filthiness, Prov. xxx. 12. Who better persuaded of his Case than Paul, while he yet remained unconverted? Rom. vii. 9. so that they are miserably deceived that take a strong Confidence for a sufficient Evidence. They, that have no better Proof than barely a strong Persuasion that they are converted, are certainly as yet Strangers to Conversion.

But to come more close: As it was said of the Adherents to Antichrist, so here; some of the unconverted carry their Marks in their Forehead more openly, and some in their Hands more covertly. The Apostle reckons up some, upon whom he writes the Sentence of Death; as in these dreadful Catalogues, which I beseech you to attend to with all Diligence, Eph. v. 5, 6. For this ye know, that no Whoremonger, nor unclean Person, nor covetous Man, who is an Idolater, hath an Inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no Man deceive you with vain Words; for because of these Things cometh the Wrath of God upon the Children of Disobedience, Rev. xxi. 8. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and Murthers, and Whoremongers, and Sorcerers, and Idolaters, and all Liars, shall have their Part in the Lake that burns with Fire and Brimstone, which is the second Death. 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the Kingdom of God?
The Marks of the Unconverted.

God? Be not deceived; neither Fornicators, nor Idolaters, nor Adulterers, nor effeminate, nor Abusers of themselves with Mankind, nor Thieves, nor covetous, nor Drunkards, nor Revilers, nor Extortioners, shall inherit the Kingdom of God; see Gal. v. 19, 20, 21. Wo to them that have their Names written in these Bead-rolls! Such may know, as certainly as if God had told them from Heaven, that they are unsanctified, and under an Impossibility of being saved in this Condition.

There are then these several Sorts that (past all Dispute) are unconverted: They carry their Marks in their Foreheads.

1. The unclean. These are ever reckoned among the Goats, and have their Names (whoever is left out) in all the forementioned Catalogues, Eph. v. 5. Rev. xxi. 8. 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10.

2. The covetous. These are ever branded for Idolaters, and the Doors of the Kingdom are shut against them by Name, Ephes. v. 5. Col. iii. 5. 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10.

3. Drunkards. Not only such as drink away their Reason, but withal (yea, above all) such as are too strong for strong Drink. The Lord fills his Mouth with Woes against these, and declares them to have no Inheritance in the Kingdom of God, Isa. v. 11, 12, 22. Gal. v. 21.

4. Liars. The God that cannot lie has told them, that there is no Place for them in his Kingdom, no Entrance into his Hill; but their Portion is with the Father of Lies (whose Children they are) in the Lake of Burnings, Psa. xv. 1, 2. Rev. xxi. 8, 27. John viii. 44. Prov. vi. 17.

5. Swearers. The End of these, without deep and speedy Repentance, is swift Destruction, and most certain and unavoidable Condemnation, Jam. v. 12. Zech. v. 1, 2, 3.

6. Railers and Backbiters, that love to take up a Reproach
Reproach against their Neighbour, and fling all the Dirt they can in his Face, or else wound him secretly behind his Back; Ps. xvi. 1, 3. 1 Cor. vi. 10. and v. 11.

7. Thieves, Extortioners, Oppressors, that grind the poor, over-reach their Brethren when they have them at an Advantage: These must know that God is the Avenger of all such, 1 Thess. iv. 6. Hear, O ye false and purloining and wasteful Servants; hear, O ye deceitful Tradesmen, hear your Sentence: God will certainly hold his Door against you, and turn your Treasures of Unrighteousness into the Treasures of Wrath, and make your ill-gotten Silver and Gold to torment you, like burning Metal in your Bowels, 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10. Jam. v. 2, 3.

8. All that do ordinarily live in the profane neglect of God's Worship, that hear not his Word, that call not on his Name, that restrain Prayer before God, that mind not their own nor their Family's Souls, but live without God in the World, John viii. 47. Job xv. 4. Ps. xiv. 4. and lxxix. 6. Eph. ii. 12. and iv. 18.

9. Those that are Frequenters and Lovers of Company. God hath declared, he will be the Destroyer of all such, and that they shall never enter into the Hill of his Rest, Prov. xiii. 20. and ix. 6. Ps. xv. 4.

10. Scoffers at Religion, that make a Scorn of precise Walking, and mock at the Messengers and diligent Servants of the Lord, and at their holy Profession, and make themselves merry with the Weakness and Failings of Professors. Hear, ye Despisers, hear your dreadful Doom, Prov. xix. 29. and iii. 34. 2 Chron. xxxvi. 16:

Sinner, consider diligently whether thou art not to be found in one of these Ranks; for, if this be thy Cafe, thou art in the Gall of Bitterness and Bond of Iniquity; for all these do carry their Marks in their Foreheads, and are undoubtedly the Sons of Death.

And,
And, if so, the Lord pity our poor Congregations! Oh, how small a Number will be left when these ten Sorts are left out! Alas! on how many Doors, on how many Faces, must we write, Lord, have Mercy upon us! Sirs, what Shift do you make to keep up your Confidence of your good State, when God from Heaven declares against you, and pronounces you in a State of Damnation? I would reason with you as God with them, How canst thou say I am not polluted? (Jer. ii. 23.) See thy Way in the Valley; know what thou hast done. Man, is not thy Conscience privy to thy Tricks of Deceit, to thy Chamber-pranks, to the Way of Lying? Yea, are not thy Friends, thy Family, thy Neighbours, Witnesses to thy profane Neglects of God's Worship, to thy covetous Practices, to thy envious and malicious Carriage? May not they point at thee as thou goest; there goes a gaming Prodigal; there goes a drunken Nabul, a Companion of Evil-doers; there goes a Railer, or a Scoffer, or a Loose-liver? Beloved, God hath written it as with a Sun-Beam, in the Book by which you must be judged, that these are not the Spots of his Children, and that none such (except renewed by converting Grace) shall ever escape the Damnation of Hell.

O that such as you would now be persuaded to repent, and turn from all your Transgressions, or else Iniquity will be your Ruin! Ezek. xviii. 30. Alas for poor hardened Sinners! Must I leave you at last where you were? Must I leave you at last where you were? Must I leave you at last where you were? Must I leave the Tiplerstill at the Ale-bench? Must I leave the Wanton still at his Dalliance? Must I leave the malicious still in his Venom, and the Drunkard still at his Vomit? However, you must know that you have been warned, and that I am clear of your Blood; and, whether Men will hear, or whether they will forbear, I will leave these Scriptures with them, either as Thunder-bolts to awaken them, or as Searing-irons to harden them to a reprobate Sense, Psa. lxviii. 21. God shall wound the Head of
of his Enemies, and the hairy Scalp of such a one as goes on still in his Trespasses, Prov. xxix. 1. He that, being often reproved, hardeneth his Neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without Remedy, Prov. i. 24, &c. Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my Hand, and no Man regarded, &c. I will mock at your Calamity when your Destruction cometh as a Whirlwind.

And now I imagine many will begin to bless themselves, and think all is well, because they cannot be spotted with the grosser Evils before-mentioned; but I must farther tell you that there are another Sort of unsanctified Persons that carry not their Marks in their Foreheads, but more secretly and covertly, in their Hands; these do frequently deceive themselves and others, and pass for good Christians when they are all the While unsound at Bottom. Many pass undiscovered till Death and Judgement bring all to Light. Those Self-deceivers seem to come even to Heaven's Gate with Confidence of their Admission, and yet are turned off at last, Mat. vii. 22. Brethren, beloved, I beseech you deeply to lay to Heart and firmly retain this awakening Consideration, that Multitudes carry by the Hand of some secret Sin, that is not only hidden from others, but for Want of observing their own Hearts even from themselves. A Man may be free from open Pollutions, and yet die at last by the fatal Hand of some unobserved Iniquity; and there are these twelve hidden Sins, through which Souls go down by Numbers into the Chambers of Death; these you must search carefully for, and take them as black Marks (wherever they be found) discovering a graceless and unconverted State; and, as you love your Lives, read carefully, with a holy Jealousy of yourselves, lest you should be the Persons concerned.

1. Grofs Ignorance. Oh, how many poor Souls doth this Sin kil. in the Dark! Hos. iv 6. while they think verily they have good Hearts, and are in the ready Way
The Marks of the Unconverted.

Way to Heaven! This is the Murderer that dispatcheth Thousands in a silent Manner, when (poor Hearts!) they suspect Nothing, and see not the Hand that mischiefs them. You shall find, whatever Excuses you have for Ignorance, that it is a Soul-undoing Evil, Isa. xxvii. 11. 2 Thess. i. 8. 2 Cor. iv. 3. Ah! would it not have grieved a Man's Heart to have seen that woful Spectacle, when the poor Protestants were shut up (a Multitude together) in a Barn, and a Butcher came, with his inhuman Hands warmed in human Blood, and led them one by one (blindfold) to a Block, where he slew them (poor Innocents!) one after another, by the Scores, in cool Blood? But how much more should your Hearts bleed to think of the Hundreds, in great Congregations, that Ignorance doth butcher in Secret, and lead blindfold to the Block! Beware this be none of your Case: Make no Plea for Ignorance: If you spare that Sin, know that it will not spare you; and would a Man keep a Murderer in his Bosom?

2. Secret Reserves in closing with Christ. To forsake all for Christ, to hate Father and Mother, yea, a Man's own Life, for him, this is a hard Saying, Luke xiv. 26. Some will do much, but they will not be of the Religion that will undo them; they never come to be entirely devoted to Christ, nor fully to resign to him; they must have the sweet Sin; they mean to do themselves no Harm; they have secret Exceptions for Life, Liberty, or Estate. Many take Christ thus, Hand-over-head, and never consider his self-denying Terms, nor cast up the Cost; and this Error in the Foundation mars all, and secretly ruins them for ever, Luke xiv. 28. Matt. xiii. 21.

3. Formality in Religion. Many stick in the Dark, and rest in the Outside of Religion, and in the external Performances of holy Duties, Matt. xxiii. 25. And this oftentimes doth most effectually deceive Men, and doth more certainly undo them than open Loose-ness; as it was in the Pharisee's Case, Matt. xxiii. 31. They hear, they fast, they pray, they give Alms, and therefore will not believe but their Case is good, Luke xviii. 11. Whereas, resting in the Work done, and coming short of the Heart-work and the inward Power and Vitals of Religion, they fall at last into the Burning, from the flattering Hopes and confid- dent Persuasions of their being in the ready Way to Heaven, Matt. vii. 22, 23. O dreadful Case, when a Man's Religion shall serve only to harden him, and effectually to delude and deceive his own Soul!

4. The Prevalence of false Ends in holy Duties; Mat. xxiii. 25. this was the Bane of the Pharisees. Oh, how many a poor Soul is undone by this, and drops into Hell before he discerns his Mistake! he performs good Duties, and so thinks all is well, but perceives not that he is actuated by carnal Motives all the While. It is too true, that, even with the truly sanctified, many carnal Ends will oft-times creep in; but they are the Matter of his Hatred and Humiliation, and never come to be habitually prevalent with him, and bear the greatest Sway, Rom. xiv. 7. But now, when the main Thing that doth ordinarily carry a Man out to religious Duties shall be really some carnal End, as to satisfy his Conscience, to get the Repute of being religious, to be seen of Men, to shew his own Gifts and Parts, to avoid the Reproach of a profane and irreligious Person, or the like; this discovers an unsound Heart, Hos. x. 1. Zech. vii. 3, 6. O Christian! if you would avoid Self-deceit, see that you mind not only your Acts, but withal (yea above all) your Ends.

5. Trusting in their own Righteousness, Luke xviii. 9. This is a Soul-undoing Milchief, Rom. x. 3. When Men do trust in their own Righteousness, they do indeed reject Christ's. Beloved, you had need be watchful on every Hand; for not only your Sins,
The Marks of the Unconverted.

but your Duties, may undo you: It may be you never thought of this, but so it is, that a Man may as certainly miscarry by his seeming Righteousness and supposed Graces as by gross Sins; and that is when a Man doth trust to these as his Righteousness before God, for the satisfying his Justice, appeasing his Wrath, procuring his Favour, and obtaining of his own Pardon; for this is to put Christ out of Office,
and make a Saviour of our own Duties and Graces.
Beware of this, O Professors! you are much in Duties, but this one Fly will spoil all the Ointment.
When you have done most and best, be sure go out of yourselves to Christ; reckon your own Righteousness but Rags, Psal. cxliii. 2. Phil. iii. 9. Isa.
xiv. 6. Nehemiah xiii. 22.

6. A secret Enmity against the Strictness of Religion.
Many moral Persons, punctual in their formal Devotion, have a bitter Enmity against Preciseness, and hate the Life and Power of Religion, Phil. iii. 6. compared with Acts ix. 1. They like not this Forwardness, nor that Men should keep such a Stir in Religion; they condemn the Strictness of Religion as Singularity, Indiscretion, and intemperate Zeal, and with them a lively Preacher, or lively Christian, is but a heady Fellow. These Men love not Holiness as Holiness, (for then they would love the Height of Holiness,) and therefore are undoubtedly rotten at Heart, whatever good Opinion they have of themselves.

7. The resting in a certain Pitch of Religion. When they have so much as will save them, (as they suppose,) they look no farther, and so shew themselves short of true Grace, which will ever put Men upon aspiring to farther Perfection, Phil. iii. 13. Prov. iv. 18.

8. The predominant Love of the World. This is the sure Evidence of an unsanctified Heart, Mark x. 22.
John ii. 15.

But how close doth this Sin lurk oft-times under the fair Covert of forward Profession! Luke viii. 14. Yea, such.

such a Power of Deceit is there in this Sin, that many Times, when every Body else can see the Man's Worldliness and Covetousness, he cannot see it himself, but hath to many Colours, and Excuses, and Pretences for his Eagerness on the World, that he doth blind his own Eyes, and perish in his Self Deceit. How many Professors are there with whom the World hath more of their Hearts and Affections than Christ, who mind earthly Things, and thereby are evidently attar the Flesh, and like to end in Destruction! Rom. viii. 5. Phil. iii. 19. yet ask these Men, and they will tell you confidently, they prize Christ above all; (God forbid else!) and see not their own Earthly-mindedness, for Want of a narrow Observation of the Workings of their own Hearts. Did they but carefully search, they would quickly find that their greatest Content is in the World, Luke xii. 19. and their greatest Care and main Endeavour are to get and secure the World; which are the certain Discoveries of an unconverted Sinner. May the professing Part of the World take earnest Heed that they perish not by the Hand of this Sin unobserved. Men may be, and often are, kept off from Christ as effectually, by the inordinate Love of lawful Comforts, as by the most unlawful Courses, Mat. xxii. 5.

9. Reigning Malice and Envy against those that disrespect them and are injurious to them, 1 John ii. 9, 11. O how do many, that seem to be religious, remember Injuries and carry Grudges, and will return Men as good as they bring, rendering Evil for Evil, loving to take Revenge, wishing Evil to them that wrong them, directly against the Rule of the Gospel; the Pattern of Christ, and the Nature of God; Rom. xii. 14, 17. 1 Pet. ii. 21, 23. Neh. ix. 17. Doubtless, where this Evil is kept boiling in the Heart, and is not hated, resisted, mortified, but doth habitually prevail, that Person is in the very Gall of Bitterness, E. 5.
Reader, doth Nothing of this touch thee? Art thou in none of the fore-mentioned Ranks? O search and search again; take thy Heart solemnly to Task: Wo unto thee, if, after thy Profession, thou shouldst be found under the Power of Ignorance, lost in Formality, drowned in Earthly-mindedness, envenomed with Malice, exalted in an Opinion of thine own Righteousness, leavened with Hypocrisy and carnal Ends in God's Service, embittered against Stridency; this would be a sad Discovery that all thy Religion were in vain. But I must proceed.

10. Unmortified Pride. When Men love the Praise of Men more than the Praise of God, and set their Hearts upon Men's Esteem, Applause, and Approbation, it is most certain they are yet in their Sins, and Strangers to true Conversion, John xii. 43. Gal. i. 10. When Men see not, nor complain nor groan under, the Pride of their own Hearts, it is a Sign they are stark dead in Sin. Oh, how secretly doth this Sin live and reign in many Hearts, and they know it not, but are very Strangers to themselves! John ix. 40.

11. The prevailing Love of Pleasure, 2 Tim. iii. 4. This is a black Mark. When Men give the Flesh the Liberty that it craves, and pamper and please it, and do not deny and restrain it; when their great Delight is in gratifying their Bellies, and pleasing their Senses; whatever Appearances they may have of Religion, all is unsound, Rom. xvi. 18. Tit. iii. 3. A Flesh-pleasing Life cannot be pleasing to God: They that are Christ's have crucified the Flesh, and are careful to cross it and keep it under, as their Enemy, Gal. v. 24. 1 Cor. ix. 25, 26, 27.

12. Carnal Security, or a presumptuous ungrounded Confidence that their Condition is already good, Rev. iii. 17. Many cry, Peace and Safety, when sudden Destruction
The Marks of the Unconverted.

The Marks of the Unconverted, 1 Thess. v. 3. This was that which kept the foolish Virgins sleeping when they should have been working, upon their Beds when they should have been at the Markets, Matt. xxv. 5, 10. Prov. x. 5. They perceived not their Want of Oil till the Bridegroom was come; and, while they went to buy, the Door was shut. And oh that these foolish Virgins had no Successors! Where is the Place, yea, where is the House almost, where these do not dwell? Men are willing to cherish in themselves, upon ever so light Grounds, a Hope that their Condition is Good, and so look not out after a Change, and by these Means perish in their Sins. Are you at Peace? Shew me upon what Grounds your Peace is maintained. Is it Scripture-peace? Can you shew the distinguishing Marks of a sound Believer? Can you evidence that you have Something more than any Hypocrite in the World ever had? If not, fear this Peace more than any Trouble; and know, that a carnal Peace doth commonly prove the most mortal Enemy of the poor Soul, and, whilst it smiles, and kisses, and speaks it fair, doth fatally smite it, as it were, under the fifth Rib.

By this Time I think I hear my Readers crying out, with the Disciples, Who then shall be saved? Set out from among our Congregations all those ten Ranks of the profane on the one Hand, and then besides take out all these twelve Sorts of close and self-deceiving Hypocrites on the other Hand, and tell me then whether it be not a Remnant that shall be saved. How few will be the Sheep that shall be left when all these shall be separated and set among the Goats! For my Part, of all my numerous Hearers, I have no Hope to see any of them in Heaven that are to be found among these two and twenty Sorts that are here mentioned, except by sound Conversion they are brought into another Condition.

Application. And now, Conscience, do thy Office: E 6
Speak out, and speak home, to him that heareth or readeth these Lines. If thou find any of these Marks upon him, thou must pronounce him utterly unclean, Levit. xiii. 44. Take not up a Lie into thy Mouth; speak not Peace to him to whom God speaks no Peace: Let not Lust bribe thee, or Self-love or carnal Prejudice blind thee. I subpoena thee, from the Court of Heaven, to come and give in Evidence: I require thee in the Name of God to go with me to the Search of the suspected House. As thou wilt answer it at thy Peril, give in a true Report of the State and Case of him that readeth this Book. Conscience, wilt thou altogether hold thy Peace at such a Time as this? I adjure thee by the living God that thou tell us the Truth, Matt. xxvi. 63. Is the Man converted, or is he not? Doth he allow himself in any Way of Sin, or doth he not? Doth he truly love, and please, and prize, and delight in God above all other Things, or not? Come, put it to an Issue.

How long shall this Soul live at Uncertainties? Or, Conscience, bring in thy Verdict. Is this Man a new Man, or is he not? How dost thou find it? Hath there passed a thorough and mighty Change upon him, or not? When was the Time, where was the Place, or what were the Means by which this thorough Change of the new Birth was wrought in his Soul? Speak, Conscience; or, if thou canst not tell Time and Place, canst thou shew Scripture-evidence that the Work is done? Hath the Man been ever taken off from his false Bottom, from the false Hopes, and false Peace, wherein once he trusted? Hath he been deeply convinced of Sin, and of his lost and undone Condition, and brought out of himself, and off from his Sins, to give up himself entirely to Jesus Christ? or dost thou not find him to this Day under the Power of Ignorance or in the Mire of Profaneness? Hast thou not taken upon him the Gains of Unrighteousness?
Unrighteousness? Dost thou not find him a Stranger to Prayer, a Neglecter of the Word, a Lover of this present World? Dost thou not often catch him in a Lie? Dost thou not find his Heart fermented with Malice, or burning with Lust, or going after his Covetousness? Speak plainly to all the fore-mentioned Particulars: Canst thou acquit this Man, this Woman, from being any of the two and twenty Sorts here described? If he be found with any of them, set him aside; his Portion is not with the Saints: He must be converted and made a new Creature, or else he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God.

Beloved, be not your own Betrayers; do not deceive your own Hearts, nor set your Hands to your own Ruin, by a wilful Blindness of yourselves. Set up a Tribunal in your own Breasts; bring the Word and Conscience together, o the Law and to the Testimony, Isa. viii. 20. Hear what the Word concludes of your Estates: Oh follow the Search till you have found how the Case stands: Mistake here, and perish. And such is the Treachery of the Heart, the Subtily of the Tempter, and the Deceitfulness of Sin, Jer. xvii 9. 2 Cor. xi. 3 Heb. iii. 13. all conspire to flatter and deceive the poor Soul; and withal to common and easy it is to mistake, that it is a thousand to one but you will be deceived, unless you be very careful, and thorough, and impartial, in the Enquiry into your spiritual Condition: O therefore ply your Work; go to the Bottom; search with Candles; weigh you in the Balance; come to the Standard of the Sanctuary; bring your Coin to the Touchstone. You have the archest Cheats in the World to deal with; a World of counterfeit Coin is going; happy is he that takes no Counters for Gold. Satan is Master of Deceit; he can draw to the Life; he is perfect in the Trade; there is Nothing but he can imitate: You cannot wish for any Grace, but he can fit you to a Hair with a Counterfeit. Trade warily; look on every every Piece you take; be jealous; trust not so much as your own Hearts: Run to God to search you and try you, to examine you and prove your Reins, Ps. xxvi. 2. and cxxxix. 23, 24. If other Helps suffice not to bring all to an Issue, but you are still at a Loss, open your Cases faithfully to some godly and faithful Minister, Mal. ii. 7. Rest not till you have put the Business of your eternal Welfare out of Question, 1 Pet. ii. 10. O Searcher of Hearts, put thou this Soul upon, and help him in, his Search.

Chap. V. Shewing the Miseries of the Unconverted.

So unspeakably dreadful is the Case of every unconverted Soul, that I have sometimes thought (if I could but convince Men that they are yet unregenerate) the Work were upon the Matter done.

But I sadly experience that such a Spirit of Sloth and Slumber (Rom. xi. 8. Matt. xiii. 15.) possesseth the unsanctified, that, though they be convinced that they are yet unconverted, yet they oftentimes carelessly fit still; and, what through the Avocation of sensual Pleasures, or Hurry of worldly Business, or Noise and Clamour of earthly Cares, and Lusts, and Affections, Luke viii. 14. the Voice of Conscience is drowned, and Men go no farther than some cold Wishes, and general Purposes of repenting and amending, Acts xxiv. 25.

It is therefore of high Necessity that I do not only convince Men that they are unconverted, but that I also endeavour to bring them to a Sense of the fearful Misery of this State.

But here I find myself a-ground at first putting forth. What Tongue can tell the Heirs of Hell sufficiently of their Misery, unless it were Dives's in that Flame? Luke xvi. 24. Where is the ready Writer whose Pen can decipher their Misery that are without out God in the World? Ephes. ii. 12. This cannot fully be done, unless we know the infinite Ocean of that Bliss of Perfection which is in that God which a State of Sin doth exclude Men from. Who knoweth (faith Moses) the Power of thine Anger? Pia. xc. 11. And how shall I tell Men that which I do not know? Yet so much we know as one would think would shake the Heart of that Man that had the least Degree of spiritual Life and Sense.

But this is yet the moreposing Difficulty, that I am to speak to them that are without Sense. Alas! this is not the least Part of Man's Misery upon him, that he is dead, stark dead, in Trespasses and Sins, Ephes. ii. 1.

Could I bring Paradise into View, or represent the Kingdom of Heaven to as much Advantage as the Tempter did the Kingdoms of the World, and all the Glory thereof, to our Saviour; or could I uncover the Face of the deep and devouring Gulph of Tophet, in all its Terrors, and open the Gates of the infernal Furnace; alas! he hath no Eyes to see it, Matt. xiii. 14, 15. Could I paint out the Beauties of Holiness, or Glory of the Gospel, to the Life; or could I bring above-board the more than diabolical Deformity and Ugliness of Sin; he can no more judge of the Loveliness and Beauty of the one, and the Filthiness and Hatefulness of the other, than the blind Man of Colours. He is alienated from the Life of God through the Ignorance that is in him, because of the Blindness of his Heart, Eph. iv. 18. He neither doth nor can know the Things of God, because they are spiritually discerned, 1 Cor. ii. 14. His Eyes cannot be savingly opened but by converting Grace, Acts xxvi. 18. He is a Child of Darkness, and walks in Darkness, 1 John i. 6. Yea, the Light in him is Darkness, Matt. vi. 23.

Shall I ring his Knell, or read his Sentence, or found in his Ear the terrible Trump of God's judgements, ments, that one would think should make both his Ears to tingle, and strike him into Bel/azzar's Fit, even to appall his Countenance, and loose his Joints, and make his Knees smite one against another? Yet, alas! he perceives me not; he hath no Ears to hear. Or shall I call up the Daughters of Music, and sing the Song of Moses and of the Lamb? Yet he will not be stirred. Shall I allure him with the joyful Sound, and lovely Song, and glad Tidings, of the Gospel? with the most sweet and inviting Calls, Comforts, Cordials, of the divine Promises, so exceeding great and precious? It will not affect him savingly, unless I could find him Ears, Matt. xiii. 15. as well as tell him the News.

Shall I set before him the Feast of fat Things, the Wine of Wisdom, the Bread of God, the Tree of Life, the hidden Manna? He hath no Appetite for them, no Mind to them, 1 Cor. ii. 14. Matt. xxii. 5. Should I press the choicest Grapes, the heavenly Clusters of Gospel Privileges, and drink to him in the richest Wine of God's own Cellar, yea, of his own Side; or set before him the delicious Honeycomb of God's Testimonies, Psa. xix. 10. alas! he hath no Taste to discern them. Shall I invite the dead to rise and eat the Banquet of their Funerals? No more can the dead in Sin relish the holy Food wherewith the Lord of Life hath spread his Table.

What then shall I do? shall I burn the Brimstone of Hell at his Nostrils? or shall I open the Box of Spikenard, very precious, that filleth the whole House of this Universe with its Perfume, Mark xiv. 3, John xii. 3. and hope that the Savour of Christ's Ointments, and the Smell of his Garments, will attract him? Psa. xlv. 8. Alas! dead Sinners are like the dumb Idols; they have Mouths, but they speak not; Eyes have they, but they see not; they have Ears, but they hear not; Noises have they, but they smell not; they have Hands, but they handle not; Feet have have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their Throat, Psal. cxv. 5, 6, 7. they are destitute of spiritual Sense and Motion.

But let me try the Sense that doth last leave us, and draw the Sword of the Word; yet, lay at him while I will, yea, though I choose mine Arrows out of God’s Quiver, and direct them to the Heart, nevertheless he feeleth it not; for how should he, being past Feeling? Eph. iv. 19. so that, though the Wrath of God abideth on him, and the mountainous Weight of so many thousand Sins, yet he goes up and down as light as if Nothing ailed him, Rom. vii. 9. In a Word, he carries a dead Soul in a living Body, and his Flesh is but the walking Coffin of a corrupted Mind that is twice dead, Jude xii. rotting in the Slime and Putrefaction of noisome Lusts, Matt. xxiii. 27, 28.

Which Way then shall I come at the miserable Objects that I have to deal with? Who shall make the Heart of Stone to relent? Zech. vii. 11, 12. or the lifeless Carcase to feel and move? That God that is able of Stone to raise up Children unto Abraham, Mat. iii. 9. that raiseth the dead, 1 Cor. i. 9. and melteth the Mountains, Neh. i 5. and striketh Water out of the Fiats; Deut. viii. 15. that loves to work like himself; beyond the Hopes and Belief of Man; that peopled his Church with dry Bones, and planteth his Orchard with dry Sticks; he is able to do this. Therefore I bow my Knee to the most high God, Eph. iii 14. and as our Saviour prayed at the Sepulchre of Lazarus, John xi. 38, 41. and the Shunamite ran to the Man of God for her dead Child, 2 Kings iv. 25. so doth your mourning Minister kneel about your Graves, and carry you in the Arms of Prayer to that God in whom your Help is found.

O thou all-powerful Jehovah, that workest and none can stay thee! that hast the Keys of Death and Hell; pity thou the dead Souls that lie here entombed, and roll away the Grave-stone, and say, as to Lazarus when already stinking,
The Miseries of the Unconverted.

The sinking, Come forth. Lighten thou this Darkness, O inaccessible Light, and let the Day-spring from on high visit the dark Regions of the dead, to whom I speak; for thou canst open the Eye that Death itself hath closed; thou, that formedst the Ear, canst restore the Hearing; say thou to these Ears, Ephphatha, and they shall be opened: Give thou Eyes to see thine Excellences, a Taste that may relish thy Sweetness, a Scent that may favour thy Ointment, a Feeling that may discern the Privilege of thy Favour, the Burden of thy Wrath, the intolerable Weight of unpardoned Sin, and give thy Servants Order to prophecy on the dry Bones, and let the Effects of this Prophecy be as of thy Prophet, when he prophesied the Valley of dry Bones into a living Army exceeding great, Ezek. xxxvii. 1, &c. The Hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me in the Spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the Midst of the Valley which was full of Bones. He said to me, Prophecy on these Bones, and say to them, O ye dry Bones, hear the Word of the Lord; thus saith the Lord unto these Bones, Behold, I will cause Breath to enter into you, and ye shall live; and I will lay Sinews upon you, and will bring up Flesh on you, and cover you with Skin: and put Breath in you, and ye shall live, and ye shall know that I am the Lord. So I prophesied as I was commanded, and as I prophesied there was a Noise and a Shaking, and the Bones came together, Bone to his Bone. And, when I beheld, lo the Sinews and Flesh came upon them and covered them above, but there was no Breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the Wind; prophecy, Son of Man, and say to the Wind, Thus saith the Lord God, Come from the four Winds, O Breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the Breath came into them, and they lived and stood upon their Feet, an exceeding great Army. But I must proceed, as I am able, to unfold that Mystery, which, I confess, no Tongue can unfold, no Heart can sufficiently comprehend. Know therefore that, while thou art unconverted,
The Miferies of the Unconverted.

1. The infinite God is engaged against thee. It is no small Part of thy Misery that thou art without God, Eph. ii. 22. How doth Micah run crying after the Danites, You have taken away my Gods, and what have I more? Judg. xviii. 23, 24. O what a Mourning then must thou lift up, that art without God, that cant lay no Claim to him without daring Usurpation! Thou mayest say of God, as Sheba of David, We have no Part in David, neither have we Inheritance in the Son of Jesse, 2 Sam. xx. 1. How pitiful and piercing a Moan is that of Saul in his Extremity! The Philistines are upon me, and God is departed from me, 1 Sam. xxviii. 15. Sinners, but what will you do in the Day of your Visitation? Whither will you flee for Help? Where will you leave your Glory? Isa. x. 3. What will you do when the Philistines are upon you; when the World shall take its eternal Leave of you; when you must bid your Friends, Houses, and Lands, farewell for evermore? What will you do then, I say, that have never a God to go to? Will you call on him? will you cry to him for Help? Alas! he will not own you, Prov. i. 28, 29. he will not take any Notice of you, but send you packing with an I never knew you, Matt. vii. 23. They that know what it is to have a God to go to, a God to live upon, they know a little what a fearful Misery it is to be without God. This made that holy Man cry out, Let me have a God or Nothing; let me know him, and his Will, and what will please him, and how I may come to enjoy him, or would I had never had an Understanding to know any Thing! &c.

But thou art not only without God, but God is against thee, Ezek. v. 8, 9. Nahum ii. 13. O! if God would but stand a Neuter, though he did not own nor help the poor Sinner, his Case were not so deeply miserable, though God should give up the poor Creature to the Will of his Enemies, to do their worst with him; though he should deliver him over to the Tormentors,
The Miseries of the Unconverted.

Tormentors, Mat. xviii. 34. that Devils should tear and torture him to their utmost Power and Skill, yet this were not half so fearful. But God will set himself against the Sinner; and, believe it, it is a fearful Thing to fall into the Hands of the living God, Heb. x. 31. There is no Friend like him, no Enemy like him. As much as Heaven is above the Earth, Omnipotence above Impotence, Infinity above Nullity, so much more horrible is it to fall into the Hands of the living God, than into Paws of Bears and Lions, yea, Furies or Devils. God himself will be thy Tormentor; thy Destruction shall come from the Presence of the Lord, 2 Thes. i. 9. 'Tophet is deep and large, and the Wrath of the Lord, like a River of Brimstone, doth kindle it, Isa. xxx. 33. If God be against thee, who shall be for thee? If one Man sin against another, the Judge shall judge him; but, if a Man sin against the Lord, who shall entreat for him? 1 Sam. ii. 25. Thou, even thou, art to be feared; and who shall stand in thy Sight when once thou art angry? Psal. lxvii. 7. Who is that God that shall deliver you out of his Hands? Dan. iii. 15. Can Mammon? Riches profit not in the Day of Wrath, Prov. xi. 4. Can Kings or Warriors? No. They shall cry to the Mountains and Rocks to fall on them and hide them from the face of him that sitteth on the Throne, and from the Wrath of the Lamb; for the great Day of his Wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?' Rev. vi. 15, 16, 17.

Sinner! I think this should go like a Dagger to thy Heart, to know that God is thine Enemy. Oh! whither wilt thou go? where wilt thou shelter thee? There is no Hope for thee, unless thou lay down thy Weapons, and sue out thy Pardon, and get Christ to stand thy Friend, and make thy Peace: if it were not for this, thou mightest go into some howling Wildernefs, and there pine in Sorrow, and run mad for Anguish
The Miseries of the Unconverted.

Anguish of Heart and horrible De'pair: but in Christ there is a Possibility of Mercy for thee, yea a Proffer of Mercy to thee, that thou mayest have God more for thee than he is now against thee; but, if thou wilt not forsake thy Sins, nor turn thoroughly and to some Purpose to God by a sound Conversion, the Wrath of God abideth on thee, and he proclaimeth himself to be against thee, as in the Prophet Ezekiel, v. 8. Therefore thus faith the Lord God, behold, I, even I, am against thee!

I. His Face is against thee. Ps. xxxiv. 16. The Face of the Lord is against them that do Evil, to cut off the Remembrance of them. Woe unto them whom God shall set his Face against! When he did but look on the Host of the Egyptians how terrible was the Consequence! Ezek. xiv. 8. I will set my Face against that Man, and will make him a Sign and a Proverb, and will cut him off from the Midst of my People, and you shall know that I am the Lord.

II. His Heart is against thee. He hateth all the Workers of Iniquity: Man, doth not thy Heart tremble to think of thy being an Object of God's Hatred? Jer. xv. 1. Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my Mind could not be towards this People; cast them out of my Sight. Zech. xi. 8. My Soul loathed them, and their Souls also abhorred me.

III. His Hand is against thee, 1 Sam. xii. 14, 15. All his Attributes are against thee.

First, his Justice is like a flaming Sword unsheathed against thee: If I what my glittering Sword, and my Hand take Hold on Judgement, I will render Vengeance to mine Adversaries, and will reward them that hate me: I will make mine Arrows drunk with Blood, &c. Deut. xxxii. 40, 41.

So exact is Justice, that it will by no Means clear the Guilty. Exod. xxxiv. 7. God will not discharge thee, he will not hold thee guiltless, Exod. xx. 7. but will require the whole Debt in Person of thee, unless thou thou canst make a Scripture-claim to Christ and his Satisfaction. When the enlightened Sinner looks on Justice, and sees the Balance in which he must be weighed, and the Sword by which he must be executed, he feels an Earthquake in his Breast: But Satan keeps this out of Sight, and persuades the Soul (while he can) that the Lord is all made up of Mercy, and so lulls it asleep in Sin. Divine Justice is very strict; it must have Satisfaction to the utmost Farthing; it denounceth Indignation and Wrath, Tribulation and Anguish, to every Soul that doth Evil, Rom. ii. 8, 9. It curseth every one that continueth not in every Thing that is written in the Law, to do it, Gal. iii. 10. The Justice of God to the unpardoned Sinner, that hath a Sense of his Misery, is more terrible than the Sight of the Bailiff or Creditor to the bankrupt Debtor, or than the Sight of the Judge and Bench to the Robber, or of the Irons and Gibbet to the guilty Murderer. When Justice fits upon Life and Death, Oh what dreadful Work doth it make to the wretched Sinner! Bind him Hand and Foot; cast him into outer Darkness; there shall be keeping and Gnashing of Teeth, Matt. xxii. 13. Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting Fire, Mat. xxv. 41. This is the terrible Sentence that Justice pronounceth. Why, Sinner, by this severe Justice must thou be tried; and, as God liveth, this killing Sentence shalt thou hear, unless thou repent and be converted.

Secondly, The Holiness of God is full of Antipathy against thee, Psa. v. 4, 5. He is not only angry with thee, (to he may be with his own Children) but he hath a fixed, rooted, habitual, Displeasure against thee; he lothes thee, Zech. xi. 8. and what is done by thee, though for Substance commanded by him, Isa. i. 14. Mal. i. 10. As if a Man should give his Servant ever so good Meat to dress, yet, if he should mingle Filth or Poison with it, he would not touch it. God's Nature Nature is infinitely contrary to Sin, and so he cannot but hate a Sinner out of Christ.

Oh what Misery is this, to be out of the Favour, yea, under the Hatred, of God! Eccles. v. 6. Hos. ix. 15. that God who can as easily lay aside his Nature, and cease to be God, as not be contrary to thee and detest thee, except thou be changed and renewed by Grace. O Sinner, how darest thou to think of the bright and radiant Sun of Purity, or the Beauties, the Glory, of Holiness, that is in God! The Stars are not pure in his Sight, Job xxv. 5. He humbles himself to behold Things that are done in Heaven, Psal. cxiii. 6. O thofe light and sparkling Eyes of his! what do they spy in thee? and haft thou no Interest in Christ neither, that he should plead for thee? I think he should hear thee crying out (aftonifhed) with the Bethlemites, Who shall stand before this Lord God? 1 Sam. vi. 20.

Thirdly, The Power of God is mounted like a mighty Cannon against thee. The Glory of God’s Power is to be displayed in the wonderful Confufion and Destruct- tion of them that obey not the Gospel, 2 Thess. i. 8, 9. He will make his Power known in them, Rom. ix. 22. how mightily he can torment them: For this End he raiseth them up, that he might make his Power known, Rom. ix. 17. O Man, art thou able to make thy Party good with thy Maker? No more than a filly Reed againft the Cedars of God, or a little Cockboat againft the tumbling Ocean, or the Childrens Bubbles againft the blustering Winds.

Sinner, the Power of God’s Anger is against thee, Psal. xc. 11. and Power and Anger together make fearful Work; it were better thou hadft all the World in Arms against thee than to have the Power of God against thee. There is no escaping his Hands, no breaking his Prifon. ‘ The Thunder of his Power who can understand? Job xxvi. 14. Unhappy Man, that shall understand it by feeling it! If he will contend with him, he cannot anfwcr him one of a thousand.
a thousand. He is wise in Heart, and mighty in Strength. Who hath hardened himself against him, and prospered, which moveth the Mountains, and they know it not; which overturneth them in his Anger; which shaketh the Earth out of her Place, and the Pillars thereof tremble; which commandeth the Sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the Stars? Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him?
Who will say unto him, What dost thou? If God will not withdraw his Anger, the Proud-helpers do stoop under him.' Job ix. 3, 4, 5, 6, &c. And art thou a fit Match for such an Antagonist? Oh!
consider this, you that forget God, lest he tear you in Pieces and there be none to deliver you, Ps. i. 22. Submit to Mercy; let not Dust and Stubble stand out against the Almighty; let not Briars and Thorns against him in Battle, lest he go through them, and consume them together; but lay hold on his Strength, that you may make Peace with him, Isa. xxvii. 4, 5. Woe to him that striveth with his Maker, Isa. xlv. 9.

Fourthly, The Wisdom of God is set to ruin thee. He hath ordained his Arrows, and prepared Instruments of Death, and made all Things ready, Ps.vii. 12,13.
His counsels are against thee to contrive thy Destrution, Jer. xviii. 11. He laughs to see how thou wilt be taken and ensnared in the evil Day, Ps.xxxvii. 13.
The Lord shall laugh at him, for he seeth that the Day is coming. He sees how thou wilt come down mightily in a Moment; how thou wilt wring thy Hands, tear thy Hair, eat thy Flesh and gnash thy Teeth for Anguish and Astonishment of Heart, when thou seest thou art fallen remedilessly into the Pit of Destruction.

Fifthly, The Truth of God is sworn against thee, Ps.
xcv. 11. If he be true and faithful, thou must perith if thou goest on, Luke xiii. 3. Unless he be false of his Word, thou must die except thou repent, Ezek.
xxx. 11. If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself, 2 Tim. ii. 13. That is, he is faithful to his Threatenings as well as Promises, and will shew his Faithfulness in our Confusion, if we believe not. God hath told thee, as plain as it can be spoken, that, if he wash thee not, thou hast no Part in him, John xiii. 8. That, if thou livest after the Flesh, thou shalt die, Rom. viii. 13. That, except thou be converted, thou shalt in no Wise enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, Mat. xviii. 3. and he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself. Beloved, as the immutable Faithfulness of God in his Promise and Oath affords Believers strong Consolation, Heb. vi. 18. so they are to Unbelievers for strong Confusion and Confusion. O Sinner, tell me, what Shift dost thou make to think of all the Threatenings of God's Word, that stand upon Record against thee? Dost thou believe they are Truth or not? if not, thou art a wretched Infidel, and not a Christian; and therefore give over the Name and Hopes of a Christian. But, if thou dost believe them, O Heart of Steel that thou hast, that cannot walk up and down in Quiet, when the Truth and Faithfulness of God are engaged to destroy thee! so that, if the Almighty can do it, thou shalt surely perish and be damned. Why, Man, the whole Book of God doth testify against thee while thou remainest unsanctified: It condemns thee in every Leaf, and is to thee like Ezekiel's Roll, written within and without with Lamentation, and Mourning, and Woe, Ezek. ii. 10. And all this shall surely come upon thee and overtake thee (Deut. xxviii. 15.) except thou repent: Heaven and Earth shall pass away; but one Jet or Tittle of this Word shall never pass away, Matt. v. 18.

Now, put all this together, and tell me if the Case of the unconverted be not deplorably miserable. As we read of some Persons, that had bound themselves in an Oath, and in a Curse, to kill Paul, so thou
The Miseries of the Unconverted.

thou must know, O Sinner, to thy Terror, that all the Attributes of an infinite God are bound in an Oath to destroy thee, Heb. iii. 18. O Man, what wilt thou do? whither wilt thou flee? If God's Omniscience can find thee, thou shalt not escape: If the true and faithful God will save his Oath, perish thou must, except thou believe and repent: If the Almighty hath Power to torment thee, thou shalt be perfectly miserable in Soul and Body to all Eternity, unless it be prevented by speedy Conversion.

II. The whole Creation of God is against thee. The whole Creation (faith Paul). groaneth and travaileth in Pain, Rom. viii. 22. But what is it that the Creation groaneth under? why, the fearful Abuse that it is subject to, in serving the Lust of un sanctified Men.
And what is it that the Creation groaneth for? why,
for Freedom and Liberty from this Abuse; for the Creature is very unwillingly subject to this Bondage, Rom. viii. 19, 20, 21. If the unreasonable and inanimate Creatures had Speech and Reason, they would cry out under it as a Bondage unsufferable, to be abused by the ungodly, contrary to their Natures and the Ends that the great Creator made them for. It is a Passage of an eminent Divine, * The Liquor that the Drunkard drinketh, if it had Reason as well as a Man, to know how shamefully it is abused and spoiled, it would groan in the Barrel against him, it would groan in the Cup against him, groan in his Throat, in his Belly, against him; it would fly in his Face if it could speak. And, if God should open the Mouths of his Creatures, as he did the Mouth of Balaam's Ass, the proud Man's Garment on his Back would groan against him. There is ne-ever a Creature, but, if it had Reason to know how it is abused till a Man be converted, would groan against him; the Land would groan to bear him;
the Air would groan to give him Breathing; their Houses
Houses would groan to lodge them; their Beds would groan to ease them, their Food to nourish them, their Clothes to cover them; and the Creature would groan to give them any Help and Comfort, so long as they live in Sin against God.' Thus far he.

I think this should be a Terror to an unconverted Soul, to think he is a Burden to the Creation; Luke xiii. 7. Cut it down; why cumbereth it the Ground? If the poor inanimate Creatures could but speak, they would say to the ungodly, as Moses to Israel, 'Must we fetch you Water out of the Rock, ye Rebels?' Num. xx. 10. Thy Food would say, Lord, must I nourish such a Wretch as this, and yield forth my Strength for him to dishonour thee withal? No, I will choke him rather, if thou wilt give me Permission. The very Air would say, Lord, must I give this Man Breath to set his Tongue against Heaven, and scorn thy People, and vent his Pride, and Wrath, and filthy Communication, and belch out Oaths and Blasphemy against thee? No, if thou but say the Word, he shall be breathless for me. His poor Beast would say, Lord, must I carry him upon his wicked Design? No, I will break his Bones, I will end his Days rather, if I may have Leave from thee.' A wicked Man! the Earth groans under him, and Hell groans for him, till Death satisfies both, and unburdens the Earth, and stops the Mouth of Hell with him. While the Lord of Hoists is against thee, be sure the Host of the Lord is against thee, and all the Creatures, as it were, up in Arms; till, upon a Man's Conversion, the Controversy being taken up between God and him, he makes a Covenant of Peace with the Creature for him, Job xxii. 21, 22, 23, 24. Hos. ii. 18, 19, 20.

III. The roaring Lion hath his full Power upon thee, 1 Pet. v. 8. Thou art fast to the Paw of that Lion that is greedy to devour; in the Snare of the Devil, led captive by him at his Will, 2 Tim. ii. 26. This is The Spirit that worketh in the Children of Disobedience, Eph. ii. 2. His Drudges they are, and his Luft they do. He is the Ruler of the Darkness of this World, Eph. vi. 12. that is, of ignorant Sinners that live in Darkness. You pity the poor Indians that worship the Devil for their God, but little think it is your own Case. Why, it is the common Misery of all the unsanctified, that the Devil is their God, 2 Cor. iv. 4.
Not that they do intend to do him Homage and Worship; they will be ready to defy him, and him that should say so by them; but all this While they serve him, and come and go at his Beck, and live under his Government: His Servants you are to whom ye yield yourselves to obey, Rom. vi. 16. Oh, how many then will be found the real Servants of the Devil, that take themselves for no other than the Children of God! He can no sooner offer a sinful Delight or Opportunity for your unlawful Advantage, but you embrace it: If he suggest a Lie, or prompt you to Revenge, you readily obey: If he forbid you to read or pray, you hearken to him, and therefore his Servants you are. Indeed, he lies behind the Curtain, he acts in the Dark, and Sinners see not who setteth them on Work, but all the While he leads them in a String. Doubtless the Liar intends not a Service to Satan, but his own Advantage; yet it is he that stands in the Corner unserv ed, and putteth the Thing into his Heart, Acts v. 3. John viii. 44. Questionless, Judas when he sold his Master for Money, and the Chaldeans and Sabeans when they plundered Job, intended not to do the Devil a Pleasure, but to satisfy their own covetous Thirst; yet it was he that actuated them in their Wickedness, John xiii. 27. Job i. 12, 15, 17. Men may be very Slaves and common Drudges for the Devil, and never know it; nay, they may please themselves in the Thoughts of happy Liberty, 2 Pet. ii. 19.
The Miseries of the Unconverted.

Art thou yet in Ignorance, and not turned from Darkness to Light? Why, thou art under the Power of Satan, Acts xvi. 18. Dost thou live in the ordinary and wilful Practice of any known Sin? know that thou art of the Devil, 1 John iii. 8. Dost thou live in Strife, or Envy, or Malice? Verily he is thy Father, John viii. 40, 41. O dreadful Case! However Satan may provide his Slaves with diverse Pleasures, Tit. iii. 3. yet it is but to toll them into endless Perdition. The Serpent comes with the Apple in his Mouth, oh! but (with Eve) thou seest not the deadly Sting in his Tail. He that is now thy Tempter will one Day be thy Tormentor. Oh, that I could but give thee to see how black a Master thou servest, how filthy a Drudgery thou dost, how merciless a Tyrant thou gratifiest, all whose Pleasure is, to set thee on Work to make thy Perdition and Damnation sure, and to heat the Furnace hotter and hotter, in which thou must burn for Millions and Millions of Ages.

IV. The Guilt of all thy Sins lies like a Mountain upon thee. Poor Soul! thou feest it not; but this is that which seals thy Misery upon thee. While unconverted, none of thy Sins are blotted out, Acts iii. 19. they are all upon the Score against thee. Regeneration and Remission are never separated; the unsanctified are unquestionably unjustified and unpardoned, 1 Cor. vi. 11. 1 Pet. i. 2. Heb. ix. 14. Beloved, it is a fearful Thing to be in Debt, but, above all, in God's Debt; for there is no Arrest so formidable as his, no Prison so horrible as his. Look upon an enlightened Sinner, who feels the Weight of his own Guilt; oh! how frightful are his Looks, how fearful are his Complaints! his Comforts are turned into Wormwood, and his Moisture into Drought, and his Sleep is departed from his Eyes. He is a Terror to himself and all that are about him; and is ready to envy the very Stones that lie in the Street, because they are senseless, and feel not his Misery; and wisheth he had been been a Dog, or a Toad, or a Serpent, rather than a Man, because then Death had put an End to his Misery; whereas now it will be but the Beginning of that which will know no Ending.

How light forever you may make of it now, you will one Day find the Guilt of unpardoned Sin to be a heavy Burthen. This is a Mill-stone, that, whatsoever falleth upon it shall be broken; but, upon whomsoever it shall fall, it shall grind him to Powder, Matt. xxi. 44. What Work did it make with our blessed Saviour! It pressed the very Blood (to a Wonder), out of his Veins, and broke all his Bones: And, if it did this in the green Tree, what will it do in the dry?

Oh! think of thy Case in Time. Canst thou think of that Threat without Trembling, Ye shall die in your Sins? John viii. 24. Oh! better were it for thee to die in a Jail, in a Ditch, in a Dungeon, than die in thy Sins. If Death, as it will take away all thy other Comforts, would take away thy Sins too, it were some Mitigation; but thy Sins will follow thee when thy Friends leave thee, and all worldly Enjoyments shake Hands with thee: Thy Sins will not die with thee, 2 Cor. v. 10. Rev. xx. 12. as a Prisoner's other Debts will; but they will to Judgement with thee, there to be thy Accusers; and they will to Hell with thee, there to be thy Tormentors. Better to have so many Fiends and Furies about thee, than thy Sins to fall upon thee and fasten on thee. Oh, the Work that these will make thee! Oh, look over thy Debts in Time, how much thou art in the Books of every one of God's Laws; how is every one of God's Commandments ready to arrest thee, and take thee by the Throat, for the innumerable Bonds it hath upon thee! What wilt thou do then, when they shall all together lay in against thee? Hold open the Eyes of Conscience to consider this, that thou mayst despair of.
of thyself, and be driven to Christ, and fly for Refuge, to lay-hold on the Hope that is set before thee, Heb. vi. 18.

V. Thy raging Lusts do miserably enslave thee. While unconverted, thou art a very Servant to Sin; it reigns over thee and holds thee under its Dominion till thou art brought within the Bonds of God's Covenant, John viii. 34, 36. Tit. iii. 3. Rom. vi. 12, 14, and vi. 16, 17. Now, there is not such another Tyrant as Sin: O the filthy and fearful Work that it doth engage its Servants in! Would it not pierce a Man's Heart to see a Company of poor Creatures drudging and toiling, and all to carry together Faggots and Fuel for their own Burning? Why, this is the Employment of Sin's Drudges: Even while they bless themselves in their unrighteous Gains, while they sing and swill in Pleasures, they are but treasuring up Wrath and Vengeance for their eternal Burning; they are but laying in Powder and Bullet, and adding to the Pile of Tophet, and flinging in Oil to make the Flame rage the fiercer. Who would serve such a Master, whose Work is Drudgery, and whose Wages are Death? Rom. vi. 25.

What a woful Spectacle was the poor Wretch that was possessed with the Legion! Would it not have grieved thy Heart to have seen him among the Tombs, cutting and wounding himself? Mark v. 5. This is thy Cafe; such is thy Work; every Stroke is a Thrust at thy Heart, 1 Tim. vi. 10. Conscience indeed is now asleep; but, when Death and Judgement shall bring thee to thy Senses, then wilt thou feel the raging Smart and Anguish of every Wound. The convinced Sinner is a sensible Instance of the miserable Bondage of Sin: Conscience flies upon him, and tells him what the End of these Things will be; and yet such a Slave he is to his Lusts, that on he must, though he sees it will be his endless Perdition; and, when the Temptation comes, Lust gets the Bit in his Mouth, breaks breaks the Cords of all his Vows and Promises, and carries him headlong to his own Destruction.

VI. The Furnace of eternal Vengeance is heated ready for thee, Isa. xxx. 33. Hell and Destruction open their Mouths upon thee; they gape for thee; they groan for thee, Isa. v. 14. waiting as it were with a greedy Eye, as thou standest upon the Brink, when thou wilt drop in. If the Wrath of Men be as the Roaring of a Lion, Prov. xx. 2. more heavy than the Sand, Prov. xxvii. 3. what is the Wrath of the infinite God! If the burning Furnace, heated in Nebuchadnezzar's fiery Rage, when he commanded it to be made yet seven Times hotter, was so fierce as to burn up even those that drew near it to throw the three Children in, Dan. iii. 19, 22. how hot is that burning Oven of the Almighty's Fury! Mal. iv. 1. surely this is seventy Times seven more fierce. What thinkest thou, O Man, of being a Faggot in Hell to all Eternity? Can thy Heart endure, or can thine Hands be strong, in the Day that I shall deal with thee, saith the Lord of Hosts? Ezek. xxii. 14. Canst thou abide the everlasting Burnings? Canst thou dwell with consuming Fire, Isa. xxxiii. 14. when thou shalt be as glowing Iron in Hell, and thy whole Body and Soul shall be as perfectly possessed by God's burning Vengeance as the fiery sparkling Iron when heated in the fiercest Forge? Thou canst not bear God's Whip; how then wilt thou endure his Scorpions? Thou art even crushed, and ready to wish thyself dead, under the Weight of his Finger, how then wilt thou bear the Weight of his Loins? The most patient Man that ever was did curse the Day that ever he was born, Job iii. 1. and even wish Death to come and end his Misery, Job vii. 15, 16. when God did but let out one little Drop of his Wrath; how then wilt thou endure when God shall pour out all his Vials, and set himself against thee, to torment thee? when he shall make thy Conscience the Tunnel by which he will be pouring his burning burning Wrath into thy Soul for ever, and when he shall fill all thy Pores as full of Torment as they are now full of Sin; when Immortality shall be thy Misery, and to die the Death of a Brute, and be swallowed in the Gulph of Annihilation, shall be such a Felicity, as the whole Eternity of Wishes, and an Ocean of Tears, shall never purchase? Now thou canst put off the evil Day, and canst laugh and be merry, and forget the Terror of the Lord, 2 Cor. v. 11. but how wilt thou hold out, or hold up, when God will cast thee into a Bed of Torments, Rev. ii. 22. and make thee to lie down in Sorrow? Isa. l. 14. when Roarings and Blasphemy shall be thy only Music, and the Wine of the Wrath of God, which is poured out without Mixture into the Cup of his Indignation, shall be thy only Drink? Rev. xiv. 10. when thou shalt draw in Flames for thy Breath, and the horrid Stench of Sulphur shall be thy only Perfume? In a Word, when the Smoke of thy Torment shall ascend for ever and ever, and thou shalt have no Rest Night or Day, no Rest in thy Conscience, no Ease in thy Bones; but thou shalt be an Execution, and an Astonishment, and a Curse, and a Reproach, for evermore? Jer. xliv. 18.

O Sinner! Stop here and consider: If thou art a Man, and not a senseless Block, consider: Bethe in thyself where thou standest; why, upon the very Brink of his Furnace. As the Lord liveth, and thy Soul liveth, there is but a Step between thee and this, 1 Sam. xx. 3. Thou knowest not, when thou liest down, but thou mayest be in before the Morning; thou knowest not, when thou risest, but thou mayest drop in before Night. Darest thou make light of this? Wilt thou go on in such a dreadful Condition, as if Nothing ailed thee? If thou puttest it off, and sayest, This doth not belong to thee; look again over the foregoing Chapter, and tell me the Truth: Are none of those black Marks found upon thee? Do.
not blind thine Eyes; do not deceive thyself; see thine Miferie while thou mayest prevent it: Think what it is to be a vile Cast-out, a damned Reprobate, a Vessel of Wrath, into which the Lord will be pouring out his tormenting Fury while he hath a being.

Rom. ix. 22.

Divine Wrath is a fierce, (Deut. xxxii. 22.) devouring, (Deut. xxxiii. 14.) everlasting, (Mat. xxv. 41.) unquenchable, Fire, (Mat. iii. 12.) and thy Soul and Body must be the Fuel upon which it must be feeding for ever, unless thou consider thy Ways, and speedily turn to the Lord by a sound Conversion. They that have been only singed by this Fire, and had no more but the Smell thereof passing upon them, oh, what amazing Spectacles have they been! Whose Heart would not have melted to have heard Spirol's Outcries? To have seen Chaloner, that Monument of Justice, worn to Skin and Bone, blaspheming the God of Heaven, cursing himself, and continually crying out, O Torture, Torture, Torture! O Torture, Torture! as if the Flames of Wrath had already taken hold on him? To have heard Rogers crying out, I have had a little Pleasure, but now I must have Hell for evermore; wishing but for this Mitigation, that God would but let him lie burning, for ever behind the Back of that Fire, (on the Earth,) and bringing in his sad Conclusion still, at the End of whatever was spoken to him to afford him some Hope, I must to Hell, I must to the Furnace of Hell, for Millions and Millions of Ages? Oh! if the Fears and fore thoughts of the Wrath to come be so terrible, so intolerable, what is the Feeling of it!

Sinner, it is but in vain to flatter you; this would be but to toll you into the unquenchable Fire: Know ye from the living God that here you must lie; with these Burnings you must dwell till Immortality die and Immutability change, till Eternity run out and Omnipotence is no longer able to torment, except you be ingood Earned, renewed throughout by sanctifying Grace.
VIII. The Law discharges all its Threats and Curses at thee, Gal. iii. 16. Deut. xxviii. Oh how dreadfully doth it thunder! It spits Fire and Brimstone in thy Face. Its Words are as drawn Swords, and as the sharp Arrows of the mighty: It demands Satisfaction to the utmost, and cries, Justice, Justice: It speaks Blood, and War, and Wounds, and Death, against thee. O the Execrations, and Plagues, and Deaths, that this murdering Piece is loaded with! (read Deut. xxviii. 15, 16, &c.) and thou art the Mark at which this Shot is levelled. O Man, away to thy strong Hold, Zech. ix. 12. away from thy Sins; haste to the Sanctuary, the City of Refuge, Heb. xiii. 13. even the Lord Jesus Christ; hide thee in him, or else thou art lost, without any Hope of Recovery.

VIII. The Gospel itself bindeth the Sentence of eternal Damnation upon thee, Mark xvi. 16. If thou continuest in thine impenitent and unconverted State, know that the Gospel denounceth a much forer Condemnation than ever would have been for the Transgression only of the first Covenant. Is it not a dreadful Case to have the Gospel itself fill its Mouth with Threats, Thunder, and Damnation? * To have the Lord to roar from Mount Sion against thee? Joel iii. 16. Hear the Terror of the Lord: He that believeth not shall be damned. Except ye repent, ye shall all perish, Luke xiii. 3. This is the Condemnation, that Light is come into the World, and Men love Darkness rather than Light, John iii. 19. He that believeth not, the Wrath of God abideth on him, John iii. 36. If the Word spoken by Angels was redain, and every Transgression and Disobedience received a just Recompence of Reward, how shall we escape if we neglect so great Salvation? Heb. ii. 2, 3. He that despised Moses's Law died without Mercy: Of how much forer Punishment shall he be thought worthy, that hath trampled under Foot the Son of God? Heb. x. 28, 29, F 6. Application.
The Miseries of the Unconverted.

Application. And is this true indeed? Is this thy Miser? Yea, it is as true as God is. Better open thine Eyes and see it now, while thou mayst remedy it, than blind and harden thyself till (to thy eternal Sorrow) thou shalt feel what thou wouldst not believe; and, if it be true, what dost thou mean, to loiter and linger in such a Case as this?

Alas for thee, poor Man! how effectually hath Sin undone thee, and deprived and despoiled thee even of thy Reason to look after thine own everlasting Good! O miserable Caiiff! what Stupidity and Senselessness have surprized thee? Oh! let me knock up and awake this Sleeper! Who dwells within the Walls of this Flesh? Is there ever a Soul here, a rational, understanding, Soul? or art thou only a walking Ghost, a senseless Lump? Art thou a reasonable Soul, and yet so far brutified as to forget thyself immortal, and to think thyself to be as the Beasts that perish? Art thou turned into Flesh, that thou savourest Nothing but gratifying the Sense, and making Provision for the Flesh? or else, having Reason to understand the Eternity of the future State, dost thou yet make light of being everlastingly miserable, which is to be so much better the Brute, as it is worse to act against Reason, than to act without it? O unhappy Soul, that wast the Glory of Man, the Mate of Angels, and the Image of God! that wast God's Representative in the World, and had the Supremacy amongst the Creatures, and the Dominion over thy Maker's Works! art thou now become a Slave to Sense, a Servant to so base an Idol as thy Belly, for no higher Felicity than to fill thee with the Wind of Man's Applause, or art heaping together a little refined Earth, no more suitable to thy spiritual immortal Nature than the Dirt and Sticks? Oh, why dost thou not bethink thee where thou shalt be for ever? Death is at Hand; the Judge is even at the Door, Jam. v. 9. Yet a little While, and Time shall... shall be no longer, Rev. x. 5, 6. And wilt thou run the Hazard of continuing in such a State, in which,
if thou be overtaken, thou art irrecoverably miseralbe?

Come then, arise, and attend thy nearest Concern-ments: Tell me, whither art thou going? What!
wilt thou live in such a Course, wherein every Act is a Step to Perdition; and thou dost not know but the next Night thou may'st make thy Bed in Hell? O! if thou hast a Spark of Reason, consider, and turn and hearken to thy very Friend, who would therefore shew thee thy present Misery, that thou might'st in Time make thine Escape, and be eternally happy.

Hear what the Lord faith: Fear ye not me, faith the Lord? will ye not tremble at my Presence? Jer. v. 22.
O Sinners, do you make light of the Wrath to come?
Matt. iii. 7. I am sure there is a Time coming when you will not make light of it. Why, the very Devils do believe and tremble, Jam. ii. 19. What! you more hardened than they? Will you run upon the Edge of the Rock? Will you play at the Hole of the Afp?
Will you put your Hand upon the Cockatrice's Den?
Will you dance upon the Fire till you are burnt, or daily with devouring Wrath as if you were at a Point of Indifference whether you did escape or endure it?
O Madness of Folly! Solomon's Madman, that casteth Firebrands, and Arrows, and Death, and faith, Am
I not in fcest? Prov. xxvi. 18. There is Nothing so distrasted as the wilful Sinner, Luke xv. 17: that goeth
on in his unconverted State without Sense, as if No-	hing ailed him. The Man that runs in the Cannon's Mouth, and sports with his Blood, or lets out his Life in a Frolic, is sensible, sober, and serious, to him that goeth on still in his Trespassies, Ps. lxviii. 21. for he stretcbeth out his Hand against God, and strengthens himself against the Almighty: He runneth upon him, even upon his Neck, upon the thick Bosses of his Buckl.r, Job xv. 25, 26.

venture into the Lake that burneth with Fire and Brimstone, Rev. xxi. 8. as if thou wert but going to wash thee, or swim for Recreation? Wilt thou, as it were, fetch thy Vizor, and jump into eternal Flames, as the Children through the Bonfire? What shall I say? I can find out no Expression, no Comparison, whereby to set forth the dreadful Distraction of that Soul that shall go on in Sin.

Awake, awake, Ephes. v. 14. O Sinner, arise and take thy Flight. There is but one Door that thou mayst flee by, and that is the strait Door of Conversion and the new Birth. Unless thou turn unfeignedly from all thy Sins, and come in to Jesus Christ, and take him for the Lord thy Righteousness, and walk in him in Holiness and Newness of Life, as the Lord liveth, it is not more certain that thou art now out of Hell, than that thou shalt without Fail be in it but a few Days or Nights hence. Oh, set thy Heart to think of thy Case. Is not thy everlasting Misery or Welfare that which doth deserve a little Consideration? Look again over the Miseries of the unconverted. If the Lord hath not spoken by me, regard me not; but, if it be the very Word of God that all this Misery lies upon thee, what a Case art thou in! Is it for one that hath his Senses to live in such a Condition, and not to make all possible Expedition for preventing his utter Ruin? O Man, who hath bewitched thee, Gal. iii. 1. that in the Matters of this present Life thou shalt be wise enough to forecast thy Business, foresee thy Danger, and prevent thy Mischief, but in Matters of everlasting Consequence shalt be fligate and careless, as if they little concerned thee? Why, is it Nothing to thee to have all the Attributes of God engaged against thee? Canst thou do well without his Favour? Canst thou escape his Hands, or endure his Vengeance? Dost thou hear the Creation groaning under thee, and Hell groaning for thee, and yet think thy Case good enough?
Art thou in the Paw of the Lion, under the Power of Corruption, in the dark noisome Prison, fettered with Lufts, working out thy own Damnation, and is not this worth the considering? Wilt thou make light of all the Terrors of the Law, of all its Curses and Thunderbolts, as if they were but the Report of Childrens' Pop-guns, or thou wert to war with their Paper Pellets? Dost thou laugh at Hell and Destruction, or canst thou drink the envenomed Cup of the Almighty's Fury, as it were but a common Potion?

Gird up now thy Loins like a Man, for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me, Job xl. 7. Art thou such a Leviathan, as that the Scales of thy Pride should keep thee from thy Maker's coming at thee? Wilt thou esteem his Arrows as Straw, and the Instruments of Death as rotten Wood? Art thou chief of all the Children of Pride, even that thou shouldest count his Darts as Stubble, and laugh at the Shaking of his Spear? Art thou made without Fear, and contemnest his barbed Irons? Job xli. Art thou like the Horse that paweth in the Valley and rejoiceth in his Strength, who goeth out to meet the armed Men? Dost thou mock at Fear, and art not affrighted, neither turnest back from God's Sword when his Quiver rattleth against thee, the glittering Spear, and the Shield? Job xxxix. 21, 22, 23. Well, if the Threats and Calls of the Word will not fright thee nor awaken thee, I am sure Death and Judgement will. Oh, what wilt thou do when the Lord cometh forth against thee, and in his Fury falleth upon thee, and thou shalt feel what thou readest? If, when Daniel's Enemies were cast into the Den of Lions, both they and their Wives and their Children, the Lions had the Mastery of them, and broke all their Bones in Pieces or ever they came at the Bottom of the Den, Dan. vi. 24. what shall be done with thee, when thou fallest into the Hands of the living God, when he shall grip thee in his Iron Arms, and grind and crush thee into a thousand Pieces in his Wrath? Oh!
Oh! do not then contend with God. Repent and be converted, so none of this shall come upon thee. Isa. lv. 6, 7. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found; call on him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his Way, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts; let him return unto the Lord, and he will have Mercy on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Chap. VI. Containing Directions for Conversion.

Mark x. 17. And there came one, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal Life?

Before thou readest these Directions, I advise thee, yea, I charge thee, before God and his holy Angels, that thou resolve to follow them, (as far as Conscience shall be convinced of their Agreeableness to God's Word and thy State,) and call in his Assistance and Blessing that they may succeed: And, as I have fought the Lord, and consulted his Oracles what Advice to give thee, so must thou entertain it with that Awe, Reverence, and Purpose of Obedience, that the Word of the living God doth require.

Now, then, attend: Set thine Heart unto all that I shall testify unto thee this Day; for it is not a vain Thing, it is your Life, Deut. xxxii. 46. This is the End of all that has been spoken hitherto, to bring you to set upon turning, and making Use of God's Means for your Conversion. I would not trouble you, nor torment you before your Time, with the fore Thoughts of your eternal Misery, but in order to your making your Escape. Were you shut up under your present Misery, Misery without Remedy, it were but Mercy (as one speaks) to let you alone, that you might take in that little poor Comfort that you are capable of in this World; but you may yet be happy, if you do not wilfully refuse the Means of your Recovery: Behold, I hold open the Door to you; arise, take your Flight: I set the Way of Life before you, walk in it, and you shall live, and not die, Deut. xxx. 19. Jer. vi. 16. It grieves me to think you should be your own Murderers, and throw yourselves headlong, when God and Man cry out to you, as Peter in another Case to his Master, Spare thyself.

A noble Virgin, that attended the Court of Spain, was wickedly ravished by the King; and hereupon exciting the Duke her Father to Revenge, he called in the Moors to his Help; who, when they had executed his Design, miserably wasted and spoiled the Country; which this Virgin laying so extremely to Heart, she shut herself up in a Tower belonging to her Father's House, and desired her Father and Mother might be called forth; and, bewailing to them their Wretchedness, that she should occasion so much Misery and Desolation to the Country for satisfying her Revenge, she told them she had resolved to be revenged upon herself. Her Father and Mother besought her to pity herself and them; but, Nothing prevailing, she took her Leave of them and threw herself off the Battlements, and so perished before their Faces.

Just thus is the wilful Destruction of ungodly Men. The God, that made them, beseeching them, crieth out to them, as Paul to the distracted Jailor when about to murder himself, Do thyself no Harm. The Ministers of Christ forewarn them, and follow them, and vain would have them back; but, alas! no Expostulations nor Obteftation will prevail, but Men will hurl themselves into Perdition, while Pity itself looketh on.
What shall I say? Would it not grieve a Person of any Humanity, if, in the Time of a raging Plague, he should have a Receipt (as one said well) that would infallibly cure all the Country, and recover the most hopeless Patients, and yet his Friends and Neighbours should die by Hundreds about him, because they would not use it? Men and Brethren, though you carry the certain Symptoms of Death in your Faces, yet I have a Receipt that will cure you all, and will cure infallibly: Follow but these Directions, and, if you do not then win Heaven, I will be content to lose it.

Hear then, O Sinner! and, as ever thou wouldst be converted and saved, embrace this following Counsel.

Direct. I. Set it down with thyself, as an undoubted Truth, that it is impossible for thee ever to get to Heaven in this thy unconverted State. Can any other but Christ save thee? and he tells thee he never will do it except thou be regenerated and converted, Matt. xviii. 3. John iii. 3. Doth he not keep the Keys of Heaven? and canst thou go in without his Leave? as thou must, if ever thou come thither in thy natural Condition, without a sound and thorough Renovation.

Direct. II. Labour to get a thorough Sight and lively Sense and Feeling of thy Sins. Till Men are weary and heavy laden, and pricked at the Heart, and quite sick of Sin, they will not come unto Christ, in his Way, for Ease and Cure, nor to Purpose enquire, What shall we do? Mat. xi. 28. Acts ii. 37. Mat. ix. 12. They must set themselves down for dead Men before they will come unto Christ, that they may have Life, John v. 40. Labour therefore to set all thy Sins in Order before thee; never be afraid to look upon them, but let thy Spirit make diligent Search, Ps. lxxvii. 6. Enquire into thine Heart, and into thy Life; enter into a thorough Examination of thyself and all thy Ways, Ps. cxix. 59. that thou mayst make a full Discovery; and call in the Help of God’s Spirit, in the-the Sense of thine own Inability hereunto, for it is his proper Work to convince of Sin. John xvi. 8. Spread all before the Face of thy Conscience, till thy Heart and Eyes be set abroach. Leave not striving with God and thy own Soul, till it cry out, under the Sense of thy Sins, as the enlightened Jailer, What must I do to be saved? Acts xvi. 30.

To this purpose,

Meditate on the Numerousness of thy Sins. David's Heart failed when he thought of this, and considered that he had more Sins than Hairs. Ps. xl. 12. This made him cry out upon the Multitude of God's tender Mercies. Ps. li. 1. The loathsome Carcase doth not more hatefully swarm with crawling Worms than an unsanctified Soul with filthy Lusts: they fill the Head, the Heart, the Eyes, and Mouth, of him. Look backward: Where was ever the Place, what was ever the Time, in which thou didst not sin! Look inward: What Part or Power canst thou find in Soul or Body, but it is poisoned with Sin? What Duty dost thou ever perform into which Poison is not shed? Oh! how great is the Sum of thy Debts, who hast been all thy Life running upon thy Books, and never didst nor canst pay off one Penny! Look over the Sin of thy Nature, and all its cursed Brood, the Sins of thy Life: Call to Mind thy Omissions, Commissions; the Sins of thy Thoughts, Words, and Actions; the Sins of thy Youth and the Sins of thy Years, &c. Be not like a desperate Bankrupt, that is afraid to look over his Books: Read the Records of Conscience carefully. These Books must be opened sooner or later. Rev. xx. 12.

Meditate on the Aggravations of thy Sins, as they are the grand Enemies of the God of thy Life, and of the Life of thy Soul; in a Word, they are the public Enemies of all Mankind. How do David, Ezra, Daniel, and the good Levites, aggravate their Sins, from the Consideration of their Injuriousness to God, their Opposition to.
Directions for Conversion.

to his good and righteous Laws, the Mercies, the Warnings they were committed against, Neb. ix. Dan. ix. Ezra ix. O the Work that Sin hath made in the World! This is the Enemy that hath brought in Death and hath robbed and enslaved Man, that hath backed the Devil, that hath digged Hell, Rom. v. 12. 2 Pet. ii. 4. John viii. 34. This is the Enemy that hath turned the World upside-down, and sown Dissention between Man and the Creatures, betwixt Man and Man, yea, between Man and himself, setting the sensitive part against the rational, the Will against the Judgement, Lust against Conscience; yea, worst of all, between God and Man, making the lapsed Sinner both hateful to God and the Hater of himself. Zech. xi. 8. O Man! how canst thou make so light of Sin? This is the Traitor that sucked the Blood of the Son of God, that sold him, that mocked him, that scourged him, that spit in his Face, that digged his Hands, that pierced his Side; that pressed his Soul, that mangled his Body, that never left till he had bound him, condemned him, nailed him, crucified him, and put him to an open Shame, Isa. liii. 4, 5, 6. This is that deadly Poison, so powerful of Operation, as that one Drop of it, shed on the Root of Mankind, hath corrupted, spoiled, poisoned, and undone, his whole Race at once, Rom. v. 18, 19. This is the common Butcher, the bloody Executioner, that hath killed the Prophets, burnt the Martyrs, murdered all the Apostles, all the Patriarchs, all the Kings and Potentates; that has destroyed Cities, swallowed Empires, butchered and devoured whole Nations. Whatever was the Weapon it was done by, Sin was it that did the Execution, Rom. vi. 23. Dost thou yet think it but a small Thing? If Adam and all his Children could be dug out of the Graves, and their Bodies piled up to Heaven, and an Inquest were made, what matchless Murderer were guilty of all this Blood? It would be all found in the Skirts of Sin. Study the Nature:
Nature of Sin till thy Heart incline to fear and lothe it; and meditate on the Aggravations of thy particular Sins, how thou hast sinned against all God's Warnings, against thy own Prayers, against Mercies, against Correction, against clearest Light, against freest Love, against thine own Resolutions, against Promises, Vows, Covenants, of better Obedience, &c. Charge thy Heart home with these Things, till it blush for Shame and be brought out of all good Opinion of itself, Ezra ix. 6.

Meditate on the Desert of Sin. It crieth up to Heaven; it calls for Vengeance, Gen. xviii. 21. Its due Wages are Death and Damnation; it pulls the Curse of God upon the Soul and Body, Gal. iii. 10. Deut. xxviii. The least sinful Word or Thought lays thee under the infinite Wrath of God Almighty, Rom. ii. 8, 9. Mat. xii. 36. Oh! what a Load of Wrath, what a Weight of Curses, what a Treasure of Vengeance, have all the Millions of thy Sins then deserved! Rom. ii. 5. James v. 3. Oh! judge thyself, that the Lord may not judge thee, 1 Cor. xi. 31.

Meditate upon the Deformity and Defilement of Sin. It is as black as Hell, the very Image and Likeness of the Devil drawn upon the Soul, 1 John iii. 8, 10. It would more affright thee to see thyself in the hateful Deformity of thy Nature than to see the Devil. There is no Mire so unclean, no Vomit so loathsome, no Carcase-carriion so offensive, no Plague or Leprony so noisome, as Sin, in which thou art all enrolled and covered with its odious Filth, whereby thou art rendered more displeasing to the pure and holy Nature of the glorious God than the most filthy Object, composed of whatever is hateful to all thy Senses, can be to thee, Job xv. 15, 16. Couldst thou take up a Toad into thy Bosom? Couldst thou cherish it, and take Delight in it? Why, thou art as contrary to the pure and perfect Holiness of the divine Nature, and as loathsome as that is to thee, Matt. xxiii. 33.
till thou art purified by the Blood of Jesus, and the Power of renewing Grace.

Above all other Sins, fix the Eye of Consideration on these two: 1. The Sin of thy Nature. It is to little Purpose to lop the Branches, while the Root of original Corruption remains untouched. In vain do men lave out the Streams, when the Fountain is running that fills up all again. Let the Acts of thy Repentance (with David's) go to the Root of Sin. Psalm li. 2. Study how deep, how close, how permanent, is thy natural Pollution, how universal it is, till thou dost cry out, with Paul's Feeling, upon thy Body as dead. Rom. vii. 24. Look into all thy Parts and Powers, and see what unclean Vessels, what Sties, what Dung-hills, what Sinks, they are become. Heu miser quid sum! va$ sterquilinii, concha putredinis; plenus factore et horrore. Aug. Solil. c. 2. The Heart is never soundly broken till thoroughly convinced of the Heinousness of original Sin: Here fix thy Thoughts; this is that that makes thee backward to all Good, prone to all Evil. Rom. vii. 15. That sheds Blindness, Pride, Prejudice, Unbelief, into thy Mind; Enmity, Inconstancy, Obstinate, into thy Will; inordinate Heats and Colds into thy Affections; Insensibleness, Benumbedness, Unfaithfulness, into thy Conscience; Slipperiness into thy Memory; and, in a Word, hath put every Wheel of the Soul out of Order, and made it, of an Habitation of Holiness, to become a very Hell of Iniquity, Jam. iii. 6. This is what hath defiled, corrupted, perverted, all thy Members, and turned them into Weapons of Unrighteousness and Servants of Sin, Rom. vi. 19. that hath filled the Head with carnal and corrupt Designs, Mic. ii. 1. the Hand with sinful Practices, Isa. i. 15. the Eyes with Wandering and Wantonness, 2 Pet. ii. 14. the Tongue with deadly Poison, Jam. iii. 8. that hath opened the Ears to Tales, Flattery, and filthy Communication, and shut them against the Instructions of Life, Zech. vii. 11,
12. and hath rendered thy Heart a very Mint and Forge for Sin, and the cursed Womb of all deadly Conceptions, Mat. xv. 19. so that it poureth forth its Wickedness without ceasing, 2 Pet. ii. 14. even as naturally, freely, and unweariedly, as a Fountain doth pour forth its Waters, Jer. vi. 7. or the raging Sea doth cast forth Mire and Dirt, Isa. lxvii. 20. And wilt thou yet be in Love with thyself, and tell us any longer of thy good Heart? Oh, never leave meditating on the desperate Contagion of original Corruption, till, with Epbraim, thou bemoan thyself, Jer.xxxi.18. and with the deepest Shame and Sorrow imite on thy Breast, as the Publican, Luke xviii. 13. and, with Job, abhor thyself, and repent in Dust and Ashes, Job xlii. 6. 2. The particular Evil that thou art most addicted to: Find out all its Aggravations, set home upon thy Heart all God's Threats against it: Repentance drives before it the whole Herd, but especially sticks the Arrow in the beloved Sin, and singles this out, above the Rest, to run it down, Ps. xviii. 23. Oh! labour to make this Sin odious to thy Soul, and double thy Guard and Resolutions against it, because this hath and doth most dishonour God and endanger thee.

Direct. III. Strive to affect thy Heart with a deep Sense of thy present Misery. Read over the foregoing Chapter again and again, and get it out of the Book into thy Heart. Remember, when thou liest down, that, for ought thou knowest, thou mayest awake in Flames, and, when thou risest up, that by the next Night thou mayest make thy Bed in Hell. Is it a just Matter to live in such a fearful Case, to stand tottering upon the Brink of the bottomless Pit, and to live at the Mercy of every Disease, that, if it will but fall upon thee, will send thee forthwith into the Burnings? Suppose thou sawest a condemned Wretch hanging over Nebuchadnezzar's burning fiery Furnace nace by Nothing but a Twine-thread, which were ready to break every Moment, would not thy Heart tremble for such an one? Why, thou art the Man; this is thy very Case, O Man, Woman, that readest this, if thou be yet unconverted. What if the Thread of thy Life should break? (why, thou knowest not but it may be the next Night, yea the next Moment,) where wouldst thou be then? Whither wouldst thou drop? Verily, upon the Crack but of this Thread, thou fallest into the Lake that burns with Fire and Brimstone, where thou must lie scalding and sweltering in a fiery Ocean while God hath a Being, if thou die in thy present Case. And doth not thy Soul tremble as thou readest? Do not thy Tears bedew the Paper and thy Heart throb in thy Bosom? Dost thou not yet begin to smite on thy Breast, and bethink thyself what Need thou hast of a Change? Oh! what is thy Heart made of? Hast thou not only lost all Regard to God, but art without any Love and Pity to thyself?

Oh! study thy Misery till thy Heart cry out for Christ as earnestly as ever a drowning Man did for a Boat or the wounded for a Surgeon. Men must come to see the Danger and feel the Smart of their deadly Sores and Sickness, or else Christ will be to them a Physician of no Value, Mat. ix. 12. Then the Man-slayer hastens to the City of Refuge when pursued by the Avenger of Blood. Men must be even forced and fired out of themselves, or else they will not come to Christ. It was Distress and Extremity that made the Prodigal think of returning, Luke xv. 16, 17. While Laodicea thinks herself rich, increased in Goods, in Need of Nothing, there is little Hope: She must be deeply convinced of her Wretchedness, Blindness, Poverty, Nakedness, before she will come to Christ for his Gold, Raiment, Eye-salve, Rev. iii. 17, 18. Therefore hold the Eyes of Conscience open, amplify thy Misery as much as
as possible, do not flee the Sight of it, for Fear it should fill thee with Terror. The Sense of thy Misery is but as it were the Suppuration of the Wound, which is necessary to the Cure. Better fear the Torments that abide thee now, than feel them hereafter.

Direct. IV. Settle it upon thy Heart that thou art under everlasting Inability ever to recover thyself. Never think thy praying, reading, hearing, confessing, amending, will do the Cure; these must be attended, but thou art undone if thou restest in them, Rom. x. 3. Thou art a lost Man if thou hopest to escape drowning on any other Plank but Jesus Christ, Acts iv. 12. Thou must unlearn thyself, and renounce thine own Wisdom, thine own Righteousness, thine own Strength, and throw thyself wholly upon Christ, as a Man that swims casts himself upon the Water, or else thou canst not escape. While Men trust in themselves, and establish their own Righteousness, and have Confidence in the Flesh, they will not come savingly to Christ, Luke xviii. 9. Phil. iii. 3. Thou must know thy Gain to be but Loss and Dung, thy Strength but Weakness, thy Righteousness Rags and Rottenness, before there will be an effectual Closure between Christ and thee, Phil. iii. 7, 8, 9. 2 Cor. iii. 5. Isa. lxiv. 6. Can the lifeless Carcase shake off its Grave-clothes, and loose the Bands of Death? then mayst thou recover thyself, who art dead in Trespasses and Sins, and under an Impossibility of serving thy Maker acceptably in this Condition, Rom. viii. 8. Heb. xi. 6. Therefore, when thou goest to pray or meditate, or to do any of the Duties to which thou art here directed, go out of thyself; call in the Help of the Spirit, as despairing to do any Thing pleasing to God in thine own Strength; yet neglect not thy Duty, but lie at the Pool, and wait in the Way of the Spirit. While the Eunuch was reading, then the Holy Ghost G did send Philip to him, Acts viii. 28, 29. When the Disciples were praying, Acts iv. 31, when Cornelius and his Friends were hearing, Acts x. 44. then the Holy Ghost fell upon them and filled them all. Strive to give up thyself to Christ; strive to pray; strive to meditate; strive a hundred and a hundred Times; try to do it as well as thou canst; and, while thou art endeavouring in the Way of thy Duty, the Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and help thee to do what of thyself thou art utterly unable to perform, Prov. i. 23.

Direct. V. Forthwith renounce all thy Sins. If thou yield thyself to the contrary Practice of any Sin, thou art undone, Rom. vi. 17. In vain dost thou hope for Life by Christ, except thou depart from Iniquity, 2 Tim. ii. 19. Fortake thy Sins, or else thou canst not find Mercy, Prov. xxviii. 13. Thou canst not be married to Christ, except divorced from Sin: Give up the Traitor, or you can have no Peace in Heaven. Cast the Head of Shab over the Wall; keep not Daulah in the Lap: Thou must part with thy Sins or with thy Soul: Spare but one Sin, and God will not spare thee. Never make Excuses; thy Sins must die, or thou must die for them, Psa. lxviii. 21. If thou allow of one Sin, though but a little, a secret, one, though thou mayst plead Necessity, and have a hundred Shifts and Excuses for it, the Life of thy Soul must go for the Life of that Sin, Ezek. xviii. 21. And will it not be dearly bought?

O Sinner! hear and consider: If thou wilt part with thy Sins, God will give thee his Christ. Is not this a fair Exchange? I testify unto thee, this Day, that, if thou perish, it is not because there was never a Saviour provided, nor Life tendered, but because thou preferredst (with the Jew) the Murderer before thy Saviour, Sin before CHRIST, and lovedst Darkness rather than Light, John iii. 19. Search thy Heart therefore with Candles, as the Jews did their Houses Houses for Leaven before the Passover. Labour to find out thy Sins; enter into thy Closet, and consider, What Evil have I lived in? What Duty have I neglected towards God? What Sin have I lived in against my Brother? And now strike the Darts through the Heart of thy Sin, as Joab did through Absalom's, 2 Sam. xviii. 14. Never hand looking upon thy Sins, nor rolling the Morsel under thy Tongue, Jef. xx. 12. but spit it out as Poison, with Fear and Detestation. Alas! what will thy Sins do for thee, that thou shouldst stick at parting with them? They will flatter thee, but they will undo thee, and cut thy Throat, while they smile upon thee, and poison thee while they please thee, and arm the Justice and Wrath of the infinite God against thee. They will open Hell for thee, and pile up Fuel to burn thee. Behold the Gibbet that they have prepared for thee: Offer them like Haman, and do upon them the Execution they would else have done upon thee. Away with them, crucify them, and let Christ only be Lord over thee.

Direc. VI. Make a solemn Choice of God for thy Portion and Blessedness, Deut. xxvi. 17. With all possible Devotion and Veneration avouch the Lord for thy God; set the World, with all its Glory, and Paint, and Gallantry, with all its Pleasures and Promotions, on the one Hand; and set God, with all his infinite Excellences and Perfections on the other; and see that thou do deliberately make thy Choice, Jofh. xxiv. 15. Take up thy Rest in God, John vi. 68. Sit thee down under his Shadow, Cant. ii. 3. Let his Promises and Perfections turn the Scale against all the World. Settle it upon thy Heart, that the Lord is an all-sufficient Portion, that thou canst not be miserable while thou hast God to live upon: Take him for thy Shield and exceeding great Reward. God alone is more than all the World; content thyself.

Let others carry the Preferments and Glory of the World; place thou thy Happiness in his Favour, and in the Light of his Countenance, Psalms iv. 6, 7.

Poor Sinner! thou art fallen off from God, and hast engaged his Power and Wrath against thee; yet know that, of his abundant Grace, he doth offer to be thy God again in Christ, 2 Corinthians vi. 17, 18. What sayst thou, Man? wilt thou have the Lord for thy God? Why, take this Counsel, and thou shalt have him; come to him by his Christ, John xiv. 6. renounce the Idols of thine own Pleasures, Gain, Reputation, 1 Thessalonians i. 9. let these be pulled out of their Throne, and set God's Interest uppermost in thy Heart. Take him as God, to be Chief in thy Affections, Effications, Intentions; for he will not endure to have any set above him, Romans i. 24. Psalms lxiii. 25. In a Word, thou must take him in all his personal Relations, and in all his essential Perfections.

First, In all his personal Relations. God the Father must be taken for thy Father, Jeremiah iii. 4, 19, 22. Oh, come to him with the Prodigal: Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and in thy Sight, and am not worthy to be called thy Son; but since, of thy wonderful Mercy, thou art pleased to take me, that am of myself a Dog, a Swine, a Devil, to be a Child, I solemnly take thee for my Father, commend myself to thy Care, and trust to thy Providence, and cast my Burden on thy Shoulders. I depend on thy Provision, and submit to thy Corrections, and trust under the Shadow of thy Wings, and hide in thy Chambers, and fly to thy Name. I renounce all Confidence in myself; I repose my Confidence in thee; I depose my Concernment with thee; I will be for thee, and not for another. Again, God the Son must be taken for thy Saviour, for thy Redeemer, and Righteousness, John i. 12. He must be accepted, as the only Way to the Father, and the only Means of Life, Hebrews vii. 25. Oh then put off the Raiment ment of thy Captivity, on with the Wedding Garment, and go and marry thyself to Christ. Lord, I am thine, and all I have, my Body, Soul, and Estate. I send a Bill of Divorce to my other Lovers; I give my Heart to thee; I will be thine undividedly, thine everlastingly. I will set thy Name on all I have, and use it only as thy Goods, during thy Leave, resigning all to thee: I will have no King but thee to reign over me: Other Lords have had Dominions over me; but now I will make Mention of thy Name only, and do here take an Oath of Fealty to thee, promising to serve and fear thee above all Competitors. I disavow mine own Righteousness, and despair of ever being pardoned and saved for my own Duties or Graces, and lean solely on thy all-sufficient Sacrifice and Intercession, for Pardon, and Life, and Acceptance before God. I take thee for my only Guide and Instructor, resolving to be directed by thee, and to wait for thy Counsels; for thine shall be the casting Voice with me. Lastly, God the Spirit must be taken for thy Sanctifier, Rom. viii. 9, 14. Gal. v. 16, 18. for thy Advocate, thy Counsellor, thy Comforter, the Teacher of thy Ignorance, the Pledge and Earnest of thy Inheritance, Rom. viii. 26. Ps. lxxiii. 24. John xiv. 16, 26. Eph. i. 14. and iv. 30. Awake thou North Wind, and come thou South, and blow upon my Garden, Cant. iv. 16. Come, thou Spirit of the Most High; here is a House for thee; here is a Temple for thee; here do thou rest for ever; dwell here, and rest here; lo, I give up the Possession to thee, full Possession; I send thee the Keys of my Heart, that all may be for thy Use, that thou mayst put thy Goods, thy Grace, into every Room: I give up the Use of all to thee, that every Faculty, and every Member, may be thy Instrument to work Righteousness, and do the Will of my Father which is in Heaven.

Secondly, In all his essential Perfections. Consider how the Lord hath revealed himself to you in his Word: Will you take him as such a God? O Sinner.
here is the blessedest News that ever came to the Sons of Men, The Lord will be thy God, Gen. xvii. 7, 8. Rev. xxi. 3. if thou wilt but close with him in his Excellencies. Wilt thou have the merciful, the gracious, the Sin-pardoning, God to be thy God? Oh, yes, (faith the Sinner,) I am undone else. But the Father tells thee, I am the holy and Sin-hating God; if thou wilt be owned as one of my People, thou must be holy, 1 Pet. i. 16. holy in Heart, holy in Life; thou must put away all thy Iniquities, be they never so near, never so natural, never so necessary to the maintaining thy fleshly Interest. Unless thou wilt be at Desiance with Sin, I cannot be thy God. Cast out the Heaven; put away the Evil of thy Doings; cease to do Evil; learn to do well; else I can have Nothing to do with thee, Isa. i. 16, 18. Bring forth mine Enemies, or there is no Peace to be had with me. What doth thine Heart answer? Lord, I desire to have thee as such a God; I desire to be holy as thou art holy, to be made Partaker of thy Holiness. I love thee, not only for thy Goodness and Mercy, but for thy Holiness and Purity.
I take thy Holiness for my Happiness: Oh! be to me a Fountain of Holiness; set on me the Stamp and Imprens of thy Holiness: I will thankfully part with all my Sins at thy Command: My wilful Sins I do forthwith forsake; and, for mine Infirmities that I cannot get rid of though I would, I will strive against them in the Use of the Means: I desist them, and will pray against them, and never let them have quiet Rest in my Soul. Beloved, whosoever of you will thus accept of the Lord,
for his God, shall have him.

Again, he tells you, I am the all-sufficient God, Gen. xvii. 1. Will you lay all at my Feet, and give it up to my Dispose, and take me for your only Portion? Will you own and honour my All-sufficiency? Will you take me as your Happiness and Treasure;
your Hope and Bliss? I am a Sun and a Shield; all in one; will you have me for your All? Gen. xv. 1.
Ps. lxxxiv. 11. Now, what dost thou say to this? Doth thy Mouth water after the Onions and Fleshpots of Egypt? Art thou lothe to change the earthly Happines for a Part in God? and, though thou wouldst be glad to have God and the World too, yet canst thou not think of having him, and Nothing but him, but hadst rather take up with the Earth below, if God would but let thee keep it as long as thou wouldst: This is a fearful Sin. But now, if thou art willing tofell all for the Pearl of great Price, Mat. xiii. 46. if thine Heart answer, Lord, I desire no other Portion but thee; take the Corn, and the Wine, and the Oil, whose will, so I may have the Light of thy Countenance: I pitch upon thee for my Happiness; I gladly venture myself on thee, and trust myself with thee; I set my Hopes in thee; I take up my Rest with thee: Let me hear thee say, I am thy God, thy Salvation, and I have enough, all I wish for; I will make no Terms with thee but for myself: Let me but have thee sure; let me be able to make my Claim, and see my Title to thyself; and, for other Things, I leave them to thee: Give me more or less, any Thing or Nothing, I will be satisfied in my God. Take him thus, and he is thy own.

Again, he tells you, I am the Sovereign Lord; if you will have me for your God, you must give me the Supremacy, Matt. vi. 24. I will not be an Underling; you must not make me a Second to Sin or any worldly Interest. If you will be my People, I must have the Rule over you; you must not live at your own Lift. Will you come under my Yoke? Will you bow to my Government? Will you submit to my Discipline, to my Word, to my Rod? Sinner, what sayst thou to this? Lord, I had rather be at thy Command than here at my own Lift; I had rather have thy Will to be done than mine: I approve of and consent to thy Laws, and account it my Privilege to lie under them: And, though the Flesh rebel, and often break its Bounds, I have resolved to take no other Lord but thee.
Directions for Conversion.

I willingly take the Oath of thy Supremacy, and acknowledge thee for my Liege-Sovereign, and resolve all my Days to pay the Tribute of Worship, Obedience, Love, and Service to thee, and to live to thee to the End of my Life. This is a right Accepting of God.

To be short, he tells you, I am the true and faithful God. If you will have me for your God, you must be content to trust me, 2 Tim. i. 12. Prov. iii. 5. Will you venture yourselves upon my Word, and depend on my Faithfulness, and take my Bond for your Security? Will you be content to follow me in Poverty, and Reproach, and Affliction, here, and to see much going out, and little coming in, and to tarry till the next World for your Preferment? Matt. xix. 21. I deal much upon Trust: Will you be content to labour and suffer, and to tarry for your Returns till the Resurrection of the just? Luke xiv. 14. The Womb of my Promise will not presently bring forth; will you have the Patience to wait? Hab. x. 36. Now, Beloved, what say you to this? Will you have this God for your God? Will you be content to live by Faith, and trust him for an unseen Happiness, an unseen Heaven, an unseen Glory? Do your Hearts answer, Lord, we will venture ourselves upon thee; we commit ourselves to thee; we roll upon thee; we know whom we have trusted; we are willing to take thy Word; we will prefer thy Promises before our own Possessions, and the Hopes of Heaven before all the Enjoyments of the Earth; we will wait thy Leisure, what thou wilt here, so that we may have but thy faithful Promise for Heaven hereafter. If you can, in Truth, and upon Deliberation, thus accept of God, he will be yours. Thus there must be, in a right Conversion to God, a Closing with him suitable to his Excellences. But, when Men close with his Mercy, but ye: love Sin, hating Holiness and Purity; or will take him for their Benefactor, but not for their Sovereign, or for their Patron, and not for their Portion; this is no thorough and sound Conversion.

Direct. VII. Accept of the Lord Jesus in all his Offices, with all his Inconveniences, as thine. Upon these Terms Christ may be had. Sinner, thou hast undone thyself, and art plunged into the Ditch of most deplorable Misery, out of which thou art never able to climb up; but Jesus Christ is able and ready to help thee, and he freely renders himself to thee, Heb. vii. 25.

John iii. 36. Be thy Sins never so many, never so great, or of never so long Continuance; yet thou shalt be most certainly pardoned and saved, if thou dost not wretchedly neglect the Offer that in the Name of God is here made to thee. The Lord Jesus calleth thee, to look to him and be saved, Isa. xliv. 22. to come unto him, and he will in no Wise cast thee out, John vi. 37. Yea, he is a Suitor to thee, and beseech-eth thee to be reconciled, 2 Cor. v. 20. He crieth in the Streets; he knocketh at thy Door; he woo-eth thee to accept of him and live with him, Prov. i. 20. Rev. iii. 20. If thou diest, it is because thou wouldst not come to him for Life, John v. 40.

Now accept of an offered Christ, and thou art made for ever; now give up thy Consent to him, and the Match is made; all the World cannot hinder it. Do not stand off because of thy Unworthines: Man, I tell thee, Nothing in the World can undo thee but thy Unwillingness. Speak, Man; art thou desirous of the Match? Wilt thou have Christ, in all his Relations, to be thine; thy King, thy Priest, thy Prophet? Wilt thou have him with all his Inconveniences? Take not Christ Hand over Head, but sit down first and count the Cost. Wilt thou lay all at his Feet? Wilt thou consent to run all Hazards with him? Wilt thou take thy Lot with him, fall where it will? Wilt thou deny thyself, take up thy Cross, and follow him? Art thou deliberately, understandingly, freely, fixedly, determined to cleave to him, in all Times and Conditions? If so, my Soul for thine, thou shalt never perish, John iii. 16. but art passed from Death to Life. Here lies the main Point of thy Salvation, that thou be found in thy Covenant Closure with Jesus Christ; and therefore, if thou love thyself, see that thou be faithful to God and thy Soul here.

Direct. VIII. Resign up all thy Powers and Faculties, and thy whole Interest, to be his. They gave their own selves unto the Lord, 2 Cor. viii. 5. Present your Bodies a living Sacrifice, Rom. xii. 1. The Lord seeks not yours, but you; resign therefore thy Body, with all its Members, to him; and thy Soul, with all its Powers, that he may be glorified in thy Body, and in thy Spirit, which are his, 1 Cor. vii. 20. In a right Closure with Christ, all thy Faculties give up to him. Thy Judgement describes, Lord, thou art worthy of all Acceptation, Chief of ten thousand: Happy is the Man that finds thee. All the Things that are to be desired are not to be compared with thee, Prov. iii. 13, 14, 15. The Understanding lays aside its corrupt Reasonings and Cavils, and its Prejudices against Christ and his Ways. It is now past Questioning, and carries it for Christ against all the World. It concludes it is good to be here, and sees such a Treasure in this Field, such a Value in this Pearl, as is worth all, Mat. xiii. 44.

Oh, here is the richest Bargain that ever I made; here is the richest Prize that ever Man was offered; here is the sovereign Remedy that ever Mercy prepared; he is worthy of my Esteem, worthy of my Choice, worthy of my Love, worthy to be embraced, adored, admired, for evermore, Rev. v. 12. I approve of his Articles; his Terms are righteous and reasonable, full of Equity and Mercy. Again, the Will resigns: It stands no longer wavering nor wishing and wounding, but is peremptorily determined: Lord, thy Love hath overcome me; thou hast won me, and thou shalt have me: Come in, Lord; to thee I freely open, I consent to be saved in thine own Way. Thou

Thou shalt have any Thing, nay, have all, let me have but thee. The Memory gives up to Christ: Lord, here is a Storehouse for thee; out with this Trash; lay in the Treasure; let me be a Granary, a Repository of thy Truth, thy Promises, thy Providences. The Conscience comes in; Lord, I will ever side with thee; I will be thy faithful Register; I will warn when the Sinner is tempted, and sit when thou art offended: I will witness for thee and judge for thee, and guide into thy Ways, and will never let Sin have Quiet in this Soul. The Affections also come in to Christ: Oh! faith Love, I am sick of thee: Oh! faith Desire, now I have my Longing; here is the Satisfaction I sought for; here is the Desire of Nations; here is Bread for me, and Balm for me; all that I want. Fear bows the Knee with Awe and Veneration. Welcome, Lord; to thee will I pay my Homage; thy Word and Rod shall command my Motions; thee will I reverence and adore; before thee will I fall down and worship. Grief likewise puts in: Lord, thy Displeasure and thy Dishonour, thy People's Calamities and my own Iniquities, shall be what shall set me abroach. I will mourn when thou art offended; I will weep when thy Cause is wounded. Anger likewise comes in for Christ: Lord, Nothing so enrages me as my Folly against thee, that I should be so besotted and bewitched as to hearken to the Flatteries of Sin and Temptations of Satan against thee. Hatred too will side with Christ: I protest mortal Enmity with thine Enemies, that I never will be a Friend to thy Foes: I vow an immortal Quarrel with every Sin; I will give no Quarter; I will make no Peace. Thus let all thy Powers give up to Jesus Christ.

Again; thou must give up thy whole Interest to him: If there be any Thing that thou keepest back from Christ, it will be thine Undoing, Luke xiv. 33. Unless thou wilt forsake all, (in Preparation and Resolution of thy Heart,) thou cannot be his Disciple. Thou must hate Father and Mother, yea, and thine own Life also, in Comparison of him, and as far as it: stands in Competition with him, Mat. x. 37. Luke xiv. 26, 27, &c. In a Word, thou must give him thyself and all that thou hast, without Reservation, or else thou canst have no Part in him.

Direct. IX Make Choice of the Laws of Christ, as the Rule of thy Words, Thoughts, and Actions, Pf. cxix. 30. This is the true Convert's Choice: But here remember these three Rules: 1. You must choose them all; there is no getting to Heaven by a partial Obedience. Read Pf. cxix. 6, 128, 160. Ezek xviii. 21.

None may think it enough to take up with the cheap and easy Part of Religion, and let alone the Duties that are costly and self denying, and grate upon the Interest of the Flesh; you must take all or none. A sincere Convert, though he makes most Conscience of the greatest Sins and weightiest Duties, yet he makes true Conscience of little Sins and of all Duties, Pf. cxix. 6, 113. Mat. xxii. 23. 2. For all Times, for Prosperity and for Adversity, whether it rain or shine. A true convert is resolved in his Way; he will stand to his Choice, and will not set his Back to the Wind, and be of the Religion of the Times. I have stuck to thy Testimonies; I have inclined my Heart to perform thy Statutes always, even to the End. Thy Testimonies have I taken as an Heritage for ever. Pf. cxix. 31, 44, 93, 111, 117. I will have Respect to thy Statutes continually. This must not be done Hand over Head, but deliberately and understandingly. That disbelieving Son said, I go, Sir; but he went not, Mat. xxii. 30. How fairly did they promise, All that the Lord our God shall speak unto thee, we will do it! And it is like they spake as they meant: But, when it came to Trial, it was found that there was not such a Heart in them, as to do what they had promised, Deut. v. 27, 29.

If you would be sincere in closing with the Laws and Ways of Christ, first study the Meaning, and Latitude, and Compass, of them: Remember that they are spiritual; they reach the very Thoughts and Inclinations of the Heart; so that, if you will walk by this Rule, your very Thoughts and inward Motions must be under Government. Again, they are very strict and self-denying, quite contrary to the Grain of your natural Inclinations, Mat. xvi. 24. you must take the strait Gate, the narrow Way, and be content to have the Flesh curbed from the Liberty it desires, Mat. vii. 14. In a Word, that they are very large, for thy Commandments are exceeding broad, Ps. cxix. 90. Secondly, rest not in Generals, (for there is much Deceit in that,) but bring down thine Heart to the particular Commands of Christ. Those Jews in the Prophet seemed as well resolved as any in the World, and called God to witness that they meant as they said, but they stuck in Generals; when God's Command crosses their Inclination they will not obey, Jer. xlii. 1 to 6, compared with Chap. xliii. 2. Take the Assembly's larger Catechism, and see their excellent and most compendious Exposition of the Commandments, and put thy Heart to it. Art thou resolved, in the Strength of Christ, to set upon the conscientious Practice of every Duty that thou findest to be there required of thee, and to set against every Sin that thou findest there forbidden? This is the Way to be found in God's Statutes, that thou mayst never be ashamed, Psl. xi. 80. Thirdly, Observe the special Duties that thy Heart is most against, and the special Sins that it is most inclined to, and see whether it be truly resolved to perform the one, and forego the other. What layest thou to thy Bosom-sin, thy gainful Sin? what layest thou to costly, hazardous, and Flesh-displeasing, Duties? If thou haltest here, and dost not resolve (by the Grace of God) to cross the Flesh, and put to it, thou art unbound, Ps. xviii. 23, and cxix. 6.

Direct. X. Let all this be completed in a solemn Covenant between God and thy Soul, Ps. cxix. 106. Nehem. x. 29. For thy better Help therein, take these few Directions.

First,
First, Set apart some Time, more than once, to be spent in Secret before the Lord:
1. In seeking earnestly his special Assistance and gracious Acceptance of thee.
2. In considering distinctly all the Terms or Conditions of the Covenant expressed in the Form hereafter proposed.
3. In searching thy Heart, whether thou art sincerely willing to forfake all thy Sins, and to resign up thyself, Body and Soul, unto God and his Service; to serve him in Holiness and Righteousness all the Days of thy Life.

Secondly, Compose thy Spirit into the most serious Frame possible, suitable to a Transaction of so high Importance.

Thirdly, Lay hold on the Covenant of God, and rely on his Promise of giving Grace and Strength, whereby thou mayst be enabled to perform thy Promise. Trust not to thine own Strength, to the Strength of thy own Resolutions; but take hold on his Strength.

Fourthly, Resolve to be faithful: Having engaged thy Heart, opened thy Mouth, and subscribed with thy Hand unto the Lord, resolve in his Strength never to go back.

Lastly, Being thus prepared, on some convenient Time set apart for that Purpose, set upon the Work; and, in the most solemn Manner possible, (as if the Lord were visibly present before thine Eyes,) fall down on thy Knees, and, spreading forth thine Hands towards Heaven, open thine Heart to the Lord, in these or the like Words.

O Most dreadful God! for the Passion of thy dear Son, I beseech thee, accept of thy poor Prodigal, now prostrating himself at thy Door. I have fallen from thee by mine Iniquity, and am by Nature a Son of Death, and a thousand-fold more the Child of Hell by my wicked Practice: But of thine infinite-
Directions for Conversion

Infinite Grace thou hast promised Grace to me in Christ, if I will but turn to thee with all my Heart: Therefore, upon the Call of thy Gospel, I am now come in; and, throwing down my Weapons, submit myself to thy Mercy.

And, because thou requirest, as the Condition of my Peace with thee, that I should put away mine Idols, and be at Defiance with all thine Enemies, which I acknowledge I have wickedly sided with against thee, I here, from the Bottom of my Heart, renounce them all, firmly co-venanting with thee, not to allow myself in any known Sin, but conscientiously use all the Means that I hope thou hast prescribed for the Death and utter Destruction of all my Corruptions. And, whereas I have formerly inordinately and idolatrously let out my Affections upon the World, I do here resign up my Heart to thee that madest it, humbly protesting, before thy glorious Majesty, that it is the firm Resolution of my Heart, and that I unfeignedly desire Grace from thee, that, when thou shalt call me hereunto, I may practice this my Resolution, through thy Assistance, to forfake all that is dear to me in this World, rather than to turn from thee to the Ways of Sin; and that I will watch against all its Temptations, whether of Prosperity or Adversity, lest they should withdraw my Heart from thee; beseeching thee also to help me against all the Temptations of Satan, to whose wicked Suggestions I resolve, by thy Grace, never to yield myself a Servant. And, because mine own Righteousness is but as filthy Rags, I renounce all Confidence therein, and acknowledge that I am of myself a hopeles, helpless, undone, Creature, without Righteousness or Strength.

And forasmuch as thou hast, of thy bottomless Mercy, offered most graciously to me, a wretched Sinner, to be again accepted by God, through Christ, if I would accept of thee, I call Heaven and Earth to record this Day, that I do here solemnly avouch thee for the Lord my God; and, with all possible Veneration, bowing the Neck of my Soul under the Feet of thy most sacred Majesty, I do here take thee, the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for my Portion and chief Good; and to give up myself, Body and Soul, to thy Service, promising and vows to serve thee in Holiness and Righteousness all the Days of my Life.

And since thou hast appointed the Lord Jesus Christ the only Means of coming unto thee, I do here, upon the bended Knees of my Soul; accept of him as the only, new, and living, Way by which Sinners may have Access to thee; and do hereby solemnly join myself in Marriage-covenant to him.

O blessed Jesus, I come to thee, hungry and hardly, beset, poor, and wretched, and miserable, and blind, and naked; a most loathsome polluted Wretch, a guilty and condemned Malefactor, unworthy for ever to wash the Feet of the Servants of my Lord, much more to be solemnly married to the King of Glory; but since such is thine unparallelled Love, I do here, with all my Power, accept thee, and do take thee for my Head and Husband, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, for all Times and Conditions.
Directions for Conversion.

ditions, to love, honour, and obey, thee, before all others, and this to the Death. I embrace thee in all thy Offices, I renounce my own Worthiness, and do here avow thee to be the Lord, my Righteousness; I renounce my own Wisdom, and do here take thee for my only Guide; I renounce my own Will, and take thy Will for my Law.

And, since thou hast told me that I must suffer if I will reign, I do here covenant with thee to take my Lot as it falls with thee; and, by thy Grace assisting, to run all Hazards with thee, verily supposing, that neither Life nor Death shall part between thee and me.

And because thou hast been pleased to give me thy holy Laws, as the Rule of my Life, and the Way in which I should walk to thy Kingdom, I do, here willingly put my Neck in thy Yoke, and set my Shoulder to thy Burden; and, subscribing to all thy Laws, as holy, just, and good, I solemnly take them as the Rule of my Thoughts, Words, and Actions; promising, that, though my Flesh contradict and rebel, yet I will endeavour to order and govern my whole Life according to thy Direction, and will not allow myself in the Neglect of any Thing that I know to be my Duty.

Only because (through the Frailty of my Flesh) I am subject to so many Failings, I am bold humbly to protest, that unallowed Miscarriages, contrary to the settled Bent and Resolution of my Heart, shall not make void this Covenant, for to thou hast said.

Now, Almighty God, Searcher of Hearts, thou knowest that I make this Covenant with thee this Day, without any known Guile or Reservation, beseeching thee, that, if thou spyest any Flaw or Falsehood therein, thou wouldst discover it to me, and help me to do it aright.

And
And now, Glory be to thee, O God the Father, whom I shall be bold, from this Day forward, to look upon as my God and Father, that ever thou shouldst find out such a Way for the Recovery of undone Sinners. Glory be to thee, O God the Son, who hast loved me, and washed me from my Sins in thine own Blood, and art now become my Saviour and Redeemer. Glory be to thee, O God the Holy-Ghost, who, by the Finger of thine almighty Power, hast turned about my Heart from Sin to God.

O dreadful Jehovah! the Lord God omnipotent, Father, Son, and Holy-Ghost! thou art now become my covenant Friend, and I (through thy infinite Grace) am become thy covenant Servant, Amen, so be it: And the Covenant which I have made on Earth, let it be ratified in Heaven.

The AUTHOR's Advice.

This Covenant I advise you to make, not only in Heart, but in Word; not only in Word, but in Writing; and that you would, with all possible Reverence, spread the Writing before the Lord, as if you would present it to him as your Act and Deed: And, when you have done this, set your Head to it, keep it as a Memorial of the solemn Transactions that have passed between God and you, that you may have Recourse to it in Doubts and Temptations.

Direct. XI Take Heed of delaying thy Conversion, and let upon a speedy and present Turning. I made haste and delayed not, Ps cxix. 60. Remember and tremble at the sad Instance of the foolish Virgins, that came not till the Door of Mercy was shut, Matt. xxv. 11. and of a convinced Felix, who put off Paul to another Season; and we never find that he had such another Season, Acts xxiv. 25. Oh! come in while it is called To-day, lest thou shouldst be hardened through the Deceitfulness of Sin, lest the Day of Grace should be over.
over, and the Things which belong to thy Peace should be hidden from thine Eyes. Now Mercy is wooing thee; now Christ is waiting to be gracious to thee, and the Spirit of God is striving with thee: Now Ministers are calling: Now Conscience is stirring: Now the Market is open, and Oil may be had, thou hast Opportunity for buying: Now Christ is to be had for the Taking. Oh! strike in with the Offers of Grace: Oh! now or never! If thou make light of this Offer, God may swear, in his Wrath, thou shalt not taste of his Supper, Luke xiv. 24.

Direct. XII. Attend conscientiously upon the Word, as the Means appointed for thy Conversion, Jam. i. 18, 19. 1 Cor. iv. 15. Attend, I say, not customarily, but conscientiously; with this Desire, Design, Hope, and Expectation, that thou mayst be converted by it. To every Sermon thou hearest come with this Thought: Oh! I hope God will now come in: I hope this Day may be the Time, this may be the Man by whom GOD will bring me Home. When thou art coming to the Ordinances, lift up thy Heart thus to God: Lord, let this be the Sabbath, let this be the Season, whereby I may receive renewing Grace: Oh! let it be said, that this Day such an one was born unto thee!

Object. Thou wilt say, I have been long a Hearer of the Word, and yet it hath not been effectual to my Conversion. Answer. Yea, but thou hast not attended upon it in this Manner as a Means of thy Conversion, nor with this Design, nor praying for and expecting this happy Effect from it.

Direct. XIII. Strike in with the Spirit, when he begins to work upon thy Heart. When he works Convictions, oh! do not stifle them, but join in with him, and beg the Lord to carry on Conviction to Conversion. Quench not the Spirit; do not outstrive him, do not resist him. Beware of putting out Convictions with evil Company or worldly Business. When thou findest any Troubles for Sin, and Fears about thy thy eternal State, beg of God that they may never leave thee till they have wrought off thy Heart thoroughly from Sin, and wrought it over to Jesus Christ. Say to him, Strike home, Lord; leave not the Work in the Midst. If thou seest that I am not wounded enough, that I am not troubled enough, wound me yet deeper, Lord: Oh! go to the Bottom of my Corruption, and let out the Life-blood of my Sins. Thus yield up thyself to the Workings of the Spirit, and hoist thy Sails to his Gusts.

Direct. XIV. Set upon the constant and diligent Use of serious and fervent Prayer. He that neglects Prayer is a profane and unsanctified Sinner, Job xv. 4. He that is not constant in Prayer is but a Hypocrite, Job xxvii. 10. (unless Omission be contrary to his ordinary Course, under the Force of some instant Temptation.) This is one of the first Things Conversion appears in, that it sets Men on Praying, Acts ix. 11. Therefore set to this Duty; let never a Day pass over thee, wherein thou hast not, Morning and Evening, set apart some Time for set and solemn Prayer in Secret. Call thy Family also together daily and duly to worship God with thee. Woe be unto thee if thou be found among the Families that call not on God’s Name, Jer. x. 25. But cold and lifeless Devotions will not reach Half-way to Heaven. Be fervent and importunate: Importunity will carry it; but, without Violence, the Kingdom of Heaven will not be taken, Matt. xi. 12. Thou must strive to enter, Luke xiii. 24. and wrestle with Tears and Supplications, as Jacob, if thou meanest to carry the Blessing, Gen. xxxii. 24. compared with Hos. xi. 4. Thou art undone for ever without Grace, and therefore thou must set to it, and resolve to take no Denial: That Man, who is fixed in this Resolution: Well, I must have Grace, or I will never give over till I have Grace; I will never leave seeking, waiting, and striving with, God and my own Heart, till he doth re-
Directions for Conversion.

This Man is in the likeliest Way to win Grace.

Object. But God heareth not Sinners; their Prayer is an Abomination.

Ans. Distinguish between Sinners. 1. There are resolved Sinners; their Prayers God abhors. 2. Returning Sinners; these God will come forth to, and meet with Mercy, though yet afar off, Luke xv. 20. Though the Prayers of the unsanctified cannot have full Acceptance, yet God hath done much at the Request of such; as at Ahab's Humiliation, and Nineweb's Fast, 1 Kings xxi. 29. Jon. iii. 8, 9, 10. Surely thou mayest go as far as these, though thou hast no Grace; and how dost thou know but thou mayest speed in thy Suit, as they did in theirs? Yea, is he not far more likely to grant to thee than them, since thou askest in the Name of Christ, and that not for temporal Blessings, as they, but for Things much more pleasing to him, viz. for Christ, Grace, Pardon, that thou mayest be justified, sanctified, renewed, and fitted to serve him? Turn to these Soul-encouraging Scriptures, Prov. ii. 1 to 6. Luke xi. 9, 10, 11, 12, 13. Prov. viii. 34, 35.

Is it not good Comfort that he calleth thee? Mark x. 49. Doth he set thee on the Use of Means, and dost thou think he will mock thee? Doubtless he will not fail thee, if thou be not wanting to thyself: Oh, pray, and faint not, Luke xviii. 1. A Person of great Quality, having offended the Duke of Buckingham, the King's great Favourite, being admitted into his Presence, after long waiting, prostrates himself at his Feet, saying, I have resolved never to rise more till I have obtained your Grace's Favour. With which Carriage he did overcome him. With such a Resolution do thou throw thyself at the Feet of God; it is for thy Life, and therefore follow him, and give not over; resolve thou wilt not be put off with Bones, with common Mercies. What though God do do not presently open to thee? Is not Grace worth waiting for? Knock and wait, and no Doubt but, sooner or later, Mercy will come.

And this know, that thou hast the very same Encouragement, to seek and wait, that the Saints now in Glory once had; for they were once in thy very Case: And, have they sped so well, and wilt thou not go to the same Door, and wait upon thy God in the same Course?

Direft. XV. Forsake thy evil Company, Prov. ix. 6. and forbear the Occasion of Sin, Prov. xxiii. 31. Thou wilt never be turned from Sin till thou wilt decline and forego the Temptations of Sin.

I never expect thy Conversion from Sin, unless thou art brought to some Self-denial, as to flee the Occasions. If thou wilt be nibbling at the Bait, and playing on the Brink, and tampering and meddling with the Snare, thy Soul will surely be taken. Where God doth expose Men, in his Providence, unavoidably to Temptation, and the Occasions are such as we cannot remove, we may expect special Assistance in the Use of his Means; but, when we tempt God by running into Danger, he will not engage to support us when we are tempted. And, of all Temptations, one of the most fatal and pernicious is evil Company: Oh! what hopeful Beginnings have these often fled! Oh! the Souls, the Estates, the Families, the Towns, that these have ruined! how many poor Sinners have been enlightened and convinced, and been just ready to give the Devil the Slip, and have even escaped the Snare, and yet wicked Company has pulled them back at last, and made them seven-fold more the Children of Hell? In a Word, I have no Hopes of thee, except thou wilt shake off thy evil Company.

Christ speaketh to thee as to them in another Case: If thou seek me, then let these go their Way, John xviii. 8. Thy Life lies upon it; forfake these, or else thou canst not live, Prov. ix. 6. Wilt thou be worse than the Beast, Beast, to run on when thou seest the Lord with a drawn Sword in the Way? Numb. xxii. 33. Let this Sentence be written in Capitals upon thy Conscience, A COMPANION OF FOOLS SHALL BE DESTROYED, Prov. xiii. 20. The Lord hath spoken it, and who shall reverse it? And wilt thou run upon Destruction when God himself shall forewarn thee? If God doth ever change thy Heart, it will appear in the Change of thy Company. Oh! fear and flee the Gulph, by which so many thousand Souls have been swallowed up in Perdition. It will be hard for thee indeed to make thy Escape: Thy Companions will be mocking thee out of thy Religion, and will study to fill thee with Prejudices against Strictness as ridiculous and comfortless: They will be flattering thee and alluring thee, but remember the Warnings of the Holy Ghost: My Son, if Sinners entice thee, consent thou not: If they say, come with us, cast in thy Lot among us; walk thou not in the Way with them, refrain thy Foot from their Path; avoid it, pass by it, turn from it, and pass away: For, the Way of the Wicked is as Darkness, they know not at what they stumble: They lie in Wait for their own Blood, they lurk privily for their own Lives, Prov. i. 10 to 18. and iv. 14 to 19. My Soul is moved within me to see how many of my Hearers are like to perish, both they and their Houtes, by this wretched Mischief, even the Haunting of such Places and Company, whereby they are drawn into Sin. Once more I admonish you, as Moses did Israel, Numb. xvi. 26. And he spake unto the Congregation, saying, Depart, I pray ye, from the Tents of these wicked Men. Oh! fly them as you would those that had the Plague-fores running in their Foreheads. These are the Devil’s Panders and Decoys; and, if thou dost not make thy Escape, they will toll thee into Perdition, and will prove thine eternal Ruin.
Direct. XVI. Lastly, Set apart a Day to humble thy Soul in Secret, by Fasting and Prayer, to work a Sense of thy Sins and Miseries upon thy Heart. Read over the Assembly's Exposition of the Commandments, and write down the Duties omitted, and Sins committed, by thee, against every Commandment, and so make a Catalogue of thy Sins, and with Shame and Sorrow spread them before the Lord; and, if thy Heart be truly willing to the Terms, join thyself solemnly to the Lord in that Covenant set down in the 10th Direction, and the Lord grant thee Mercy in his Sight.

Thus have I told thee what thou must do to be saved. Wilt thou not obey the Voice of the Lord? Wilt thou not arise and set to thy Work? O Man, what Answer wilt thou make, what Excuse wilt thou have, if thou shouldst perish at last through very Willfulness, when thou hast known the Way of Life? I do not fear thy miscarrying, if thine own Idleness do not at last undo thee, in neglecting the Use of the Means that are so plainly here prescribed. Rouse up, O Sluggard, and ply thy Work; be doing, and the Lord will be with thee.

A short Soliloquy for an unregenerate Sinner.

A] wretched Man that I am! what a Condition have I brought myself into by Sin? Oh! I see my Heart hath but deceived me all this While, in flattering me that my Condition was good. I see, I see, I am but a lost and undone Man, for ever undone, unless the Lord help me out of this Condition. My Sins! my Sins! Lord, what an unclean, polluted, Wretch am I! more loathsome and odious to thee than the most hateful Venom or noisome Carcase can be to me. Oh! what a Hell of Sin is in this Heart of mine, which I have flattered myself to be a good Heart! Lord, how universally am I corrupted in all my for an unregenerate Sinner.

my Parts, Powers, Performances? All the Imaginations of the Thoughts of my Heart are only evil continually. I am under a Disability to, Averseness from, and Enmity against, every Thing that is good, and am prone to all that is evil. My Heart is a very Sink of all Sin; and oh! the innumerable Hosts and Swarms of sinful Thoughts, Words, and Actions, that have flown from thence! O the Load of Guilt that is on my Soul! My Head is full, my Heart is full, my Mind and my Members are full, of Sin. O my Sins! how do they stare upon me! how do they witness against me! Woe is me! my Creditors are upon me, every Commandment taketh hold on me, far more than ten thousand Talents, yea, ten thousand Times ten thousand. How endless then is the Sum of all my Debts! If this whole World were filled up from Earth to Heaven with Paper, and all this Paper written over within and without by Arithmeticians, yet (when all were cast up together) it would come inconceivably short of what I owe to the least of God's Commandments. Woe to me! for my Debts are infinite, and my Sins are increased; they are Wrongs to an infinite Majesty; and, if he that committeth Treason against a simple Mortal is worthy to be racked, drawn, and quartered, what have I not deserved, that have so often lifted up my Hand against Heaven, and have struck at the Crown and Dignity of the Almighty?

O my Sins, my Sins! behold a Troop cometh; Multitudes, Multitudes! there is no numbering their Armies: Innumerable Evils have compassed me about; mine Iniquities have taken hold upon me; they have set themselves in Array against me! Oh! it were better to have all the Regiments of Hell come against me, than to have my Sins fall upon me, to the Spoiling of my Soul. Lord, how am I surrounded! how many are they that rise up. against me! they have beset me behind and before; they swarm within me and without me; they have possessed all my Powers, and have fortified my unhappy Soul, as a Garrison, which this Brood of Hell doth man and maintain against the God that made me.

And they are as mighty as they are many. The Sands are many, but then they are not great: The Mountains are great, but then they are not many: but, Woe is me! my Sins are as many as the Sands, and as mighty as the Mountains; their Weight is greater than their Number: It were better that the Rocks and Mountains should fall upon me, than the crushing and insupportable Load of my own Sins. Lord, I am heavy laden; let Mercy help, or I am gone. Unlade me of this heavy, this sinking, Guilt, Lord, or I am crushed without Hope, and must be pressed down to Hell. If my Grief were thoroughly weighed, and my Sins laid in the Balance together, they would be heavier than the Sand of the Sea; therefore my Words are swallowed up: They would weigh down all the Rocks and the Hills, and turn the Balance against all the Isles of the Earth. O Lord, thou knowest my manifold Transgressions and my mighty Sins.

Ah my Soul! alas my Glory! whither art thou humbled? once the Glory of the Creation, and the express Image of God, now a Lump of Filthiness, a Coffin of Rottenness. O what Work hath Sin made with thee! Thou shalt be termed forsaken, and all the Rooms of thy Faculties desolate; and the Name that thou shalt be called by is Ichabod, or Where is the Glory? How art thou come down mightily! My Beauty is turned into Deformity, and my Glory into Shame. Lord, what a lothesome Leper am I! The ulcerous Bodies of Job and Lazarus were not more offensive to the Eyes and Nostrils of Men, than I must must needs be to the most holy God, whose Eyes cannot behold Iniquity.

And what Misery have my Sins brought upon me! Lord, what a Cage am I in! fold under Sin, cast out of God's Favour, cursed from the Lord, cursed in my Body, cursed in my Soul, cursed in my Name, in my Estate, in my Relations, and all that I have. My Sins are unpardoned, and my Soul is within a Step of Death. Alas! what shall I do? whither shall I go? which Way shall I look? God is frowning on me from above, Hell gaping for me beneath, Conscience smiting me within, Temptations and Dangers surrounding me without: Oh! whither shall I flee? what Place can hide me from Omniscience? what Power can secure me from Omnipotence?

What meanest thou, O my Soul, to go on thus? art thou in League with Hell? hast thou made a Covenant with Death? art thou in Love with thy Misery? Is it good for thee to be here? Alas! what shall I do? shall I go on in my sinful Ways? Why then certain Damnation shall be my End: And shall I be so besotted and bemadded, as to go and sell my Soul to the Flames for a little Ale and a little Ease, for a little Pleasure or Gain or Content to my Flesh? Shall I linger any longer in this wretched State? No; if I tarry here I shall die. What then? is there no Help, no Hope? None, except I turn. Why, but is there any Remedy for such woful Misery? any Mercy after such provoking Iniquity? Yes, as sure as God's Oath is true, I shall have Pardon and Mercy yet, if presently, and unfeignedly, and unreservedly, I turn by Christ to him.

Why then I thank thee upon the bended Knees of my Soul, O most merciful Jehovah! that thy Patience hath waited upon me hitherto; for, hadst thou taken me away in this Estate, I had perished for ever. And now I adore thy Grace, and accept the the Offers of thy Mercy: I renounce all my Sins, and resolve by thy Grace to set myself against them, and follow thee in Holiness and Righteousness all the Days of my Life.

Who am I, Lord, that I should make any Claim unto thee, or have any Part or Portion in thee, who am not worthy to lick up the Dust of thy Feet? yet, since thou holdest forth the golden Scepter, I am bold to come and touch. To despair would be to dispraise thy Mercy; and to stand off, when thou biddest me to come, would be at once to undo myself, and rebel against thee, under the Pretence of Humility: Therefore I bow my Soul to thee, and with all possible Thankfulness accept thee as mine, and give up myself to thee as thine. Thou shalt be Sovereign over me, my King and my God: Thou shalt be in the Throne, and all my Powers shall bow to thee; they shall come and worship before thy Feet. Thou shalt be my Portion, O Lord, and I will rest in thee.

Thou callest for my Heart: O that it were any Way fit for thine Acceptance! I am unworthy, O Lord, everlastingly unworthy, to be thine; but, since thou wilt have it so, I freely give up my Heart to thee; take it; it is thine: O that it were better! But, Lord, I put it into thine Hand, who alone canst mend it: Mould it after thine own Heart; make it, as thou wouldst have it, holy, humble, heavenly, soft, tender, flexible; and write thy Law upon it.

Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly; enter in triumphantly; take me up to thee for ever: I give up myself to thee; I come to thee, as the only Way to the Father, as the only Mediator, the Means ordained to bring me to God. I have destroyed myself, but in thee is my Help; save, Lord, or else I perish. I come to thee with a Rope about my Neck; I am worthy to die and to be damned. Never was the Hire more due to the Servant, never was Penny more due to the far an unregistered Sinner. But I flee to thy Merits; I trust alone to the Value and Virtue of thy Sacrifice, and Prevalence of thy Intercession: I submit to thy Teaching; I make Choice of thy Government. Stand open, ye everlasting Doors, that the King of Glory may come in.

O thou Spirit of the most High, the Comforter and Sanctifier of thy chosen! come in with all thy glorious Train, all thy courtly Attendants, thy Fruits and Graces; let me be thine Habitation; I can give thee but what is thine own already; but here, with the poor Widow, I cast my two Mites, my Soul and my Body into thy Treasury, fully resigning them unto thee, to be sanctified by thee, to be Servants to thee. They shall be thy Patients; cure thou their Malady: They shall be thy Agents; govern thou their Motions. Too long have I served the World; too long have I hearkened to Satan; but now I renounce them all, and will be ruled by thy Dictates and Directions, and guided by thy Counsel.

O blessed Trinity! O glorious Unity! I deliver up myself to thee; receive me; write thy Name, O Lord, upon me, and upon all that I have, as thy proper Goods; set thy Mark upon me, upon every Member of my Body, and on every Faculty of my Soul. I have chosen thy Precepts; thy Law will I keep in mine Eye, and study to write after. According to this Rule do I resolve, through thy Grace, to walk; after this Law shall my whole Man be governed; and, though I cannot perfectly keep one of thy Commandments, yet I will allow myself in the Breach of none. I know my Flesh will hang back; but I resolve, in the Power of thy Grace, to cleave to thee and thy holy Ways, whatever it costs me. I am sure I cannot come off a Loser by thee, and therefore I will be content with Reproach, and Difficulties, and

Hardships,
Chap. VII. Containing the Motives to Conversion.

Though what is already said of the Necessity of Conversion, and of the Miseries of the unconverted, might be sufficient to induce any considering Mind to resolve upon a present Turning or Conversion unto God; yet, knowing what a Piece of desperate Obstinate and Untractableness the Heart of Man naturally is, I have thought it necessary to add, to the Means of Conversion and Directions for a Covenant-Closure with God and Christ, some Motives to persuade you hereunto.

* Lord, fail me not now, at my last Attempts: *
* If any Soul hath read hitherto, and as yet untouched, now, Lord, fasten on him, and do thy Work; now take him by the Heart, overcome him, him, persuade him, till he say, Thou hast prevail-'ed; for thou wert stronger than I. Lord, didst not thou make me a Fisher of Men, and I have toiled all this While, and caught Nothing? Alas, that I should have spent my Strength for Nought! and now I am calling my last: Lord Jesus, stand thou upon the Shore, and direct how and where I shall spread my Net; and let me so inclose with Argument, the Souls I seek for, that they may not be able to get out. Now, Lord, for a Multitude of Souls! now for a full Draught! O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me this once, O God.'

But I turn me unto you.

Men and Brethren, Heaven and Earth call upon you; yea, Hell itself doth preach the Doctrine of Repentance unto you; the Angels of the Churches travail with you, Gal. iv. 19. the Angels of Heaven wait for you, for your repenting and turning unto God. O Sinner! why should the Devils make merry with thee? why shouldst thou be a Morsel for that devouring Leviathan? why should Harpies and Hell-Hounds tear thee, and make a Feast upon thee, and, when they have got thee into the Snare, and have fastened their Talons in thee, laugh at thy Destruction, and deride thy Misery, and sport themselves with thy damnable Folly? This may be thy Case except thou turn. And were it not better thou shouldst be a Joy of Angels, than a Laughing-flock and Sport for Devils? Verily, if thou wouldst but come in, the heavenly Host would take up their Anthems, and sing, Glory be to God in the highest; the Morning-Stars would sing together, and all the Sons of God shout for Joy, and celebrate this new Creation as they did the first. Thy Repentance would, as it were, make a Holiday in Heaven, and the glorious Spirits would rejoice, in that there is a new Brother added to their Society, Rev. xxii. 9. another Heir born to the Lord, and the lost Son received safe and found. The true Penitent's Tears are indeed the Wine that cherishest both GOD and Man.

If it be little that Men and Angels would rejoice
at thy Conversion, know thou that God himself would rejoice over thee, even with Singing, and rest cob with such Joy weep over the Neck of his Joseph as thy heavenly Father would rejoice over thee upon thy coming in to him. Look over the Story of the Prodigal: Methinks I see how the aged Father lays aside his Estate, and forgetteth his Years; behold how he runneth! Luke xv. 20. Oh!
the Haste that Mercy makes! the Sinner makes not Half that Speed. Methinks I see how his Bowels turn, how his Compassions yearn. How quick-lighted is Love! Mercy spies him a great Way off, forgets his riotous Courses, unnatural Rebellion, horrid Unthankfulness, debauched Practices (not a Word of these); but receives him with open Arms, clasps about his Neck, forgets the Nastiness of his Rags, kisses his Lips that deserve to be loathed, the Lips that had been joined to Harlots, that had been Commoners with the wine; calls for the fatted
Calf, the best Robe, the Ring, the Shoes, the best Cheer in Heaven's Store, the best Attire in Heaven's Wardrobe, Luke xv. 6, 9, 23. Yea, the Joy cannot be held in one Breast, &c. Others must be called to participate; the Friends must meet and make merry: Angels must wait, but the Prodigal must be set at Table, under his Father's Wing; he is the Joy of the Feast; he is the sweet Object of the Father's Delight: The Friends sympathize, but none knows the Felicity the Father takes in his new-born Son, whom he hath received from the dead. Meththinks I hear the Music and Dancing at a Distance.
Oh!
Oh! the Melody of the heavenly Choristers! I cannot learn the Song, Rev. xiv. 3. but methinks I overhear the Burden, at which all the harmonious Choir with one Consent strike sweetly in; for thus goes the Round at Heaven's Table: For this my Son was dead, and is alive again; was lost, and is found, Luke xv. 23, 24, 32. I need not farther explain the Parable: God is the Father, Christ is the Cheer, his Righteousness the Robe, his Grace the Ornaments, Ministers, Saints, Angels, the Friends and Servants, and thou that readest (if thou wilt but unfeignedly repent and turn) the welcome Prodigal, the happy Instance of this Grace, and blessed Subject of this Joy and Love.

O Rock! O Adamant! what! not moved yet? not yet resolved to turn forthwith, and to close with Mercy? I will try thee yet once again: If one were sent to thee from the dead, wouldst thou be persuaded? Why, hear the Voice from the dead, from the damned, crying to thee that thou shouldst repent: I pray thee that thou wouldst send him to my Father's House, (for I have five Brethren,) that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this Place of Torment: If one went to them from the dead, they will repent, Luke xvi. 27, 28, &c. Hear, O Man; thy Predecessors in Impenitence preach to thee from the infernal Gibbets, from the Flames, from the Rack, that thou shouldst repent: Oh! look but down into the bottomless Pit; seest thou how the Smoke of their Torment ascendeth for ever and ever? Rev. xiv. 11. how black are the Fiends! how furious are their Torments! It is their only Music to hear how their miserable Patients roar, to hear their Bones crack: It is their Meat and Drink to see how their Flesh shrivels, and their Fat droppeth; to drench them with burning Metal, and to rip open their Bodies, and to pour in the fierce-burning Brass into their Bowels, and the Recesses and Ventricles of their Hearts.
Motives to Conversion.

Hearts. What thinkest thou of those Chains of Darkness, those Instruments of Cruelty? Canst thou be content to burn? Seest thou how the Worm gnaweth, how the Oven gloweth, how the Fire rageth? What sayest thou to the River of Brimstone, that dark and horrible Vent, that Gulph of Perdition? wilt thou take up thine Habitation there? Oh! lay thine Ear to the Door of Hell: Hearest thou the Curses and Blasphemies, the Weepings and Wailings, how they lament their Follies, and curse their Day? Mat. xxii. 13. Rev. xvi. 9. How do they roar, and yell, and gnash their Teeth! how deep are their Groans! how feeling are their Moans! how inconceivable are their Miseries! If the Shrieks of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, were so terrible, (when the Earth clave asunder, and opened its Mouth, and swallowed them up, and all that appertained to them,) that all Israel fled at the Cry of them, Numb. xvi. 33, 34. Oh! how fearful would the Cry be, if God should take off the Covering from the Mouth of Hell, and let the Cry of the damned ascend in all its Terror among the Children of Men, and, of all their Moans and Miseries, this the piercing, killing, Emphasis and Burden, for ever, for ever!

Why, as God liveth that made thy Soul, thou art but few Hours distant from all this, except thou repent and be converted.

O! I am even lost and swallowed up in the Abundance of those Arguments that I might suggest. If there be any Point of Wisdom in all the World, it is to repent and come in; if there be any Thing righteous, any Thing reasonable, this is it: If there be any Thing in the World that may be called Madness and Folly, and any Thing that may be counted foolish, absurd, brutish, unreasonable, it is this, to go on in thine unconverted State. Let me beg of thee, as thou wouldst not wilfully destroy thyself, to sit down down and weigh, besides what has been said, these following Motives, and let Conscience speak, if it be not Reason that thou shouldst repent and turn.

1. The God that made thee does most graciously invite thee.

First, His most sweet and merciful Nature doth invite thee. O the Kindness of God, his working Bowels, his tender Mercies! They are infinitely above our Thoughts, higher than Heaven; what can we do? deeper than Hell; what can we know? Job xi. 7, 8, 9. He is full of Compassion and gracious, long suffering and plenteous in Mercy, Ps. lxxxvi. 15. This is a great Argument to persuade Sinners to come in, Turn unto the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to Anger, of great Kindness, and repented of the Evil. If God would not repent of the Evil, it were some Discouragement to us why we should not repent. If there were no Hope of Mercy, it were no Wonder why Rebels should stand out; but never had Subjects such a gracious Prince, such Pity, Patience, Clemency, Piety, to deal with, as you have. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth Iniquity? Micah vii. 18. O Sinners! see what a God you have to deal with; if you will but turn, he will turn again, and have Compassion on you; he will subdue your Iniquities, and cast all your Sins into the Depths of the Sea, v. 19. Return unto me, saith the Lord of Hosts, and I will return unto you, Mal. iii. 7. Zech. i. 3. Sinners do not fail in that they have too high Thoughts of God's Mercies, but in that, 1. They overlook his Justice. 2. They promise themselves Mercy out of God's Way; his Mercy is beyond all Imagination, Isa. lv. 9. great Mercies, 1 Chr. xxi. 13. manifold Mercies, Neh. ix. 19. tender Mercies, Ps. xxv. 6. sure Mercies, Isa. lv. 3. everlasting Mercies, Ps. ciii. 17. Isa. liv. 8. and all is thy own, if thou wilt but turn. Art thou willing to come in? Why, the Lord hath laid aside his Terror, erected a Throne of Grace, holds forth the golden Scepter; touch and live. Would a merciful Man flay his Enemy when prostrate at his Feet, acknowledging his Wrong, begging Pardon, and offering to enter with him into a Covenant of Peace? Much less will the merciful God. Study his Name, Exod. xxxiv. 7. Read their Experience, Neh. ix. 17.

Secondly, His Soul encouraging Call and Promises do invite thee. Ah, what an earnest Suitor is Mercy to thee! how lovingly, how instantly, it calleth after thee! how passionately it wooeth thee! Return, thou backsliding Children, faith the Lord, for I am married unto you; return, and I will heal your Backslidings. Thou hast played the Harlot with many Lovers; yet return unto me, faith the Lord, Jer. iii. 11, 12, 13, 14, 22. As I live, faith the Lord God, I have no Pleasure in the Death of the wicked, but that he turn from his Way and live. Turn ye, turn ye, from your evil Ways; for why will ye die, O House of Israel? Ezek. xxxiii. 11. If the wicked will turn from all his Sins that he hath committed, and keep all my Statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die: All his Transgressions that he hath committed shall not be mentioned to him; in his Righteousness that he hath done shall he live. Repent and turn you from all your Transgressions; so Iniquity shall not be your Ruin. Cast away all your Transgressions, and make you a clean Heart and a new Spirit; for why will ye die, O House of Israel? for I have no Pleasure in the Death of him that dieth, faith the Lord God; wherefore, turn yourselves, and live ye, Ezek. xviii. 21, 22, 30, 31, 32.

One melting gracious Words! the Voice of a GOD, and not of a Man! This is not the Manner of Men, for the offended Sovereign to sue to the offending, traiterous, traitorous, Varlet. Oh, how doth Mercy follow thee and plead with thee! Is not thy Heart broken yet? Oh that to-day you would hear his Voice!

2. The Doors of Heaven are thrown open to thee, the everlasting Gates are set wide for thee, and an abundant Entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven is administered to thee. Christ now bespeaks thee, as she her Husband: Arise and take Possession, 1 Kings xxii. 15. View the Glory of the other World, as set forth in the Map of the Gospel; get thee up into Pisgah of the Promises, and lift up thine Eyes northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward, and see the good Land that is beyond Jordan, and that goodly Mountain: Behold the Paradise of God, watered with the Streams of Glory. Arise and walk through the Land, in the Length of it, and in the Breadth of it; for, the Land which thou seest, the Lord will give it to thee for ever, if thou wilt but return, Gen. xiii. 14, 15, 17. Let me say to thee, as Paul to Agrippa, Believest thou the Prophets? If thou believest indeed, do but view what glorious Things are spoken of the City of God, Psal. lxxxvii. 3. and know that all this is here tendered in the Name of God to thee: As verily as God is true, it shall be for ever thine, if thou wilt but thoroughly turn.

Behold the City of pure transparent Gold, whose Foundations are garnished with all Manner of precious Stones, whose Gates are Pearls, whose Light is Glory, whose Temple is God. Believest thou this? if thou dost, art not thou worse than damned, that wilt not take Possession when the Gates are hang open to thee, and thou art bid to enter? O ye Sons of Folly, will ye embrace the Dunghills, and refuse the Kingdom? Behold the Lord takes you up into the Mountain, shews you the Kingdom of Heaven and all the Glory thereof, and tells you, All this will I give you, if you will all down and worship me; if you will submit mit to Mercy, accept my Son, and serve me in Righteousness and Holiness. O Fools, and slow of Heart to believe! Will you court the Harlot? Will you seek and serve the World, and neglect eternal Glory? What! not enter into Paradise when the flaming Sword, which was once set to keep you out, is now used to drive you in! But you will say, I am uncharitable to think you Infidels and Unbelievers. Why, what shall I think you? Either you are desperate Unbelievers, that do not credit it, or stark distracted, that you know and believe the Excellence and Eternity of this Glory, and yet do so fearfully neglect it. Surely you have either no Faith, or no Reason, and, I had almost said, Conscience shall tell you so before I leave you.

Do but attend to what is offered you: O blessed Kingdom! a Kingdom of Glory, 1 Thess. ii. 12. a Kingdom of Righteousness, 2 Pet. iii. 13. a Kingdom of Peace, Rom. xiv. 17. and an everlasting Kingdom, 2 Pet. i. 11. Here thou shalt dwell, here thou shalt reign for ever, and the Lord shall set thee on a Throne of Glory, Mat. xix. 28. and with his own Hand shall set the royal Diadem upon thine Head, and give thee a Crown, not of Thorns; for there shall be no Sinning nor Suffering there, Rev. xxi. 27. and xxii. 3, 4, 5. not of Gold, (for this shall be viler than the Dirt in that Day,) but a Crown of Life, Jam. i. 12. a Crown of Righteousness, 2 Tim. iv. 8. a Crown of Glory, 1 Pet. v. 4. yea, thou shalt put on Glory as a Robe, 1 Cor. xv. 43. and shalt shine, like the Sun in the Firmament, in the Glory of thy Father, Matt. xiii. 43. Look now upon thy dirty Flesh, thy Clay, thy Worms-Meat: This very Flesh, this Lump, this Carcase, shall be brighter than the Stars, Dan. xii. 3. In short, thou shalt be made like unto the Angels of God, Luke xx. 36. and behold his Face in Righteousness, Psa. xvii. 15. Look in now and tell me, dost thou, thou yet believe? If not, Conscience must pronounce thee an Infidel; for it is the very Word of God that I speak.

But, if thou say thou believest, let me next know thy Resolution. Wilt thou embrace this for thy Happiness? Wilt thou forego thy sinful Gains, thy forbidden Pleasures? Wilt thou trample on the World's Esteem, and spit in the Harlot's Face, and stop thy Ears at her Flatteries, and wrest thee out of her Embraces? Wilt thou be content to take up with Reproach and Poverty, if they lie in the Way to Heaven, and follow the Lord with humble Self-denial in a mortified and Flesh-displeasing Life? If so, all is thine, and that for ever.

And art thou not fairly offered? Is it not Pity but he should be damned that will needs go on and perish when all this may be had for the taking? Wilt thou take God at his Word? Wilt thou let go thy Holdfast of the World, and rid thy Hands of thy Sins, and lay-hold on eternal Life? If not, let Conscience tell thee whether thou art not distracted or bewitched, that thou shouldn't neglect so happy a Choice, by which thou mightest be made for ever.

3. God will sette unspeakable Privileges at present upon thee, 1 Cor. iii. 22. Heb. xii. 22, 23, 24. Though the Full of your Blessedness shall be deferred till hereafter, yet God will give you no little Things in Hand.

He will redeem you from your Thraldom, John viii. 36. He will pluck you from the Paw of the Lion, Col. i. 13. The Serpent shall bruise your Heel, but you shall bruise his Head, Gen. iii. 15. He shall deliver you from the present evil World, Gal. i. 4. Prosperity shall not destroy you; Adversity shall not separate between him and you, Rom. viii. 35, 37, 38. He will redeem you from the Power of the Grave, Ps. xlix. 15. and make the King of Terrors a Messenger.
Motives to Conversation.

Fenger of Peace to you. He will take out the Curse from the Cross, P/a. cxix. 71. and make Affliction, the Fining-pot, the Fan, the Physic, to blow off the Chaff, purify the Metal, and purge the Mind, Dan. xii. 10. Isa. xxvii. 9. He will save you from the Arrest of the Law, and turn the Curse into a Blessing to you, Rom. vi. 14. Gal. iii. 24. He hath the Keys of Hell and Death, and shutteth that no Man openeth, Rev. iii. 7. and i. 18. and he will shut its Mouth, as once he did the Lion’s, Dan. vi. 22. that you shall not be hurt of the second Death, Rev. ii. 11.

But he will not only save you from Misery, but install you into unspeakable Prerogatives: He will bestow himself upon you; he will be a Friend unto you, and a Father to you, 2 Cor. vi. 18. He will be a Sun and a Shield to you, P/a. lxxxiv. 11. In a Word, he will be a God to you, Gen. xvii. 7. And what can be said more? What may you expect that a God should do for you, and be to you? that he will be, that he will do. She that marries a Prince expects he should do for her like a Prince, that she may live in a suitable State, and have an answerable Dowry: He that hath a King for his Father, or a Friend, expects he should do for him like a King. Alas! the Kings and Monarchs of the Earth, so much above you, are but like the painted Butterflies amongst the Rest of their Kind, or the fair-coloured Palmer-worm amongst the Rest of the Worms, if compared with God. As he doth infinitely exceed the Glory and Power of his glittering Dust, so he will beyond all Proportion exceed in doing for his Favourites whatever Princes can do for theirs. He will give you Grace and Glory, and withhold no good Thing from you, P/a. lxxxiv. 11. He will take you for his Sons and Daughters, and make you Heirs of his Promises, Heb. vi. 17. and establish his everlasting Covenant with you, Jer. xxxii. 40. He will justify you.
from all that Law, Conscience, Satan, can charge upon you, Rom. viii. 33, 34. He will give you free Access into his Presence, and accept your Person, and receive your Prayers, Ephes. iii. 12. and i. 6. 1 John v. 14. He will abide in you, and make you the Man of his Secrets, and hold a constant and friendly Communion with you, John xviii. 23. and xv. 15. 1 John i. 3. His Ear shall be open, his Door open, his Store open, at all Times, to you. His Blessings shall rest upon you, and he will make your Enemies to serve you, and work about all Things for Good unto you, Psa. exv. 13. Rom. viii. 28.

4. The Terms of Mercy are brought as low as possible to you. God has stooped as low to Sinners as with Honour he can: He will not be thought an Author of Sin, nor stain the Glory of his Holiness; and whether could he come lower than he hath, unless he should do this? He hath abated the impossible Terms of the first Covenant, Jer. iii. 23. Mark v. 36. Acts xvi. 31. and iii. 19. Prov. xxviii. 13. He doth not impose any Thing unreasonable or impossible as a Condition of Life upon you. Two Things were necessary to be done, according to the Tenor of the first Covenant, by you: 1. That you should fully satisfy the Demands of Justice for past Offences. 2. That you should perform, personally, perfectly, and perpetually, the whole Law for the Time to come. Both these are to us impossible, Rom. viii. 3. But behold God's gracious Abatement in both: He doth not stand upon Satisfaction; he is content to take of the Surety (and he of his own providing too) what he might have exacted from you, 2 Cor. v. 19. He declares himself to have received a Ransom, Job xxxiii. 24. 1 Tim. ii. 6. and that he expects Nothing but that you should accept his Son, and he shall be Righteousness and Redemption to you, John i. 12. 1 Cor. i. 30. And, for the future Obedience, here he is content to yield to your Weakness, and omit the Rigour. He doth not stand upon Perfection as a Condition of Life, though he still insists upon it as his Due, but is content to accept of Sincerity, Gen. xvii. 1. Prov. xi. 20. Though you cannot pay the full Debt, he will accept you according to that which you have, and take Willingness for Doing, and the Purpose for the Performance, 2 Cor. viii. 12. 2 Chron. vi. 8. Heb. xi. 17. And, if you come in his Christ, and set your Hearts to please him, and make it the chief of your Care, he will approve and reward you, though the Vessel be marred in your Hands.

Oh! consider your Maker’s Condescension; let me say to you, as Naaman’s Servant to him, My Father, if the Prophet had bid thee do some great Thing, would you not have done it? How much rather when he faith to thee, Wash and be clean! 2 Kings v. 13. If God had demanded some terrible, some severe and rigorous, Thing of you, to escape eternal Damnation, would you not have done it? Suppose it had been to spend all your Days in Sorrow in some howling Wilderness, or pine yourselves with Famine, or to offer the Fruit of your Bodies for the Sin of your Souls, would you not have thankfully accepted eternal Redemption, though these had been the Conditions? Nay farther; if God should have told you, that you should have fried in the Fire for Millions of Ages, or been so long tormented in Hell, would you not have gladly accepted it? Alas! all these are not so much as one Sand in the Glass of Eternity. If your offended Creator should have holden you but one Year upon the Rack, and then bidden you come and forfage your Sins, accept Christ, and serve him a few Years in Self-denial, or lie in this Cage for ever and ever, do you think you should have stuck at the Ofer, and disputed the Terms, and have been unresolved whether you were to accept of the Motion?
Motion? O Sinner, return and live; why shouldst thou die when Life is to be had for the taking, when Mercy seems beholden to thee (as it were) to be saved? Couldst thou say, indeed, Lord, I knew that thou wast an hard Man, Mat. xxv. 24. thou hadst some little Excuse; but, when the God of Heaven has stooped so low, and condescended so far, if now thou shouldst stand off, who shall plead for thee?

Object. Notwithstanding all these Abatements, I am no more able to perform these Conditions (in themselves so easy) of Faith, Repentance, and sincere Obedience, than to satisfy and fulfil the Law.

Answ. These you may perform, by God's Grace enabling; whereas the other are naturally impossible in this State, even to Believers themselves. But let the next Consideration serve for a fuller Answer.

5. Wherein you are impotent, God doth offer Grace to enable you. I have stretched out mine Hand, and no Man regarded, Prov. i. 24. What though you are plunged into the Ditch of that Misery from which you can never get out? Christ offereth to help you out; he reacheth out his Hand to you, and, if you perish, it is for refusing his Help: Behold I stand at the Door and knock; if any Man open to me, I will come in, Rev. iii. 20. What though you are poor, and wretched, and blind, and naked? Christ offereth a Cure for your Blindness, a Covering for your Nakedness, a Remedy for your Poverty; he tenders you his Righteousness, his Grace: I counsel thee to buy of me Gold, that thou mayst be rich; and white Raiment, that thou mayst be clothed; and anoint thy Eyes with Eye-salve, that thou mayst see, Rev. iii. 17, 18. Do you say, the Condition is impossible; for I have not wherewith to buy? You must know that this Buying is without Money and without Price, Isa. lv. 1. This Buying is by begging and
and seeking with Diligence and Constancy in the Use of God's Means, Prov. ii. 3, 4. God commandeth thee to know him and to fear him. Doest thou say, Yea, but my Mind is blinded, and my Heart is hardened from his Fear? I answer, God doth offer to enlighten thy Mind, and to teach thee this Fear, that is presented to thy Choice, Prov. i. 29. For that they hated Knowledge, and did not choose the Fear of the Lord. So that now, if Men live in Ignorance and Estrangement from the Lord, it is because they will not understand and desire the Knowledge of his Ways, Job xxvi. 14. If thou criest after Knowledge, if thou seest her as Silver, &c. then shalt thou understand the Fear of the Lord, and find the Knowledge of God, Prov. ii. 3, 4, 5. Is not here a fair Offer? Turn ye at my Reproof, behold I will pour out my Spirit unto you, Prov. i. 23. Though of yourselves you can do Nothing, yet you may do all through his Spirit enabling you, and he doth offer Assistance to you. God bids you wash and make you clean, Isa. i. 16. You say you are unable, as much as the Leopard to wash out his Spots, Jer. xiii. 23. Yea, but the Lord doth offer to purge you; so that, if you be filthy still, it is through your own Wilfulness, Ezek. xxiv. 13. I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged. Jer. xiii. 27. O Jerusalem, wilt thou not be made clean? When shall it once be? God doth wait when you will be made clean, when you will yield to his Motions, accept of his Offers, and let him do for you, and in you, what you cannot do for yourselves. You do not know how much God will do, upon your Importunity, if you will be but restless and instant with him, Luke xi. 8. and xviii. 5.

Though God hath not bound himself, by express Promise to wicked Men, to give them Grace in the diligent Use of the Means, yet he hath given them Abundance of Encouragement to expect it from him, if they seek it earnestly in his Way. His most gracious
The Conclusion of the Whole.

And now, my Brethren, let me know your Minds: What do you intend to do? will you go on and die? or will you set upon a thorough and speedy Conversion, and lay hold on eternal Life? How long will ye linger in Sodom? How long will ye halt between two Opinions? 1 Kings xviii. 21. Have you not yet resolved whether Christ or Barabbas, whether Bliss or Torment, whether the Land of Cabul, 1 Kings ix. 13. or the Paradise of God, be the better Choice? Is it a disputable Case, whether the Abana and Parbar of Damascus be better than all the Streams of Eden; or whether the vile Puddle of Sin is to be preferred before the Water of Life, clear as Crystal, proceeding out of the Throne of God and of the Lamb? Can the World in good Earnest do that for you that Christ can? Will it stand by you to Eternity? Will Pleasures, Land, Titles, Treasures, descend with you? Ps. xlvi. 17. 1 Tim. vi. 7.

If not, had you not Need look after Somewhat that will? What mean you to stand wavering, to be off and on? Foolish Children! how long will you stick between the Womb and the World? Shall I lead you at last no farther than Agrippa, but almost persuaded: Why, you are for ever lost if left here; as good not at all, as not altogether, Christians. You are half in the Mind to give over your former negligent Life, and set to a strict and holy Course; you could wish you were as some others are, and could do as they can do. How long will you rest in idle Wishes and fruitless Purposes? When will you come to a fixed, firm, and full, Resolve? Do not you see how Satan gulls you, by tempting you to Delays? How long hath he tolled you on in the Way of Perdition! How many Years have you been purposing to mend! What if God should have taken you off this while!

Well, put me not off with a dilatory Answer: Tell me not of hereafter; I must have your immediate Consent: If you be not now resolved, while the Lord is treating with you and courting you, much less are you like to be hereafter, when these Impressions are worn out, and you are hardened through the Deceitfulness of Sin. Will you give me your Hands? Will you set open the Door, and give the Lord Jesus the full and ready Possession? Will you put your Names unto his Covenant? Will you subscribe? What do you resolve upon? If you are still upon upon your Delays, my Labour is lost, and all is like to come to Nothing. Fain I would that you should now put in your Adventures. Come, cast in your Lot; make your Choice. Now is the accepted Time; now is the Day of Salvation: To-day if you will hear his Voice. Why should not this be the Day whence thou shouldst be able to date thy Happiness? Why shouldst thou venture a Day longer in this dangerous and dreadful Condition? What if God should this Night require thy Soul! Oh! that thou mightest know, in this thy Day, the Things that belong to thy Peace, before they be hid from thy Eyes! Luke xix. 42. This is thy Day, and it is but a Day, John ix. 4. Others have had their Day, and have received their Doom, and now art thou brought upon the Stage of this World, here to act thy Part for the whole Eternity. Remember, thou art now upon thy good Behaviour for everlastig; if thou make not a wise Choice now, thou art undone for ever. Look what thy present Choice is; such must thine eternal Condition be, Luke x. 42. and xvi. 25. Prov. i. 27.

And is it true indeed? Are Life and Death at thy Choice? Yea, it is as true as Truth is, Deut. xiii. 14. Why then, what hinders but that thou shouldst be happy? Nothing doth or can hinder, but thine own willful Neglect or Refusal. It was the Passage of the Eunuch to Philip: See here is Water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? So I may say to thee, See, here is Christ, here is Mercy, Pardon, Life; what hinders but that thou shouldst be pardoned and saved? One of the Martyrs, as he was praying at the Stake, had his Pardon set by him in a Box (which indeed he refused deservedly, because upon unworthy Terms); but here the Terms are most honourable and easy. O Sinner! wilt thou burn with thy Pardon by thee? Why, do but forthwith give up thy Consent.
The Conclusion.

sent to Christ, to renounce thy Sins, deny thyself, take up the Yoke and the Cross, and thou carriest the Day; Christ is thine; Pardon, Peace, Life, Blessedness, are all thine: And is not this an Offer worth embracing? Why shouldst thou hesitate or doubtfully dispute about the Case? Is it not past Controversy whether God be better than Sin, and Glory than Vanity? Why shouldst thou forfake thy own Mercy, and sin against thy own Life? When wilt thou shake off thy Sloth, and lay by thine Excuses? Boast not thyself of to-morrow; thou knowest not where this Night may lodge thee, Prov. xxvii. 1.

Beloved, now the Holy Spirit is striving with you; he will not always strive. Hast thou not felt thine Heart warmed by the Word, and been almost persuaded to leave off thy Sins and come in to God? Hast thou not felt some good Motions in thy Mind, wherein hast been warned of thy Danger, and told what thy careless Course would end in? It may be thou art like young Samuel, who, when the Lord called once and again, knew not the Voice of the Lord, 1 Sam. iii. 6, 7. but these Motions and Items are the Offers, and Essays, and Callings, and Strivings, of the Spirit: Oh! take the Advantage of the Tide, and know the Day of thy Visitation.

Now the Lord Jesus stretcheth wide his Arms to receive you; he beseecheth you by us. How movingly, how meltingsly, how pitifully, how compassionately, he calleth! The Church is put into a sudden Ecstasy upon the Sound of his Voice, the Voice of my Beloved, Cant. ii. 8. Oh! wilt thou turn a deaf Ear to his Voice? Is it not the Voice that breaketh the Cedars, and maketh the Mountains to skip like a Calf; that shaketh the Wilderness, and divideth the Flames of Fire? It is not Sinai's Thunder, but a soft and still Voice: It is not the Voice of Mount Ebal, a Voice of Cursing and Terror, but the Voice of Mount Genezareth.
The Conclusion.

The Voice of Blessing and glad Tidings of good Things: It is not the Voice of the Trumpet, nor the Voice of War, but a Message of Peace from the King of Peace, Eph. vi. 15. 2 Cor. v. 18, 20. Methinks it should be with thee as with the Spouse; My Soul failed when he spake, Cant. v. 6. I may say to thee, O Sinner, as Martha to her Sister, The Master is come, and he calleth for thee, John xi. 28. Oh, now, with Mary, arise quickly, and come unto him. How sweet are his Invitations! he crieth in the open Court, If any Man thirst, let him come unto me and drink, John vii. 37. Prov. i. 21. He broaches his own Body for thee; O! come and lay thy Mouth to his Side. How free is he! he excludeth none: Whosoever will, let him come and take the Water of Life freely, Rev. xxii. 17. Whoso is simple, let him turn in kither. Come, eat of my Bread, drink of the Wine that I have mingled. Forsake the foolish and live, Prov. ix. 4, 5, 6. Come unto me, &c. take my Yoke upon you, and learn of me, and ye shall find Rest to your Souls, Mat. xi. 28, 29. Him that cometh to me I will in so Wise cast out, John vi. 37. How doth he bemoan the obstinate Refuser! O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! how often would I have gathered thy Children, as a Hen gathereth her Chickens under her Wings, and ye would not, Mat. xxiii. 37. Behold me, behold me; I have stretched out my Hands all the Day to a rebellious People, Isa. lxv. 1, 2. Oh! be persuaded now at last to throw yourselves into the Arms of Love.

Behold, O ye Sons of Men, the Lord Jesus hath thrown open the Prison, and now he cometh to you, (as the Magistrates once to them, Acts xvi. 39.) and beseecheth you to come out. If it were from a Palace or Paradise that Christ did call you, it were no Wonder if you were unwilling; (and yet how easily was Adam toiled from thence!) but it is from your Prison, Sirs, from your Chains, from the Dungeon, Dungeon, from the Darkness, that he calleth you,

 Isa. xlii. 6, 7. and yet will you not come? He calls you unto Liberty, Gal. v. 13. and yet will you not hearken? His Yoke is easy, his Laws are Liberty, his Service is Freedom, Mat. xi. 30. Jam. i. 25. 1 Cor. vii. 22. and, (whatever Prejudices you have against his Ways,) if a God may be believed, you shall find them all Pleasure and Peace, and shall taste Sweetness and Joy unutterable, and take infinite Delight and Felicity in them, Prov. iii. 17. Psa. cxix. 103, 111, 165. 1 Pet. i. 8.

Beloved, I am lothe to leave you; I cannot tell how to give you over. I am now ready to shut up, but fain I would drive this Bargain between Christ and you before I end. What! shall I leave you as I found you at last? Have you read hitherto, and not yet resolved upon a present abandoning all your Sins, and closing with Jesus Christ? Alas! what shall I say? what shall I do? Will you turn off all my Importunity? Have I run in vain? have I used so many Arguments, and spent so much Time, to persuade you, and you must sit down at last in Disappointment? But it is a small Matter that you turn me off; you put a Slight upon the God that made you; you reject the Bowels and Befeechings of a Saviour, and will be found Reffisters of the Holy Ghost, Acts vii. 51. if you will not now be prevailed with to repent and be converted.

Well, though I have called you long, and you have refused, I shall yet this once more lift up my Voice like a Trumpet, and cry from the highest Places of the City, before I conclude with a miserable conclamatum est. Once more I shall call after regardless Sinners, that (if it be possible) I may awaken them: O Earth, Earth, Earth, hear the Word of the Lord, Jer. xxii. 29. Unless you be resolved to die, lend your Ears to the last Calls of Mercy. Behold, in the Name of God, I make open Proclamation to you:

Hearken
Hearken unto me, O ye Children; hear Instruction, and be wise and refuse it not, Prov. viii. 32, 33.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the Waters; and be that hath no Money, come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy Wine and Milk without Money and without Price. Wherefore do ye spend your Money for that which is not Bread, and your Labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your Soul delight itself in Fatness. Incline your Ear, and come unto me; hear, and your Soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting Covenant with you, even the sure Mercies of David, Isa. iv. 2, 3.

Ho, every one that is sick of any Manner of Disease or Torment, Mat. iv. 23, 24. or is possessed with an evil Spirit, whether of Pride, Fury, Lust, or Covetousness, come ye to the Physician, bring away your sick; lo, here is he that healeth all Manner of Sicknesses, and all Manner of Diseases, among the People.

Ho, every one that is in Debt, and every one that is in Distress, and every one that is discontented, gather yourselves unto Christ, and he will become a Captain over you, he will be your Protection from the Arrests of the Law, he will save you from the Hand of Justice. Behold, he is an open Sanctuary to you; he is a known Refuge, Heb. vi. 18. Ps. xlviii. 3. Away with your Sins, and come in unto him, lest the Avenger of Blood seize you, lest devouring Wrath overtake you.

Ho, every ignorant Sinner, come and buy Eye-salve, that thou mayst see, Rev. iii. 18. Away with thy Excuses; thou art for ever lost if thou continuest in this State, 2 Cor. iv. 3. But accept of Christ for thy Prophet, and he will be a Light unto thee, Isa. xlii. 6. Eph. v. 14. Cry unto him for Knowledge, study his Word, take Pains about the Principles of Religion, humble thyself before him, and he will teach thee

Ho, every profane Sinner, come in and live: Return unto the Lord, and he will have Mercy on thee; be entreated. Oh! return, come: Thou that hast filled thy Mouth with Oaths and Execrations, all Manner of Sins and Blasphemies shall be forgiven thee, Matt. iii. 28. if thou wilt but thoroughly turn unto Christ and come in. Though thou wert as unclean as Magdalen, yet put away thy Whoredoms out of thy Sight, and thy Adulteries from between thy Breasts, and give up thyself unto Christ, as a Vessel of Holiness, alone for his Use; and then, though thy Sins be as Scarlet, they shall be as Wool; and, though they be as Crimson, they shall be as white as Snow, Luke vii. 47. Isaiah i. 18.

Hear, O ye Drunkards; how long will ye be drunk-en? put away your Wine, 1 Sam. i. 14. Though you have rolled in the Vomit of your Sin, take the Vomit of Repentance, and heartily disgorge your beloved Luft, and the Lord will receive you, 2 Cor. vi. 17. Give up yourselves unto Christ, to live soberly, righ-teously, and godly; embrace his Righteousness; accept his Government; and, though you have been Swine, he will wash you, Rev. i. 5.

Hear, O ye loose Companions, whose Delight is in vain and wicked Society, to sport away your Time in carnal Mirth and Jollity with them; come in at Wisdom's Call, and choose her and her Ways, and you shall live, Prov. ix. 5, 6.

Hear, O ye Scorners, hear the Word of the Lord; though you make a Sport at Holiness and the Professors thereof, though you have made a Scorn of Christ
Christ and of his Ways, yet even to you doth he call, to gather you under the Wings of his Mercy, Prov. i. 22, 23. In a Word, though you should be found among the worst of the black Roll, 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10. yet, upon your thorough Conversion, you shall be washed; you shall be justified; you shall be sanctified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God, ver. 11.

Ho, every formal Professor; thou art but a luke-warm, dough-baked, Christian, and refeft in the Form of Godliness: Give over thy Halving and thy Halting; be a throughout Christian, and be zealous and repent; and then, though thou hadst been an Offence to Christ's Stomach, thou shalt be the Joy of his Heart, Rev. iii. 16, 19, 20.

And now bear Witness that Mercy hath been offered you: I call Heaven and Earth to Record against you this Day, that I have set before you Life and Death, Blessing and Cursing; therefore choose Life, that you may live, Deut. xxx. 19. I can but woo and warn you; I cannot compel you to be happy; if I could, I would. What Answer will you send me with to my Master? Let me speak to you as Abraham's Servant to them, And now, if you will deal kindly and truly with my Master, tell me, Gen. xxiv. 49. Oh, for such a happy Answer as Rebecca gave them! ver. 57, 58. And they said, we will call the Damsel, and enquire at her Mouth; and they called Rebecca, and said unto her, wilt thou go with this Man? and she said, I will go. O that I had but this from you! why Should I be your Accuser, Mat. x. 14, 15. who thirst for your Salvation? why Should the passionate Pleadings and Wooing of Mercy be turned into the horrid Aggravation of your Obstinacy, and Additions to your Misery? Judge in yourselves: Do you not think their Condemnation will be doubly dreadful that shall still go on in their Sins, after all Endeavours to recalthem? Doubtless it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon, yea, for Sodom and Gomorrah, in the Day of Judgement, than for you, Matt. xi. 22, 24.

Beloved, if you have any Pity for your perishing Souls, close with the present Offers of Mercy: If you would not continue and increase the Pains of your travailing Ministers, do not stick in the Birth. If the God that made you have any Authority with you, obey his Command, and come in. If you are not the Despisers of Grace, and would not shut up the Doors of Mercy against yourselves, repent and be converted; let not Heaven stand open for you in vain; let not the Lord Jesus open his Wares, and bid you buy without Money and without Price in vain; let not his Ministers and his Spirit strive with you in vain, and leave you now at last unpersuaded, left the Sentence go forth against you: The Bellows are burnt; the Lead is consum'd of the Fire; the Founder melteth in vain; reprobate Silver shall Men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them, Jer. vi. 29, 30.

Father of Spirits, take the Heart in Hand that is too hard for my Weakness: Do not thou end, though I have done: Half a Word from thy effectual Power will do the Work. O thou that hast the Key of David, that openest and no Man shuttest, open thou this Heart, as thou didst Lydia's, and let the King of Glory enter in, and make this Soul thy Captive; let not the Tempter harden him in Delays; let him not stir from this Place, nor take his Eyes from these Lines, till he resolve to forego his Sins, and accept of Life on thy self-denying Terms. In thy Name, O Lord God, did I go forth to these Labours; in thy Name do I shut them up. Let not all the Time they have cost be lost Hours; let not all the Thoughts of the Heart, and all the Pains that have been about them, be but lost Labour. Lord, put in thy Hand into the Heart of this Reader, and send thy Spirit, as once thou didst Philip, to join himself to the Chariot of
of the Eunuch, while he was reading the Word:

And, though I should never know it while I live, yet I beseech thee, O Lord God, let it be found at that Day that some Souls are converted by these Labours; and let some be able to stand forth and say, that, by these Persuasions, they were won unto

Mr. Alleine's Counsel for personal and Family Godliness.

Beloved, I despair of ever bringing you to Salvation without Sanctification, or possessing you of Happiness without persuading you to Holiness.
God knows, I have not the least Hope ever to see one of your Faces in Heaven, except you be converted and sanctified, and exercise yourselves unto Godliness: I beseech you, study personal Godliness and Family Godliness.

1. Personal Godliness. Let it be your first Care to set up Christ in your Hearts; see that you make all your worldly Interests to stoop to him; that you be entirely and unreservedly devoted unto him. If you wilfully, and deliberately, and ordinarily, harbour any Sin, you are undone, Ps. lxviii. 21. Ezek.
xviii. 20. See that you unfeignedly take the Law of Christ as the Rule of your Words, Thoughts, and Actions, and subject your whole Man, Members, and Minds, faithfully to him, Ps. cxix. 34. Rom. vi. 13.
If you have not a true Respect to all God's Commandments, you are unsound at Heart, Ps. cxix. 6.
Oh, study to get the Image and Impress of Christ upon you within. Begin with your Hearts; else you build without any Foundation. Labour to get a saving Change within, or else all external Performances will be to no Purpose; and then study to shew forth the Power of Godliness in the Life.

1 4. Let
Let Pity be your first and great Business; it is the highest Point of Justice to give God his Due. Be¬ ware that none of you be a prayerless Person; for that is a most certain Discovery that you are a Christ¬less and graceless Person, or one that is a very Stranger to the Fear of God, Psa. v. 7. Suffer not your Bibles to gather Dust: See that you converse daily with the Word, John v. 39. That Man Can never lay Claim to Blessedness whose Delight is not in the Law of the Lord, Psa. i. 1, 2. Let Meditation and Self-examination be your daily Ex¬ ercife.

But Piety without Charity is but the Half of Christianty, or rather impious Hypocrify. We may not divide the Tables; see therefore that you do justly, and love Mercy, and let Equity and Charity run like an even Thread throughout all your Dealings. Be you temperate in all Things, and let Chastity and Sobriety be your undivided Com¬ panions. Let Truth and Purity, Seriousness and Modesty, Heaviness and Gravity, be the constant Ornament of your Speech. Let Patience and Humi¬ li ty, Simplicity and Sincerity, shine out in all the Parts of your Conversations. See that you forget and forgive Wrongs, and requite them with Kind¬ ness, as you would be found the Children of the Most High. Be merciful in your Censures, and put the most favourable Construction upon your Brethrens Carriage that their Actions will reasonably bear.
Be slow in promising; punctual in fulfilling. Let Meekness and Innocence, Affableness, Yieldingness, and Simplicity, commend your Conversations to all Men. Let none of your Relations want that Love and Loyalty, Reverence and Duty, that Tenderness, Care, and Vigilance, which their several Places and Capacities call for. This is thorough Godliness. I charge you, before the most high God, that none of you
you be found a Swearer, or a Liar, or a Lover of evil Company, or a Scoffer, or malicious, or covetous, or a Drunkard, or a Glutton, unrighteous in his Dealing, unclean in his Living, or a Quarreler, or a Thief; or a Backbiter, or a Railer; for I denounce unto you, from the living God, that Destruction and Damnation are the End of all such, Prov. xiii. 20. Jam. v. 12. Rev. xxi. 8. 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10. Gal. v. 19, 20, 21.

2. Family Godliness. He that hath set up Christ in his Heart will be sure to study to set him up in his House. Let every Family with you be a Christian Church; 1 Cor. xvi. 19. every House a House of Prayer: Let every Householder say, with Joshua, 1 and my House will serve the Lord, Josh. xxiv. 15. and resolve, with David, I will walk in my House with a perfect Heart. Psal. ci. 8. Let me press upon you a few Duties in general.

First, Let Religion be in your Families, not as a Matter by the by, (to be minded at Leisure, when the World will give you Leave,) but the standing Business of the House: Let them have your Prayers as duly as their Meals. Are there any of your Families but have Time for their taking Food? wretched Man! canst thou not find Time to pray in?

Secondly, Settle it upon your Hearts that your Souls are bound up in the Souls of your Family: They are committed unto you; and, if they be lost through your Neglect, they will be required at your Hands. Sirs, if you do not, you shall, know, that the Charge of Souls is a heavy Charge, and that the Blood of Souls is a heavy Guilt. O Man, hast thou a Charge of Souls to answer for, and dost thou not yet betir thyself for them, that their Blood be not found in thy Skirts? Wilt thou do no more for immortal Souls than thou wilt do for the Beasts that perish? What dost thou do for thy Children?
and Servants? Thou provdest Meat and Drink for them agreeable to their Nature; and dost thou not the same for thy Beasts? Thou givest them Medicines and cherishest them when they are sick; and dost thou not the same for thy Swine? More particularly,

2. Let every Person in your Families be duly called to an Account of their Profiting by the Word, heard or read, as they are about doing your own Business: This is a Duty of Consequence unspeakable, and would be the Means to bring those under your Charge to remember and profit by what they receive. See Christ’s Example in calling his Family to Account, Matt. xvi. 11, 13, 15.

3. Often take an Account of the Souls under your Care, concerning their Spiritual States; [herein you must be Followers of Christ, Mat. xiii. 10, 36, 51. Mark iv. 10, 11.] make Enquiry into their Condition; insist much upon the Sinfulness and Misery of their natural State, and upon the Necessity of Regeneration and Conversion, in Order to their Salvation. Admonish them gravely of their Sins; encourage their Beginnings; follow them earnestly; and let them have no Quiet for you, until you see them in a saving Change. This is a Duty of very great Consequence, but (I am afraid) most fearfully neglected. Doth not Conscience say, Thou art the Man?

4. Look to the strict Sanctifying of the Sabbath by all your Household, Exod. xx. 10. Levit. xxiii. 3. Many poor Families have little Time else. O improve but your Sabbath-days as diligently, in labouring ing for Knowledge, and doing your Maker's Work, as you do the other Days in doing your own Work, and I doubt not but you may come to some Proficiency.

5. Let the Morning and Evening Sacrifice of solemn Prayer be daily offered up in all your Families, Psal. xcii. 1, 2. Exod. xxx. 7, 8. Luke i. 9, 10. Beware ye be not found among the Families that call not upon God's Name; for why should there be Wrath from the Lord upon your Families? Jer. x. 25. O miserable Families, without God in the World, that are without Family Prayer! What! have you so many Family Sins, Family Wants, Family Mercies; what! and yet no Family Prayers! How do you pray with all Prayer and Supplication, if you do not with Family Prayer? Ephes. vi. 18. Say not, I have no Time. What! hast thou not all thy Time on Purpose to serve God and save thy Soul, and yet is this it for which thou canst find no Time? Find but a Heart, and I will find Time. Pinch out of your Meals and Sleep rather than want for Prayer: Say not, my Business will not give Leave; this is the greatest Business, to save thyself and the Souls committed to thee. Business! a Whet will be no Let. In a Word, the Blessing of all is to be got by Prayer, Jer. xxix. 11, 12. 2 Sam. vii. 29. and what is thy Business without God's Blessing? Say not, I am not able: Use the one Talent, and God will increase, Matt. xxv. 24, &c. Helps are to be had till thou art better able. But, if there be no other Remedy, thou must join with thine abler Neighbour; God hath special Regard to joint Prayer, Jam. v. 4, to 19. Acts xiii. 5, 10, 12. 2 Cor. i. 11. and therefore you must improve Family Advantages for the Performing of it.

6. Put every one in your Families upon private Prayer. Observe whether they do perform it. Get them the Help of a Form, if they need it; till they are:
are able to go without it. Direct them how to pray, by reminding them of their Sins, Wants, and Mercies, the Materials of Prayer. This was the Practice of John and of Jesus, Luke xi. 1, 2, &c.

7. Set up Catechising in your Families, at the least once every Week. Have you no Dread of the Almighty's Charge, that you should teach these Things diligently to your Children, and talk of them as you sit in your Houses? Deut. vi. 6, 7, &c. and train them up in the Way wherein they should go, Prov. xxii. 6. Hath God so commended Abraham, that he would teach his Children and Household, Gen. xviii. 19. and that he had many instructed Servants, Gen. xiv. 14. (see the Margin,) and given such a Promise to him thereupon, and will you not put in for a Share, neither in the Praise nor the Promise? Hath Christ honoured Catechising with his Presence, Luke ii. 46. and will you not own it with your Practice? Say not, they are careless and will not learn: What have you your Authority for, if not to use it for God and the Good of their Souls? You will call them up, and force them to do your Work; and should you not at least be as zealous in putting them upon God's Work? Say not, they are dull, and are not capable: If they be dull, God requires of you the more Pains and Patience: But, so dull as they are, you will make them learn how to work; and can they not learn how to live? Are they capable of the Mysteries of your Trade, and are they not capable of the plain Principles of Religion? Well, as ever you would see the Growth of Religion, the Cure of Ignorance, the Remedy of Profaneness, the Downfall of Error, fulfil you my Joy, in going through with this Duty.

Will you answer the Calls of divine Providence? Would you remove the incumbent, or prevent the impending, Calamities? Would you plant Nurseries for the Church of God? Would you that God should Should build your Houses and bless your Substance? Would you that your Children should bless you? O then set up Piety in your Families, as ever you would be blessed or be a Blessing: Let your Hearts and your Houses be the Temples of the living God, in which his Worship (according to all the afore-mentioned Directions) may be with Constancy reverently performed. Prov. xxix. 1. He that, being often reproved, hardeneth his Neck, shall suddenly be destroyed; and that without Remedy. Oh! be wise in Time, that you be not miserable to Eternity.

CHAP. I.

The singular Duties of Christians.

Q. I. Wherein should Christians be singular in their Obedience? or what may and must they do more than others?

A. Take
A. Take the Answer of these sixteen Rules, containing the Character and Compass of a Christian.

Rule I. Heartily to love them that slight you, and to wish and seek the Good of those that hate you and seek to hurt you. This is the very Thing urged in the Text: If you salute your Brethren only, and love them that love you, do not even the Publicans the same? Mat. v. 44, 46. To love them that do respect and value us is what every one can do; but to love them that think meanly of us and have Prejudice and hard Thoughts against us, and to speak well of them that speak Evil of us, (as the sweet-spirited Calvin,) [Let Luther call me Dog or Devil, I will say of him, nevertheless, he is a precious Servant of Christ Jesus,] this is to do more than others. Thus the Martyr Cranmer, of whom it was a Proverb, 'Do the Bishop of Canterbury a Displeasure, and you shall ever have him your Friend.' Thus that holy Man, in his much to be lamented parting Words, 'I had never any greater Pleasure, in all my Life, than to forget and forgive Injuries, and to shew 'Kindness to them that fought Evil to me.' Study who have offended and disoblige d you and slighted you, and keep up good Thoughts of them, (if the Cause will bear it,) and speak Nothing but Good of them, and think what Kindness you may shew them. Pray for them; wish well for them: so shall you be the Children of your Father which is in Heaven, Matt. v. 45.

Rule II. To swim against the Stream of the Multitude. The dead Fish will swim with, but the living against, the Stream. Many will turn Jews when their Interest will carry it in the World; when Religion is in Fashion, every one will be in it: But to bear Head against the Current of the Times, and to be for strict Godliness in all your Ways, when the Stream runs quite against it, to bear it down, and to resolve, as David David did, to be yet more vile, this is to be and to do more than others. The Samaritans will needs be Jews when Alexander favours and helps them; but, when Antiochus bloodily rages against them, (as in the Time of the Maccabees,) then they will be none of the Kin, but pretend themselves to be of another Stock (which, by the Way, was the Reason of the deadly Hatred afterwards between the Jews and them); but to be singular in your good Choice and Resolutions, with Joshua, though all should vote against you with one Consent; and, with Noah, to be perfect in our Generations when ever so adulterous, and to walk with God when all Flesh have corrupted their Way and tread a contrary Course; this is to do more than others. Thus, the three Children, or rather three Champions, who would not fear the Flouts of the Multitude, nor the Frowns of the great ones, nor the Charge of Singularity, but, when all the Princes, Governors, Captains, Counsellors, Sheriffs, and all the People, Nations, and Languages, fell down and worshipped, flood by themselves, and would not sinfully comply, Dan. iii. 3, 7, 18.

Rule III. To take more Care of that which is most out of Sight. A Christian's Eye is most on the Things least seen: first upon his Heart; herein he doth exceed the Righteousness of the Pharisees, whose great Care was to keep all fair and clean that came to View, but looked no farther. Make great Conscience of your Carriage in Secret, and let your main Guard be upon your Hearts, and this will be more than others reach to. This was Paul's Care, to keep his Conscience, his Inside, clean and undefiled, Acts xxiv. 16, and Job's Care, that, though all the World did reproach him, he might not put a Reproach in the Mouth of his Conscience. Job xxvii. 6. and David's Care, that his Heart might be clean. Secondly, on his Hope. Others look to the Things seen, Things in Hand; but the true Believer liever eyes his Hopes, walks by Faith, not by Sight, and lives a quite different Life from any others in the World besides; as living upon the Hopes of Heaven doth differ from living on the Pleasures, Profits, and Honours of the World.

Rule IV. To be merciful to others Failing, and very severe to our own. The noble Roman, Cato, could more easily forgive any than himself. To aggravate our own Evils, and so have an Excuse ready for our Brother’s, and to cenfure ourselves freely, and to come with the Mantle behind us to cover our Brother, this is to do more than others. The Hypocrite is a Censor abroad; he is like the Eye that can see any Thing but himself; he can discern a Moat in his Brother’s Eye, but not a Beam in his own. But the Servant of God rebukes others with Meekness; but he falls out easily and bitterly with himself.

Rule V. To suffer rather than to sin. This was Moses’s Choice; but the Hypocrite’s is quite contrary; he chooseth Iniquity rather than Affliction. To go so far with Christ as our Way lies together is to do no more than an unsound Professor may reach to; the Trial is, when Christ’s Interest and ours do cross, and we must either balk our Duty or our Safety and Advantage. The famous Martyr under Julian would not give one Halfpenny towards the Building of the Idol’s Temple, though he was offered his Life by the Emperor on those Terms. The godly High-priest Eleazar, when the Nobles persuaded him to eat other Meat under Colour of Swine’s Flesh, and they would persuade King Antiochus that he had eaten Swine’s Flesh, would die rather than stain his Profession with the Appearance of Evil. When a Man shall lie in outward Misery, and have a Door of Deliverance open, if he will but sin, and yet he will not accept of it, as those Worthies in Paul’s Martyrology, this is to do more than others.

Rule-
Rule VI. To rejoice in Losses for Christ, and glory in the Cross. When others are discouraged at the News of Hardship, as that forward and seemingly resolute Disciple; or shall be offended as soon as the Sun of Persecution is up; when we shall take Pleasure in Infirmities, in Tribulations, and rejoice that we are counted worthy to suffer Shame for the Name of Christ? this is to do more than others. When the Servants of God shall not only patiently and triumphantly undergo the Crosses that crack the Brains, the Heart, of others, and shall shake off the Viper without receiving any Hurt; when Paul and Silas shall sing in the Stocks, and the resolute Martyrs shall embrace the Faggots and kiss the Stake; when the valiant Pilot shall say of his Prison, In the Judgment of the World we are in Hell, but I find in it the sweet Consolation of Heaven; and the holy Bradford, My Prison is sweeter to me than any Parlour, than any Pleasure I have had all my Life; this is indeed to exceed others.

Rule VII. To be good when we shall be evil spoken of for our Labour. A Pharisee will do those Duties that gain Applause of Men; but, to take up with despised Duties, disgraceful Duties, and, with David, to be religious when it shall render him vile, this is to do more than others. The Philosopher could say, It is noble indeed for a Man to do well, when he knows be shall bear ill for it. To take up Religion when every one kicks it off; to stand up alone, with Luther, for the Truth, when the whole World is gone wandering after the Whore; to have his Hand against every Man, and to be for Christ, with Athanasius, against the whole Universe; this is indeed to do some singular Thing.

Rule VIII. To strike in with God's Interest when it is falling: To join ourselves with the Lord's People when when it is the weakest; to espouse their Interest, with Moses, when they were in deep Affliction, Heb. xi. 25, 26. To own ourselves to be some of them undauntedly, when this Way is every where spoken against, this is to tread Antipodes to the Course of this World.

Rule IX. To be most cruel to the Sin that is naturally most dear. The Hypocrite hides his sweet Morsel under his Tongue; he spares, as it were, the fattest of the Cattle; he faith, The Lord pardon his Servant concerning this Thing; but, when a Man shall off with his right Hand, out with his right Eye, serve his Absalom as Joab did when he took three Darts and thrust through his Heart, this is to do more than others. The sincere Chriftian is most angry with the Sin of his Temper; against this he aims the Arrows of all his Prayer. He keeps him from his Iniquity; he drives the whole Herd of Sin before him; but especially he shoots at, and singles out, this, to run it down.

Rule X. To live upon the divine Promises, when others live upon their Possessions. Others are all for what is in Hand; with them Words are but Wind; they cannot live upon them; the Promises are to them a barren Heath and dry Breasts: But, when we make the Promises our Heritage, the Staff of our Life, the Life of our Hearts; when the Promises are the Bottle we run to in all our Fainting; and, while others hope in their Wealth, our Hope is in the Word; this is to do more than others.

Rule XI. To love that best, and choose it foonest, that doth cross the Flesh most. The godly Man's Rule is, to take the Self-denial Side, so he be sure it be safe. When others study to please themselves, he to curb himself: The Life of others is a Flesh-pleasing, his a Self-denying, Life: Others Joy is when they can gratify themselves; his, when he can get the Victory over himself.

Rule
Rule XII. To be most hot in that wherein Self is least concerned. Paul is meek as a Lamb under personal Injuries, 1 Cor. iv. 13. Acts xvii. 16. but how is his Spirit stirred when God is dishonoured! A Man of Understanding is of a cool Spirit, that is in his own Concern; but Moses the meek waxes hot with Indignation at the Sight of the Calf. To be hot and forward in those Duties where the Flesh's Interest is not concerned is to do more than a Jehu, 2 Kings x. 16, 30.

Rule XIII. To make a true Conscience of the least Sin, but most Conscience of the greatest. In one of these will the Hypocrite be found tardy. It may be he will fly from open Sins, and startle at gross staring Sins, but of little Sins he makes little Conscience; these he allows of, and connives at: Or else he will be very tender of little Things, scruple the Picking of Ears of Corn on the Sabbath-day, or the 'Curing' of the sick, and strain at the Gnat, when he will in other Things swallow a Camel and devour Widows Houses. The sincere will indulge no Sin; grieves for, groans under, cries out feelingly against, his very Infirmities; but most dreads what God hates.

Rule XIV. To allow yourselves in the Neglick of no Duty, but to reserve your Zeal for the Duties of most Weight. To tithe the Mint and Cummin, and neglect Judgement, Mercy, and Faith; to be zealous for human Ceremonies and Mens Traditions, and omit the weightier Matters of the Law, is the right Pharisees Guife, Mat. xxiii. 23. and xv. 2. To eye both the Tables; to join sweetly together Morality and Piety; to be punctual with Men, but not careless with God; to give Caesar the Things that are Caesar's, but first to give to God the Things that are God's; this is to do more than others. The sincere Christian has Respect to all God's Commandments; walks in all his Statutes; he is throughout with God, but he is most zealous.
zealous in these Things that lie next the Heart of Religion.

Rule XV. To love your Reprovers. Herein David doth more than Abab: See their contrary Frames, 1 Kings xxii. 8. Psal. cxli. 5.

Rule XVI. To subject all your worldly Interest to your Maker's Glory, and perform holy Duties with holy Ends; and, while others do their best Actions with carnal Aims, you must do your common and civil Actions with heavenly Aims.

Q. How may we know whether we are, and do, more than others that are unsound?

I shall answer this Question by propounding eight Questions to you, beseeching you to retire to the most solemn and strict Examination, and make Conscience give a clear Answer to these few Interrogatories; and that will resolve the Case.

Q. 1. When others pick and choose, have you Respect to all God's Commandments? The Hypocrite may have great Respect to the Comforts, but he hath little to the Commands, of Religion: He is much for the Privileges and Promises, little for the Precepts and Duties: He is partial in the Law; he will take but here and there, where he likes, and where God commands; will sever his Interest, or at least will not pinch too hard upon the Flesh. The sound Christian sets all God's Commands before him; he eyes all his Copy, and heartily designs and studies a throughout Conformity; he has no starting Holes, no contrived Haunts; nor doth he halt between the Lord and Baal, nor serve two Masters; he doth not fear the Lord and serve other Gods, nor divide his Service between God and Mammon, but is all for Uniformity, and entirely devoted to God's Service and Fear alone: He hath a good Conscience, willing in all Things
Things to live honestly, and doth truly, though not perfectly, forsake all his Sins, and keep all God's Statutes that are known to him. Let me therefore ask you two Questions: (1.) When others divide the Tables, do you sweetly conjoin them in your Practice? The Hypocrite may be just and square towards Men; but follow him to his Family or Closet, you shall find but little of God; his Family is neglected, his Soul is neglected: Or it may be he is a forward first Table Man, but you shall find him tardy in the second: He will make many and long Prayers, yet make no Conscience of devouring Widows Houses: He is a great Pretender to Piety, but mean-while neglects Judgement and Mercy. The sincere joins all together: He is so far careful of Justice with Men, that mean-while he will not neglect the first and great Part of Justice, viz. to give God his Due: He doth Justice, he loves Mercy, but withal walks humbly with God: He walketh soberly with Respect to himself, righteously towards his Neighbour, and godly towards his Maker. He is not one of those that are good only on their Knees, but you shall find him everywhere conscientious; you shall have Temperance on his Table, Chastity and Modesty in his Behaviour, Grace and Truth in his Words, Charity in his Deeds, Faithfulness in his Trust, Justice in his Dealing. He doth not only seem to be religious, but bridleth his Tongue; he is not only a good Christian, but a good Neighbour; not only a good Man, but a good Husband, a good Master, a dutiful Child, a diligent and faithful Servant, a good Subject. In a Word, he makes great Conscience of discharging the Duties of his Relations among Men. (2.) When others stick in Externals, do you look to the Spiritual Part of every Command, and principally mind the Inwards and Vitals of Religion; do you not only make Conscience of performing Duties, but do you carefully carefully look to the Manner of performing them, and the Ends for which you do perform them? Do you not only make Conscience of open, but of secret, Sins? Do you abound, above all, in secret Duties? Do you keep a Watch upon your Hearts, and make Conscience not only of the gross Acts of Sin, but even of sinful Thoughts, Inclinations, and Desires? and are you grieved even with your Infirmities, and the corrupt Disposition of your Natures, which you cannot help though you would?

Q. II. When others have their Reserves in closing with Christ, do you give up all to him entirely? Have you taken Christ (not Hand over Head, but) deliberately, understandingly, sitting down first and counting the Cost? Have you not secret Reserves for your own Ease, Safety, Estate, some esteemed, beloved, Sin? Have you, upon solemn Consideration, accepted Christ as the Lord your Righteousness, for better for worse, for all Changes of Times and Conditions; to run all Hazards with him, and to take your Lot with him, fall as it will?

Q. III. When others are for a little Religion by the by, do you make Religion your Business? Do you not put off God with the World’s Leaving, and serve him when you are at Leisure? Must not God stand by, while the World is first served? and are not your Souls the least of your Cares, and put off with some By-scrapes and Ends of your Time? Is Religion your Trade, and your Conversation in Heaven? Do you walk with God? or have you only now and then a Turn with him? When you have ended your Prayers, is there an End of your Religion till you come to them again? or do you carry on a Design of Religion throughout your whole Course? Have you only a Lift of Religion at the Outside of the Piece? or is the Woof of Religion woven into the whole Cloth? into the Heart Heart and Life? into your Discourse, and Trades, and Tables? Do you first seek the Kingdom of God and the Righteousness thereof? Is it the chief Care of your Lives that God be served and your Souls be saved? and is this the one Thing necessary with you, that you chiefly mind, and are most solicitous about? Do your very Hearts say, with David, One Thing have I desired of the Lord; that I will seek after, &c.

Q. IV. When others are for the Wages of Religion, are you for the Work? Can you say, with David, I have chosen thy Precepts? Do your Hearts come off freely in this Choice? Had you rather be holy than otherwise, if it were at your Choice? Had you rather be God's Servants, and live at his Command, than at your own Lusts? Do you count the Laws of Christ your Heritage, or rather do you count them your Bondage? Do ye choose not only the Wages of Righteousness, but the Ways of Righteousness? Are God's Commandments your Delight? and are the sweetest Hours of your Lives the Hours you spend with him? Do ye ever enjoy yourselves so much as when you most enjoy God? Is his Service the greatest Comfort? and is it Meat and Drink to you to do his Will, unless when you are not yourselves in the Time of Temptation or Deception? Do you make Use of holy Duties only as Men do of Physic, when they are ill at Ease, when Conscience lathes, and Afflictions sting, as it were to conjure down the frightful Furies, or to pacify God, that he may not hurt you? or else do you use them as your daily Bread, and the very Staff of your Life and Means of your Comforts?

Q. V. When others are for the cheap and easy Religion, are you for Self-denial? When others are for the Religion that will serve them best, are you for that which will serve God best? When others are all upon the sparing Hand, and will spare what may be spared, and study how they may best save Charges in going to Heaven, are you of princely Spirits, to resolve not to serve the Lord with that which will cost Nothing? Is your Course of Religion such as doit put your Flesh to it, and cross and curb its Desires? or do you love to give it what it craves, and suffer it to take its own Way? Have you no Enemy you dread so much as Self? Do you pamper and please it, and make Provision for it? or do you pray and watch against it, and grieve for its unhappy Infirmities in your Actions, and had you rather than all the World that this Enemy were under your Feet?

Q. VI. When others are for no more Religion than needs must, are you for the Height of Religion? The Hypocrite (as one well observes) is very inquisitive what is the lowest Pitch a Man may have, and go to Heaven, and upon his Design, if he could find but this, he would look no farther: But the sincere Christian, though satisfied that his State is safe, will rest in no Attainments in Grace, but reaches forward and presses on, if it were possible, to attain to the Resurrection of the dead. He that doth not desire, and design, and endeavour, Perfection, never yet came up to Sincerity. A true Believer desires Holiness for Holiness' Sake, and therefore is set upon perfecting Holiness.

Others desire it only for Heaven's Sake, and therefore are only for so much as will bear their Charges therewith: Others make Use of Holiness only as a Bridge to Heaven, and therefore are for no more than will just serve their Turn. The true Believer hath a holy Nature, and therefore Holiness is his Element and natural Employment; and he must needs desire Holiness in its Height, because every Nature reaches after Perfection.
Perfection in its Kind. The godly desires not Holiness because it is the Way to Heaven; but he loves Heaven the better for the holy Way that leads to it, and for the perfect Holiness which is there.

Q. VII. When others are all for the Salvation of Christ, are you as truly for Sanctification by Christ? Do you take Christ as God offers him, with all his Offices and Benefits, to be both a Prince and a Saviour, to give you Repentance as well as Remission of Sins? Are you desirous of the Dominion of Christ, as well as Deliverance by Christ? Do you close with his Burden as well as his Benefits? Do you count his Laws your Liberty? his Government not your Bondage, but your Privilege? his Service your Freedom? Do you go in Christ's Ways as in Lives or Fetters? or do you run with Enlargement of Heart, Delight, or real Willingness?

Q. VIII. When others do make Self their End, do you set up God above all, as your highest End? The Hypocrite doth the same Duties with the godly, but with different Ends; he eats for himself, he fasts for himself, and prays with no better than Self-ends, and therefore is rejected. Now, it is your great Design, in your whole Course, to glorify God, and enjoy God. Do you count this, your whole Business and Blessedness? Do you make other Business slow to this, other Interest yield to this? Do your Souls breathe after this, above all worldly Good, that Christ may be magnified in you? Do you count your Name and Estate as Loses, and the Delights of Sense but Puddle-water, in Comparison of Christ? If Conscience give a comfortable and clear Answer to these Questions, go in Peace; blessed are you of the Lord; God is your Friend; Heaven is your Heritage; the Promises are your Portion; Christ is yours; all is yours; for he that hath these Things shall never be moved, P/sa. xv.
A necessary Case on 1 Thess. iv. 1.

2. What may and must a Christian be and do, that he may please God?

A. To your pleasing God, Something is necessary as to your Persons or Estates, and Something as to your Performances and Acts.

First. As to your Persons or Estates, it is necessary in general that you be in a State of Reconciliation with God. If you would walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, you must first be Friends with him; for how can two walk together, except they be agreed? Get the Controversy taken up between God and thee, and then thou shalt, with Levi, walk with God in Peace. Labour to get the Breach made up, to have the Enmity slain, to have divine Displeasure removed: Till thy Pardon be obtained, and thy Peace made, Nothing thou canst do will please God; he will be angry with thy Person, and angry with thy Prayers. What a tart Message is that to impatient Sinners, Mal. i. 10! God cannot take Pleasure in their Persons; (I have no Pleasure in you, saith the Lord of Hosts,) nor in any of their Performances (neither will I accept an Offering at your Hand). He professes that his Soul had no Delight in them, and tells them they are unto him as a Vessel wherein there is no Pleasure, Jer. xxii. 28. It is the modest Expression of that Vessel into which Nature empties itself. Come in, then, and touch the golden Scepter; yield to Mercy; kiss the Son; resign to Christ; accept of the Peace tendered to you in the Word of Reconciliation; and then God will be a Friend.

More particularly, that you may be in a State of Reconciliation, and so in a Capacity of pleasing God, you must follow these Directions.

1. Put
1. Put off every Sin. It is your Iniquity that separates between you and your God; this is the Make-bate. If thou would'st have God pleased, turn every Sin out of Doors; pluck it out; cast it from thee: If thou regard Iniquity in thy Heart, God will not hear thee nor regard thee, Ps. lxvi. 18. If thou art of them that have Pleasure in Unrighteousness, the Lord hath no Pleasure in thee; he is not a God that hath Pleasure in Wickedness; Evil shall not dwell with him; the foolish shall not stand in his Sight; he hateth all the Workers of Iniquity. See that thou abandon every Sin that thou knowest: Spare not one Agag, not a right Eye, not an Herodias; for then God will not spare thee: Give the Darling of thy Bosom a Bill of Divorce; say to the Idol, get thee hence. God will not look upon that Man that seems pleasant upon any Sin. The jealous God will not endure to see thee hankering on the Harlot's Lips, embracing any Sin with Delight; he will not bear it, to see thee smile upon any Sin; he holds thee a Traitor to his Crown if thou willingly harbourest his Enemy. Though thou be very diligent in God's Service, and presentest him with Multitudes of Sacrifices and many Prayers, he will be pleased with Nothing, but hide his Face and stop his Ears, while thou keepest thine Iniquities in thy Hands, Isa. i. 16, 17, 18. God will not amicably treat with them that will not put away the Evil of their Doings. O look into thy Hands, thy Heart, and into thy House, into thy Shop, thy Trade, thy Calling, and see if there be any Way of Wickedness that thou 'art found in. Thou canst not have Peace with God, nor he Pleasure in thee, till this be removed; put off, therefore, the old Man, with his Deeds.

2. Put on the Lord Jesus Christ, Rom. xiii. 14. First, The red Robe of his Righteousness for Justification. The Lord will never give thee a good Look,

nor
not a good Word, but in Christ: He is a revenging, a consuming Fire, out of Christ; but, get on his Robes, and he will be well pleased. Enoch had this Testimony, that he pleased God; but Christ had much more, that God was well pleased with Sinners in and for him. Away with these Rags and with these Fig-leaves: How can the righteous Soul of God but abhor you, whilst in the filthy Clothes of your own Righteousness? Dare not to come unto God, but with Christ in your Arms; approach him, not but in the Garments of your elder Brother, lest you carry away the Curse. Joshua's filthy Garments must be put off, and Christ's Raiment put on, else there is no standing before the bright and burning Eyes of infinite Holiness. Put on the Lord Jesus in believing; that is, accept of him in all his Offices, with all his Inconveniences, and deliver up thyself to him, and this will entitle thee to his Merits and Righteousness: Without this, Nothing will avail. If thy Head were Waters, and thine Eyes a Fountain of Tears; if thou shouldst wear thy Tongue to the Root with Praying; if thou shouldst keep an Ocean, and wash thyself in thine own Brine, all could not get out one Spot: Nothing can be accepted while thou art out of Christ, and therefore in the first Place, apply thyself to him: God will accept no Gift but off his Altar.

Truly, The white Robe of his Grace of Sanctification, Rev. vi. 11. Thou, that art in the Flesh, (that is, unrenewed, unsanctified,) canst not please God, Rom. viii. 8. Never think to make up the Matter by a little mending and reforming particular Acts: Man, thy Heart must be renewed; thy State must be clean altered, or God cannot be pleased, Mat. vii. 17, 18. The Tree must be made good, the Fountain must be healed, or else the Stream will be salt, and the Fruit sour. If Christ be once formed in thee, that is, his Image in his Grace, God will love thee. Likeness is the Ground of Love.

Love: Similitude and Suitableness of Nature are the Loadstone of Affection. God cannot but love his own Likeness. Wouldst thou have his Favour? wouldst thou be his Delight? then conform to his Pleasure, study to be like him, purify thyself as he is pure. The righteous Lord loveth Righteousness; he desires Truth in the inward Parts, and takes infinite Complacence in the Graces of his People. These are the Spikenard and Saffron, the Spices, the Bed of Lilies, the sweet Ointments, that Christ is so taken with: These are the Cinnamon and the Tree of Frankincense, the Calamus, the Camphire, the Myrrh and Aloes, the Chains of the Neck, and the precious Pearls, that he is so ravished withal, and doth so superlatively commend, Cant. iv. 9. This is the Raiment of Needlework, and Gold of Ophir, wherein the Queen is presented to her royal Husband, Ps. xlv. 9, 13. Therefore, as the Elect of God, holy and beloved, Col. iii. 12, 13. put ye on Bowels of Mercy, Kindness. Put off all these, Anger, Wrath, Malice, filthy Communication; and put ye on the new Man, Col. iii. 8, 10. Particularly let me commend to you some special Graces, which God doth manifest himself to be wonderfully pleased withal: As ever you would please God, get on these:

I. Be clothed with Humility, 1 Pet. v. 5. This is a Garment which must be put on, or else you cannot be accepted or saved, Matt. xviii. 3. Here is the Dress you must come to God in: He must be served in Humility of Mind, Acts xx. 19. You must humble yourselves to walk with him, Micah vi. 8. Humility is a plain, yet comely, Garment. This Grace doth eminently honour God, and therefore God doth put a peculiar Honour upon, and manifest a most special Delight in, this. Of all the Men in the World, this is the Man that God will look unto; even he that is poor and of a contrite Spirit, that trembles at his Word, Isa. lxvi. 2. Though
Though he be a high and lofty one, that inhabiteth Eternity, whose Name is Holy, (from whence the trembling Soul is ready to conclude that surely such a fearful Majesty cannot but despise him, such a Sin-hating Purity cannot but abhor him,) yet he will lay (Isa. lvi. 15.) aside his Majesty, and bear with Man's Impurity, and condescend to most familiar and constant Communion and Cohabitation with his poor Dust, when contrite at his Feet, and prostrate in Humility. 'If thou wouldst be accepted of God, come, as Benhadad's Servants to the King of Israel, with a Rope about thy Neck, and Ashes on thy Head,' 1 Kings xx. 32. Think meanly of thyself, and God will honour thee, 1 Sam. iii. 30. Put thyself in the lowest Room, and God will set thee higher; be little in thine own eyes, and thou shalt be high in his. 'A proud Heart and a proud Look are, with God, the first-born of Abomination.' As ever thou wouldst have God well pleased with thee, be thoroughly displeased with thyself: If thou dost thoroughly loathe thyself, God will love thee; if thou abhorrest thyself, God will delight in thee. Be angry with thyself, and the Almighty will turn away his Anger from thee; condemn thyself, and God will acquit thee. In no wise extenuate thy Sins, nor justify thyself. Think the worst of thyself, and be willing that others should think meanly of thee; and heartily love them that slight thee. This is the Frame with which God is well pleased: Pass Sentence on thyself, and God will absolve thee; set thyself at his Footstool, and he will lift thee up into the Throne.

II. Labour for Sincerity. This is not a distinct Grace from the Rest; yet, for the Doctrine's Sake, I speak to it distinctly. Uprightness is the great Thing that God seeks after and covenants for; Gen. xvii. 1. It renders all our Persons and Performances acceptable.)
before God, Prov. xv. 8. Such as are upright in the Way are God's Delight, Prov. xi. 20. To these are all the Promises of Peace, Salvation, Pardon, Preservation, and Blessedness, Prov. xxviii. 10. In a Word, there is no good Thing God will withhold from them that walk uprightly, Ps. lxxxiv. 11. This was Noah's Praise, that he was upright in his Generation; this was that which set off Job at such a Rate, that God doth so extol him for, and as it were were made his Boast of him, the singular Sincerity and Integrity of his Heart. Study to be upright: See that the main Bent of thy Heart be to please God and honour him; that God's Interest be uppermost with you; that he have the chief Share in you; and that the Eye of the Soul be principally co him; for in this Sincerity doth consist, as to your main State. Let your great Care be your Hearts; here is a Christian's great Work. The Lord feeth not as Man seeth; for Man looks on the outward Appearance, but the Lord looks on the Heart; see therefore that you look to it. Let thy Eye be chiefly where God's Eye is; he minds not so much what thou dost, as with what Heart: Go then and do likewise; yet be not satisfied in this, that you are upright as to your Estates, but labour to approve yourselves in Uprightness to God in your particular Actions. Do common as well as spiritual Actions with holy Ends; much of your Lives is lost for Want hereof. So much as is done for God, of his Grace he counts himself our Debtor for; but what is done for no higher End than Self is lost from our Account.

III. Put on a Spirit of Zeal and Activity. How wonderfully is God pleased with Phinehas's Zeal! Num. xxv. 11, 12, 13. what a great Approbation doth he manifest of him! what Attention doth he give to him! He is so greatly pleased with the zealous Appearance of him, that he turns away his Displeasure.
from the whole Congregation of Israel, and overlooks their crimson Provocation against him. On the contrary, there is Nothing that God is more displeased with than Remissness and Lifelessness, and Indifference in Religion. The lukewarm Water is not a greater Offence to the Stomach than the lukewarm Professor is to God; and therefore he will spew such a one out of his Mouth, Rev. iii. 16.
Christians, where is your Zeal for the Lord of Heis?
Christ's redeemed must be zealous of good Works.
Tit. ii. 14. Not faithful in Business, but servant in Spirit, serving the Lord, Rom. xii. 11. Acts xxvi.
6. 7.instantly, Night and Day, for the Hope of the Promise. Do not only that which is right in the Sight of the Lord, but do it with all your Heart: The Lord loveth a willing Servant: Bestir yourselves for the Lord. Be ye Followers of Christ, who went up and down doing Good. Every Christian should be a common Blessing; a public Good:
This is to be the Children of your Father which is in Heaven, who is good unto all, and his tender Mercies are over all his Works; and be sure that the Father doth best love that Child that is most like him. A private narrow Spirit is a low and a bate Spirit, unworthy of a Christian. A catholic communicative Spirit is full of great Desires and great Designs; a large Heart set upon doing Good, whose Hire, though ever hottest within, will be breaking forth of his Breast, and provoking others; whole Love will not be confined to a Party, but gladly and thankfully owneth Christ wherever he sees him:
This catholic Spirit, I say, is the Glory of Religion, the Church's Blessing, and God's Delight.

IV. Lively Faith, Heb. x. 38. This is a precious
Grace in God's Account, 2 Pet. i. 1. 1 Pet. i. 7.
It giveth Glory to God, and therefore God taketh.
no small Pleasure in it. By Faith Enoch obtained that Testimony, that he pleased God, *Hob. xi. 5, 39. Matt. viii. 10, 11. If you would walk so as to please God, you must walk by Faith: Christians must look to the Things unseen; they must not live at the common Rate: Christ must be their Life and Breath, their Prayer and their Promises, their daily Bread. By Faith the Elders obtained that good Report. It was Faith that Christ was so greatly taken with in the Centurion, which made him to commend him for a Non-such. This was that which won such a singular Praise and Approbation from our Saviour to the Woman of Canaan, even her victorious Faith, *Matt. xv. 28. Thou hast taken away my Heart, my Sister, my Spouse; thou hast taken my Heart with one of thine Eyes. Cant. iv. 9. that is, with thy Faith. Live in the Power of Faith, and thou wilt please him to the Heart; give Glory to him by believing. Let the Life thou livest in the Flesh be by Faith of the Son of God: Faith, as one well says, is the Navel of Morality.

Live by Faith in Prosperity: Though thou hast the World about thee, let it not be above thee; keep it at thy Feet; use it as thy Servant; be much in the Views of Glory and Contemplations of Eternity; buy as though thou possessedst not; rejoice as though thou rejoicedst not; love as though thou lovedst not; use this World as not abusing it. It is but a Fashion, not a Substance, and that which is passing away, *Con. vii. 30, 31. Use it therefore with mortified Affections, and prove the Sincerity of your Faith by the Victory over your inordinate Content and Delight in, and Desires after, and Cares for, the Things of this World, *John v. 5.

Live by Faith in Adversity; weep as though you wept not, enduring the Cross, and despising the Shame.
Shame, looking unto Jesus, Heb. xii. 2. and xiii. 26. counting Christ's Reproaches your Riches, his Shame your Glory, Acts v. 41. Compare these light.
Afflictions with the Weight of Glory, 2 Cor. iv. 17.
Ply your Hearts with the Promises; count, if you can, the Riches that are laid up in them; roll yourselves upon the Lord, Ps. xxxvii. 5. and know that your heavenly Father hath no greater Delight
than to see his Children trust him with Confidence;
when all visible Helps are out of Sight, and he seems to be their Enemy, Job xiii. 15.

V. Put on the Ornament of a meek and quiet Spirit;
this is in the Sight of God of great Price. Study to be
(Pet. iii. 4.) like your Father; slow to Anger, ready to forgive, Ps. cxxx. 4. 8. forgetting Injuries, loving Enemies, requiting ill Will with Kindness, ill Words with Courtesies, Neglects with Benefits; and,
if any wrong you, do him Kindness the sooner; so shall you bear his Likeness, and be his Delight. And know, if you are of unmortified Passions and unbridled Tongues, that God hath a special Hatred and Displeasure against a froward Heart and a frowward Tongue, Prov. iii. 32. and xi. 20. and viii. 13.
Oh! seek Meekness: How can the holy Dove rest in an angry Heart? Christ is a Lamb of Meekness;
how can he take Pleasure in an unquiet, contentious, Spirit? Verily with the froward he will shew himself froward, Ps. xviii. 26. If you will not forgive others, he will not forgive you. Art thou hard to be pleased, a froward Wife, a froward Master, a crook and wilful Servant? Surely God will not be pleased with thee; he will mete to you as you measure to others, Matt. vii. 2.

VI. Get a Spirit of Self-denial. God is then pleased best when Self is displeased most. When we can be content to be empty, content to be abased, that God may be honoured, and, with the holy Baptist,
Baptist, are willing to be eclipsed by Christ: willing to decrease, that he may increase, counting ourselves no Losers whilst his Interest is a Gainer, John iii. 29, 30. rejoicing that we are made low for Christ's Advancement; this is well-pleasing unto God. How greatly was he pleased with Solomon's self-denying Choice, giving him his asking, and throwing in Riches and Honour into the Bargain! 1 Kings iii. 10, 11, 12. Strange was Abraham's Self-denial: What! to sacrifice, with his own Hand, the whole Hope of his Family, the Heir of Promise, the Child of his Years, a Son, an only Son, when his Life was bound up in the Lad's Life! Was ever Mortal thus put to it? But Abraham shall not be a Loser; God gives him a Testimony from Heaven; blesses him, blesses his Seed, blesses all Nations in him, Gen. xxii. 15, 16, 17, 18. Wonderful was Moses's Self-denial, but more wonderful were his Acceptation and Reward, Heb. xi. 24. None like Moses, Deut. xxxiv. 10. God preferred him in a better Manner than Pharaoh could: He must speak with him Face to Face, as a Man to his Friend; his Word shall be as it were a Law with God; speak for whom he will, they shall be spared, though they seemed to be destined to Destruction: But, speak against him who durst, they shall be sure to bear their Iniquity, Numb. xii. 8. Forget thyself; renounce thine own Wisdom, thine own Worthiness, thine own Will; bridle thy Passions, curb thy Appetite, bite thy Tongue; this do, and thou shalt be greatly accepted, and shalt find that God's Favour will infinitely reward thee for all the murmuring Oppositions and Discontents of thy Flesh, which will be ready to be impatient to have the Reins held so hard.

VII. Maintain a Spirit of Resolution and Constancy in the Ways of God, Heb. x. 38. This was the Renown of the three Worthies, Dan. iii. They feared not the Pierceness Fierceness of Nebuchadnezzar's Rage, nor the Fire of the Furnace; all the World could not make them bow; and how gloriously did God own them, and miraculously evidence his Pleasure in them! Stand your Ground; resolve to live and die by substantial Godliness; cleave to the Lord with full Purpose of Heart; let no Difficulties make you change your Station; then shall you be an Honour and a Pleasure to the God that made you.

Well then, would you know what Frame of Heart is pleasing to God? Why, this humble, sincere, zealous, active, Frame; this believing, meek, self-denying, resolved, Frame: This is the Frame that is well-pleasing in the Sight of God.

Secondly, As to your Performances: More briefly that those may please God, you must heedfully observe these five Things:

1. That they be done by the right Rule, which is God's Word. You must not follow the Imaginations of your own Hearts, Numb. xv. 39. You must not do that which is right in your own Eyes; in all sacred Actions you must have God's Commands to warrant you. You may not offer to God that of which you are not able to say, thou requirest these Things at our Hands, Isai. i. 12. In all civil Actions you must have God's Allowance: Be sure he will never accept that which his Word condemns: Under Pain of God's Displeasure, dare not: you set your Hand to what the Word forbids.

2. That they be done to the right End, which is God's Glory. How damnably did the Pharisees err! how miserably did Jeshu miscarry! and both in Acts for the Matter commanded, for Want of aiming at this End.

3. That they proceed from right Principles. (1.) Faith, without which it is impossible to please God: Prayer will not avail, except it be the Prayer of Faith, Heb. xi. 6. We believe, and therefore we we speak. (2.) Love. If we should give our Goods to the poor, and Bodies to the Fire, and not from Love, it would profit us Nothing. Where the flavish Fear of Hell only, or the Lash of Conscience, or the Love of Man's Praise, carries Men to Duties, where any other carnal Principle is predominant in the Act; it cannot please God. (3.) Fear. We cannot serve God acceptably without Reverence and godly Fear (no false Fear). The Lord taketh Pleasure in them that fear him, in them that hope in his Mercy. Observe the happy Mixture where these two are conjoined; that is a true filial Fear. Saith David, I will come to thy House in the Multitude of thy Mercy, (behold his Faith,) and in thy Fear will I worship toward thy holy Temple (there is his Fear with Faith). Faith, without Fear, were bold Presumption: Fear, without Faith, is sinful Despair: Join them together, and God is well pleased.

4. That they be done in a right Manner, preparedly, not rashly and inconsiderately, in the Presence of so dreadful a Majesty: Prudently; for lawful Acts may be spoiled and done unlawfully, without Consideration had to the Offence that may in some Cases attend them; yea, holy Duties, as well as common Actions, may be turned into Sins, by being ill-timed, and for Want of a due attending the present Circumstances: Holily, not rashly, uttering any Thing with our Mouth before God; but behaving ourselves as in his Sight: Heartily, not feignedly, with our Lips going when our Minds are gadding.

5. That they be directed through the right Means, i.e. Jesus Christ, the only Way to the Father. Bring all thy Sacrifices to the High-priest; offer all upon this Altar; else all is lost. Not that it is enough to say, through our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen, at the End; but in every Duty you must come with a lively Dependence on him for Righteousness and Strength, for Assistance and Acceptance.
Acceptance. Remember to do all this in the Name of the Lord Jesus; to come leaning upon his Hand: Without this all your Service will be rejected.

C H A P. II.

A third Case of Conscience, grounded on the Words of our Saviour, John viii. 29.

For I do always those Things that please him.

Q. I. Is any Man able, in this Life, to come up to the Example of Christ, in this, to do always those Things that please God?

Ans. In Regard there is none that doth Good and sinneth not, and God neither can nor will be pleased with Sin, no, not in his own People, but most of all hates it in them, it cannot be that any Man in this Life should fully come up to Christ's Example herein; yet may we come so far towards it, that, not only in our immediate Addresses to God, but in the general Course of our Lives, we may arrive at pleasing God. Thus Enoch and Noah walked with God; i.e. in their general Course they walked so as to please God and approve themselves in his Sight. Thus the meanest Actions, if done by us unto the Lord, as Servants of Christ, have a Promise of Acceptance and Reward.

Q. II. How may we come in our Measures to be Followers of Christ in this, to do always those Things that please God?

Ans. In Order to this, there is Something necessary with Reference, 1. to our Persons, 2. to our Principles, 3. to our Practices. With Reference to our Persons: And here it is necessary, 1. that there be an Alteration-
Alteration of our Natures by renewing Grace; for they that are in the Flesh cannot please God. These wild Vines must needs bring forth four Grapes, Isa. v. 4. the Fruit they bear (how specious and fair soever to the Eye) is evil Fruit, Mat. vii. 19. Where there is not a good Treasure of Grace in the Heart, a Man cannot in his Actions bring forth good Things.

Many enlightened Sinners think, by reading and praying, and forsaking some gross and foul Sin, to pacify God and set all aright. Mistaking Souls! let me undeceive you; you begin at the wrong End: Your first and greatest Care must be to get your Hearts and Natures changed and renewed by the Force of converting Grace; you labour in vain at the Streams, while the Fountain of Corruption in the Heart remains in its Strength; you must not think it is with you as it is with a ruinous House, where the Mending of it here and there a little will make up all again, but the old Building must be quite taken down, and the Foundation-Stone laid anew in a sound Repentance for dead Works and thorough Conversion to God. Till this be done, you must know God hath no Pleasure in you, neither will accept an Offering at your Hand, as he doth from those that are Friends.

2. That there be the Acceptation of your Persons through Faith in Christ Jesus; for in him alone it is that God will be well pleased. So that, without Faith interesting us in him, it is impossible to please God.

For the better understanding both these Particulars, know that there are two Attributes of God to which you must bear a Conformity, or else you cannot please him.

1. The Holiness of God: For he is not a God that hath Pleasure in Iniquity; he heareth not Sinners;
the foolish shall not stand in his Sight: he hateth all the Workers of Iniquity, Psal. v. 3, 4. John ix. 31. God can no more take Pleasure in the unsanctified than we in Swine or Serpents.

2. The Justice of God: For he will by no Means clear the guilty, Exod. xxxiv. 7. Could we have inherent Holiness in us, in our unpardoned State, yet Justice could not but be infinitely offended while Guilt lieth unremoved, as you may see in Christ; for, though he were perfectly holy, yet, being under the Guilt of our Sins imputed to him, the Severity of God's Justice broke out against him.

Now, Man being naturally an Offence both to the Holiness and Justice of God, there must of Necessity pass upon him, in Order to his pleasing God, this twofold Change.

1. The real Change of Sanctification. I call this a real Change, because by this there is a real Change; infusing new Qualities and Dispositions; making him, of proud, humble; of carnal, spiritual and heavenly, &c.

2. The relative Change of Justification. I call this a relative Change, because it is not a real Change in Man's Nature, but in his Condition; making him to stand in a near Relation to the Law, with Reference to which he was before guilty and condemned: But now the Law pronounces the same Man clear and acquitted; and it was not from any Righteousness infused into him, but for the Satisfaction and Payment another laid down for him: Satisfaction there must be, and Righteousness must be tendered, else God cannot be at Peace. We have Nothing to pay. Luke vii. 42. Oh Sinner! away to Christ for it; hide thee in the Clefts of that Rock; run to the Fountain opened for Sin and Uncleanness. Appearing not before God, but in the Robe of Christ's Righteousness. He sends you to Jesus, as he did them Go to my Servant Job; he shall pray for you; him will I accept. Get out of yourselves; flee to Christ; labour to be found in him; else all your Endeavours, in rinsing and washing yourselves, will be to no Effect.

2. With Reference to our Principles. And here it is necessary that some corrupt Principles be unlearned, and some holy Principles be received and retained.

Some corrupt Principles must be unlearned; as, that it is enough if we serve God on the Lord's-day, and we may serve ourselves all the Rest of the Week. Though God hath reserved one Day in seven wholly for his immediate Service, (which is therefore, in a peculiar Sense, called the Lord's-day,) yet we must know that every Day is his, and that he hath not allowed us one Hour or Inch of Time but only for his Service. Indeed he hath Service of more Sorts than one; but we must know that the Business of our ordinary Affairs, if rightly done, is serving the Lord Christ, Col. iii. 24. God is as truly served by you in the Working-day's Labour as the Sabbath-day's Rest, if you do it in a right Manner, and to holy Ends.

There are a Generation whose Religion is but a Sunday's Religion, which they put on and off with their Sundays Clothes, and then they think God is fairly served for the Week, although, God knows, that little they do then is but poorly done neither. Never think God will accept it at thine Hands, when thou livest six Days for the World and thyself for one that thou spendest to him. This shews thee to be under the unmortificd Power of Self-love, and not to be the Lord's; for none of his liveth to himself, Rom. xiv. 7. You must remember that you are but to learn upon the Sabbath how to serve God all the Week; and not to think, when the Lord's-day is ended; his Work is done.

2. That, if God be served Morning and Evening, it is enough.
enough, though we serve ourselves the Rest of the Day. God must be served every Day, and all the Day: You must be serving him not only in your Feasts but at your common Meals, not only on your Knees but in your Callings.

Some think, that, if they keep all religious Duties, they may do what they list at other Times; that, if they be intemperate, lascivious, unrighteous, it is but to make even again with God at Night, and all will be well; like the Whore in the Proverbs, that, having made her Offering, was presently ready for new Wickedness, Prov. vii. 14. as if she had paid off the old Score, and might now run boldly upon a new. These are not the Children of God but of Belial.

Others think, that, though they may not serve the Devil at any Time, yet, giving God his Dues Morning and Evening, they may serve themselves the Rest of the Time. But, in vain do they lay Claim to God, who live more to themselves than him. This will be found horrible Sacrilege, to put off God with but a Tenth. God is to be eyed and served in all that you do; and this is what I drive at; that we may not divide ourselves between God and the World, between his Service and our own Ends, and so put him off with a partial Service; but that we may do all in Obedience to him, and so may be entirely the Lord's; that he may in all Things be glorified by us, and we may not lose our Reward.

2. Some holy Principles must be received and retained: As,

Princ. 1. That the pleasing God is our only Business and our highest Blessedness. First, our only Business? What is it we call, or count, our Business?

1. That is a Man's Business which his Livelihood and Subsistence depend upon. The Lawyer reckons the Law his Business, and the Tradesman counts his Trade.
Trade his Business, because upon these their Livelihood and Subsistence depend. Brethren, our Whole depends upon the pleasing God; do this, and you do all; miss in this, and you mar all. Please him, and you are made for ever; if he be not pleased, you are undone for ever. How careful is the selfish Courtier to please his Prince! how will he crouch and flatter! and, if he can but divine what will gratify and please him, he thinks himself happy! And why, but because all his Dependence is upon his Prince's Favour! Much more do we depend upon the Favour of God: Blessed is the Man whom he chooseth! in his Favour is Life! But, Woe to them that have God against them! they are perfectly miserable: Reprobate Silver shall Men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them. If the Lord do but say to a Man, as he did to Moses, Thou hast found Grace in my Sight, and I know thee by Name, — happy is that Man! But, if he thus say: I have no Pleasure in thee, — you may cover the Face of that Man, as they did Haman's, and carry him away! Miserable must his End be if he continue.

2. That is a Man's Business which he hath his Stock and Talents for. If a Man be entrusted as a Steward or Factor, his Business is to buy in the Commodities that are useful. Beloved, all our Time, Parts, Interests, Food, Raiment, and whatever Mercies, Spiritual or temporal, are the Stock wherewith God has intrusted us, and are all for his own Use and Service. And is it not a sad and fearful Case, that God should have so great a Stock going, as lies in the Hands of all the Sons of Men, and yet have (if I may so speak) so little Profit of it, (I mean so little Glory by it,) that he should sow so much and reap so little? Is it not sad, that Men should have so much in vain? Hast thou Health and Wealth, and dost thou not use them for God? It is all all in vain. Hast thou Understanding, and yet improve it but for contriving thine own Affairs and worldly Designs? thy Reason and Understanding are become vain. Oh! how wilt thou answer, that thou hast had so great a Stock in thy Hands, and made so little Improvement of it? It had been well for some Men if they never had a Foot of Land or an Hour of Ease, if they never had the Understanding of Men, because they have not used their Talents for God, and for the Ends for which they were put into their Hands.

3. That is a Man's Business which his Capacities do call for. It is a Man's Business, if in the Capacity of a Judge, to do Justice; or of a Servant, to do his Master's Will. Brethren, all your Capacities evidence it to be your Business to please God; you are his Friends, you are his Servants; therefore must please him well in all Things, Tit. ii. 9. his Children, and therefore must set yourselves to honour him, Mal. i. 6. his Spouse, and therefore it is your Business to please your Husband, i Cor. vii. 34.

4. That is a Man's Business which he hath a Maintenance from. If a Man be maintained in the Place of a Schoolmaster, it is his Business to teach; if of a Soldier, it is his Business to fight. Beloved, do you not know at whose finding you are? and do you think God keeps so many Servants to be idle, or to mind their own Designs and Pleasure? God hath cut you out every one his Work, every Man his Hands full; so much Work is to be done within-door, and so much without-door; so much towards God, towards your Neighbour, towards your own selves, that you have no Time to be idle in; and you shall dearly reckon for it, if you will eat his Bread, and, will not do his Work. And, as pleasing God is our chiefest Business,

Princ. 2. So it is also our highest Blessedness; for Man's Man's Happiness lies in God's Favour, Ps. iv, 6. Our Happiness is in attaining the End of our Being; and therefore the great Query among the Philosophers was, what was the End and Happiness of Man? Now, the true End of our Being is, that we may please God; for his Pleasure we are and were created, Rev. iv. 11. And for this End also we are new created, that we should yield ourselves unto God, Rom. vi. 13. and, being built up a spiritual House, should offer up to him spiritual Sacrifices, acceptable through Christ, 1 Pet. ii. 5. This is the End of our Redemption, that we should not serve ourselves, but him in Holiness and Righteousness all the Days of our Lives, Luke i. 75. and that we should not henceforth live to ourselves, but to him that died for us, 2 Cor. v. 15. It is the End likewise of our Justification; that, our Consciences being purged, we should acceptably serve the living God. In a Word, it is the End of our Glorification; that, being translated into Heaven, we should perfectly please God, and serve him Night and Day in his Temple, Rev. vii. 15. and xxii. 3. So that the pleasing God is the sole End and Happiness of Man, Eccl. xii. 13. And this will be clear, because we then do promote ourselves most when we please God best; for by this you shall have this twofold Advantage: First, You shall be the Favourite of God. O glorious Promotion! Haman thought himself no little Man when he was on Ahasuerus's right Hand, and yet he was at length but preferred to the Gallows, Est. v. 11. and vii. 10. But what shall be done to the Man whom GOD delights to honour? O blessed is that Man! Woe to him that touches him! It had been better for him that a Mill-stone were hung about his Neck, and he drowned in the Midst of the Sea, than that he should offend such an one! Lu. xvii. 2. God is infinitely careful of his Favourites, the Apple of his Eye is touched when they are injured, Zech. ii. 8. Whosoever Whoever toucheth them shall not be innocent, Psal. cv. 15. God hath a Blessing for those that shew them Kindness; he will render Vengeance upon the ungodly for every hard Speech they utter against them.

O Man! doth not thy Soul say, Happy are the People that are in such a Cafe! Will not thy Condition be most blessed, when God shall be thus infinitely tender of thee, take all the Kindnesses done to thee as done to himself, and all the Injuries done to thee as Affronts to himself? This is the happy Cafe of his Favourites!

Secondly, Every Thing you do shall be found on your Account with God. Brethren, are you Believers, or are you not? do ye believe the Immortality of the Soul, and the Life to come, or do ye not? the Ways of most declare them to be such as do not; to be mere Infidels, though professed Christians. If you think there be an eternal State to come, will it not be your highest Wisdom to provide for it, and lay up what possibly you can, that you may inherit it in the other World? Will not every wise Man, that knows he is shortly to be removed into another Country, be careful to transport all he can, that he may enjoy it at his coming? Beloved, if you do indeed believe that you must be for ever in another World, will it not be your best Way to be doing that, the Fruit whereof you shall enjoy for ever? Were not he a Madman, that (having but a very short Term upon a Living) should yet go building and planting there when he had a Land of Inheritance to build upon? Infinite is the Mischief that comes of Self-seeking and Self-pleasing: You are eternal Losers by it; God will say, You have your Reward. Something you may have in Hand, but the eternal Reward is lost. Brethren, I am ambitious for you that what ye do you should do for ever, that all should meet you in the other other World, and that there you should reap the everlasting Fruit of what you are doing now. A wise Builder will build for ever, and not that which shall last for only a Day or Year: O that you would be wise Builders! Do all for God, and you shall have eternal Advantages. Learn but this Lesson, to set yourselves in all Things to please God, and you will be promoting and advancing yourselves in all that ever you do; always laying up a Treasure in Heaven; still adding to the Heap. And O what Riches will you come to, when, by every Day, and every Hour, and every Action, you are Gainers! for God will not let the least Thing that is done for him (no, not a Cup of cold Water) go without an everlasting Reward,
Mat. x. 42. nor your Labour be in vain, 1 Cor. xv. 58.

Princ. 3. That, when you have done all, if God be not pleased, you have done Nothing. Settle it in your Heart that all is in vain that is not done for God: When you do not please God, you do not profit yourselves:
When Men offer never so richly and freely, if not in such a Manner as is pleasing to God, all is but a vain Oration, Isa. i. 13. If Men will do more than ever God required, and be zealous in Things that God has not commanded, it is but in vain that they worship him, Mat. xv. 9. Beloved, so much Time as you have lived to yourselves, you have lived in vain; because it was quite beside your End. O! it is a Heart-cutting Consideration to a tender Christian to think of this:
that, when his Life is short, and Time so little in all,
yet he must be fain to cut off so much. Why, Man, so many Hours must thou cut off from thy Days, and so many Years from thy Life, as thou hast not lived unto God but to thyself, are lost as to the Ends of Life and Time. If, on Repentance, thou art forgiven, thou art not rewarded for them.
Beloved, you must count that you have lived no longer than you have lived unto God, Phil. i. 2.
To me, to live is Christ. I should account I did not live if I did not live to him; it is the only Employment of my Life to serve him: I should not tell what to do with my Life unless it were to spend it for him.

Christian, thus you must reckon: So much Time as I have lived to Christ, so much have I saved; and so much as I have lived to myself, so much I have lost. It is not the Man, but the Beast, that lives while we live below our Reason, which distinguishes the human Life from that of Brutes. Now, while we live not to God, we live utterly below our Reason itself; which is sufficiently discovered in that God is the Author and End of Man. Doth not Reason dictate, that God should have the Glory of his own Work, and the Vessel should be to the Potter's Use? Doth any plant a Vineyard, or keep a Flock, and not expect the Fruit or Milk? 1 Cor. ix. 7. God hath made thee, O Man, for Himself, Prov. xvi. 4. and hast thou the Face of a Man, and dost not blush at this, to think that God should make and mention thee in vain? If thou hast a Grain of Ingenuity, thou wilt abhor the Thoughts of this, that thou shouldst be in vain. Why, so much as thou art for thyself, thou art for Nothing. It may be thou livest a very busy Life, but thou actest not for God; thou art all this While but busily doing Nothing: Thou mayst sit down in the Evening, and say, I have been all this Day doing Nothing. Thou wilt find a Blank in God's Book for that Day; Nothing on thy Account, or this sad Record, such a Day spent, and Nothing done. God has his Day-book, and takes Notice of all your Carriages, how you rise, and how you go forth to your Labours; how you speak, how you eat, and whether you eye him and his Glory in all, or lock no higher than yourselves. Luke v. 5. We have been toiling all Night, and caught Nothing. May not this be the sad Complaint of many a Man: I have been toiling all my Life, and yet have done done Nothing, because what I did was not done unto the Lord? How would you take it of your Servants, if, coming home in the Evening, you should find every one of them minding their own Business and Pleasure, and your Work left undone? Is it not sad, Sirs, that so many Days and Hours should pass over us, and we be no nearer our End than we were before? Your little Children are busy from Morning till Night, and yet all the While have been doing Nothing; and so are you when you are but seeking your carnal selves, and not serving and pleasing God in what you undertake.

- Princ. 4. That the Favour of all the World can Nothing avail you, if God be not pleased with you and by you. If there were any that could save you from his Wrath, you need not be so solicitous to please him; and, if he be not well pleased, we are all undone. Thou, even thou, art to be feared; and who shall stand when once thou art angry? Psa. lxxvi. 7. Isai. xliii. 13. When Men have slight Thoughts of God's Anger, and the Fear and Dread of him are not on their Hearts, no Wonders if they be not careful to please him; you must be convinced that the Displeasure of God is the most formidable Thing in the World, else you can never learn this great Lesson. Beloved, if you should please Men, and all the World should be on your Side, what would this avail, while God is your Enemy? If all Men should bless you and speak well of you, what would this profit when God should rise up in Judgement against you and condemn you? It is not Man's Bar, but God's, that you must stand at; it is not by Men's Votes you must be cast or acquitted; it will not go by most Voices, but God himself is the Judge, Psa. lxxv. 7. In his Breast it is whether you shall live or die. If a Man were upon Trial for his Life, what would it avail him that all his Fellow-prisoners and the whole Crowd about him were for him, when the whole whole Bench and Jury were against him? If your Lives and Estates were in Question, to whom would you go to make a Friend, the Judge or the People? Sirs, be convinced that, if God be against you, it is as bad as if God and all the World were against you; for all signifies Nothing without him. Oh! whatever you do, study to get in and keep with him. I tell you, the Time is coming when the Breath of Men will signify Nothing; when their Commendation will do you no Good. O Man, though all the World should give thee their Hands, and subscribe thy Certificate, it would signify Nothing in God’s Account or his Court. Many build their Hopes of Heaven upon the good Opinion that others have of them; but I tell thee, Man, though thou couldst carry Letters of Commendation with thee when thou diest, and all the Ministers of the Gospel should give thee their Benedicites, all would be no more than a blank Paper; and he would not save thee a Jot the sooner if he should find thee to have been but a secret Hypocrite, a rotten-hearted Professor, all the While.

Princ. 5. That God would not be pleased with you in any Thing, except you make it your Care to please him well in every Thing. You will be one Day ashamed, except you have Respect to all God’s Commands, Pf. cxix. 6. You have not a good Conscience, except it be your Care in all Things to live honestly, Heb. xiii. 18. If Naaman must be excused in one Thing, to bow in the House of Rimmon, that he might not despise his Master, this is enough to spoil every Thing, 2 Kings v. 18. Some will needs keep God’s Good-will and the World’s too, and so will give both their Turns; they will serve God at Home, and conform to the World abroad; and it must be a great Thing indeed that they will not swallow rather than lose the Good-will of Men, especially great Men. These Men have two Faces and two Tongues; the one for the good, and the other for the bad, Company that they come into. Some held two first Principles; the one the common Foundation of all Good, (which is God,) and the other the Cause of all Evil; and they worshipped both; the good Principle for Love; and the evil for Fear. Just such a Religion are many among us now of: But let them know, whoever they are, that, while they grasp all, they lose all; for God will never own Time-servers nor Men-pleasers for the Servants of Christ, Eph. vi. 6. Gal. i. 10.

3. With Reference to their Practice. And here, as ever you desire to come to that blessed Life of doing always those Things that please God, you must carefully follow these six Rules.

Rule 1. Look round about you to the whole Latitude and Compass of your Duty. Great is the Latitude of Christianity: Thy Commandment is exceeding broad, Ps. cxix. 96. and many Professors scarce look more than one Way; but, while they intenselly mind one Thing, they neglect another. It may be, while they are taken up with the Care of religious Duties, they forget relative Duties; or they are careful of personal Duties, but very remiss in the Duties that they owe to the Souls of their Families; or they complain and mourn over their own Sins, but lay not to Heart others sins. It may be they are more punctual in their more immediate Duties towards God, but are very negligent in their Duties towards Men; or they will spend much Time for their Souls, but little lay to Heart the Care of the Church, the Misery of perishing Souls that are round about them.Possibly, they keep the sabbath strictly, and pray, hear, and fear an Oath, but in the mean Time make little Conscience of breaking their Promises, passing hastily and uncharitable Censures, spending Time vainly, being unprofitable in their Discourse, close-handed.
to godly Uses, sufferings Sin to go unreproved, letting out their Passions at every petty Cross. Many will mind their Duty to them that are within, and in the mean Time are very short in their Duties to them that are without. This is too common a Case. Where is the Christian almost that seriously bethinks himself, What might I do to win Souls? It may be you will go on in the Company of the godly, where you may be edified; but, when do you go to your poor Neighbour, whom you see to live in a sinful State, and tell him of his Danger, and labour to gain him to Christ? Yea, so much is this great Duty neglected and out of Fashion, that I am afraid many question whether it be a Duty or not; as if you might let Sin lie upon the Soul of your Brother, and yet be innocent, Lev. xix. 17. If it were but his Ox or Afs that lay ready to perish, you would make no Question but it were your Duty to help him out of the Ditch: And do you think in Earnest that you owe more to these than you do to his Soul? Is it to Ministers only, or to all Believers, the Scripture belongs? Prov. xi. 30. The Fruit of the righteous is a Tree of Life; and he that winneth Souls is wise. Surely the Lives of too many Christians speak the same Language that Cain spake with his Mouth: Am I my Brother's Keeper? Gen. iv. 9. It is true, God will have you keep every one within the Bounds of your proper Station, so as to take Occasions, yea, to seek Occasions, as you are able, to be doing Good to others. Do you not know how to get within your poor Neighbour? Carry Alms with you; do him a Kindness; oblige him by a courteous and winning Carriage; then shall I expect to see the Kingdom of Christ flourish gloriously, when every one that professeth Godliness shall arise and take Hold of the Skirt of his Neighbour. Oh, see your Neglects in this; do not think it enough to keep your your own Vineyard; let your Friends and Neighbours have no Quiet for you, till you see them setting

in good Earnest to seek after Heaven: Or, if you might bring in but every one his Man to CHRIST,

what a blessed Thing were this! I lose myself in this Argument; but I am content to do so, this Duty being so miserably neglected.

Too many live as if Religion lay all in Praying and Hearing, holy Conference, and the like; forgetting that pure Religion and undefiled is this, to visit the fatherless and Widows in their Afflictions, James i. 27.

The other should be so done, as that this should not be left undone. You make Conscience of being just, and true, and faithful, but do you not forget to win upon others by your Kindnesses and Affableness? as if it were not written in your Bible, Be pitiful, be courteous, having Compassion one of another,

1 Pet. iii. 8. Say not, It is not my Nature: What doeth Grace serve for, but to correct the Evils of your

Temper? Is not ours a Religion of Self-denial? Do not the Rules of Religion enjoin us to be Followers of whatsoever is lovely and of good Report, and may render Religion amiable to the World? Phil. iv. 8.

Rule II. Use a wise Forecast, that every Day may fall in its Time and Order, and every Work may have its Room. It is not enough to do God's Work, but it must be done in his Order. That which in itself is good and necessary may be so ill-timed as to become a Sin. It is a Duty to tell our Brother of his Sin; but, to rip it up in your Passion, or to be retort-

ing upon him when he is christianly admonishing

you, is a Sin. Your worldly Business must not shut out Religion, nor religious Duties take you so as to neglect your Callings; but every Duty must have its Place. But, for the doing of all in God's Order, take these five Directions.

L 4  Direct.
Direct. I. Begin at Home, in provoking to Good. Why must God plead with you, Thou that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? Rom. ii. 21. Be an Example of thine own Rule; else the Hypocrite's Charge will come in against thee, Matt. xxiii. 4. They bind heavy Burdens, but will not touch them with one of their Fingers. Observe God's Order, Deut. vi. 6, 7. These Words which I command thee shall be in thine Heart; that must be our first Care; and then, having got our Lesson well ourselves, we must teach it to others: And thou shalt teach them diligently to thy Children, and talk of them when, &c. At least, if thou hast not already attained it, be sure to learn with the first; and, when thou professest a Duty, intend thyself first, and speak most to thy own Heart.

2. In reproving Evil: Else thou wilt be branded for a Hypocrite, Matt. vii. 5. First cast the Beam out of thine own Eye. We may not think, as many do mistakingly, that we must not reprove another, when we are guilty of the same Sin; but we must in such a Case be sure to cast the first Stone at ourselves. Be soonest angry with thyself, and most severe to thine own Sins rather than others. It is strange to see the great Censorousness of Professors to others, and how tender they are of their own Corruptions, and impatient of Reproof. Reader, fear and avoid this Sin.

Direct. II. Let God be first served. Let God have the first of thy Thoughts, the first of the Day, the first of thy Strength. How heavily is God displeased with the profane Priests, because they will serve themselves first with Sacrifices before him! 1 Sam. ii. 15, 36. It is the holy Counsel that one gives: Hold the Door of thy Heart fast against the World in the Morning, till thy Heart hath been first in Heaven, and seasoned and fortified from thence against the Temptations thou art like to meet with as soon as thou comest below. Indeed all must be done as God's Service, but so as that his immediate Service must be done first. It is the Counsel of several Heathens that all Undertakings should be begun with Prayer. Saith Aratus; let us begin with God: And the very Mahometans begin their Books always, as Men use to do their Wills, In the Name of God.

Direct. III. First cleanse the Inside, Mat. xxiii. 26. Cleanse first that which is within the Cup. Though they are much out that live as if all their Work did lie within Doors, yet remember that it lies chiefly here. It is a most preposterous Course in Religion to begin first with the Outside, Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thine Heart: When once this is done, Reformation will quickly begin in the Life, but not otherwise. Many are careful that all that appears to Men should be beautiful, but their Hearts are neglected: These carry about them the Marks of the Hypocrite, Mat. xxiii. 27, 28. And what will it profit thee, O vain Man, to have all secret from Men, since GOD knows and detects thee, and hath appointed a Day when he will rip open all thy Pack, and anatomize thy Heart before the World? 1 Cor. iv. 5. Eccies. xii. 14. Rom. ii. 16.

Direct. IV. Eye those Duties that are of most Importance, Matt. xxiii. 23. The Hypocrite is very punctual in lesser Matters, but neglects the weightier Things of the Law, Judgement, Mercy, and Faith: He is for a Religion that will cost him but little; and therefore, Words being very cheap, he will be as forward as any mighty Zealot in the Circumstantials of Religion, and marvellously censorious of others that come not up to his Mind, as Men of wide Principles and large Consciences; but in the mean Time he is very negligent of secret Duties, a great Stranger to Self-denial and walking humbly with God: He strains wonderfully at a Ceremony, but (it may be) he can swallow the Gains of Unrighteousness.
righteousness, or the Baits of Repentance, safe enough. It may be, he will decry Superstition, and never wants a Stone to fling at a profane Churchman; but in the mean Time walks loosely in his Family, makes little Conscience in his Dealings, or will take up his Cups as freely as another, so he be not drunk; or, if he will not take a Penny of his Neighbour's Estate, he is most unmerciful to his good Name, and will take up any Report that is going. Brethren, you must make Conscience of the least Sin, and of the least Duty; but it is a fearful Sign when Men are zealous against lesser Sins, and yet connive at greater, as these are, Matt. xxiii. 24.

Direct. V. Take the first Opportunity when God gives a fit Season for any Duty. Let not Satan beguile you by telling you of another or better Time. It may be thou hast a Purpose to reprove thy Brother for his Sin; but how long wilt thou be purposing? Now God gives thee an Opportunity: It may be, thy backward Heart faith, not now, but another Time; and so puts it off till he or thyself be removed, and he be hardened; then, at least, thou art guilty of the Sin that he commits in the mean While, because thou hast not done thy Duty to prevent it. It is in thine Heart to deal with thine unconverted Friend or Neighbour about his spiritual State; but it may be, while thou art delaying, Death comes and snatches him away in his Sins, or takes thee off, and so farewell for ever to any Opportunity of doing the Soul of thy Brother any Good. How often are the Closet-duties hindered, or miserably disturbed, for Want of Care to lay Hold on the first Opportunity? We think another Hour in the Day may do as well; but then one Thing or another unexpectedly falls in, that Nothing is done to Purpose; therefore beware of this Cheat. A Man can scarce peep into the World, but one Briar or Thorn or other will catch him; therefore take take Opportunity by the Foretop. Our Saviour would take his Season for Prayer before Day, when his other Work was pressing, Mark i. 35.

Rule III. Do Nothing in Things sacred without God's Command; Nothing in Things civil without God's Allowance. Offer not with strange Fire. In God's Worship you must see you be well able to answer that Question, Who hath required these Things at your Hands? Here the Command must be observed without adding or diminishing, Deut. xii. 32. yet understanding this with two Cautions.

1. Though Men may not stamp their invented Ceremonies with a moral Signification, nor impose nor use them, though with good Intentions of edifying People by devised Means, Mat. xv. 9. as if Christ had not sufficiently provided for the edifying of his People without their Devices: And, though Nothing may be used as a Part of Worship that God hath not commanded, Col. ii. 23. (for it is enough to make any Thing rejected by the Lord of divine Worship if he shall say, I commanded it not, Spake it not, neither came it into my Mind, Jer. vii. 31. and xix. 5.) yet nevertheless those Things that are merely circumstantial, and not in the general Kind necessary, nor intended as any Part of Means of Worship, may be determined of by human Prudence, according to the general Rules of the Word, which must always be observed, 1 Cor. xiv. 26. 46. And, for Want of Understanding, many have ignorantly condemned Preaching by an Hour-glass, in a high Place, in Churches, by Way of Doctrine and Use, &c. running from one Extreme to another.

2. We may not think that God's Ordinance, remaining for Subtance, may be forsworn, because of some Faults of the Administering, or in the Way of their Administration. The Administering of God's Ordinances belongs not to the People, but to the Minister; and, if he fail in his Duty, by administering them in a Way that is not, or is less, edifying; it is my Grief, but N. B. his Sin. Hop{h}ni and Phineas were corrupt in their Lives, and brought in much Corruption and Rudeness into the Service of God, yet Elkanah and Hannah, with others of the godly, did nevertheless attend God's Worship and Sanctuary, 1 Sam. i. 2.
Much Corruption was crept both into the Doctrine,
Worship, and Lives, of the Jews; yet our Sa-N. B. viour (though he still cried down the Corruption and would not join in it) never prohibited Communion with them in God's Worship, but enjoins it; Matt. v. 24. Luke v. 14. and practises it, both he, and his Parents, and Apostles, Luke ii. 21,

But now, in Things civil, it is sufficient that you have the Allowance of the Word, though not the Command; always provided, that the general Rules be here observed, all to the Glory of God, 1 Cor.
x. 31. and not to abuse our lawful Liberty to the Offence of others, Rom. xiv. 2, 3. Now your Actions being thus justifiable, as to the Matter of them, (without which it is impossible, had you never so good Intentions, to please God,) the Influence and Virtue of holy Ends in them will be effectual to turn all into religious Duties, as a Touch of the Philosopher's Stone turns the baser Metal into Gold.

Rule IV. In every Action let God be uppermost; but in religious Actions let God be all. Let none of your Actions terminate in yourselves; but labour to be able in Sincerity to give this Account of any Thing you set about, that this you do because it is pleasing to God, because it is his Will concerning you. Set a Mark upon this Caution; beware in those Actions wherein Self may bear a Part, lest it should sweep Stakes, and carry all. You may, in your common Actions, have an Eye to your outward Commodity and comfortable Being in the World, but this must not be the.
judiciously resolved.

the chief Thing, much less the all that you design herein; for, by looking no higher than Self, you incur this double Mischief, 1. You lose so much from your own Account. 2. You usurp on the great Prerogative of God. I fear we are not aware of the fearful Evil in Self-seeking; it is no less than jostling God beside the Throne, and setting ourselves in his Stead. It is God's great Prerogative, and the proper Worship that is due to him, as God, that he should be the last End of all the Operations of us his Creatures, and that all our Motions should terminate in him. Now when we eye our own Commodity, and not God, and look to this more than unto God, we arrogate the divine Prerogative to ourselves, and set ourselves above him; which is no less than heinous Idolatry. And if it be such a heinous Sin to bow down to an Image, which is but the giving God's outward Worship to the Creature, how much more to seek and honour ourselves before God! This is to give his inward Worship, which of all is the principal, to the Creature. Oh, how many that pass for good Christians, will be found heinous Idolaters, because they have fought their own carnal Ends more than God and his Glory! and many real Christians, though they mainly design God and his Glory, yet in many particular Actions contract great Guilt, by looking no higher than themselves in what they do. I know you cannot be always thinking of God, yet I would have you never forget what you have been taught; in the Entrance of every solemn Action, to remember God, and make him your End. Lie down in the Name of God every Evening; go forth in his Name every Morning; resolving to undertake all for him. When you enter upon your Callings, sit down at your Meals, make a Journey or a Visit, do it as unto the Lord, with Design to please him therein. This you may come to with Care and Watchfulness.

Again,
Again, in religious Actions let God be all. Here Self (I mean carnal Self) must be shut out; otherwise this dead Fly will spoil the Box of most precious Ointment. It is true, Self will be crowding in; but you must knock it down carefully; otherwise, if this be the predominant Ingredient, all your Duties will be but lost Labour. What more pleasing to God than Prayer? this is Incense before him, Psa. cxli. 2. What more delightful than Alms? this is a Sacrifice acceptable and well-pleasing unto him, Phil. iv. 18. How happy a Testimony had Cornelius! Thy Prayers and thy Alms are come up as a Memorial before God, Acts x. 4. yet, when Self is predominant in those Duties, Prayers, Alms, &c. are all but lost, Matt. vi. 1, 7.

Rule V. When you have done all, be careful to deny all, Luke xvii. 10. and deny not God’s Mercy in enabling and assisting you: This must be with all Thankfulness observed, attributing Nothing to yourselves, and giving God all the Glory. Take the Pattern of holy David, 1 Chron. xxix. 14. But who am I, and what is my People, that we should offer so willingly 2 of thine own have we given thee. And of blessed Paul, 1 Cor. xv. 10. Not I, but the Grace of God which is within me. And of good Nehemiah, who, when he had done most eminent Service for God, cries at last for pardoning Mercy, Neh. xiii. 22. Remember me, O God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the Greatness of thy Mercy.

Rule VI. Do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus, Col. iii. 17. Having carefully set out for God in the Morning, and directed your common Actions to him as your End throughout the Day, doing all in his Sight, and with a Desire to please him therein, bring all to Christ in the Evening, and present all to God by him, confidently expecting God’s Acceptance and Reward for all that you have done; for this he hath promised, be your Actions never so mean, because they were done as his Service, Col. iii. 22, 23, 24. Eph. vi. 6, 7, 8. If you neglect this, you lose all at last: For God will accept of no Sacrifice but from the Priest’s Hands; and therefore you must expect no Acceptance with God, nor any Reward from him, but only through Christ, 1 Pet. ii. 5. John xiv. 6. You must be sure, therefore, not only to make a formal Mention of Christ’s Name, but to build all your Hopes of Success on him alone, and to come to God with an actual and lively Dependence on him.

Thus have I resolved the Case propounded. I will but answer an Objection, and briefly press your Duty by some Motives, and so conclude.

Object. You bind heavy Burdens: What! must we be always in the Traces? surely, this Severity of Religion is more than needs!

Answer. 1. Burden, Man! it is thy Happiness: If Holiness and pleasing God be a Burden, Health is a Burden, Heaven and Happiness are a Burden.

Answer. 2. This is no other Burden than what God himself hath bound upon your Consciences, Rom. ix. 20. What art thou, O Man, that repliest against God? Have I put upon you a devised and unnecessary Strictness? or bound that Burden upon you which I will not touch with one of my Fingers? 1 Cor. ix. 8. Say I this as a Man, or faith not the Law the same also? Prithee whose Word is this, Be thou in the Fear of the Lord all the Day long? Prov. xxiii. 17. Do all to the Glory of God, 1 Cor. x. 31. Exercise thyself unto God, 1 Tim. iv. 7. What have I pressed but what the Saints have practised? Phil. iii. 13, 14. One Thing I do, I press towards the Mark, Ps. xxvii. 4. One Thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after. Ps. cxix. 38. Thy Servant, that is devoted to thy Fear. Gen. v. 22. Enoch walked with God three hundred Years. What is this but what the Scripture hath foretold shall be? They shall shall walk up and down in the Name of the Lord, Zech. x. 12. Then shall be upon the Bells of the Horses, and upon every Pot in Jerusalem, Holiness to the Lord, Zech. xiv. 20, 21. Dispute not against God, but up and be doing: It is an ill sign when the Heart rises against Strictness of the Duty: You utterly mistake in thinking this Life of Strictness to be Bondage. Who have Joy unspeakable and full of Glory; who know the Peace that passeth all Understanding, if not those that thus walk with God?

Now, my Brethren, let me beseech you to be conscientious Practitioners of this great Lesson: Study to do always those Things that are pleasing unto God: Oh, that I knew but how to engage you; that I could but get you to set these Rules before you all the Days of your Lives for your Practice! It is not enough that you give the Hearing, and like the Preacher, or approve the Doctrine. But, Sirs, what will you do? too many of my Hearers are like Eze- kiel's, chap. xxxiii. 32. What say you, Brethren, will you learn with me? O! that I might lead you on to a thorough Acquaintance with the Strictness and Power of Religion, and the holy Frame which will be God's Delight and your Felicity. Brethren, what seek I for? God knows, this is my Ambition, that I may but help you on in the Way of Holiness. I would not that you should be such bad Proficients, as to be always of the lower Form, and keep on merely in a dull and barren Course: My Desire for you is, that you should not be Shrubs, but Cedars of tall Growth, choice Experience, singular Communion, walking with God, shining to the Conviction of the World. Will you let me but prevail with ye in so good a Design? Why should you mourn at last, and say, how have I hated Instruction, and my Heart despised Reproof! I have not obeyed the Voice of my Teachers, nor inclined my Ear to them that instructed me, Prov. v. 11, 12, 13.
That I may invite you to this holy Course, consider:

I. It is very possible; for first, God is very easily pleased; he is not like a sroward Master, that cannot, that will not, be pleased. If you do but make it your Study and Care to please him, and thoroughly set your Heart to it, your willing Mind shall be accepted: and though you should not go through with the Work, God will say, Thou didst well that it was in thy Heart. When the Heart is set to please the Lord, and we do uneignedly put to it, though there be many Failings, God will overlook them all.

Secondly, God hath told you what will please him, and hath cut out your Work to your Hand. You need not say, wherewith shall we come before the Lord? He hath shewn you what is good, and what he requireth of you. You need not say, who shall ascend into Heaven, to bring down the Mind of God from Heaven? no, the Word is nigh you. God hath set before you his Law, as in a Table; on one Side the Things that please, on the other those that displease, him. O that you may be found among those that choose the Things that please him; otherwise, since you know your Master's Will, and do it not, you will be found worthy of many Stripes.

Thirdly, God hath given particular Rules for the doing of all your Work in the Manner that will please him. Had God told you only what must be done, and not how it must be done, you might have been at a Loss; but he hath prescribed the very Manner how every Thing must be done, that you might have full Directions, Rom. xii. 8. 1 Pet. iv. 1. He hath shewn you how you must pray, and hear, and give Alms; how you must carry it in all Circumstances. He hath told you, not only how you must fast, but how you must eat, to wit, with Watchfulness and Tem-
Temperance; not as those who have Nothing to do but to fill their Paunches, but with an Eye to his Glory, as those that are feeding the Servants of Jesus Christ. He hath shewn you not only how you should rest on the Lord’s Day, but how you must follow your Calling on the Rest, viz. with Diligence and Discretion; minding him as your End, as those that herein serve the Lord Christ. He hath told you how you must manage your Dealings; with Equity and Charity, doing the very same to Others that your Conscience tells you ye would have them, in the like Case, do unto you; how you must sleep; even as those that know he encompasseth their Path and their Lying-down; and how you must awake; to wit, so as to be still with him.

Fourthly, God hath given you special Helps; to this End you have the Mind of Christ, 1 Cor. ii. 16. And you have the Spirit of Christ, 1 Cor. ii. 12. Indeed, They that are in the Flesh cannot please God; but you are not in the Flesh, but in the Spirit, Rom. viii. 8, 9. You, that are Believers, have not the Law only in your Bibles, but in your Hearts, Heb. viii. 10.

II. It is very profitable. Glorious Advantages shall you have by this Course. First, this is the most speedy and certain Way to Assurance, for Want of which many of you complain, but henceforth you must complain no more; for, either you will follow this Course, and then you will have it; or you will not, and then cease your hypocritical Complaint, when it is through your own wilful Disobedience that you are without it. When once you are habituated to this Course, and find it to be the Chief of your Care, and that which your very Hearts are set upon above all Things else, to glorify and please God and approve yourselves in his Sight, you cannot want Assurance, unless through your own Ignorance; for, this is the most undoubted Evidence in the World, that you you are the Children of God, whatever unallowed Failings you may be guilty of.

Secondly, Hereby you shall be certain of God's gracious and favourable Presence always with you: See the Text; He that hath sent me is with me, for I do always those Things that please him.

Thirdly, By these Means you shall be always laying up a Treasure in Heaven. Brethren, what are you for? Are you Men for Eternity, or are you for present Things? Is your Design for Glory, Honour, and Immortality? Are you for Riches in the other World, or of Dunghill Spirits, preferring your Part in Paris before your Part in Paradise? If you are for true Riches, here is your Way; by this you shall be daily and hourly increasing the Stock of your own Glory. My Vehemence is only that Fruit may abound to your Account; that all you do may meet you in Heaven; and Christ may shew you your good Works another Day, as the Widows did Dorcas her Garments, Acts x. 39.

C H A P. III.

A fourth Case of Conscience.

What Weariness in and Unwillingness to Duties may stand with Grace, and what not.

For the resolving this, some Distinctions must be premised, and then some Conclusions elicited.

Distinct. This Weariness and Unwillingness must be distinguished: 1. According to the Degrees of it; and so it is either partial and gradual, or else prevalent and plenary. 2. According to the Subject of it; and so this Weariness is either of the Members or else of the Mind. 3. According to the Prevalence of it; and
and so it is either transient and occasional, or settled and habitual. According to the Sense we have of it; and so it is either Matter of Allowance to us, or Matter of Annoyance. 5. According to the Cause of it; and so it is either from a fixed Dislike of Food, or else from an accidental Distemper of the Stomach.

6. According to the Effects of it; for it is either victorious, and makes us give over our Duties, or else abhorred, and repulsed by Grace, the Christian still holding on in the Way of Duty.

Concluf. 1. Where this Weariness is only in the Members (or at least chiefly) but there is still a Willingness of the Mind, this is no Matter of questioning our Estate. When the Mind outgoes and outdoes the Body and the Appetite to Duties, continues in Vigour, though there is a Languishing of the natural Strength and Weariness of the bodily Organs, this is not our Sin, but Affliction. But too commonly the Body hath so much Influence upon the Mind, as causeth a Listlessness and Sluggishness there, and makes it negligent in its Office; yet when this doth proceed from the Failing of the Spirits, tired with bodily Labour and Exercise, and from the Distempers of the Parts, our most pitiful Father considers our Frame, and remembers we are but Dust: and our merciful High-priest, that is not untouched with the Sense of our Infirmities, is ready to frame our Excuse, that the Spirit is willing, but the Flesh is weak.

2. Where our Weariness in and Unwillingness to Duties are only gradual and partial, not plenary and prevalent, it is not sufficient to conclude ourselves graceless. While the Twins are together in the Womb, and two Nations within our Bowels, there will be contrary Inclinations; the Flesh will never say Amen to a good Motion as such, but will be lusting against the Spirit, and will hang back when the Spirit puts forwards, and pull down when the Spirit bends upwards;
Judiciously resolved.

upwards; so that, while Corruption remaineth, there will be always a dissentering Party and continual Conflicts, from whence it is no Wonder there should arise
some Weariness; yet the Spirit is the prevailing Interest, and, though oftentimes foiled, yet hath mostly the Master in the Combat, and carries it against the Fleth, though not without much Resistance and Re-luftance from the rebel Opponent.

3. Where this Weariness is only transient, during the present Temptation or Defection, (which, as soon as the tried Soul can get out of it, returns to its former Temper and Pleasure in holy Duties,) there is only Matter of Humiliation. But, when it is the settled, permanent, and habitual, Frame of the Mind, it is a Matter of questioning our Condition. The holy Pfal-mist, under a Desertion, was even almost persuaded to give over with Religion; but, when he is himself, Nothing is so sweet, Nothing so lovely and desirable,
to him, as the Duties of Holiness. But, for them who have, in their ordinary settled Course and Frame, no Mind to Duties, but are hauled to them by Conscience, or engaged by Company or Custom, or the like, their Case is fearful in that Measure, that Duty is unpleasing, and not loved.

4. Where this Weariness of, and Unwillingness to,
Duties are painful and grievous, as a Sore in the Eye,
or a Sickness in the Heart, the State is good; but,
where it is naturally allowed, and meets with little or no Resistance, it is a black Mark; for this argues there is Nothing but Fleth, and there is no contrary Principle in such a Heart; for, if there were,
the Spirit would at least make Opposition. This was the very Frame of those unfauntified Sinners that counted the Sabbath and Services of God an unprofitable Burden, a very Weariness, a Bondage not to be borne, Mal. i. 13. A gracious Heart, when under such a Distemper as that God's Service seems a Weariness,
Weariness, is even weary of himself: Whilst this is burdensome he is a Burden to himself; he cannot enjoy himself, while in such a Frame wherein he cannot enjoy God; and, if this be the Case, our State is good, though the Frame be bad.

5. Where this Weariness and Unwillingness are not from a rooted Dislike of the Food, but an accidental and preternatural Indisposition of the Stomach, or a being disappointed of God's Presence in Duties, the main State is safe. You know, under a Dilemper, the Appetite may lothe and nauseate the Food that a Man doth love above all other Meats when he is well; and so it is here. Do you, when you are yourselves, relish more Sweetness in God's Service than in your Meats and Drinks? Are no Sweets so delightful to you as Fellowship and Communion with God, when you can attain to them in Duties? Do you come away discontented because you cannot meet with God? Is the Ground why your Countenances fall, and your Hearts are discouraged, because you have with them toiled and spread the Net, and have not caught what you went for, or because you have no Answer or Income from God? If it be thus, it is a Sign your Hearts are set upon God, and that you place the Happiness and Comfort of your Lives in God, and that so your State is safe: otherwise when there is a fixed Antipathy to Duties, and an habitual Dislike to them, and Contrariety to them, the Case is very sad.

6. Where our Weariness and Unwillingness are such as make us to give over our Duties, so as to live in the ordinary Neglect of them, it is a fearful Sign: but where, notwithstanding present Discouragements, we hold on in the Performance of our Duties, and an humble waiting on God for removing our Difficulties till we are brought to a better Frame; this argues well. The Church herself may be greatly deserted, but
But then she gives not over Duties, but seeks after her beloved, and makes diligent Enquiry, and will not be at Rest till she hath found him: But the Hypocrite gives up, and will not wait upon the Lord any longer. Not but that a deserted Soul may, under the Violence of Temptations, omit Duties for a Time; but his Condition this while is most painful, restless, and grievous, to him, and he quickly returns again, and never comes to live quiet in the ordinary Omission of known Duties.

Concl. 7. When our Weariness and Unwillingness are such as make us fall out with the Service of Christ, and willing to ease ourselves of his Yoke and throw off his Burden, this is a bad Sign; but, when we fall out with ourselves, and justify and approve Christ’s Ways and Service, it is well. Thus it was with Paul; he doth not quarrel with the Law as too strict and severe, nor think of breaking off his Bands and taking his Liberty; but he pleads for the Law, and greatly approves it and commends it, and condemns the Backwardness of his own Nature, Rom. vii. 12, 15. When Men are more willing to be rid of Christ’s Burden than of the Distemper that makes it grievous, and cast about for Ease, by widening their Bands, and not by bringing their Minds to them, it is a woful Discovery of an unsound Heart. And thus much for this Case.
Awakening Questions propounded to the unconverted, And Counsels to the converted.

THAT I may reach every Man's Case, I shall speak Something to the unconverted, and Something to the converted.

For the unconverted there are six Questions, which I would advise them to put to their Souls.

Q. I. What State did my Soul come into the World in? Was it not in the State of Death? Ephes. ii. 1. a State of Wrath? ver. 3. Sirs, awake and bethink yourselves where you are, and whither you are going. While thou art in thy natural, unconverted, unbelieving, State, all your Sins are unpardoned, and the Wrath of God abideth on you, Acts iii. 19.

Suppose you saw a poor Creature hanging, over a burning fiery Furnace, by Nothing but a twined Thread like to break every Moment, would not your Hearts ake for such a one? Sirs, it is your very Case: You hang over the infernal Burnings by Nothing but the small Thread of Life, which you know not but it may crack the next Moment, and then where are you? Is this a Case for you to go on contentedly and merrily in?

Q. II. What Condition is my Soul now in? Am I changed and renewed by Conversion, or am I not? Speak, Conscience; hath this Man, this Woman, been thoroughly and savingly changed, both in Heart and Life? Where are your Evidences? Can you shew the Marks.
Marks of the Lord Jesus upon your Souls? Let your Conscience answer: Where was the Place? what were the Means? when was the Time that thy Soul was thoroughly renewed? At least, if you cannot shew the Time, Place, nor Means, can you prove the Thing? Can you say, with him, One Thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, I now see? Sirs, be not deceived: I tell you, whatever you be, and whatever you do, Nothing will avail you to Salvation, except you be new Creatures.

Q. III. What if I should lose my Soul? What fine Work should I make of it then? This is very possible, Matt. xvi. 26. Yea, it is the Case of most; there are but few, few of the Children of Men, that do escape safe to Heaven, Matt. vii. 14. Sirs, beware of your Danger, and fear lest, a Promise being made you of entering into Rest, any of you should at Length come short of it, Heb. iv. 1. Suppose a Man were to travel through some perilous Wood or Wilderness, having but one Jewel in all the World, in which his all was bound up; and should see some stand on one Hand, and some on the other; and hear a Company in this Place, and another in that, crying out, under the Hands of some cruel Robbers; oh, in what Fear would this Traveller go, lest he should lose his Jewel, and be robbed of all at once! Why, thou art the Man; this Traveller is thyself; this Jewel is thy Soul; this Wilderness, or Wood, is this World: Thou art to travel through Swarms of Sins, Legions of Devils, a whole World of Temptations: These are the Robbers that do lie in Wait for thy Soul; and, if all that these can do can keep thee out of Heaven, thou shalt never come there. Oh! what if thy Pride or Worldliness, thy Delays and Triflings in Religion, should at last betray thy Soul into the Robbers Hands! Other Losses may be repaired;
but, thy Soul being once lost, God is lost, Christ is lost; Heaven, all, lost for evermore.

Q. IV. What do I do for my Soul? What! have I a Soul, an immortal Soul, to care for, and look no better after it, nor be saw no more of my Time or Pains upon it, no more of my Thoughts about it! When Augustus, the Emperor, saw the outlandish Women carry Apes, and such Kind of strange Creatures, in the Streets in their Arms, he asked, What! have the Women in these Countries no Children? So it may be said of many among us, that are early and late at their worldly Business, but let the Care of Religion lie by neglected, What! have these Men no Souls? Why, Man, hast thou a Soul, and yet dost so little in thy Closet, so little in thy Family, from Day to Day for it? What meanest thou, O Sleeper? Arise, call upon thy God, that thou perish not. Jonah i. 6. What will become of thy Soul, if thou lookest to it only at this careless Rate?

Q. V. What if God should this Night require thy Soul? Where would Death land thee? Luke xii. 19, 20. There was one that promised himself many merry Days and Years, as it is likely thou dost, but that same Night God called for his Soul. Sirs, are you in your Postures? Are you fit to die? Oh! dare not to live, in such a Case, in that Course in which you are not fit to live.

Q. VI. What a happy Case were I in, if I had but secured my Soul! Oh, if this were but once done, how sweetly mightest thou live! Then thou mightest eat thy Bread and drink thy Wine with a merry Heart, when assured that God accepteth thee and thy Works. Eccles. ix. 7. Then thou mightest lie down in Peace, arise up in Peace, go out and come home
Home in Peace? Then thou mightest look Death in the Face, thou mightest look Dangers in the Face, yea, look Devils in the Face, and never be afraid. Oh, Sirs! if there be any Insurance-office for Souls in all the World, one would think you should be seeking it.

And thus much for the Questions, which, though of Use to all, yet were intended chiefly for unconverted, impenitent, Souls.

COUNSELS and CORDIALS for the Converted.

The Counsels are these.

Coun. I. THAT you put hard to it, to get that by these hazardous Opportunities that may quit all your cost. What Pity is it that you shall adventure much, and yet gain but little! How dismal would it be, if you should at last suffer deeply for conscientious Attendance upon God in such Seasons; and, when you come into Prison, or into Banishment, find that you had not got that by them that would bear you out!

Coun. II. That you value no Mercy barely as it serves in Content to your Flesh, but as it stands in Order to Eternity, and may serve the furthering your Maker's Glory. God hath preserved your Liberties, and has restored mine. But what of all this? Unless we improve our Liberties for Eternity, what are we better than those that are in Prison, if this be all the Advantage we have, a little more Content to the Flesh? The Cipher, put to the Figure, is of great Signification; but, set by itself, it signifies Nothing at all. These Creature-comforts, separated from their Respect to God and Eternity, are of no Value; but, in Order to these Ends, they signify much. We have Ease and Fulfness, when many others are in Pain and Poverty; and we have much the Start of them, if we be wise to improve our Health, in laying in space against a wet Day, and preparing space for Eternity, and serve the Lord with more Diligence, and Cheerfulness, and Gladness of Heart, in the Abundance of all Things: But, if this be all we have by it, that our Bones do lie a little softer, and our Palates are tickled with a little more Delight, what Profit have we by our Health and Estates? If they that are sick or poor do love the Lord as well, and serve the Lord as much, as we, they have the Advantage of us; and better it were for us to be poor and sick, as they are.

Counf. III. Rest not in Probabilities for Heaven, but labour for Certainties. Beloved, Certainty may be had, else the Counsel of God to make our Calling and Election sure is in vain, 2 Pet. i. 10. else the Experience of the Saints were but a Delusion, who tell us they know they are passed from Death to Life, 1 John iii. 14. 2 Cor. v. 1. Job xix. 25, 26. else the Power of Self-reflection were to no Purpose, and the Spirit which is in Man would not know the Things of the Man, 1 Cor. ii. 11. Now, if a Certainty may be had, will you not put in for it, and turn every Stone that you may get it? Sirs, now, if ever, you have Need to push hard to get Assurance. We are at miserable Uncertainties for all outward Enjoyments; we know not how soon we may be called to part with them all. Christians, what do you mean? Will you be content to have Nothing sure? Will you not settle your everlasting Condition, now you are so unsettled as to your outward Condition? What will you do in the Day of Visitation, when Extremity comes in upon you, if you you have no Assurance that God will receive you? It would make one's Heart tremble, to think of being upon such a fearful Temptation as to part with all for Christ, and not to be sure of him neither. O Man, what an Advantage will the Tempter now have upon thee, when he shall suggest, 'Wilt thou be such a Fool as to let go all at once? Thou feest Heaven is not sure, Christ is not sure; therefore keep the World whilst thou haft it, and hold what thou haft sure.' Beloved, what a fearful Slighting of God, and Contempt of Heaven, and Glory, and all the Promises, doth this argue, that you can be content to be at Uncertainties whether they be yours or not! How many of you are there that do not know whether you be going to Heaven or to Hell! And what desperate Carelessness doth this argue, to go on from Week to Week in such a Case! Some Hopes you have that you shall do well; but put me not off with Hopes: Never be satisfied till you are able to say, not only I hope I shall be saved, but I know I am passed from Death to Life: I know that, when the earthly House of this Tabernacle shall be dissolved, I have a Building not made with Hands, &c. 2 Cor. v. 1.

Counf. IV. Be not satisfied with the Truth of Grace, but reach after the Growth. Do not think all is done when you have obtained the Evidence of Grace, but put on hard towards the Increase. That Person that doth not desire and design Perfection never came up to Sincerity. He that desires Grace truly desires it not barely as a Bridge to Heaven, and so to seek no more than will just bear his Charges thither; but he desires it for its own Sake, and therefore desires the Height of it. That Person that desires Grace only for Heaven's Sake, and enquires what is the lowest Measure of Grace that any one may have: have come to Heaven (by which he meaneth but to be saved from Misery) upon this Design, that, if he could but come to that Pitch, he would desire no more; that Person is rotten at the Heart. Christians, the Lord doth expect of you that you should not be Babes and Dwarfs; he looks, now especially, that you should make some Progress. What do you more than heretofore? What! do you feel his Spurs in your Sides, and his Whip at your Backs, yet never mend your Pace in Religion, nor stir one Jet the faster? Let me commend you to Paul's Study. Phil. iii. 12, &c. It argues a base and unworthy Spirit, to content ourselves with little Things in Religion.

Couns. V. Labour that Holiness may become your Nature, and Religion your Business. Then you are come to somewhat indeed in Religion, when the Work of God is become your natural and beloved Employment, your Meat and Drink, your Work and Wages; when your Tongues and Hearts naturally run on God, as others on and of the World. Much of that may be attained by constant Care and Prayer. Brethren, let God's Work be done by you, not by the by, but as your greatest Business: Seek first the Kingdom of God; and so, whatsoever you do, you may be able to give that Account of yourselves that our Saviour did when they enquired of him, That you are about your Father's Business.

Couns. VI. Confine not Religion to your Knees, but carry on an even-spun Thread of Holiness through your whole Course. Brethren, it is the Disgrace of Religion that Christians are so unlike themselves, unless it be when they are in holy Duties. This wounds Religion to the Quick, when it shall be said of Professors, These Men indeed will pray like Angels, but, for aught ought we can see, they are as peevish and touchy as any other Men; and they are as hard in their Deal-ings, and make as little Conscience of their Words as others do. Beloved, do not think Religion lies only, or chiefly, in praying, hearing, or reading; for you must be throughout religious. Sirs, bring forth your Religion out of your Closets into your ordinary Course; let there not be a Life of Holiness on the outside of the Cloth, but let Holiness be woven into the Whole of your Conversations. Herein consist the Excellency and Difficulty of Religion; when you have the Baits of Intemperance before ye, then to hold the Reins hard, and deny your Flesh; when you have Provocation before ye, then to bite in your Passions, and bridle the unruly Member; when you have Dealings with others, then to proceed by that golden Rule of Equity and Charity, to do unto others as (your Consciences tell you) you would have them to do in like Case to you; when you are called upon by your several Relations, then to behave yourselves with that Tenderness and Love, with that Reverence and Obedience, with that Courtesie, Con-decension, and Kindness, that becomes you in your various Capacities. In this, I say, lies the Excellence of Religion.

Coun. VII. Ever walk with your End in your Eye. It is true, according to the usual Similitude, the Traveller thinks not of his Journey’s End every Step, nor needs he, yet there is no Traveller but thinks of it at his setting out. Brethren, there is Nothing hinders but that, with Prayer and Watchfulness, you might come to this, in every solemn Action, to mind God as your chief End. Impose this on yourselves as your daily Rule to walk by, never to lie down but with these Thoughts; ‘Well, I will make Use of my Bed as an Ordinance of God, for my natural Refreshment.’
Counsels

ment, that a Servant of his may be fitted for his Work.' Never to rise up but with these Thoughts, 'I will set forth this Day in the Name of the Lord, and make it my Business this Day throughout to please him.' Never to set about our Callings, but in the Entrance think thus, 'I will set about my Employ.' Never to sit down at your Tables, but thinking, 'I will now eat and drink, not merely to feed my Flesh, but to cherish a Servant of Christ Jesus, that he may have Strength for his Service.' Charge this upon yourselves, and examine in the Evening how you have minded it, and check yourselves wherein you come short: Once learn this, and you are come to Something, and shall have the undoubted Evidence of your Sincerity, and shall know the Inside of that blessed Mystery of walking with God.

Counl. VIII. Be and do more than ordinary in your Families and Closets, now, in the Defects of more public Ordinances.

1. In your Closets. See that your Consciences be able to bear you Witness, that, under God's extraordinary Providences, you do more than ever: In Answer thereto, it may be you prayed twice in the Day; therefore why should you not, at such a Time as this is, make one Visit more than ordinary to Heaven, daily to represent before God the Calamities of his Church? This be sure of, that Somewhat more than heretofore must now be done; else God will look upon himself as intolerably slighted, and upon his Church as most unnaturally neglected, if we do not now put to it. Be more than ever in Self-examination: God expects that, when he is trying us, we should be much in the Trial of ourselves. And here let me put it to your Consciences: How are your Rules for daily Examination looked after? Do you you try yourselves by them from Day to Day? Ah, wretched Negligence! What, have you given your Approbation, and passed your Promise, and yet even in such a Day as this so much forget your Duty? God expects it of you, that, now you see him angry, you should, with more zealous Fear, and tender Circumpection, and holy Watchfulness and Self-denial, walk before him; else you will greatly increase his Indignation, when he sees that you slight his Anger.

2. In your Families. Christians, now the Lord calls aloud upon you to set your Houses in Order! O see what is amiss in them, and strive to call out that which may be a Provocation. Three Things I advise you, with Reference to your Families.

1. That you set up the solemn Exercise of catechising weekly among them. Methinks I would not question but that in every godly Family there is a Care of the Catechism; but, when Governors do only impose it in general upon their Families, and occasionally take an Account, I find but little Progress is made; and therefore I beseech you to make it a solemn, standing, and constant, Exercise, and to expect of your Children and Servants, as due, an Account weekly of what they have learnt of the Principles of Religion, as of any Business of your own. Oh, the incredible Benefit that would speedily come of this, if I could but persuade and prevail with my Hearers in so small a Request as this!

2. That you be often enquiring into their spiritual States. Follow them close, and let them have no Quiet, till you see they seriously mind and seek spiritual Things. Put them upon secret Prayer. Provide Helps for them till they are able to go without them. Shew them often the Necessity of Regeneration and Conversion, and the Nature thereof. Put them in Mind of their fearful Misery and unregenerate Estates.
Counsels

Estate: Ask them often whether they are converted or not; shew them the Danger of delaying in such a Case. Beloved, it is too sadly evident, that, as the Ordinances are now somewhere managed, there is little Conversion-work like to be done. O you Governors of Families! do but your Duty in your several Places, and I doubt not but many Souls will soon be born to Christ, even in such a Day as this.

3. Call them to an Account for their Proficiency, by every Opportunity. If there be but a Sermon or a Chapter read, let them give some Account of it: Thus our Saviour, when the Disciples (his Family) were in private, was asking them whether they did understand and profit by what they heard in public.

Couns. IX. Be not discouraged by the present Difficulties of Religion, but rather rejoice in the Opportunity to shew your Love and Loyalty to your Lord. Do not think God hath dealt hardly with you now your Religion is like to cost you Something, and presently think of shrinking and drawing back to preserve your Safety. If you love the Lord Jesus, you should rejoice and be exceeding glad in the Opportunity to shew it. Brethren, what hath your Religion cost you hitherto? Then for Shame suffer not your shrinking and withdrawing to tell the World you have not Love enough for Christ to engage you to run any Hazard for him. Do you indeed love the Lord? O then now rejoice and be exceeding glad; for never had you such an Opportunity in all your Lives to shew your Love as now, for never were you called to venture so for him and his Service as now you are. Now resolve that, if Religion will make you vile, you will be yet more vile; and let your Zeal and Resolution for God be increased and heightened by the Opportunity.
The Cordials follow, which are, Sacramental Cordials.

Now, dearly-beloved Brethren,

THIS holy Sacrament is appointed as a sealing Ordinance between Christ and you. The Covenants are made; the Terms are agreed to on both Sides; God is willing to be yours to all Intents and Purposes, your Refuge, your Rest, and your Guide. While Christ has it, you shall never want; and what God is to him, that he (in your Order) will be to you.

You again (through Grace) are willing to be his; his in his own Way, and on his own Terms; willing to serve him; willing to be betrothed to him, and to be commanded by him, to use his Remedies, to follow his Counsels, and to acquiesce in him as your Blessedness: Thus all are agreed; the Articles are drawn; the Covenants, both on God's Part and yours, are ready written; and here you may come to put all past Controversy, and mutually to seal and subscribe. O happy and blessed Meeting! Christians, do not forget your Errand; remember where you are, and what you are come for; and know that you are upon the most solemn Transaction that ever passed between the Creator and the Creature. It is God's admirable Condescension that he will be tied to us, and enter into Bonds to us, to bless us and reward us; and, because our Faith is weak, he hath brought brought his Surety with him, the Lord Jesus Christ, who is a Surety on his Part, as well as ours, to undertake for his fulfilling his Promises. And he hath brought the visible Signs and Pledges by which all shall be firmly passed and ratified before your Eyes. This is the New Testament in my Blood, Luke xxii. 20. written in my Blood, ratified in my Blood. Oh, Sirs, this is that which God doth here reach forth unto you with his own Hand this Day! The New Testament in Christ's Blood! Christians, Prepare your Ears, and rouse up your Faith, and now believe and hear some of the blessed Articles of that Covenant that God doth here sign and seal to you. I shall mention only nine, which I advise you to lay next your Hearts, while you have a Day to live, and you shall find the Virtue of these Cordials strong and operative in all Conditions.

Art. I. That he will fulfill to you the Place of all Relations, 2 Cor. vi. 4. I will be a Father to you, you shall be my Sons and Daughters. Whatever Children may expect from a Father, that you may look for from me: I will find ye Meat, be not thoughtful, I know that ye have Need of all these Things, Matt. vi. 32. You shall be clothed out of my Wardrobe, Matt. vi. 30. and wear my Livery; and when you have Need of Correction, I will remember to do it in Mercy, and you shall find, that as a Man chasteneth his Son, so the Lord your God chasteneth you, Deut. viii. 5.

I will be a Husband to you, and will betrothe you to me for ever. You shall not need to fear, your Maker is so: I will give you my choice Love, I will give you my Heart.

I will be a Lord and Sovereign to you: The Lord is your Judge, the Lord is your Lawgiver, the Lord is your King: Fear not the Unrighteousness of Men: I will
I will judge your Cause, I will defend your Rights; you shall not stand or fall at Man's Bar; you shall not be cast at their Votes: Let them curse, I will bless; let them condemn, I will justify: Who shall accuse when I shall acquit? Who shall lay any Thing to your Charge when I do discharge you? When you come upon Trial for your Life, to have your eternal State decided, you shall see your Friend, your Father, on the Bench; and you shall surely stand in Judgement, and be found at the Right-Hand, among the Sheep, and hear the King say, Come, ye blessed!

I will be a Shepherd to you: Fear no Evil, for I am with ye; you shall not want, for I will feed ye; you shall not wander to be lost, for I will restore ye; I will cause ye to lie down in green Pasture, and lead ye beside the still Waters: If my Officers be careless, I will do it myself. As for you, O my Flock, thus faith the Lord God, I will judge between Cattle and Cattle; I will feed my Flock, faith the Lord God, and cause them to lie down; I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and bind up that which is broken, and strengthen that which is sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong, and will feed them with Judgement.

I will be a Physician to you, I will heal your Backslidings, and cure all your Diseases; fear not; never did Soul miscarry that left itself in my Hands, and would but follow my Prescription.

Well, this is one of the Articles that God here sealeth to, that he will be to you in the Place of all Relations: Silence, thou quarrelling Unbelief! methinks I hear thy Whispers, That this is too good to be true; that it were Presumption in us to count upon all this. What! shall they, that must say to Corruption, Thou art my Father, be able to say to the incorruptible God, Thou art my Father? Shall they.
they, that must say to the Worm, thou art my Mother and my Sister, be able to say to the Angels of Light, ye are my Fellow-servants, and, to the King of Glory, thou art my Brother and my Kinsman? Shall Majesty espouse himself to Misery, and the Worms-meat be married to Immortality and Life? How can these Things be?

Nay, but, O Heart of Unbelief, What art thou that replieft against God? Dost thou, under a fly Pretence of Humility, argue with thy Maker, and call Veracity into Doubt? Is not this his Word, his Promise, his Covenant? And is there not his Seal? Why then dost thou doubt, O thou of little Faith?

Art. II. That he will entitle you to all the divine Perfections, Gen. xvii. 7. I will be a God to thee. Mark, God gives away himself, and he gives his Son to you, Isa. xlii. 6. I will give thee for a Covenant of the People. This is the Church's Triumph, Isa. ix. 6. Unto us a Son is given. And he gives his Spirit to you, John xiv. 16. He shall give you another Comforter. And Believers acknowledge the Receipt, 1 Cor. ii. 12. We have received the Spirit which is of God. Thus you see all the Persons of the Godhead are made over to you, and so are all the Perfections of the Godhead; and so the Covenant runs, Gen. xvii. 1. I am the almighty God, or the all-sufficient God; walk before me and be upright; these are the Terms between God and a Believer: Be thou upright before me, and I will be all-sufficient to thee. The All-sufficiency of God is the Comprehension of all his Perfections. Truth without Power, or Power without Wisdom, both without Goodness, would not be All-sufficiency: All-sufficiency takes in all that is in God, (if we may speak of God's most simple Essence according to the shallow Reach of our present Capacity,) yea, it comprehends infinitely more than can be said or thought. Why now, now, this is the Covenant of Grace which God establishes with you this Day, that he will be a God
all-sufficient to you.

Christians, rouse up your Faith, now appropriate and apply the Promises, now believe strongly and steadfastly, and Believing will fill you with Joy unspeakable and full of Glory. I do not wonder if your Faith be put to it, in so great and high a Mystery, to draw nigh to infinite Majesty, and consideringly and without Resistance to say, Thou art mine, and all that thou hast; this is no easy Thing. But thou mayst not dare to doubt it. Canst thou question him who is the Truth? Can the Strength of Israel lie, or in his Word deceive thee? But the Soul is ready to reply, Oh! the Thing is too high and great for me to presume to believe! and is ready, with Peter astonished, to cry out, Depart, Lord, for I am a sinful Man.
But why doth thy Hand tremble, and thy Heart fail thee, and thy Feet (with Peter's, when walking on the Water) begin to sink? What dost thou stick at?
Is it at the Truth of the Promises? No, faith the trembling Soul; but sure so much can never belong to me so sinful; I am afraid it is not mine. Why what faith the Promise? Only be upright. What, though thou hast a hundred Failings, yet thy Heart is upright, the Bent of thy Heart is, mainly, for God and Holly-ness; thou makest Conscience of all Sin, little as well as great, secret as well as open, and dost not deliberately allow thyself in any: Thou dost, in the settled Frame of thy Heart; prefer the pleasing God;
and value his Favour and Fellowship, above all worldly Good, therefore thou art upright; these Marks are infallible. What! dost thou object thy Failings?
Art thou under a Covenant of Works? Do ye think God now stands upon Perfection? The Covenant is plain; God contendeth for Uprightness, and God hath wrought in thee that Condition that he requires Cordials

requires of thee. What can be plainer? Wilt thou suffer the Devil and Unbelief to catch the Bread out of thy Hand, when God tells thee it is thine? Wilt thou be against thyself, and refuse thine own Peace, when God is come to seal thee up to the Day of Redemption? This is that which the Lord here seals to thee, That he will be a God all-sufficient to thee. O believe, and be thankful, and rejoice in thy own Blessedness: O happy, thrice happy, Souls, to whom the living God thus signeth and sealeth, and assigns over all his infinite Perfections, as its everlasting Possession.

Art. III. That he will discharge you from all your Debts, Heb. viii. 10, 12. This is the Covenant; I will be merciful to their Unrighteousness, and their Sins and Iniquities will I remember no more, Isa. i. 18. Though your Sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as Snow. Believeth thou this? Come near, beloved Christian, approach believingly, and here thou shalt see the Lord crossing out all thy Debts, taking away the Hand-writing that is against thee, declaring that he hath received a Ransom, and he is satisfied, contented, and paid. O happy Man, that shalt leave all thy Sins behind thee! Why this is the very Thing the faithful God doth here seal unto thee. Thy Pardon is written in his most sacred Blood, which is here shed for the Remission of Sins; to that thou mayst triumph with the Apostle, Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died.

Art. IV. That he will save you from all your Enemies. Not from the Combat, but from the Conquest; the Victory shall be sure, so far as God is engaged. So the Covenant runs in its first Discovery, That the Seed of the Woman shall break the Serpent's Head, though he should bruise his Heel, Gen. iii. 15. By the Seed of the Woman, Woman, understand not Christ only, but all Believers. By the Serpent, understand not Satan only; but all his Party, the ungodly persecuting World, which are his Children; and all our tyrannous Lufts, which are his Brood, his Works. By his bruising our Heel, understand his molesting and wounding of us, but not mortally. By our breaking his Head, understand the total and final Victory which we shall most certainly obtain over him and his Party at last. Christians, what should we fear? Death! the Covenant here sealed makes over Death as a Legacy to you; and behold, it brings the Head of your conquered Enemy in a Charger. 1 Cor. iii. 22. Death is yours: O blessed and most grateful Present! Satan! the Covenant assures you God will bruise him under your Feet shortly. Rom. xvi. 20. The World! be of good Cheer; Christ hath overcome the World. John xvi. 33. Hell! there is no Condemnation for them that are in Christ Jesus. Rom. viii. 1. Sin! this is indeed to be dreaded, but with a watchful and cautious Fear, not with a fainting, discouraging, Fear: Sin shall not have Dominion over you. Rom. vi. 13, 14.

Christians, here now is Meat for your Faith: What! do all these holy Promises Nothing move you, or carry little Savour or Relish with them? What! shall the Almighty God give it to thee, under his own Hand, that thou art a Freeman, and thou make little Account of it? Shall he give thee thy Protection, and thou lay it by as an useless Paper that signifies little? Oh, Sirs! when your Hearts are ready to faint, because of the Sons of Anak, that be in the Way; when you see the Black-guard gaping upon you, and the King of Terrors levelling at you, and a World armed with Rage against you and full of their Opportunity to betray all to them;
Cordials

them; yet let not this discourage you. These were enough indeed to make a considering Man's Heart to melt and die within him; but that Covenant of Grace yields such ample Relief against all. Oh be ever mindful of the Covenant! Remember what has passed this Day between the living God and your Souls. Watch, O Christian, and stand fast; acquit thee like a Man. The Conquest is sure: Who would not fight with Courage that hath Assurance of the Victory?

Art. V. That he will befriend you in all Conditions.
He will be a fast Friend to you in every Change, and turn all Things to your Good: And, when you are ready to say unbelievingly, with Jacob, All these Things are against me, Gen. xlii. 36. ' If he brings you into the Wilderness, there he will speak comfortably unto you. In the Fire and the Water he will be with you. He will be a Strength to the Poor, a Strength to the Needy in his Distress, a Refuge from the Storm, and a Shadow from the Heat, when the Blast of the terrible One is as a Storm against the Wall.'

Beloved, here the Lord is come to seal all these Promises to you. O go home and bless yourselves in the sweet Security of your State! God hath promised you, that, whatever Condition you be in, you shall have Succour and Support from him, and enjoy his Presence with you, and see his Finger, in all your Troubles, sweetly turning all for the best. Go away and live like Believers; be not afraid of Sufferings, but shew that you believe what God hath promised, that Affliction shall not hurt you. The next Time any Trouble comes upon you, remember what a Promise God hath passed upon you this Day, and wait on him believingly for the happy Issue and Event of every Trial that shall befall you.

Art.
Art. VI. That he will take upon him the Care of all your Concernments. *You must be careful in Nothing. He careth for you. Take no Thought what ye shall eat or drink, neither be of doubtful Mind, but rather seek ye the Kingdom of God, and all these Things shall be added unto you. Come, ye, to this holy Ordinance in any Distress or Trouble. Methinks you should go from it as Hannah, and your Countenance be no more sad: God shall number your Hairs, and take Care that Nothing be lost. He will take Care of your Names, and bring forth your Righteousness as the Light. He will take Care of your Substance, he will give Meat to them that fear him, and be ever mindful of his Covenant: Of your Seed, for he will be a God to them, and will entail the Blessing on them. He commands, that your Widows and fatherless Children should be left on him. He is, by Covenant, to look after their Concerns; you need not be solicitous: He is tender of you when he seems most to neglect you; as Moses's Sister, that was secretly watching behind the Bush, and wishingly looking on, to see what was done to the Child; though, to the Finders, it seemed exposed to Famine and Death in the Flags.

Art. VII. That he will give you, or be himself to you instead of, all Comfort. *He will be a Sun and a Shield, and give Grace and Glory, and no good Thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly,' Ps. lxxxiv. 11. Oh! the Treasure that is in these Words, I am thy Shield and exceeding great Reward! *I will undertake both for thy Protection and Provision: When Evil affails thee, I will be a Shield to thee; when any Good is wanting, I will be a Supply; thou shalt have Children, or I will be better better to thee than ten Children; thou shalt have Riches, or I will be thy Store; thou shalt have Friends, if best for thee, or else I will be thy Comforter in thy Solitude, thy Counsellor in thy Distress; my Secrets, my Ears, and my Doors, shall be-ever open to thee, Mark x. 30. He shall receive a hundred-fold in this Time; though he have not the Things themselves, yet he shall have all these,
and more than all, in me; I will be House, Friend, and Father, to him, all in one. If you should have a hundred Candles burning in the Room, and should put out every one, and open the Window, and let in the Sun, this would be better than the hundred Lights that were put out; so here, though thou shouldst be called on to forsake all, it will be but as letting the Cistern run, and opening the Fountain.

Art. VIII. That he will maintain you all your Days in his Service. 'He will be your Guide even unto a Day to live, God will stand by thee; he will never leave thee, nor forsake thee, Heb. xiii. 5.
'Surely Goodness and Mercy shall follow you all the Days of your Lives, Psal. xxiii. 6. and the Lord will never turn away from you to do you good, Jer. xxxii. 40.' O happy Covenant that the Lord sealeth to you!

Art. IX. That when you come of Age he will give the Kingdom to you. God faith to the Believer here, Thine is the Kingdom; whatever is promised in the Covenant is sealed in the Sacrament, Luke xii. 32. It is your Father's good Pleasure to give you the Kingdom, Luke xxii. 29. I appoint unto you a Kingdom.
Mark the Promises pregnant with a Kingdom; it is no less than a Crown, a Kingdom, that is here delivered a far-
a far Country, to receive to himself a Kingdom, and to return: This is the Business you are come hither for, to receive to yourselves a Kingdom, and so to return. Oh! methinks, you should forget the Ground you go upon as you are going home, to think what you have received here: Methinks, you should go forth, as Haman from the Banquet, joyful and with a glad Heart. Sirs, do you know what you are doing? Why, the Lord doth by these Signs give you the Kingdom, as a Man, by delivering to you a Turf or a Key, gives Possession of a House or Land. Brethren, have you ever read of the Kingdom of Joy, of the Crown of Life; of the Robes of Righteousness, of the Throne of Glory? Why all these God here makes over to you. I tell you, Sirs, these are not big Words, nor cunningly-devised Fables; God Almighty is here come to certify you of the Reality of his Promises: As sure as you now sit on your Seats, you shall shortly sit on your Thrones; as sure as you are now clothed with Flesh, so surely shall you be clothed with Glory. Are you sure you are now on Earth? So surely shall you be shortly in Heaven; the Lord intendeth you but for a very little While in this lower Region, you must dwell above; where Christ is, there must you be also; as sure as you now see a crucified Christ, so surely shall you see a glorified Christ. The Lord Jesus doth anticipate his Sentence here, and calls to you his Guests, Come ye blessed, inherit the Kingdom; take the Writings, hold the Seals, here are the Conveyances of the Kingdom; the Donation is sure and full, unalterable, irrevocable.

Christians, do you believe? If you do, methinks, you should be ravished; methinks, you should be filled with Joy unspeakable, and full of Glory. But do you stagger at the Promise through Unbelief? Do you say say, O it is too much and too great? Why, how can this be? What! too great for God to make good! Thou dar'st not think so. But it is too great for me to count upon. Why but, Man, dost thou not bear upon thee the Mark of the Lord Jesus? Whose Image and Supercription is this? Doth not your very Heart prize Christ above all the World? Haft thou not made a deliberate Choice of him for thy Head and Husband? Haft thou not entered into a solemn Contract with him, to be his for all Times and Conditions, and to love, honour, and obey, him, before all others, to thy Death? And doth not thy Heart stand to all its Choice? Haft thou not taken him, with his Yoke and with his Cross? And dost thou not, in thy Practice, first seek the Kingdom of God and the Righteousness thereof? And haft thou not chosen the Way of the Kingdom? Art thou not in Love with Holiness, and desirest Grace more than Gold? Doest thou not prefer a holy, spiritual, Life, before all the Grandeur of the World, and Pleasure of the Flesh? And all this, not only for a Fit, or Flash, but in the settled Frame and Disposition of thy Heart? Surely thou must wrong God and thyself, if thou denyest it to be thus with thee. Why, these are the Marks of the Lord Jesus upon thee, the sure Marks. Fear not, these cannot deceive thee; they evidence that thou art born of God, that thou art a Son, and so an Heir, and therefore may lay Claim to the Inheritance.

Come, then, beloved Christian, be of good Comfort, why should'st thou doubt? Thou hast the Mark of the Sheep, and therefore thy Portion shall be at the right Hand, and thy Sentence among the Blessed. Well, then, receive this holy Sacrament as the Pledge of all this. Go home, and look over all these blessed Promises, and count them thine. Do not read them (as too often heretofore) as if they did not not concern thee. Remember what God hath here promised under Hand and Seal to thee, and let not all be left behind thee when thou goest hence, but let the Remembrance, the Sweet and Fruit of them, abide upon thee while thou hast a Day to live. Never forget what the Lord hath here spoken to thy Soul: Make more of the Promises than ever in thy Life before; blest thyself in them; remember how the Lord delivered thee the Promises; how he sealed to thee several Articles; how he sprinkled the Blood upon the Book of the Covenant, and gave it thee, and said, This is the New Testament in my Blood: Oh! live henceforth a Life of Joy and Faith, as a Man that is elevated above the World; do not live at the old dull and slothful Rate; carry it as a Believer; and, in a Word, walk as one that doth indeed take all for Truth that the Lord Jesus hath spoken to thee this Day. Let that of the Apostle be a Close to all, 2 Cor. vii. 1. Having, therefore, these Promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all Filthiness, both of Flesh and Spirit, perfecting Holiness in the Fear of God.

FINIS.
On Reading Mr. Joseph Alleine's Book, entitled An Alarm to the Unconverted.

Reader, who'er thou art dost chance to look, Bless God directed thee to such a Book. Be serious when thou readest; 'tis no Droll, But that which aimeth to convert thy Soul. What mad besotted Desperado can Take Prejudice against this holy Man? Who did sincerely Nothing else desire, But to prevent thy leaping in the Fire; And penn'd this Book out of a true Endeavour To keep thee from the Lake that burns for ever!

I do beseech thee read it over: Why Will you be obstinate, and choose to die? Know you what Heaven is? or can ye tell The Torments of those damned Souls in Hell? Now read and pray: O pray that God will give A true Repentance, that your Soul may live. This Book needs no Encomium; for, no Doubt, You will commend it if you read it out. What did I care, if Sinners understood, If each Word were a Tear, or Drop of Blood!
